Great American and Foreign Office

For Securing Patents for Inventions,

Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington

R. H. EDDY,

No. 76 State st. oppo. Kilby st. Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages in applying for Patents superior to those offered by other agencies. He has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and active withdrawal then from him within thirty days after the rejection.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, with his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers and Drawings necessary to the procural of patents in this and foreign countries prepared and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, or infringement of patents. All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Copies of claims of any patent furnished for one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington—Patents secured in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries, through Agencies of the highest respectability. R. H. EDDY.

Solicitor of Patents.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in a saring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure their rights fully and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

FARM LANDS FOR SALE.

The Illinois Central Railroad Company

IS NOW PREPARED TO SELL

OVER TWO MILLION ACRES

OF

FARMING LANDS,

In Tracts of 40 acres and upwards, on long credits and at low rates of interest.

THESE lands were granted by the Government to aid in the construction of the Railroad, and include some of the richest and most fertile Prairies in the State, interspersed here and there with magnificent groves of oak and other timber. The Road extends from Chicago, on the northeast, to Cairo at the south, and from Dunleith, in the north-west extreme of the State, and as all the lands lie within fifteen miles on each side of this Road, ready and cheap means are afforded by the Road for transporting the products of the lands to any of those points and from thence to Eastern and Southern markets. Moreover, the rapid growth of flourishing towns and villages along the line, and the great increase in population by immigration, etc. afford a ready, substantial and growing home demand for farm produce.

The soil is a dark, rich mould, from one to five feet in depth, is gently rolling and peculiarly fitted for grazing cattle and sheep, or the cultivation of wheat, Indian corn, etc.

Economy in cultivating and great productiveness are the well known characteristics of Illinois lands. Trees are not required to be cut down, stump grubbed, or stone picked off, as is generally the case in cultivating new land in the older States. The first crop of Indian corn, planted on the newly broken sod, usually repays the cost of plowing and fencing.

Wheat sown on the newly-turned sod is sure to yield very large profits. A team with a plow and two yoke of oxen will break one and a half to two acres per day. Contracts can be made for breaking, ready for corn or wheat, at from $2 to $2 50 per acre. With judicious management, the land may be plowed and fenced the first, and under a high state of cultivation the second year.

Corn, grain, cattle, etc. will be forwarded at reasonable rates to Chicago, for the Eastern market, and to Cairo for the Southern. The largest yield on the cheap lands of Illinois over the high priced lands in the Eastern and Middle States, is known to be much more than sufficient to pay the difference of transportation to the Eastern market.

Bituminous coal is mined at several points along the Road, and is a cheap and desirable fuel. It can be delivered at several points along the Road at $1.50 to $4 per ton; Wood can be had at the same rates per cord.

Those who think of settling in Iowa or Minnesota, should bear in mind, that lands there of any value, along the water courses and for many miles inland, have been disposed of;—that for those located in the interior, there are no conveniences for transporting the produce to market, the Road not having been introduced there. That to send the produce of these lands, one or two hundred miles by wagon to market, would cost much more than the expense of cultivating them; and hence Government lands thus situated, at $1 25 per acre are not so good investments as the lands of this company at the prices fixed.

The same remark holds good in relation to the lands in Kansas and Nebraska, for although vacant lands may be found nearer the water courses the distance to market is far greater, and every hundred miles the produce of those lands are carried either in wagons or interrupted water communications, increases the expense of transportation, which must be borne by the settlers, in the reduced price of their products; and to that extent precisely are the incomes from their farms, and of course on their investments, annually and every year reduced.

The great fertility of the lands now offered for sale by this company, and their consequent yield over those of the Middle and Eastern States, is much more than sufficient to pay the difference in the cost of transportation, especially in view of the facilities furnished by this Road, and others with which it connects, the operations of which are not interrupted by the low water of summer, or the frosts of winter.

PRICES AND TERMS OF PAYMENT.

The Price will vary from $5 to $25, according to the quality, location, &c. Contracts for Deeds may be made during the year 1856, stipulating the purchase money to be paid in five annual installments; the first to become due in two years from the date of contract, and the others annually thereafter. The last payment will become due at the end of the sixth year from the date of the contract.

Interest will be charged at only 3 per ct. per ann.

As a security to the performance of the contract the first two years' interest must be paid in advance, and it must be understood that at least one-tenth of the land purchased shall yearly be put under cultivation. Twenty per cent. from the credit price will be deducted for cash. The Company's construction bonds will be received as cash.

READY FRAMED FARM BUILDINGS,

Which can be set up in a few days, will be obtained from Responsible Persons.

They will be 12 ft. by 20 ft. divided into one living and three bed rooms, and will cost complete set up on ground chosen anywhere along the road $150 in cash, exclusive of transportation. Other buildings may be contracted for at proportionate rates. The Company will forward all the materials for such buildings over the Road promptly.

Special arrangements with dealers can be made to supply those purchasing the Company's lands with fencing materials, agricultural tools, and an outfit of provisions in any quantity, at the lowest wholesale prices.

It is believed that the price, long credit, and low rate of interest, charged for these lands will enable a man with a few hundred dollars in cash, and ordinary industry, to make himself independent before all the purchase money becomes due. In the mean time, the rapid settlement of the country will probably have increased their value four or five fold. When required an experienced person will accompany applicants, to give information, and aid in selecting lands.

Circulars containing numerous instances of successful farming, signed by respectable and well known farmers living in the neighborhood of the Railroad lands, throughout the State—also the cost of fencing, price of cattle, produce of harvesting, threshing, &c. by contract—or any other information—will be cheerfully given, on application, either personally or by letter, in English, French or German, addressed to

JOHN WILSON,
Land Commissioner of Ill. Central R. R. Co.,
Office up to the 1st of May, 52 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Ill.; after that date in the New Stone Passenger Depot, So. Water st. a6 6m

SLAVERY IN THE SUPREME COURT.—A case has recently come before the Supreme Court, and a decision has been agreed upon by a majority of the judges, it is said, that will be likely to awaken the whole country to the question of slavery. Senator Toombs of Georgia, long ago affirmed what other Southerners claimed, that slavery was a national institution, and that he would call the roll of his slaves under the shadow of Bunker Hill Monument. His words were thought to be be the ravings of a fanatic, for all the decisions of the courts, and the unanimous sentiments of the leading men of the land, had been against him. All had declared that slavery was not natural, but the creature of positive enactments, and lived only by municipal law, and died the moment the bondsman passed from the soil where such laws are operative. Hence the decisions of the Suprme Court, had been in accordance with the spirit of our Massachusetts statute, that the voluntary taking of slaves by the masters, to a free state, gave them freedom; and often times claiming freedom under that decision, it has been granted them. The Washington correspondent of the New York Independent, now writes that a majority of the judges have over-ruled all previous decisions of the court, and declare that the law of a slave State holds a slave in bondage, while in transit, in a free State; and if so slavery is national, and in this republic universal. The case upon which the opinion was rendered, he gives as this:

"A slave in Missouri was taken by his master to Rock Island, in the State of Illinois, and from thence to Council Bluff, in Iowa.—The slave married a slave woman. A child was born to this couple while in Council Bluff, and one also upon the Missouri, while in transit, over the free waters of the country. When back in Missouri, the slaves claimed their freedom."

The writer says that Judges McLean, Nelson and Curtis, all from the free States, dissent, and are engaged in writing out their opinions; while all from the slave States agree; and thus the Supreme Court has become sectional. If this be so, and with all these details it would seem as though there was foundation for the rumor, though it is hardly possible at the same time, not only is there no free soil in the country—not one inch that may not be contaminated by the foot print of a slave, but there is no State sovereignty. There used to be a party that talked of State rights—that the people of a given locality, Massachusetts or Kansas, were in full possession of all the powers God had given them, which they had not ceded to the general government; and it was for them to say whether slavery should exist among them or not; but if this decision has been rendered, Toombs may come to Bunker Hill and march his chattels over its green sward, and it is not in the power of Massachusetts to prevent the desecration of her holy of holies. If a mob assails him, he can command the army of the nation in his defence; and if his slaves refuse to return, he will have the same claim for a national vessel to bear them home, that the master of Anthony Burns had to call in a man-of-war to carry his negro to Virginia.

We say we cannot believe that so monstrous a decision has been made, for it will appear to every man, that a slaveholder can no more keep his slaves in Massachusetts for one day, if he assents to their coming, than Brigham Young can come to Boston with his thirty-six wives, in violation of our local laws, and establish his Sodom in New England.—We have observed however, that any evil is never at rest; feeling its weakness it ever seeks to make itself strong, and generally in every movement becomes weaker. It may be that the madness of slavery and the providence of God have permitted such a decision, that in honest freedom mankind may trample the institution beneath their feet.

Certainly they would not recognize its binding force, courts or no courts, compacts or no compacts, life or death. The negro himself will always have free transit through Massachusetts, provided he won't stop, for nobody wants him here, but will keep straight on to Canada; but the day has gone by for any other transit—the return of fugitives is the verge of forbearance; beyond that may God save the slaveholder or the Supreme Court from attempting to step.—Newburyport Herald.

OPERATIVES.—Mr. Buffinton, of Massachusetts, has made quite an effective speech in opposition to the extension of slavery, and in favor of the admission of Kansas. The correspondent of the N. Y. Evening Post says he also entered upon an eloquent refutation of the slurs cast upon the old Commonwealth, recounting her history, her material wealth, her manufactures, commerce, fisheries, educational institutions, and her philanthropy and enterprise, as evidences of her superiority, and comparing them with the declining prosperity and stagnation of her slave-cursed sisters in the Union. The correspondent adds:

Some passages in Mr. Buffinton's remarks were peculiarly effective, among which may be mentioned his reference to the naval career of the famous 'Old Ironsides, built of Massachusetts oak, launched in Massachusetts waters, and manned by Massachusetts sailors, pouring forth her victorious broadsides.' The fact also that he, as well as speaker Banks, had been a factory operative, added point to his answer to the sneer of a South Carolina member at the 'half starved operatives' of the North. 'I should like to know,' said he, 'where the gentleman will find these half starved operatives? There are none such in my State, and the late election of Speaker in this House has shown that Massachusetts operatives are not to be despised.'

LOTTERY LETTERS.—By the statement of the Dead Letter Office, in Washington, it appears that in two years, there have been received there, from Charleston, Chicago, Cincinnati, and New York, alone, 2090 letters, addressed to ficitious Lottery firms whose operators had absconded, that contained $12,653. How much those operators obtained before they absconded, does not of course appears; but there was this much after they were discovered and fled from justice.

Morning Chronicle.

THURSDAY, MAY 8, 1856.

MASSACHUSETTS AMERICAN COUNCIL.

This body met in Boston, on Tuesday, May 6, and was not unanimous, on anything.

The first blow up was on receiving some votes from Chelsea. Mr. Haskell of Chelsea said, as reported in the Bee:—

He honored the gentleman who appeared there as delegate from No. 4, but was afraid he had been in bad company. One of the delegates sent here from that Council is known as the President of the Know Something Council, and every man of them is known to be a long-heeled Abolitionist.—(Cheers and hisses.) Mr. H. continued his remarks for a moment or two, but the confusion was so great that we could hear only the concluding words, that he would act with no body of men who did not march under the flag, and keep step with the music of the Union.

The real strength of the anti-slavery and pro-slavery parties in the council, appears in the balloting for President.

Whole number of votes, 1st ballot,	282
Necessary for a choice,	142
H. W. Benchley, of Worcester had	131
Moses G. Cobb, of Dorchester,	141
No choice; scattering,	8

They then adopted the plurality rule, and voted for Moses G. Cobb, 153; H. W. Benchley, 116.

The pro-slavery or union vote was 153 out of 282.

Resolutions were offered, repudiating Fillmore & Donelson's nomination.

The introduction of these resolutions acted like a bomb-shell among the members, who arose on all sides to move that they be laid on the table, be indefinitely postponed, and otherwise variously disposed of.

The yeas and nays were demanded by the friends of the resolves, but voted down, 54 to 127.

Amid much noise the resolutions were laid upon the table.

The slavery question was discussed. Mr. Pangborn seized the opportunity to state to the Council that he had received a despatch from the New Hampshire State Council which had just adjourned, saying that there the national nominations had been unanimously rejected. This statement was received with feeble cheers, and hooted at with groans and cries pitched in every cadence known to the human ear.

At this time, a large number of delegates, chiefly from the Western counties, bolted from the Council to hold a separate meeting at the Adams House.

The seceders organized, and adopted a resolution repudiating Fillmore & Donelson.

This was signed by over 50 delegates, and the utmost unanimity prevailing as to its propriety. Two delegates at large were then appointed to represent this branch of the party in the National Council at New York.

N. H. AMERICAN CONVENTION.— On Tuesday, May 6, at Plymouth, the New Hampshire State Council met and elected delegates to the Convention to be held in New York on the 12th of June. The Council passed strong American and anti-Nebraska resolutions; endorsed the action of their delegates in seceding from the Philadelphia Convention of last February; and repudiated the nomination of Fillmore and Donelson unanimously.

☞ South Carolina convention assembled May 5 and 6, and chose delegates to the Cincinnati convention.

Resolutions were adopted sustaining the doctrine of State Rights, re-affirming the resolutions of the Georgia State Convention, and endorsing Mr. Pierce as the first choice of the State.

The Grand Jury at Dover, lately found three indictments against Albert J. Hildreth, and Charles P. Lord, for disposing of books with prize gifts, in violation of the statute prohibiting lotteries, and the court fined them $100.

The above erroneous paragraph is still travelling round in the papers, in New Hampshire, as well as elsewhere, and we cut it now from a very respectable N. H., paper May 1. It was first published several weeks ago;—and was immediately corrected by a paper in Lowell, Mass., which stated, that no fines were imposed, as the cases were never tried;—but that the complainant withdrew and the cases were dropped, on the payment of costs by the accused. We mention it again, chiefly for the purpose of showing how currently an error runs over the county, and how difficult it is to correct it, when once made.

NEW YORK, May 7.—the great trot, between "Lantern" and "Bur" mile beats, best three in five, in harness, for $10,000, came off yesterday over the Union Course, Long Island. Lantern won the first, third and fourth heats. Times—2:35, 2:32 1-2, 2:37.

COLUMBUS, OHIO, May 5.—The extensive car manufactory of Ridgway & Co., was entirely destroyed by fire on Sunday evening, together with all its contents. Loss estimated at $100,000

ERRORS OF TEETOTALISM.

CHAPTER VII.

From the North American Review.

Our reviewer continues his reasoning as follows:

"If we reflect that alcohol is respiratory food, and that the organism needs five times as much respiratory food as plastic food, we may be able to explain the notorious fact of hard drinkers scarcely taking any 'food' (except their drink), and yet, in spite of this absence of 'food,' they manage to live on through many years, performing all their functions, not very vigorously it may be, not as highly reputable citizens, but nevertheless living, and upon a quantity of 'food' so small that life could not be sustained a month on such a quantity, did they not call in the aid of a poison. This paradox it was incumbent on Dr. Carpenter to clear up."

Then the writer quotes Dr. Carpenter's assertion, that mere alcohol does not contribute to the renovation of muscular tissue, and his reasons also for believing that it cannot be converted into nerve tissue. In respect to these points, however, he accuses Dr. Carpenter of "confusion," and objects that he "limits" nutrition to the tissue-forming process.—So, we reply, does every other physiologist; though he says, "no one knows better than Dr. Carpenter the error of such limitation." Having thus a second time groundlessly alleged a perversion of the facts, his audacity culminates in the assertion, that Dr. Carpenter "shifts a question of force to one of tissue." We will only assert, on the contrary, that the reviewer himself has shifted a question of tissue to one of force. "The point in debate is not," he says, "whether alcohol can be converted into nervous tissue (which may or may not be the case), but whether it can be converted into nervous force." Who raises such a question as this? Its palpable absurdity does not admit of its being entertained by a physiologist for a moment. Surely, if such a question can be raised, it was incumbent on the reviewer to answer it in the affirmative, if possible, earlier in the progress of his article. He has, however, so often asserted that alcohol is "force," "motive power," &c., that he now seems to think the reader will accept the implication on his part that alcohol may be "converted into nervous force," as a proof that it is really thus converted.—But the intelligent reader, who has become accustomed to our writer's style of logic, requires no caution in this respect; and we need only to notice the statement in regard to hard drinkers living for years upon nourishment insufficient to sustain them a month without their drink.

If this be asserted of hard drinkers of alcohol merely (with water), it is unqualifiedly untrue. If it were true, however, it would be logically so much the worse for our writer; since if alcohol is "food" and "better than starch and sugar," is a "nourisher of force," and is "converted into nerve force," surely hard drinkers, who consume so much more than others of this multipotent substance, ought to live "vigorously," and as the most reputable citizens." If alcohol is converted into nerve force, such people ought surely to develop the highest functions of the nervous system,—the intellectual and the moral faculties,—in a superior degree; which is generally thought not to be the case with hard drinkers. "This paradox it was incumbent on" our reviewer "to clear up." If what he has already affirmed of alcohol were true, it would be an unpardonable sin to restrict a man who can pay for large potations to a "moderate" use of it. On the contrary, every one, by keeping his blood charged with it to the utmost extent, might elevate his moral and his intellectual nature to that angelic height, "a little lower" than which he was at first created. And for a man to be addicted to such slow food as starch and sugar,—in a word, to eat "pudding,"—would on the other hand, be the seat of abject and perpetual barbarism. But the reviewer proceeds to say also, that alcohol offers itself to oxygen and is burned, and thus produces nerve force; while it at the same time saves nerve tissue. Does not the reviewer know that the mere burning of alcohol in the blood produces heat alone, just as does the combustion of starch and sugar? and that nerve force is developed by nerve tissue alone, and at the expense (wear and tear) of the latter? If not, we tender our regrets. But his enthusiasm comes to its climax further on, in the assertion that alcohol is also "the equivalent of blood." On this pinnacle of absurdity we leave him, with our best wishes for a safe descent.

Now in regard to hard drinkers, there are those who are constantly stupefied with alcohol, and who therefore wear out their tissues very slowly, and require but little nourishment to repair the waste. This class is formed of beer and porter drinkers more especially; such persons requiring less food because malt liquors contain a small amount of nourishment, in the form of albuminous matter.—Liebig, however, says that "as much flour or meal as can lie on the point of a table knife is more nutritious than five measures (about eight or ten quarts) of the best Bavarian beer." Our reviewer remarks upon this quotation, that the proposition is "absurd," that "a pinch of meal has a greater sustaining power than a quart of beer." Liebig, however, says, "We can prove the above statement with mathematical certainty." The reviewer also asserts, that "it is no answer to say that the force is temporary. All force is temporary." Indeed! and so is all life. He afterwards tells us, in like manner, "All excitement is temporary"; but subsequently claims in favor of alcohol that, in small doses, it is only a temporary stimulus." By what term might we appropriately designate this style of subterfuge?

STORE BREAKING.—The store of Wm. H. Ingraham, in the town hall building at Woburn, was entered Friday night and robbed of goods to the amount of from $600 to $800.—About a year since the prudent people of Woburn voted to dispense with their night-watch.

The New York Journal of Commerce calls restoring the anti-slavery passages which the American Tract Society has cut out of its publications, a "destructive operation."

CHICAGO, May 5.—Death of a Poet.—J. H. Percival, the Poet, and State Geologist, died at Hazelgreen, in this State, on Friday last.

DOUGLAS'S LIBERALITY.—Some of the papers have been extolling Senator Douglas for his liberality in donating ten acres of land worth $20,000, to the Baptist church in Chicago. Another version of the matter was, that he had endowed a college with that amount. The Chicago Democrat very quietly pricks the bubble. It says:

"Douglas has about 70 acres of land, as it now stands, worth about $2000 per acre. He offers to give ten acres of it to any person or corporation that shall build upon the same, such a building as he describes, worth at least $100,000. Title to be made on completion of the building. The balance of the land not occupied by the building, to be a public park forever. This would enable him to sell lots for residences about the park, and thereby make the remaining sixty acres worth nearly half a million of dollars, whilst the whole seventy is worth now but $140,000."

Not a very great bid, after all.

John M. Barnard, a distiller of Boston, and late publisher of the Herald, offers a premium of $1000 for the best essay on the subject of Legislative Enactments designed to regulate the Manufacture, Sale, and Use of Intoxicating Liquors, to be accompanied by an Outline of a Law for consideration. The great object to be accomplished, is a law for general adoption, that shall best subserve the cause of Temperance.

To promote temperance, by regulating the use by a law? Where is freedom? Where's moral suasion? Where's Br. Lovejoy? — Where's the glorious liberty for the patient to take a dram as often as his stomach needs a stimulant?

"If you are Coming, Why don't you Come along?"

THAT is the "mot" now-a-days. Every locomotive on every Railroad shrieks it. It is daily rapped out on every Telegraphic Line in the country. The echoing blows of our Ship Carpenters hourly exemplify it. The smith at his anvil hammers it out. The clanking Press with breathless haste, sends the cry home to every family—"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"

It is uttered in an hundred tongues in a hundred lands. It has sounded like a slogan through the political world, and the "Old Fogies" are creeping along among the baggage wagons and the wounded. Thought, that moved at a funeral pace, now rushes on a tremendous charge; and all the old remedies for Liver Complaint have given way for

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along."—Six paces to the front, is the word to everybody and everything that wants to be listened to or looked at. If you have anything to do, do it; if you wish any person to see anything, show it; if you have anything to be cured, CURE IT WITH

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you have a Bottle of Holman's Bitters in your house, you need not suffer from

Biliousness, Weakness at the Stomach, Indigestion, Heartburn, Lowness of Spirits,

Nor any of the diseases incident to the season.

It used to take six men to make a pin; now one boy, a pull, a clip, and two strokes, and that's the way the pins are made. Once it took a Physician, lots of precious time, and quantities of nauseous drugs to cure some simple disease of the Blood.—Now, a quarter expended in

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS

Brings Life and Health, flowing spirits and rosy cheeks.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you are sick and weak, why don't you cure yourself? Here we offer you the article that will do it—there is no mistake about it. Every body knows about HOLMAN'S BITTERS; they have been tried and have "toed the mark straight."

They are a good medicine; they are better than anything else for all Spring Complaints; they are just the best Bitters that can be bought—and that's the best thing we can say about them. "If you are coming, why don't you come along," before they are all gone?

LOCAL.

HIAWATHA.—Mrs. Annie Senter, the brilliant histrionic reader, will read from Longfellow's beautiful Poem, Hiawatha, this evening, at the Temple. She will appear in the costume of Minnehaha—

"Minnehaha, Laughing Water,
Handsomest of all the women
In the land of the Dacotahs,
In the land of handsome women."

Either the subject, or the name of the reader, ought to fill the house to overflowing. We hope to see the Temple crowded.

Mrs. S. read in Lowell on Monday evening, and in Newburyport on Wednesday evening, to large audiences. The Newburyport Herald says that "very few are better fitted by nature and education than this lady, to appear in that character. Our citizens may rest assured that this is no catch-penny affair, but will be an entertainment of the highest merit."

MECHANICS' LYCEUM.—At the quarterly meeting of the Mechanics' Association held last evening, the following resolution was accepted and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of this Association be tendered to the Lyceum Committee for the able and satisfactory manner in which they have carried forward the three past courses of Lectures, and they are hereby requested to make arrangements for a fourth course, provided they can do so without drawing from the funds of this Association.

The following members were elected as a Lyceum Committee for the ensuing year:—James M. Carr, E. M. Brown, Wm. P. Gookin, S. W. Moses, Thomas Norton and Benj. Cheever.

While the family were absent this morning, the house of Mr. Wm. F. Laighton, 26 Gates street, caught fire from the furnace, and the flames getting well under way, when Mrs. Laighton returned. Instead of raising an alarm, she proceeded to apply water to the fire, and soon extinguished it. It is perhaps due to the exertions and presence of mind of this lady that the city is spared a serious conflagration.—Gaz.

THE GIFT CONCERT.—Respecting the comments of a Portsmouth correspondent of Dwight's Journal of Music, upon Mr. Satter's consenting to play at a Gift Concert,—we last week stated that Mr. Satter could speak for himself—which he has done, in the N. Y. Musical Times, as follows:

J. S. Dwight says: "How does the 'unrelenting hostility to humbug' comport with the announcement to play at a lottery Gift Concert in New Hampshire!" These words are the silliest that ever man spoke, and though I never believed much in Dwight's logic, I did not think that he was quite so flat. If Dwight means, that 'humbug' has to do with the concert, let him write to the managers, and tell them to stop the lottery: but that Mr. D. gives me the blame for playing there, is not half as mean as it is ridiculous. I know, that Mr. D. is very amiable toward any one, who subscribes with $2.00 for his paper, and that he never asks the persons, whether they are from Boston or from the Fejee-islands: why should not I play for my friends, who pay me fifty or a hundred dollars for fifty or a hundred minutes entertainment? I am not so aristocratic and so silly, as to believe, that a farmer's dollar is of less worth than even Rothschild's dollar, and the very fact that I had played already three times in the same place in N. H., shows that people like me.—What do I care for the rest?

Three men who were the most intimate and confidential friends of Andrew Jackson—Martin Van Buren, Francis P. Blair, and Churchill C. Cambreling—are now in warm sympathy with the Republican anti-slavery movement.

Quincy, Illinois, the home of William A. Richardson, Douglas's lieutenant, and now the administration candidate for Governor of that State, has just gone Republican in a severely contested municipal election.

Judge Douglas's speech upon the presentation of the Kansas report has been printed in German at New York, and is being franked in vast quantities to all parts of the country.—Truth can also speak German, and she will. Boston Cuvrohicle.

THE WHEAT CROPS.—A gentlemen who rode last week from St. Louis to Cincinnati states that the wheat crop looks well everywhere on the route. Another, who arrived at Rochester, from a western trip, states that in Ohio the crop is exceedingly promising, and unless some disaster occurs, a very large crop is expected and prices must fall. In the Genessee country the prospect is very good, yet we perceive that there is a heavy combination formed at the West for the purpose of raising the present prices. Of course the speculation has the execration of every decent person in the community.—Boston Courier.

Nine years ago a man died of dropsy, and was buried in Middlesex, Vt., and it being desirable to remove the corpse to Pomfret recently, the body was disinterred and found to have become perfect stone, as hard as marble, and not in the least altered from appearance of the man at his death. The corpse weighed 550 pounds. What is more remarkable the body of a girl buried by his side was wholly consumed, only a few of the principal bones remaining.

OX TEAM EXPRESS.—The Mormons calculate to establish an ox team express to carry the California mails, making the trip from Independence, Mo., to San Francisco in twenty days; also, that in a short time they will be able to place coaches on the route and monopolize most of the passenger business between the Atlantic and Pacific coast; and that in six years they will have a Pacific Railroad in operation.

CONGRESS.

TUESDAY, May 6.

SENATE.—The morning hour was chiefly occupied in discussion relative to the proper location of the District of Columbia armory.

The bill making appropriation for the construction of harbor works at Marquette, on Lake Superior, Northern Michigan, was considered.

Senators Cass and Stuart, both of Michigan, defended the bill.

After further debate, in which the propriety of embracing such measures in one bill was advocated, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—The House passed the bill making appropriations for consular and diplomatic expenses.

Mr. Bennett of New York, from the Committee on Public Lands, reported a bill granting alternate sections of land in Iowa to aid the railroads now in process of construction. He said 3,000,000 of acres had been granted to Missouri and Arkansas each. This bill did not require more than half that quantity.

Mr. Stephens of Georgia made an ineffectual effort to offer an amendment, extending the bill, so as to break it down.

Mr. Jones of Tennessee moved to lay it on the table. Lost—45 to 95.

A substitute for the original bill recommended by the Committee on Public Lands, for the same objects, was then adopted, but the morning hour expired before final action.

Some personal explanations, for Buncombe, occupied the time till the adjournment.

NEW YORK, May 6.—Christian Union Anniversary.—The Seventh Anniversary of the American and Foreign Christian Union was held to-day at 10 o'clock, in the Broadway Tabernacle. Rev. Dr. Dewitt occupied the chair. The audience nearly filled the entire building. The Treasurer's report was then read by E. Vernon, General Agent. The receipts of the Treasury for the year were $69,330 56, the expenditures $67,657 11, leaving a balance in the treasury of $1,673 45. The report of the Directors was next read by the Rev. Dr. Fairchild, one of the Secretaries. It gave the whole number of laborers connected with the Society, within the year, as 149, of whom 97 were in the Home, and 52 in the Foreign field, being in the aggregate 11 more than in the year preceeding. Various resolutions were offered, and addresses made by Rev. J.P.Lee, Dr. Sunderland of Washington City, Rev. Dr. Burchard, Rev. Mr. Frelinghuysen, and Rev. Dr. Tyng.

Relief to Sufferers at Cape de Verds.—At a meeting at the office of the Portugese consul in this city, to-day, a subscription was opened and $21,000 were set down for the relief of sufferers at Cape de Verds.

Another meeting of the citizens generally was held at the Astor House, for the same purpose, but nothing definite was done. The Chamber of Commerce have also decided on calling a meeting of our merchants for the purpose of doing something substantial for the relief of the sufferers.

KANSAS TO BE SUBDUED.—The effect of time in re-considering as to enormities is strikingly exemplified in the coolness with which the last intelligence from Kansas has been received. When the Bogus laws of that territory were first announced no one could have believed that President Pierce would dare enforce them, or could do it without producing a bloody revolution. Now there are some who think he will do it without even producing a political revolution. We think not.—Boston Chronicle.

FROM KANSAS.—St Louis, 6th Col. Sumner encamped opposite Lawrence on the 25th, with 120 dragoons.

NOT SO BAD.—The loss by the late fire in Philadelphia was only $700,000, instead of $2,000,000, as first reported; insurance, $388,000.

Seeing the valedictory of Senator Benjamin this morning, where he announces his intention of going into the bondage of the slavery extentionists, reminded me of the pathetic exclamation of Jacob, when he thought his little Benjamin had been sold into slavery:

"And Jacob their father, said unto them, me have ye bereaved of my children, Joseph is not, and Simeon is not, and ye will take Benjamin away."

Is not the similarity remarkable?—N. Y. Eve. Post.

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER OF LOTTERIES.
BALTIMORE, April 18, 1856.

THE undersigned, Commissioner of Lotteries of the State of Maryland, being in receipt daily of letters from various portions of the country, making inquiry as to Lottery Schemes, with which the country is flooded, and which purport to be "decided by the drawings of the Maryland Consolidated Lotteries," takes this method to answer all such letters of inquiry, and inform the public that all Lotteries purporting to be decided by the Maryland Lotteries are great frauds; that certain parties who style themselves Morris & Co., and pretend to be Managers or Sole Agents for the Grand Charter Lotteries at Cleveland, Ohio, are impostors, and said lottery a fraud, having neither legal nor presumptive existence; and that another fictitious firm, styled Morris & Co., Cleveland, Ohio, are also impostors, and all lotteries which they profess to be managers or agents for, are also frauds.

RICHARD FRANCE, of this city, is the Contractor for drawing the Maryland Lotteries. The business is conducted under the firm of R. FRANCE & Co., as Managers, and they have no sole agents, in the city of Baltimore. FARM LANDS FOR SALE.
The Illinois Central Railroad Company
IS NOW PREPARED TO SELL
OF
FARMING LANDS,
In Tracts of 40 acres and upwards, on long credits and at low rates of interest.

THESE lands were granted by the Government to aid in the construction of this Railroad, and include some of the richest and most fertile Prairies in the State, interspersed here and there with magnificent groves of oak and other timber. The Road extends from Chicago, on the northeast, to Cairo at the south, and from thence to Galena and Dunleith, in the north-west extreme of the State, and as all the lands lie within fifteen miles on each side of this Road, ready and cheap means are afforded by it for transporting the products of the lands to any of those points and from thence to Eastern and Southern markets. Moreover, the rapid growth of flourishing towns and villages along the line, and the great increase in population by immigration, etc. afford a substantial and growing home demand for their produce.

The soil is a dark, rich mould, from one to five feet in depth, is gently rolling and peculiarly fitted for grazing cattle and sheep, or the cultivation of wheat, Indian corn, etc.

Economy in cultivating and great productiveness are the well known characteristics of Illinois lands. Trees are not required to be cut down, stumps grubbed, or stone picked off, as is generally the case in cultivating new land in the older States. The first crop, of Indian corn, planted on the newly broken sod, usually repays the cost of plowing and fencing.

Wheat sown on the newly-turned sod is sure to yield very large profits. A man with a plow and two yoke of oxen will break one and a half to two acres per day. Contracts can be made for breaking, ready for corn or wheat, at from $2 to 2.50 per acre. By judicious management, the land may be plowed and fenced the first, and under a high state of cultivation the second year.

Corn, grain, cattle, etc. will be forwarded at reasonable rates to Chicago, for the Eastern market, and to Cairo for the Southern. The larger yield on the cheap lands of Illinois offers the high priced lands in the Eastern and Middle States, is known to be much more than sufficient to pay the difference of transportation to the Eastern market.

Bituminous coal is mined at several points along the Road, and is a cheap and desirable fuel. It can be delivered at several points along the Road at $1.50 to $4 per ton; Wood can be had at the same rates per cord.

Those who think of settling in Iowa or Minnesota, should bear in mind, that lands there of may value, along the water courses and for many miles inland, have been disposed of;—that for those located in the interior, there are no conveniences for transporting the produce to market, and that no railroad has been introduced there. That to send the produce of these lands, one or two hundred miles by wagon to market, would cost much more than the expense of cultivating them; and hence Government lands that situated, at $1.25 per acre are more valuable than those, at $5 per acre the distance to market is far greater, and every hundred miles the produce of those lands are carried either in wagons or interrupted water communications, increases the expense of transportation, which must be borne by the settlers, in the reduced price of their products; and to that extent precisely are the incomes from their farms, and of course on their investments, annually and every year reduced.

The great fertility of the lands now offered for sale by this company, and their consequent yield over those of the Middle and Eastern States, is much more than sufficient to pay the difference in the cost of transportation, especially in view of the facilities furnished by this Road, and others with which it connects, the operations of which are not interrupted by the low water of summer, or the frosts of winter.

PRICES AND TERMS OF PAYMENT.

The Price will vary from $5 to $25, according to the quality, location, &c. Contracts for Deeds may be made during the year 1856, stipulating the purchase money to be paid in five annual installments; the first to become due in two years from the date of contract, and the others annually thereafter. The last payment will become due at the end of the sixth year from the date of the contract.

Interest will be charged at only 3 per ct. per ann.

As a security to the performance of the contract the first two years' interest must be paid in advance, and it must be understood that at least one tenth of the land purchased shall yearly be brought under cultivation, twenty per cent. from the credit price will be deducted for cash. The Company's construction bonds will be received as cash.

READY FRAMED FARM BUILDINGS,
Which can be set up in a few days, can be obtained from the Company at Chicago.

They will be 12 ft. by 20 ft. divided into one living and three bed rooms, and will cost complete set up on ground chosen anywhere along the road $150 in cash, exclusive of transportation. Larger buildings may be contracted for at proportionate rates. The Company will forward all the materials for such buildings over the Road promptly.

Special arrangements with dealers can be made to supply those purchasing the Company's lands with farming materials, agricultural tools, and an outfit of provisions in any quantity, at the lowest wholesale prices.

It is believed that the price, long credit, and low rate of interest, charged for these lands will enable a man with a few hundred dollars in cash, and ordinary industry, to make himself independent before all the purchase money becomes due. In the mean time, the rapid settlement of the country will, by increasing the value of the land, more than compensate for the interest.

Circulars containing numerous instances of successful farming, and other respectable and well known farmers living in the neighborhood of the Railroad lands, throughout the State—also the cost of fencing, price of cattle, expense of harvesting, threshing, &c. by contract—or any other information—will be cheerfully given, on application, either personally or by letter, in English, French or German, addressed to

JOHN WILSON,
Land Commissioner of Ill. Central R. R. Co.,
Office up to the 1st of May, 52 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Ill.; after that date in the New Stone Passenger Depot, So. Water st. a8 6m

ERRORS OF TEETOTALISM.

CHAPTER VIII.

From the North American Review.

But there is another class of excessive drinkers who are constantly stimulated, instead of being stupefied, by the alcohol they consume; and who are therefore still active, developing motive force and nerve force at the expense of their muscular and nervous tissues. Such persons need nourishment in proportion to the waste; and in many cases the quantity is decidedly increased, instead of being diminished, by their drinking. This explanation is virtually admitted by the reviewer himself, while discussing another topic, where he says, in a style uncommonly subdued: "We think that, although the result of the stimulus may be a greater consumption of tissue in a given time than would have taken place without it, yet it is demonstrable that real increase of strength is given; that alcohol is positive nutriment, or else it could not replace nutriment, nor could it enable drunkards to subsist." Dr. Carpenter thinks precisely the reverse, and gives his reasons; and until the reviewer can offer some valid ground for his opinion, we shall adhere to Dr. Carpenter's opinion (and our own) on this subject.

Here end our comments upon the "links of the chain of demonstration;" and we believe the reader will now agree with us, that the "chain" is merely a "rope of sand," and that Physiology "shrugs her shoulders" in general, and in particular, at the "conception" that "alcohol is food." On the other hand, Dr. Carpenter has given solid reasons for regarding alcohol as essentially poisonous in its physiological effects; and with him we may safely leave this question, till a more doughty champion enters the lists against him.

Our reviewer, however, coolly assuming to have proved that "alcohol is food," next proceeds to show "how and why it is food." It is scarcely necessary to follow him through his argument on this topic; and yet some of his illustrations are too characteristic to be omitted. "If in drinking a glass of brandy," says he, "you save an ounce of beef, it is because the same amount of force can be evolved from the brandy as from the beef." But the reader now knows that the glass of brandy, if it evolves force (as the beef is assumed to do), does not save the beef; since it thus wastes the tissue, and the beef is just so much the more required to repair the tissue. His idea that alcohol offers itself to oxygen and is consumed, and thus saves tissue, though it develops force, next follows; but it has been refuted on a preceding page. The great defect here, as elsewhere, is, that the reviewer makes no distinction between the calorific and the stimulant or exciting effects of alcohol; but persists in implying that the mere burning of it in the blood produces force, instead of heat merely. The reader now knows, that whenever alcohol does offer itself to oxygen, it is merely calorific; and that when, remaining unconsumed in the blood, it excites force, it produces a corresponding waste of tissue.

As if cherishing some misgivings, after all, in regard to his demonstration that alcohol is food, and not poison, the writer dismisses the last-mentioned topic with some very striking remarks on poisons in general; from which we may infer that, on the whole, it is of no consequence if alcohol is a poison. He says that the human organism possesses a marvellous "aptitude in resisting and making light of poisons," and discourses thus:—

"We are all in a private way descendants of Mithridates. The water we drink, the tea we drink, the medicines we take, and the pickles—especially the pickles!—we eat, are all so many poisons. Death itself is but the consummation of a system of slow poisoning. There is tea, even when unadulterated, notoriously a slow poison; coffee, a slow poison; tobacco, a slow poison; carbonic acid in the air of churches, theatres, assemblies, a slow poison; beer, slow poison; wine, accelerated poison; brandy, rapid poison."

A sufficient reply to the above is afforded by the reviewer's previous assertion, that, if alcohol were continually in the circulating current the effect would be fatal. But he says, incorrectly, "Alcohol is not, and cannot be constantly present in the blood"; and, "Its temporary presence is only a temporary disturbance, and this disturbance is a stimulus." We reply, with his own logic, "All disturbance is temporary," and there is no substance whose presence in the blood is not "temporary." But we have seen that alcohol, if often taken, may be present in the blood for a long time; and in numerous instances it has been found after death in the ventricles of the brain, and has burned with its characteristic blue flame. It has also frequently been extracted from the substance of the brain, when it could not be found in the ventricles or in any other part of the body. But this is a mere "temporary" presence!

We have, however, in the preceding quotation, arrived at the first distinct admission that alcohol is a stimulant ("stimulus");—which is in fact the only property of alcohol which makes its habitual use intensely dangerous, and upon which the whole doctrine of total abstinence rests. It is not necessary to show that alcohol is a poison; it is enough to show that it is a peculiar stimulant, and then to indicate in what its peculiarities consist.—So long as it is merely calorific, nobody is concerned for its effects. The reviewer himself asserts, that since "life is only possible under incessant stimulus," there is no objection to alcohol unless "there is something peculiar in the alcoholic stimulus, which demarcates it from all others"; but he also admits that alcohol is a peculiar stimulus, and thus nullifies all that he has said of the other stimulus as essential. He says also, that this peculiarity of alcohol "justifies, in some degree, its bad reputation," and is one "upon which all the mischief of intoxication depends, one which causes all the miseries so feelingly laid to its door." (All this is affirmed, by implication of food!)

"And what," he continues, "is this peculiarity? Nothing less than the fascination of its virtue, the potency of its effect! Were it less alluring, it would not lure to excess; were it less potent, it would not leap up into such flames of fiery exaltation. In its virtue lies its crime." Observe, "virtue" here means "potency of effect." He next suggests that alcohol should be used as is a razor; and says, that "while we frightened Tommy with a rehearsal of the terrible consequences which may ensue, if he venture to touch the razor, we cease the precaution when our juvenile emerges from jackets to the dignity of shaving," and "the razor is then placed in his hands with full reliance that he will not cut himself—often." Or, to state the idea more distinctly: We should frighten children and people of the "poorer classes" from using alcohol at all, even in a "beneficial," "moderate" way; butwe should put it into the hands of "sensible persons" (the "readers of the Westminster Review") for their habitual use, "once or twice a day," with full reliance that they will not become intoxicated by it—often!

It would have been pertinent had the reviewer explained why alcohol is a peculiar stimulant. It is so because it has a peculiar attraction for the substance of the brain, and therefore commits its ravages first of all upon this organ, and consequently upon the intellectual and moral faculties. This fact is confirmed by the examination of animals killed by alcohol. Indeed the reviewer himself admits (though for a very different purpose) "the great affinity and the selective eagerness with which it acts on the nervous tissue."

Morning Chronicle.
FRIDAY, MAY 9, 1856.

OLD PARCHMENT.

An antiquarian friend at Newcastle, Rev. Mr. Aiken, has found in possession of a family about to remove, three original parchment documents, dated in the 17th century, touching house lots on the Island.

The most modern of the three, is a deed, dated Sept. 22, 1695, signed by Mary Champernoun, of the town of Kittery, in the Province of Maine, widow, in consideration of Thirty Pound current money of New England, paid by John Hollicom of New Castle in the Province of New Hampshire, conveying a house lot in Great Island.

Another is a deed from Richard Welcome and Eleanor his wife, "of Star Island, one of the Isles of the Shoals," to Henry Beck of Great Island, dated "ye seventh day of August, in ye Reign of Our Sovern Lord, James ye Second, King of England, &c., Anno Dom. 1685" — addressed "To all Christian People to whom this present writing shall come," — and conveying a house lot on Great-Island for £30 silver money. The name of the grantor is spelt Welcome, in the body of the deed — but he signs his own name at the bottom Richard Wellicom.

The deed was evidently drawn by another hand, apparently R. Chambelain, Esq., who also recorded it.

We suspect Wellicom and Hollicom were branches of one family, with the name a little varied.

The third and last Document, which we consider the greatest curiosity of the three, is an original Lease, signed by Robert Tufton Mason, 1686. This document we copy entire.

This Indenture made the Twenty-eigth day of Aprill in the Second Year of ye Reign of our Sovern Lord James ye Second by the grace of God King of England Scotland & France & Ireland Defendr of the Faith &c Aoq Dni 1686 Between Robert Tufton Mason Esqr Proprietr of the Province of New Hampshire in New England of one part And Elizabeth Beck of Great Island in ye sd Province Widow of ye other part Witnesseth that Whereas the sd Robert Tufton Mason by vertu of a Grant from King James ye First of Famous memory in ye Eighteenth Year of His Reign is instated in Fee of all those Lands Islands & Rivers lying between ye Rivers of Naumkege & Piscataqua called New Hampshire of all Rights Royalties & Preferments within ye same Now this Indenture further Witnesseth That the sd Robert Tufton Mason for divers good reasons and considerations him thereto especially moving hath granted and hereby doth grant bargain sell infeoff & confirm to sd Elizabeth Beck her heirs & assigns All that Parcel of Land situate & being at Great Island in ye sd Province Containing as followeth Viz: Leaving a High way Fifteen foot broad at ye lower side between Mathew Estes so running by the sd Highway One hundred & Eleven Foot near Southeast Then upwards running to Thomas Cobbet near Southwest One hundred & Seventeen Foot Then the upper side near Northwest Eight Foot Then Northeast Northerly down to the said Highway One hundred and Seventeen Foot Excepting out of ye premisses & Highway between ye premisses & ye Land of Thomas Cobbet And Reserving to the sd Robert Tufton Mason his heirs & assigns All Mines & Minerals that shall be found or be hereafter within ye premisses To Have & to hold the sd Parcel of Land & premisses (except before excepted) to ye sd Elizabeth Beck her heirs & assigns To the only use & behoof of her ye sd Elizabeth Beck her heirs & assigns forever Yielding & paying therefore yearly & every year to ye sd Robert Tufton Mason his heirs & assigns The annual Rent of Five shillings of lawful money current in New England And Two shillings for every Dwelling house (more yn one) that is or shall be built upon ye premises On ye Feast of St. John Baptist & the Nativity of our Lord God by equal portions Without any abatement or detaication whatsoever And if it happen the sd annual Rent of Five shillings & Two shillings or any part thereof to be behind & unpaid by ye space of Twenty days next after either day of payment aforesaid & being lawfully demanded Then the sd Elizabeth Beck her heirs & assigns shall forfeit and pay to ye said Robert Tufton Mason his heirs and assigns Double ye money so behind & unpaid And the sd Robert Tufton Mason for himself his heirs & assigns Doth hereby covenant with ye sd Elizabeth Beck her heirs and assigns That he the sd Robert Tufton Mason his heirs & assigns The hereby granted premisses to sd Elizabeth Beck her heirs and assigns against all persons shall & will warrant & forever hereby defend And the sd Elizabeth Beck for her self her heirs & assigns Doth hereby covenant with the sd Robert Tufton Mason his heirs & assigns That sd Elizabeth Beck her heirs & assigns Shall & will from time & time well and truely pay & keep All & singular the Rents & Boundals of the sd hereby granted premisses In witness whereof the Parties hereto have interchangeably set their hands & Seals ye Day & year first above written.

ROBERT TUFTON MASON.

On the outside it reads:

"Sealed & Delivered in presence of R. Chamberlain Matth. W Estes & Joh. Rayn Entered & recorded in ye 3d Book of Records for ye County of Dover & Portsmouth according to the Original ye 14th May 1686. R Chamberlain 3rd.

And it is endorsed:

Robert Tufton Mason's Deed to Elizabeth Beck 1686

The seal is taken off; the signature of Mrs. Beck does not appear; and we see no place where it could ever have been.

Where some words in our copy appear to have one or more letters missing, was the old style of abbreviation.

WHO MURDERED JONES?—The suspicion that Bogus Sheriff Jones was murdered by a friend, seems to receive some confirmation from the following statement of a correspondent of the Missouri Democrat:

"The tent in which Jones was shot was guarded by troops at the time the act was committed. Notwithstanding, some one discharged a pistol four times through the tent, the fourth ball taking effect, and then left without being seen by the soldiers.

When Jones fell, and the troops in and about the tent knew he was shot, they left him, and went to a house where the prisoners were confined to prevent their escape. Jones laid for a considerable time before any one went to his assistance."

LIVERPOOL BREAD MARKET, April 23.—The decline which we have noticed for some weeks in the Corn market still continues, and the fine seasonable weather which prevails throughout the country is likely to operate further to depress the value. At London, on Monday, the supply was moderate, prices generally being the same as on the previous Monday. Flour, however, declined 1s per sack and bbl.

APPLES.—Apples, sound and fair in quality, were sold in our market on the 1st of May for $1.25 per barrel. The like has never occurred here before within the knowledge of our market men. The quantity stored last fall was large, and apples never kept better than during the past winter. Dried apple is now being brought in abundantly.—Manchester American.

NEW YORK, May 7.—At the meeting of the American Tract Society, held to day, a resolution appointing a Committee of Investigation was, after a long discussion, passed nearly unanimously, but not until every imputation upon the integrity of the Executive Committee was disavowed. All the old officers re-elected unanimously, and a ballot for Executive Committee taken, and the old committee re-elected, affairs ending harmoniously.—The public exercises at the Tabernacle were of a satisfactory and cheering description.—The Treasurer's report, already published, shows larger receipts than ever before known.

The American Anti Slavery Society held its anniversary at the City Assembly Rooms. The attendance was very large. The principal speakers were Rev. Mr. May, Wm. L. Garrison, Theodore Parker, Lucy Stone Blackwell, and others. Resolutions of the usual ultra stamp were adopted. The Treasurer's report puts the receipts for the year at $33,664, and the expenditures at $28,138.

DARTMOUTH COLLEGE.—The Congregational Journal says.—we have just seen a printed order of Commencement exercises at Dartmouth College, which announces that the address before the United Societies is to be delivered by F. D. Huntington of Harvard College. The exercises will take place on the 29th, 30th and 31st of July. The graduating class numbers 58.

NEW HAVEN, 8th.—The Legislature, in joint ballot, have re-elected Gov. Minor.—Whole number of votes 251; Minor had 135; Ingham 116.

Three anti-administration members were absent, and there was one extra vote cast. The average majority on the other State officers was 19.

GREAT FALLS, May 8th.—A fire was discovered at 4 o'clock this morning in the carpet room connected with the store of Messrs. Chick & Wendell, in the Central Buildings. It was speedily extinguished, with trifling damage.

WASHINGTON, 6th.—Mr. Herbert, Representative from California, shot the head waiter at Willard's Hotel, this morning. He died instantly.

ALBANY, 8th.—The boiler of the steam tug Washington Hunt exploded this morning scalding the engineer, fireman and cook.—The boat was owned in Troy.

At the anniversary of the New York Colonization Society the audience was select, the receipts were reported at $40,000, and Dr. Cuyler, one of the speakers, vehemently denounced the repeal of the Missouri Compromise.

ROCK ISLAND (Ill.), May 7.—Steamer burnt.—Steamer Effie, after passing the drawbridge this morning, was swung round by the current against the pier, smashing her cabins and sinking her to the boat, which was wholly destroyed, together with her cargo, valued at $12,000.

The bridge also took fire, and one span was destroyed.

"If you are Coming, Why don't you Come along?"

THAT is the "motto" now-a-days. Every locomotive on every Railroad shrieks it. It is daily rapped out on every Telegraphic Line in the country. The echoing blows of our Ship-Carpenters hourly exemplify it. The smith at his anvil hammers it out. The clanking Press with breathless haste, sends the cry home to every family—"If you are coming, why don't you come along?" It is uttered in an hundred tongues in a hundred lands. It has sounded like a slogan through the political world, and the "Old Soldier" are creeping along among the baggage wagons and the wounded. Thought, that moved at a funeral pace, now rushes on a tremendous charge; and all the old remedies for Liver Complaint have given way for

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—Six paces to the front, is the word to everybody and everything that wants to be listened to or looked at. If you have anything to do, do it; if you wish any person to see anything, show it; if you have anything to be cured, CURE IT WITH

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you have a Bottle of Holman's Bitters in your house, you need not suffer from
Biliousness, Weakness at the Stomach, Indigestion, Heartburn, Lowness of Spirits,
Nor any of the diseases incident to the season.

It used to take six men to make a pin; now one boy, a pull, a clip, and two strokes, and that's the way the pins are made. Once it took a Physician, lots of precious time, and quantities of nauseous drugs to cure some simple disease of the Blood.—Now, a quarter expended in

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS

Brings Life and Health, flowing spirits and rosy cheeks.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you are sick and weak, why don't you cure yourself? Here we offer you the article that will do it. Here is the place to get it. Every body knows about HOLMAN'S BITTERS! they have been tried and have "toed the mark straight."

They are a good medicine; they are better than anything else for all Spring Complaints; they are just the Bitters that cage be begun—and that's the best thing we can say about them. "If you are coming, why don't you come along," before they are all gone?

LOCAL.

CITY COUNCIL.

THURSDAY, May 8.

ALDERMEN.—Eugene Co. No. 2 asked leave to erect a flag staff near their engine house—granted.

The committee to whom was referred the subject of removing the crossing east of the North church, and relaying the same further north—reported favorably. Report adopted.

Wm. Martin was allowed $10 in full for damages for land taken to extend Marlboro' street, in 1846.

Petition of sundry persons for abatement of the nuisance of cows going at large, was referred.

Report of John Smith, former liquor agent, was referred.

The resolution authorizing the sale of a strip of land at the plains, to Wm. B. Lowd, was read a second time and passed.

Andrew J. Ayers was chosen Superintendent of gas lights.

Chas. Robinson asked that he might be heard by counsel, on the subject, before further action was had concerning the removal of the stone post near his house—laid on the table.

The City Clerk was ordered to advertise for a loan to provide for the floating debt of the city.

There was no quorum in the Common Council.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.—The May Term of the Circuit Court for this District commenced in this city, on Thursday, Hon. Mathew Harvey, presiding.

The case of Thomas Blanchard vs. Wadleigh and Lane, was heard upon an application of the defts. to dissolve the injunction. This is a bill in Chancery filed by Blanchard for an alleged violation by the defendants, of his patent for a machine for cutting lasts, axe handles, and other irregular forms. The defence set up is that the the machine used by Wadleigh & Lane is different in principle from Blanchard's, and better in some respects.

The injunction was dissolved, the defendant giving security to account for the profits of the machine if the pltf. prevails in the suit.

In case Ferdinand Clarke complainant in equity vs. W. H. Y. Hackett, assignee, and others. The complainant was ordered to give security for costs within sixty days, otherwise the bill to be dismissed.

POLICE COURT.—Before Justice Odell.—On Wednesday, Eliza Griffin complained of the daughter of Mrs. Murphy for striking her child. Found guilty, and sentenced to pay $3 and costs.

On Thursday, Ann Clarence Murphy complained of Eliza Griffin for assault by throwing hot water upon her person. Fined 50 cents and costs.—Exc.

☞ We are requested to correct the statement made a day or two since, by the Gazette, that Mr. Allen Freeman had made arrangements with "Col. Tuther Souther," to open the Union House, at Rye Beach.—Mr. Souther may have such an intention, but Allen Freeman's Oyster and Ice Cream Saloon is altogether too popular to allow him to leave it. He may yet be found at his old stand, ready as usual, to serve up oysters in a style that can't be beat.

CONGRESS.

WEDNESDAY, May 7.

SENATE.—The Senate appointed a third Committee of Conference on the Deficiency bill, the two former not being able to agree.

Mr. Bayard concluded his speech commenced on Monday, on the best means of promoting the efficiency of the Navy. Adjourned.

HOUSE.—In the House, Mr. Pringle reported that the Committee of Conference on the Deficiency Bill had failed to agree, and offered to discharge the managers on the part of the House, and recommended the House to adhere to its amendments, and its disagreements to those of the Senate.

Mr. Cobb of Georgia was unwilling to take the extreme measure recommended, without knowing the points of difference between the joint committee of conference. He wanted to declare on each separate amendment whether they will stop the wheels of government by rejecting the bill.

Mr. Stanton said the principal difficulties were relative to the amendments of $1,800,000 for the army, and $300,000 for the Washington water works. He was willing to lose the bill, unless the Senate recede from their amendment. This system of deficiencies was an evil which threatens to throw into the hands of the executive all the power of the government. He wanted the President to exhibit proof of good faith, that the laws go faithfully and honestly executed.

Mr. Grow condemned the appendage by the Senate of incongruous amendments to deficiency bills. The cry of "vote these supplies, else you'll stop the wheels of government" had ceased to alarm him. He was willing to take the responsibility.

Mr. Campbell of Ohio defended the course of the Committee of Ways and Means relative to the appropriation items.

Mr. Giddings wished to know whether Mr. Campbell was aware that the appropriation of $27,000 for expenses of the judiciary was to pay for the reclamation of fugitive slaves.

Mr. G. denied that the Marshal of the Southern District of Ohio had the right to squander the public funds by employing 400 special deputy marshals in Cincinnati to get fugitive slaves to Kentucky. He would rather die in the committee room rather than grant it.

Mr. Campbell dissented from Mr. Giddings, and after further debate, without final action, the House adjourned.

LATER FROM EUROPE.

QUEBEC, May 7.

The Canadian steamship North America arrived at this port at a quarter to seven o'clock this evening. She brings Liverpool dates to the 23d inst., four days later than received by the Persia.

The King of Prussia ratified the treaty of peace on Friday last, and the Turkish ratification left Constantinople on the 10th inst.

England.—In the House of Lords, on Monday, upon the church bill, a second reading was moved by the Lord Chancellor. The House divided upon the motion, when there appeared for the second reading 33, against 41—a majority against the government.

The Times has a leader on the grandeur of the naval review which was appointed to take place at Spithead the day the steamer sailed. There were to be 240 steamers, of various sizes, carrying 3002 guns, propelled by 30,761 horse power, and manned by 30,000 seamen.

Russia.—The militia is disbanded. The admiralty has ordered all the light-houses to be lit, and all the buoys to be laid down in the Gulfs of Bothnia and Finland; also on the Baltic and White Seas.

The government has authorized the exportation from Russia and Poland of sheepskins, meat, oxen, horses, hogs, brandy, spirits, ropes and hay.

Crimea.—Letters from the camp have been received to the 8th of April. The preparations for the departure of the army continue active.

The epidemic has ceased in the Crimea.

France.—Paris, Monday evening.—Trade is improving.

The accounts from the industrial districts are favorable. In corn there is little variation, but the tendency is downward. In the provinces the markets were abundantly supplied with wheat. At Marseilles, wheat tended upward.

At the sitting of the Corps Legislatif, on Friday, M. de Montalembert made a remarkable speech on the freedom of the elective franchise. He denounced the Court of Cassation as an accomplice with the government to render universal suffrage a mockery, and called for an alteration of the law in that respect.

The provincial papers speak of an inundation in many parts, caused by the late heavy rains.

By a decree lately passed, iron knees and pieces of bent iron for shipbuilding are admitted duty free.

The French army is being placed on a peace footing.

Turkey.—The Paris correspondent of the London Times says the treaty of peace with Russia contains a clause that the Allies shall evacuate the Ottoman territory on the exchange of ratifications, and that the evacuation shall take place as soon after as possible.

A letter from Constantinople states that Omar Pasha's army will be formed into movable columns, who would scour the country and enforce the execution of the new laws.

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER OF LOTTERIES.
BALTIMORE, April 15, 1856.

THE undersigned, Commissioner of Lotteries of the State of Maryland, being in receipt daily of letters from various portions of the country, making inquiry as to Lottery Schemes, with which the country is flooded, and which purport to be "decided by the decisions of the Maryland Consolidated Lotteries," takes this method to answer all such letters of inquiry, and inform the public that all Lotteries purporting to be decided by the Maryland Lotteries are gross frauds; that certain parties who style themselves Morris & Co., and pretend to be Managers or Sole Agents for the Grand Charter Lotteries at Cleaveland, Ohio, are impostors, and said lottery a fraud, having neither legal nor presumptive existence; and that another fictitious firm, styled Murry & Co., Cleveland, Ohio, are also impostors, and all lotteries which they profess to be managers or agents for, are also frauds.

FARM LANDS FOR SALE.

The Illinois Central Railroad Company

IS NOW PREPARED TO SELL

OF

FARMING LANDS,

In Tracts of 40 acres and upwards, on long credits and at low rates of interest.

THESE lands were granted by the Government to aid in the construction of this Railroad, and include some of the richest and most fertile Prairies in the State, interspersed here and there with magnificent groves of oak and other timber. The Road extends from Chicago, on the northeast, to Cairo at the south, and from thence to Gatena and Dubleith, in the north-west extreme of the State, and as all the lands lie within fifteen miles on each side of this Road, ready and cheap means are afforded by it for transporting the products of the lands to any of those points and from thence to Eastern and Southern markets. Moreover, the rapid growth of flourishing towns and villages along the line, and the great increase in population by immigration, etc. afford a substantial and growing home demand for farm produce.

The Soil is a rich, black mould, from one to five feet in depth, is gently rolling and peculiarly fitted for grazing cattle and sheep, or the cultivation of wheat, Indian corn, etc.

Economy in cultivating and great productiveness are the well known characteristics of Illinois lands. Trees are not required to be cut down, stumps grubbed, or stone picked off, as is generally the case in cultivating new land in the older States. The first crop of Indian corn, planted on the newly broken soil, usually repays the cost of plowing and fencing.

Wheat sown on the newly-turned sod is sure to yield very large profits. A man with a plow and two yoke of oxen will break one and a half to two acres per day. Contracts can be made for breaking, ready for corn or wheat, at from $2 to 2.50 per acre. By judicious management, the land may be plowed and fenced the first, and under a high state of cultivation the second year.

Corn, grain, cattle, etc. will be forwarded at reasonable rates to Chicago, for the Eastern market, and to Cairo for the Southern. The larger yield on the cheap lands of Illinois over the high priced lands in the Eastern and Middle States, is known to be much more than sufficient to pay the difference of transportation to the Eastern market.

Bituminous coal is mined at several points along the Road, and is a cheap and desirable fuel. It can be delivered at several points along the Road at $1.50 to $4 per ton; Wood can be had at the same rates per cord.

Those who think of settling in Iowa or Minnesota, should bear in mind, that lands there of any value, along the railroad courses and for many miles inland, have been disposed of;—that for those located in the interior, there are no conveniences for transporting the produce to market, railroads not having been introduced there. To send the produce of these lands, one or two hundred miles by wagon to market, would cost much more than the expense of cultivating them; and hence Government lands thus situated, at $1.25 per acre are not as good investments as the lands of this company at the prices fixed.

The same remark holds good in relation to the lands in Kansas and Nebraska, for although vacant lands may be found nearer the water courses the Eastern market is far easier, and every two hundred miles the produce of those lands are carried either in wagons or interrupted water communications, increases the expense of transportation, which must be borne by the settlers, in the reduced price of their products; and to that extent precisely are the incomes from their farms, and of course on their investments, annually and every year reduced.

The great fertility of the lands now offered for sale by this company, and their consequent yield over those of the Middle and Eastern States, is much more than sufficient to pay the difference in the cost of transportation, especially in view of the facilities furnished by this Road, and others with which it connects, the operations of which are not interrupted by the low water of summer, or the frosts of winter.

PRICES AND TERMS OF PAYMENT.

The Price will vary from $6 to $25, according to the quality, location, &c. Contracts for Deeds may be made during the year 1856, stipulating the purchase money to be paid in five annual installments; the first to become due in two years from the date of contract, and the others annually thereafter. The last payment will become due at the end of the sixth year from the date of the contract.

Interest will be charged at only 3 per ct. per ann.

As a security to the performance of the contract the first two years' interest must be paid in advance, and it must be understood that at least one tenth of the land purchased shall yearly be brought under cultivation. Twenty per cent. from the credit price will be deducted for cash. The Company's construction bonds will be received as cash.

READY FRAMED FARM BUILDINGS,

Which can be set up in a few days, can be obtained from Responsible Persons.

They will be 12 ft. by 20 ft. divided into one living and three bed rooms, and will cost complete set up on ground chosen anywhere along the road $150 in cash, exclusive of transportation. Larger buildings may be contracted for at proportionate rates. The Company will forward all the materials for such buildings over the Road promptly.

Special arrangements with dealers can be made to supply those purchasing the Company's lands with fencing materials, agricultural tools, and an outfit of provisions in any quantity, at the lowest wholesale prices.

It is believed that the price, long credit, and low rate of interest, charged for these lands will enable a hundred with a small dollar to begin and end ordinary industry, to make himself independent before all the purchase money becomes due. In the mean time, the rapid settlement of the country will probably have increased their value four or five fold. When required an experienced person will accompany applicants, to give information, and aid in selecting lands.

Circulars containing numerous instances of successful farming, yield of Vessels, Cargoes, and Freights, by special or open policies not exceeding $15,000 in any one risk.

Circulars containing numerous instances of successful farming, and well known farmers living in the neighborhood of the Railroad lands, throughout the State—also the cost of fencing, price of cattle, expense of harvesting, threshing, &c. by contract—or any other information—will be cheerfully given, on application, either personally or by letter, in English, French or German, addressed to Land Commissioner of Central R. R. Co.,

Office up to the 1st of May, 52 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Ill.; after that date in the New Stone Passenger Depot, So. Water st. a8 6m

Morning Chronicle.

TO MY FRIEND, ON HIS MARRIAGE.

Frank, now thou hast fondly taken,
Vows that death alone may sever;
Kindred ties too, thou hast broken,
May these bring regret, no never!

Life 's at best a time of sorrow,
'Twill not e'er be bright as now;
Care and trouble soon may furrow
O'er thy yet unclouded brow.

Oh, when pain and sickness hover
Like a mantle o'er thy head,
Happiness in life seems over,
Hope's bright visions from thee fled:

Then may she, thy chosen bride,
All the strength and fervor prove,
(Let what ills on earth betide,)
Of a faithful wife's fond love.

TO LOUISE.

Joy to thy heart, young bride!
Thine ardent gaze rests on life's sunny side,
And many a beauteous flower blooming there,
Shall shed for thee its fragrance on the air.

Affection is thy dower! [power.
And youth, and beauty, with their witching
Have thrown around thy trusting heart a spell,
Which shall in future many a cloud dispel.

All other love grows dim
Beside the ray which fondly circles him;
And thou wilt leave all else without a sigh,
With him to roam, with him to live and die.

Joy to thy heart, young bride!
May no deep sorrow cloud life's sunny side!
But many a year bring happiness to thee,
And him who shares, henceforth, thy destiny.

Portsmouth, May, 1856. c.

The Postal Reform Committee has submitted to the public a form of petition to Congress, praying for a radical reform of the Post-office system on seven points.

1. A uniform postage of two cents.
2. Receiving houses and letter carriers, or in other words, free delivery in all large towns and cities.
3. Money orders.
4. Cheap ocean postage.
5. Franked matter to be charged to the government.
6. No compulsory pre-payment, but double postage on unpaid letters.
7. Dead letters to be returned to the senders.

All this is too desirable to need argument to enforce it upon the attention of men of sense.—Boston Chronicle.

All good but No. 5 and 6. There should be no franked matter,—and no unpaid letters. England gets along very well without either; there is no need of them here.

DAMAGES AGAINST THE WESTERN RAILROAD.—In the Supreme Court at Worcester, Mass., Mr. Davis Taft of Charleston, S. C., recovered $7200 of the Western R. R. Co. for the loss of an arm which was cut off by coming in contact with the door of the freight car. The car was standing on the side track, and the door was swinging open as the passenger train passed at the rate of thirty miles an hour. The arm was placed in a horizontal position upon the window, and was cut off above the elbow, so cleanly that amputation was not required. The case was tried for the pltf., by Judge Allen and Henry Chapin, and for the Railroad by Mr. Phelps of Springfield and Mr. Dewey of Worcester.

Three Roman Catholic priests have lately been arraigned in Dublin, for altering the the wills of deceased persons, so as to fall to the possession of large estates, by defrauding the rightful heirs

PHILADELPHIA.—The Know Nothings have lost the control of their strong hold, Vaux, the Democratic candidate for Mayor being chosen by a large majority over Henry D. Moore. The City Council is also Democratic.

CONNECTICUT.—The Americans and Republicans of the Connecticut Legislature have nominated Hon. Green Kendrick for Speaker of the House, and Hon. Leman Cutler for President of the Senate.

NEW JERSEY.—The Democrats of New Jersey, in convention, have elected Buchanan delegates to the Cincinnati Convention.

Louisville, Ky., with all the advantages of Cincinnati, save that of Free Soil, is fading away, under the blight of a slave country. There are twenty-five vacant tenements in Main street alone; and the merchants, alarmed at the exposure of nakedness made by the newspapers, have held a meeting, and formally requested the newspapers to discontinue the discussion of the prosperity of the city.

BROKE JAIL.—Jacob H. Welcome, who has been confined in Dedham Jail for some time past for contempt of Court, escaped from that place on Monday night, and has not since been heard from. By some means he had been supplied with a false key, which he left behind him with a letter to the jailor stating that he did not take it with him, as he had no further use for it. This was very considerate in Jacob.

Gen. Lane of Kansas, in his recent speech before the Indiana People's Convention, said there were more settlers in Kansas from the State of Indiana, than from any other State in the Union—more than New York, Mussachusetts and all the other New England States combined. Of the eighty members composing the present Legislature of Kansas, thirty-four of them came from Indiana. Gen. Lane states the population of Kaneas as being 70,000.

ILLUSTRATIONS.—The best illustration of how quickly and gladly the application of chemical power to medical science has been welcomed by an intelligent community, is the circumtsance of the increasing sale all over New England, of Arnold's Globules and Vital Fluid, even before the warm Spring weather is fairly begun—the weather which will most urgently call for their power of imparting the Vitality always lessened by a warm temperature of atmosphere.

SATURDAY, MAY 10, 1856.

RELIGIOUS CONTROVERSY.

At the present time, a controversy is in progress in Manchester, N H., between Rev. Mr. Bartlett, of the orthodox church, and Rev. B. M. Tillotson, of the Universalist. A correspondent of the Mirror mentions as the subjects of discussion, "Universal Salvation, Partial Damnation, Depravity, Vicarious Atonement, Trinity, Election and Retribution," and says:

The controversy was opened Sabbath before last, by Mr. Bartlett, in the Franklin-street Church, who pitched into Universalism, right and left, as though it were a vitiating agent which was corrupting the very fountains of life, and making them abound in nothing but evil. Mr. Tillotson, last evening, returned the compliment to a thronged assembly at the Lowell st. Church, with interest. * * *

Mr. Bartlett ignores all desire of controversy, purposing merely to teach the faithful how to shun the corrupting evils of Universalism. We thought, from the number of his flock in attendance at the Lowell st. church last evening that they were in a fair way to learn for themselves, both sides of the controversy, which cannot end, we think, under the pursuasive eloquence of Mr. Tillotson, without producing many conflicting doubts. We say, go on, Rev. gentlemen, in your christian labors—you are doing a good work for liberal christianity, for progression for truth; believing neither extreme, but standing upon the high middle ground. Between you we are quite sure our faith will be the gainer by the controversy.

Of this controversy we know only what we gather from the above and similar accounts. From them, we infer that the main point in the discussion is the question whether all men will be saved, or some men lost. Mr. Bartlett seems to have attacked Universalism, chiefly, and Mr. Tillotson, a Universalist, replies. If Unitarianism and Arminianism have come into the discussion, they have been brought in incidentally.

In this view of the premises, (which we hope the Mirror will correct if it be not accurate,) we have some curiosity to see the "high middle ground" on which the critic says he is "standing," while he believes "neither extreme.

We hope he will tell us what "our faith" is, which stands on that high spot of ground in the middle, and does not believe on the one hand that all men will be saved, nor on the other, that some must be lost. It is hard to imagine where the spot is, or what the faith can be.

N. H. AMERICAN COUNCIL.

We have already made brief mention of the fact that this body met at Plymouth on the 6th, and unanimously rejected the nomination of Fillmore & Donelson. We now copy their resolutions entire.

The Committee on resolutions reported the following, which were unanimously adopted:

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, That we re-affirm our platform of last November, and adhere to the same in all its parts.

Resolved, That we cordially and fully endorse the action of our delegates in seceding from the Convention held in Philadelphia in February last, and their subsequent participation in efforts to secure the Convention to be held in New York on the 12th of June next.

Resolved, That this Council believing the support of Fillmore and Donelson inseparably connected with the support of principles, utterly inconsistent with those which we have re-affirmed above, we repudiate their nomination.

WHEREAS, the exigencies of the times demand a perfect union of all the opponents of the present National Administration in the approaching election, therefore,

Resolved, That we will cordially unite with all the people of New Hampshire, who are opposed to the further extension of slavery over free territory—who are in favor of the immediate admission of Kansas as a free State, and of restoring the administration of the General Government to the line of policy sanctioned by Washington and Jefferson.

It was voted to hold the next meeting at Concord, at such time as the officers shall think expedient to call it.

A variety of less important business was transacted, and after a harmonious and animated session, the Council adjourned.

On the Executive Committee were E. H. Rollins, Concord, for Merrimac County. T. L. Tullock, Portsmouth; J. M. Lovering, Exeter; for Rockingham County.

And of the delegates to the New York Convention, were from the First Congressional District, J. P. Morse, Portsmouth; Chas. A. Tufts, Dover, substitute.

SENATOR BELL.—The report, recently in circulation, that Hon. James Bell contemplated resigning his seat in the Senate, in consequence of ill health, is unfounded. The Congregational Journal states, on the authority of a near relative of Mr. Bell, that he has no such intention, and that his health is now much improved.

☞ The General Association of congregational (orthodox) and presbyterian ministers in New Hampshire, will hold its annual meeting at Exeter, First Church, Aug. 26th.

HOMICIDE BY A CONGRESS MAN.—As we have already stated, at Washington, on the morning of the 8th, Mr. Herbert, Representative from California, shot the head waiter at Willard's Hotel, who died instantly.

A later dispatch of the same day says:—

Mr. Herbert has been arrested, and the matter is undergoing investigation. As nearly as at present can be ascertained, the circumstances are, that while Mr. Herbert was taking a late breakfast at the public table of the hotel, a waiter gave him some insolence, when Mr. Herbert called for another waiter, who came and also treated him insolently. It is said that two or three other waiters then came up and commenced an assault on Mr. Herbert with chairs, plates, dishes, etc. They then grappled with him, when several gentlemen standing by interfered, but retreated on being turned upon by the waiters. Mr. Herbert's friends represent that he fired only when it became evident that it was the design of the waiters to kill him, and that after one was killed, two others continued assaulting him until he was rescued by his friends. Mr. Herbert is aided by counsel. Gen. Lane and Mr. McKay of California saw the whole affair.

There must be another side to this story.—Why should Herbert be late at breakfast?—Why armed with a loaded pistol, at a table? And then why were the two waiters insolent? What was their provocation? It is not common, surely, for waiters in the best hotels, to be insolent to honorable guests, such as members of Congress,—unless these honorable guests are themselves crusty, overbearing, or in some way unreasonable.

Gentlemen, who are really such, may go the rounds over our county, and never need to fire at the breakfast table.

Something must have happened to Mr. Herbert, over night, which made him get up wrong end foremost in the morning.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—The examination into the affair of the fatal shooting of Thos. Keating, a waiter at Willard's Hotel, by Mr. Herbert, a member of Congress, took place this evening.

Many members of Congress were present. A number of servants belonging to the Hotel were examined. Their evidence was somewhat contradictory, but was to the effect that Herbert come into the dining-room at half-past 11 o'clock, accompanied by a friend, and called for breakfast, but being past the usual hour, he was informed by the servant he could not have a meal without an order from the office for it.

Herbert directed several of the servants, who spoke to him on the subject, to retire, calling them harsh names. The deceased made a reply, when Herbert struck him with his fist or with a napkin. The deceased then picked up a plate or tray, making movements as if to throw it, when Herbert threw a chair at him, the latter returning the assault with a plate. During the melee, Patrick, a brother of the deceased, entered, having heard of the proceeding. Herbert seized him, and the two brothers closed with him. The proceedings now became intensely exciting, and chairs and crockery were broken profusely by the parties in the contest. The Austrian Minister quietly beheld what was occurring, but did not move until he went to the man whom Herbert had fired at, to ascertain whether he was dead or living.

Col. McKay testified that he saw, when he went into the dining room, six or seven persons in a scuffle, and thought it was a fight among the servants, but shortly beheld one of them knock down Mr. Gardner with a chair, and saw three other servants striking Herbert, holding him by the wrists. Witness seized hold a chair to defend Herbert, who was sinking under the weight of these men, and Mr. Gardner at the same time was beating them promiscuously. After Herbert fired the pistol, two other servants rushed forward, and clinched him. Mr. Smith went to the assistance of Herbert, with a cane, saying, "If you don't release him I'll kill you." Herbert was considerably injured. The pistol used was a single barrelled one.

Mr. Bishop, member of Congress, was positive that the pistol was discharged while the struggle was going on. Several persons were holding down Herbert, and he appeared much exhausted.

The examination occupied five hours, and will be resumed tomorrow. The prisoner remains in the custody of the U. S. Marshal.

☞ The American Tract Society, at New York, raised a large committee of inquiry into their publications. The Boston Transcript says:

The chances now are, that this great Christian organization will not expurgate books to please any class of those they deem to be sinners, but that slavery will, at least be regarded to be almost as bad as cigar smoking, attendance upon the opera, and dancing.

ST. JOHN, N. B., May 9.—The steamer J. D. Pierce blew up yesterday about 30 miles above Fredericton. Five passengers were killed, and several wounded.

OBITUARY.—Died, at Augusta, Ga., of pulmonary consumption, on the 1st inst, Warren Q. Dow, Esq. late civil engineer at the Pensacola Navy Yard. He was a son of John Dow, Esq. of Epping, N. H., and was formerly civil engineer on the dry dock at this naval station.

The Georgia Constitutionalist says:

The deceased was a gentleman of great simplicity and purity of character, and of the highest professional attainments. He was loved and esteemed by all who knew him.—Though stopped by death while on the way to his home in the North, it will be gratifying to his many friends at a distance to know that he was waited upon and ministered to in his dying moments, by his devoted and affectionate wife and a fond brother.

"If you are Coming, Why don't you Come along?"

THAT is the "mot" now-a-days. Every locomotive on every Railroad shrieks it. It is daily rapped out on every Telegraphic Line in the country. The echoing blows of our Ship Carpenters hourly exemplify it. The smith at his anvil hammers it out. The clanking Press with breathless haste, sends the cry home to every family—"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"

It is uttered in an hundred tongues in a hundred lands. It has sounded like a slogan through the political world, and the "Old Fogies" are creeping along among the baggage wagons and the wounded. Thought, that moved at a funeral pace, now rushes on a tremendous charge; and all the old remedies for Liver Complaint have given way for

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—Six paces to the front, is the word to everybody and everything that wants to be listened to or looked at. If you have anything to do, do it; if you wish any person to see anything, show it; if you have anything to be cured, CURE IT WITH

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you have a Bottle of Holman's Bitters in your house, you need not suffer from

Biliousness, Weakness at the Stomach, Indigestion, Heartburn, Lowness of Spirits,

Nor any of the diseases incident to the season.

ERRORS OF TEETOTALISM.

CHAPTER IX.

From the North American Review.

Professor Johnston, another chemist, is next quoted to prove that the stimulus of alcohol is not in itself injurious, but beneficial, though the reviewer adds, "Too much of it we know to be injurious." It would have been at least kind, had he, after portraying the dangers from its use, informed the reader how much is just enough. What would we think of a professedly scientific medical writer, who should urge the use, in some disease, of a drug he admitted to be dangerous in excess, without giving us any idea of the dose in which it should be administered?

The reviewer also quotes from Professor Johnston the absurd idea, first propounded, we think, by Liebig, that alcohol, coffe, tea, &c., "diminish the waste of tissue," though an equal amount of force is developed. It is high time this absurdity were given up, even by chemists. Physiology, except as manufactured for us in the laboratory, entirely repudiates such a chimera. Our writer also adopts the saying of the "poets," that wine is "the milk of the old," and then quotes Liebig to the same effect. While we cherish the profoundest respect for Liebig as an analytical chemist, we must admit that there is a certain propriety in associating so imaginative a writer on this subject with the poets.—We however by no means deny that wine is beneficial to the aged, or to any one whose weak digestive powers require its stimulating effects. We do not ourselves hesitate to prescribe alcoholic drinks when we think them needful. But we have nothing here to do with alcohol as a medicine; and therefore the authorities just referred to have no bearing on the question before us. We find, however, an admission on a subsequent page, which seems singular as coming from a writer who maintains that the use of alcohol "once or twice a day" is "positively beneficial" to a man in health. If, says he, we are "living under perfectly healthy conditions, with hereditary strength of organism, with abundance of excellent food, with stomachs equipped for efficient exercise,—in such a case alcohol is certainly of no use." We are happy to find the reviewer at last strictly correct, on this one point. But he adds: "In such a case alcohol in moderation can do no injury,—because of the elasticity of the organism,—and while it does no injury, it produces pleasure." The "potency" and the "fascination" of alcohol have been portrayed in dithyrambic style; we have just been told that in perfect health it is not beneficial (is of "no use"); but it is added, that so powerful an agent is also not injurious. That is, to one in health it is neither injurious nor beneficial, though so powerful. Yet we know that it is often beneficial in disease; and we should expect that it would, like other remedies, produce some effect at any rate, probably an injurious one, in health. Dr. Carpenter has shown that this is the fact. But alcohol "produces pleasure." We should say "excitement," instead of pleasure; but it is very true that some take pleasure to consist in excitement. Yet we have seen that in the fact that alcohol is a peculiar stimulant lies all the danger. Is it, however, pleasure to be excited to-day, and "sleep it off" to-night, or only "pay for it by a headache to-morrow?" Let the reader say for himself.

The closing pages of the article under consideration are devoted to the reviewer's second proposition,—"Use is not abuse;" or, "There is no necessary physiological connection between moderation and excess." Of course there is no physiological necessity or reason why a healthy person should take alcohol for the first time; there is equally none for taking it the second time, or the ten-thousandth. But our writer "knows better than most people" that it is the physiological fact that moderation tends to excess,—that use tends to abuse; for he admits that "He who drinks will drink again, and moderation, we know, oils the hinges of the gate leading to excess. The only absolute preventive against taking to much is to take none." "In anything more wanted" to show that, if excess does not necessarily follow moderation, there is great danger that it will? And this danger, the reviewer himself admits, can be avoided only by abstinence. We must therefore regard the total abstinence resta on a physiological basis, unless he retracts his own language." He however adds: "Stimulus [i. e. alcohol] is daily taken by thousands who do not increase the amount as they advance in life;" to which we reply, that there are millions who do increase the quantity as they advance in life. The reason is simply, that, as the organism becomes accustomed to the stimulus, a larger quantity is required to produce a given stimulating effect.

LATER FROM EUROPE.

The steamship America, from Liverpool April 27, arrived at Halifax, May 8.

Her accounts state a rumor that the British government have decided to acknowledge the proceedings of Mr. Crampton, and will not withdraw him from his present position.—There may be some fallacy in the reports.

The document which contains the treaty of peace between the late belligerent powers has been published in London, and is considered to be authentic. Neutrality on the Black Sea is the doctrine. The mouths of the Danube are to be free. Russia restores Kars and other conquests in Asia to the Turks, and consents to a rectification of the Bessarabian frontier, which adds territories to Moldavia, and the principalities remain under the guardianship of Turkey, but they are to have freedom of religion and commerce. Turkey appears to be treated as if she were the pet child of Europe.

The advance in the price of cotton at Liverpool, mentioned by the previous arrival, was sustained, with a quiet market at the close, and a decline at Manchester.

GREAT BRITAIN.—The event exciting the most attention was the grand review of the fleet, on Wednesday, the 23d ult. The papers overflow with details. 100,000 spectators were present on land and sea. The fleet numbered 240 ships of war, big and little, all but two being steamers, comprising 34,000 30,000 guns, 33,000 men, and included 16 gunboats and 3 floating batteries. It extended 12 miles along waters east and west of Spithead. The fleet formed four squadrons, and performed manœvres for the edification of the Queen. Afterward, they make a sham attack on Portsmouth Castle, and finally concluded by illuminating all the ships with colored lights.

The London Sun published the treaty of peace within a mourning border, and headed editorial respecting the fleet with the caption, "Our glory and our shame!"—exciting much indignation thereby among its cotemporaries.

In Parliament, government has sustained yet another defeat, being outvoted by 28 majority in favor of open competition for civil appointments.

TURKEY.—The French have evacuated Kinburn. The French and Sardinians are alrerdy re-embarking from the Crimea.

CONGRESS.

THURSDAY, May 8.

SENATE.—On motion of Mr. Mason, the Senate took up the resolution reported from the Committee on Foreign Relations, declaring the notice which has been given by the President to Denmark to terminate the treaty with that government, regulating the Sound Dues, to be sufficient, and that no other or further legislation is necessary to put an end to the said treaty as a part of the law of the land.

Mr. Stuart moved to strike out the latter portion of the resolution, commencing "and that no other," &c.

A debate sprung up, which lasted till the adjournment.

HOUSE.—The House, as well as the Senate, adopted the report of the Joint Committee of Conference on the bill amending the bounty law of 1855. The bill provides that parole evidence, where no record exists, may be admitted to prove military service performed, construes the 8th section of the act of 1855 to embrace officers, marines, seamen, and other persons engaged in the naval service during the Revolutionary war, and their widows and minor children, and allowing to compute the time of service one day for every twenty miles from the place where the troops organize to muster, and also on their return after their discharge.

On motion of Mr. Pennington, it was resolved that the President be requested to communicate, if compatible with the public interests, such information as may be in his possession touching the recent disturbances at Panama, and the interruption on either of the routes on foreign territory between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, and what measures have been taken for the protection of American interests relative to the same.

The House resumed consideration of its disagreements to the Senate's amendments to the deficiency appropriation bill.

Mr. Giddings earnestly attcked an item for the expenses of the judiciary in Ohio, and was warmly condemning the appropriation of money to discharge arrearages contracted for returning fugutive slaves, when he suddenly fainted, and fell to the floor. Several members immediately conveyed him to a sofa near an open window. A profound sensation was occasioned by the incident, and a recess was spoken of, when it was moved to change the order of business, and receive reports for an hour. Mr. Giddings soon returned to consciousness, and was conducted to his residence.

The motion to receive reports was agreed to, and Mr. Campbell, from the Committee of Ways and Means, reported the Post Office and Ocean Mail Steamer Appropriation bill.

The bill gsanting npwards of 1,500,000 acres of land to Iowa, to aid railroads in that state, was passed by 79 to 59.

Mr. Smith of Alabama, from the committee on Elections, reported a resolution, that the parties to the New Mexico contested election case be authorized to appear before the House, either in person or by counsel, to defend their respective claims.

Mr. Smith said the resolution was more especially designed for the sitting member, Senor Gallegos, who could not speak English sufficiently well to argue his case before the House.

[What a member! How can he understand the debates, and the reports, so as to vote properly? And what a man he must be, to help make laws to govern the American people.]

Mr. Jones of Tennessee moved the employment of an interpreter instead of counsel. He was opposed to the admission of counsel as a dangerous precedent.

Mr. Smith stated that the Committee on Elections have decided against Gallegos and in favor of Otero, the contestant. He then proceeded to show the necessity of authorizing the employment of counsel.

After further debate, the question was passed over, and Mr. Giddings, having returned to the hall, concluded his remarks against the Senate's amendments to the deficiency appropriation bill. During his remarks he referred to affairs in Kansas and the Indian war in Oregon, condemning the proceedings in both territories. Adjourned.

BOY WANTED—A Boy about 12 or 14 years old, by HILL & CARR.

ONE PIANO FORTE for sale at City Sales Room by m2 GEO. W. TOWLE

The Vt. Caledonian mentions Mr. Eli Bickford, of North Danville, as having attained the age of 109 years; and says his health is quite good and his intellect scarcely impaired. He was a soldier in the war of the Revolution, and two years a prisoner of the British.

The Missouri Democrat says of the rumore that Col. Benton will decline the nomination of Governor of Missouri, "Let our friends pay no attention to such stories. We are convinced that ere August comes round, his trumpet tones will have been heard in every quarter of Missouri."

A German named Henry Dincart, who was committed on a charge of pocket-picking in the late fire in Philadelphia, hang himself in the Moyamensing prison. The large amount of funds found upon his person led to the discovery that he possessed ample means, and that the charge was evidently a mistake.

Great American and Foreign Office
For Securing Patents for Inventions.

Agency for business with U S Patent Office, Washington

R. H. EDDY,

No. 76 State st, opp. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages to inventors applying for Patents, superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid by others) will be promitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal throu h him within thirty days after the rejection.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that more PATENTS SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would abd that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents, which, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers and Drawings necessary to the procural of patents in this and foreign countries prepared and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, or infringement of patents. All necessity of a journey so Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Copies of claims of any patent furnished for one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington—Patents secured in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries, through Agents of the highest respectability. R. H. EDDY.

Solicitor of Patents.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in a suring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure their rights early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER OF LOTTERIES. }
BALTIMORE, April 15, 1856.

THE undersigned, Commissioner of Lotteries of the State of Maryland, being in receipt daily of letters from various portions of the country, making inquiry as to Lottery Schemes, with which the country is flooded, and which purport to be "decided by the drawing of the Maryland Consolidated Lotteries," takes this method to answer all such letters of inquiry, and inform the public that all Lotteries purporting to be decided by the Maryland Lotteries are great frauds; that certain parties who style themselves Morris & Co., and pretend to be Managers or Sole Agents for the Grand Charter Lotteries at Cleaveland, Ohio, are impostors, and said lottery a fraud, having neither legal nor presumptive existence; and that another fictitious firm, styled Harry & Co, Cleveland, Ohio, are also imposters, and all lotteries which they profess to be managers or agents for, are also frauds.

RICHARD FRANCE, of this city, is the Contractor for drawing the Maryland Lotteries. The business is conducted under the firm of R. FRANCE & Co., as Managers, and they have no sole agents in the city of Baltimore. There are, however, some forty licensed venders for the State of Maryland, who derive licenses under him, through this office, to sell tickets in the Maryland Lotteries. D. H. McPHAIL,

FARM LANDS FOR SALE.

The Illinois Central Railroad Company

NOW PREPARED TO SELL

OF
FARMING LANDS,

In Tracts of 40 acres and upwards, on long credits and at low rates of interest.

THESE lands were granted by the Government to aid in the construction of this Railroad, and include some of the richest and most fertile Prairies in the State, interspersed here and there with magnificent groves of oak and other timber. The Road extends from Chicago, on the northeast, to Cairo at the south, and from thence to Galena and Dunleith, in the north-west extreme of the State, and as all the lands lie within fifteen miles on each side of this Road, ready and cheap means are afforded by it for transporting the products of the lands to any of those points and from thence to Eastern and Southern markets. Moreover, the rapid growth of flourishing towns and villages along the line, and the great increase in population by immigration, etc., afford a substantial and growing home demand for farm produce.

The soil is a dark, rich mould, from one to five feet in depth, is gently rolling and peculiarly fitted for grazing cattle and sheep, or the cultivation of wheat, Indian corn, etc.

Economy in cultivating and great productiveness are the well known characteristics of Illinois lands. Trees are not required to be cut down, stumps grubbed, or stone picked off, as is generally the case in cultivating new land in the older States. The first crop of Indian corn, planted on the newly broken sod, usually repays the cost of plowing and fencing.

Wheat sown on the newly-turned sod is sure to yield very large profits. A man with a plow and two yoke of oxen will break one and a half to two acres per day. Contracts can be made for breaking, ready for corn or wheat, at from $2 to 2.50 per acre. By judicious management, the land may be plowed and fenced the first, and under a high state of cultivation the second year.

Corn, grain, cattle, etc. will be forwarded at reasonable rates to Chicago, for the Eastern market, and to Cairo for the Southern. The larger yield on the cheap lands of Illinois over the high priced lands in the Eastern and Middle States, is known to be much more than sufficient to pay the difference of transportation to the Eastern market.

Bituminous coal is mined at several points along the Road, and is a cheap and desirable fuel. It can be delivered at several points along the Road at $1.50 to $4 per ton; Wood can be had at the same rates per cord.

Those who think of settling in Iowa or Minnesota, should bear in mind, that lands there of any value, along the water courses and for many miles inland, have been disposed of;—that for those located in the interior, there are no conveniences for transporting the produce to market, railroads not having been introduced there. That to send the produce of these lands, one or two hundred miles by wagon to market would cost more than the expense of cultivating them; and hence Government lands thus situated, at $1.25 per acre are not so good investments as the lands of this company at the prices fixed.

These lands remain good in relation to the lands in Kansas and Nebraska, for although vacant lands may be found nearer the water courses the distance to market is far greater, and every hundred miles the produce of those lands are carried either in wagons or uninterrupted water communications, increases the expense of transportation, which must be borne by the settlers, in the reduced price of their products; and to that extent proportionately are the incomes from their farms, and of course on their investments, annually and every year reduced.

The great fertility of the lands now offered for sale by this company, and their consequent yield over those of the Middle and Eastern States, is much more than sufficient to pay the difference in the cost of transportation, especially in view of the facilities furnished by this Road, and others with which it connects, the operations of which are not interrupted by the low water of summer, or the frosts of winter.

PRICES AND TERMS OF PAYMENT.

The Price will vary from $5 to $25, according to the quality, location, &c. Contracts for Deeds may be made during the year 1856, stipulating the purchase money to be paid in five annual installments; the first to become due in two years from the date of contract, and the others annually thereafter. The last payment will become due at the end of the sixth year from the date of the contract.

Interest will be charged at only 3 per ct. per ann.

As a security to the performance of the contract the first two years' interest must be paid in advance, and it must be understood that at least one tenth of the land purchased shall yearly be brot under cultivation. Twenty per cent. from the credit price will be deducted for cash. The Company's construction bonds will be received as cash.

READY FRAMED FARM BUILDINGS,

Which can be set up in a few days, can be obtained from Responsible Persons.

They will be 12 ft. by 20 ft. divided into one living and three bed rooms, and will cost complete set up on ground chosen anywhere along the road $150 in cash, exclusive of transportation. Larger buildings may be contracted for at proportionate rates The Company will forward all the materials for such buildings over the Road ready for use.

Special arrangements with dealers can be made to supply those purchasing the Company's lands with fencing materials, agricultural tools, and an outfit of provisions in any quantity, at the lowest wholesale prices.

It is believed that the price, long credit, and low rate of interest, charged for these lands will enable a man with a few hundred dollars in cash, and ordinary industry, to make himself independent before all the purchase money become due. In the mean time, the rapid settlement of the country will probably have increased their value four or five fold. When required an experienced person will accompany applicants, to give information, and aid in selecting lands.

Circulars containing numerous instances of successful farming, signed by respectable and well known farmers living in the neighborhood of the Railroad lands, throughout the State—also the cost of fencing, price of cattle, expense of harvesting, threshing, &c. by contract—or any other information—will be cheerfully given, on application, either personally or by letter, in English, French or German, addressed to

JOHN WILSON,
Land Commissioner of Ill. Central R. R. Co.,
Office up to the 1st of May, 52 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Ill.; after that date in the New Depot Passenger Depot, So. Water st. a8 6m

Morning Chronicle.

INDIANS WANTED.—The government has concluded to set the speculators at work upon the troublesome Indians of Florida; it would have been wise years ago, to let out the job of thrashing "ye salvages," instead of spending $50,000,000 on military expeditions that did nothing but make treaties that were generally broken the next day. The government now offers to pay anybody as follows, for every live Indian who is presented by him for voluntary emigration to the west:

For each warrior,	$250 to $500
For each woman	150 to 200
For each boy over 10 years,	100 to 200

The highest rate will be paid for all except the infirm, bed-ridden, and helpless, in which cases the rate, not less than the minimum, will be fixed by the agent.

The Floridians are dissatisfied because the bounty is not for the Indians, alive or dead.—If the latter were included, a man with his rifle could bag a dozen a week, and make a handsome thing of it—so the amiable Floridians seem to think. Game isn't very plenty there, and they are therefore earnestly desirous of having the Indians added to the variety.—Lowell News.

The political, military, and financial history of Florida, from the day when General Jackson hung Arbuthnot and Ambrister, down to the present time—is one of the strongest.

Florida Territory in 1840 contained 54,477 inhabitants; and the State of Florida in 1850 only 87,445;—not so many as a New York County.

It has been an immense bill of cost to the United States—it has one Representative and two Senators in Congress,—it was for years, the burial ground of the army, and the hunting ground of the bloodhounds—and its value to the Union is yet unknown, not having been discovered.

T. P. MOSES.—The friends of this gentleman, hereabouts, will be pleased to learn that he has within a few months, accepted the offer of a situation as Professor of Music, in a young ladies' Seminary, pleasantly located in the interior of South Carolina. We hear he contemplates giving a Floral Concert, by and bye, in his new location; in which, as in various departments of the fine arts, he has few superiors, North or South. We trust a residence for a while in the sunny South, may entirely restore his health.

A correspondent of the Gazette says:

I saw a letter, the other day, from our old Portsmouth friend and professor of the fine arts, T. P. M., who is now sojourning,—I should rather say, luxuriating—in the interior of South Carolina. He speaks in glowing terms of the country,—it produces real "clover," such as a man of Tom's refined taste well knows how to appreciate. He is in raptures with a romantic path through the woods—much frequented by pigs and young ladies,—the former in pursuit of an honest livelihood, and the latter on their way to school.—Which of the two classes lent to those sylvan shades that sweetness and attraction which charmed our Yankee professor, the deponent saith not, but thinks Prof. knows the difference between curls and brisles. His many friends in Portsmouth will be gratified to learn that he enjoys excellent health, and finds the "peculiar institution" quite handy.

CHIVALRY.—The Shifflets and Gregorys of Greenbrier county, Va., have an ancient feud as is the habit of ancient Virginia families, and the occasional skrimmages came to a fatal termination in the shooting of Joseph Shifflet by James Gregory, one day last week."

How shiftless! says Miss Ophelia in Uncle Tom dramatized.

For the Chronicle.

THE STORM.—The storm which has been brewing for some days past, broke o'er our devoted heads early on Friday. A strong, north-easterly wind prevailed through the day, and rather increased than diminished through the night, much rain falling. A little after five o'clock, P. M., a portion of the high fence in the rear of the Brick Market fell with a crash. The storm was so violent that the usual bell-ringing at nine o'clock was omitted.

This is one of the worst storms we have had, for inward bound vessels, and indeed for any craft near the coast, and though, as yet, we have heard of no disasters, we expect a sad array of wrecks. Old Boreas was entirely beyond control; hats seemed to have an irresistible penchant to traverse peculiarly dirty avenues with lightning speed, to the intense disgust of their supposed owners, who were left far in the rear; antiquated ladies stood aghast as some sudden whiff left them with one pedestal in the slough, the other on terra firma, while umbrellas turned inside out, much to the edification of the unlucky pedestrians who bore them, or were twiched and twirled till the beings who were so unfortunate as to clasp the other end in their digitals, were fain to decide quickly whether it were better to relinquish their hold and see their property (if umbrellas may be called property, and some seem to think they are common property,) take leave a la parachute, or, "hanging on," after a fierce steeple-chase through mud and mire, to "perish miserably in the last ditch."

YOUNGSTER.

☞ Speaking of the Distillers' Prize Essay on Temperance, the Boston Telegraph says:

Mr. Barnard has been very successful in his selection of judges. We do not know that a single one of them is in favor of the principle of prohibition, and nearly all are quite averse to the practice of total abstinence. Mr. Barnard will, undoubtedly, secure just such an Essay and just such a law as he would like.

☞ David Hull, of Guilford, N. H., has been imprisoned on a charge of assault with intent to kill Benjamin Dow. Dow is the principal witness against him. Dow's wife is also arrested, and bound over in $100 to answer to a charge of adultery with Hull.

Morning Chronicle.

MONDAY, MAY 12, 1856.

MISSION SOCIETIES.

On the 9th of May, in New York City, the annual meeting of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions was held in the Broadway Tabernacle. Hon. T. Frelinghuysen presided. A statement of the condition of the work of the foreign missions under the care of this Board was read. There are 400 laborers in the missionary field, of these 363 are ordained ministers, 23 assistants, physicians, &c., and 220 female assistants. There are also 65 native preachers and 227 catechists, comprising a total of 697 laborers in connection with the missions of the Board. There are also 11 printing presses, which have issued a total of 26,000,000 pages. There are 19 boarding schools, and, exclusive of those in the Sandwich Islands, there are 365 common schools, having 12,000 pupils. Eleven new churches have been added to the 104 already in existence. The receipts of the Board for that portion of the year which has elapsed have amounted to $217,184 54. A great increase of receipts will be necessary in order to meet the extraordinary expenditures and prevent the increase of the debt, which, at the last anniversary amounted to $20,400.

The 24th Anniversary of the Baptist Home Missionary Society was held at the Oliver street Baptist church. Hon. Albert Day presided. The report of the Treasurer shows an unpromising state of affairs, the receipts having fallen off to a large amount during the year. Hon. Mr. Day was reelected President for the ensuing year.

Correspondence of the Chronicle.

EXETER, May 9.

Messrs. Editors: The statement to the effect that Rev. Nathaniel Lassell, of the Orthodox Society in Amesbury, had received and accepted a call to settle here, which was going the rounds of the newspapers a week or two since, and which you copied, was somewhat premature. However, at a meeting of the Second Congregational Society, held Thursday, it was voted to extend an invitation to him, and it is hoped that he will accept. He is to take the place of Rev. Wm. D. Hitchcock, who died about a year and a half ago, —the pulpit, since that time, having been unoccupied by any regularly settled pastor.

The foundations for quite a number of dwelling houses and other buildings are now being laid in this village, and it is probable that an unusual number of edifices will be erected during the season. Among them is one for a new church to accommodate the Elm street Baptist Society, which has been recently formed here.

A few weeks since there appeared in the News Letter an advertisement relating to a young man named Davis, of Kingston, who was missing from his home. A few days after, as some men were riding, they saw on the bridge which crosses the river, a glazed cap, with a stone in it. As they were not aware, however, of the young man's disappearance, it occasioned no remark until sometime afterwards, when, as he did not return, it was feared he had commited suicide by drowning.—This fear was rendered certain yesterday, when his body was found in the river among the bushes, a short distance above this place. Nothing has yet been done with the body, as no inquest has yet been held. He was about nineteen years of age. G. P.

A VILLAIN.—In Boston, on Wednesday afternoon, the police arrested a fellow, named Lawrence Hallahan, for cruelly beating his sister, a girl of fifteen years. The parents of the two are dead, and the girl has, by her own industry, supported and taken care of two younger sisters, while her unnatural brother, who is 18 years old, has spent his time in loafing about the streets, and living upon his sister's sparse earnings. We hope the Court will send the wretch where he will be put at hard labor for one year.

SARAH AND MRS. STOWE.—We noticed the fact last week that Mr. F. Scheffer had permitted the slave woman Sarah, whom he had purchased of Mr. Churchman, to go to Washington city, for the purpose of soliciting means to purchase her freedom, and remarked that Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe would have a good subject for the practical illustration of her professed philanthropy. We learn from Mr. Scheffer that he has received a letter from Washington, apprising him of the fact that Mrs. Stowe had given Sarah $100. It is due to Mrs. Stowe to say that she had given the money before the notice of challenge to her philanthropy had been published. —Stanton (Va.) American.

We publish the above for the sake of giving credit where credit is due, without knowing the exact position which "Sarah" occupied as a subject of philanthropy.—Boston Courier.

WRECK. The schooner Daniel Parker, from Bangor for New York got ashore off West Sandwich harbor on Friday afternoon, and went to peices. Capt. Richard Smith, Israel Snow, mate, and the cook, were lost.—Two men were saved.

MAINE.—The Portland Journal & Inquirer of the 8th says:

The present law, designed to foster and protect the liquor traffic, cannot stand. It must fall, it will fall. The reaction has already commenced, and that reaction will aid the party that takes ground against this law, and goes for its repeal. Intemperance is coming in upon us like a flood, and the community will arise in self defence and demand prohibition. We need not force this question in or out. It will, as the boy said—whistle itself.

This is the people's cause and it is God's cause, and its final and complete triumph is sure. Consent to ignore prohibition, we never can. Wrap it up in a napkin and lay it aside, we never will. The question is up and it will not be down at the bidding of politicians. No, it won't.

The idea that the question of prohibition can be ignored in Maine, is absurd and preposterous; and no sane man in the State believes it can be. It is therefore the height of folly to propose any such plan. The temperance men of Maine can not ignore the question if they would, and they would not if they could.

We are unalterably and eternally opposed to the principle of license, and hence we go for Repeal, now, this year —as soon as it can be had. It may not come this year; but we go for it till it does come. With us there is no such word as fail. We are right and we shall succeed. And we may succeed this year. Mark what we say, the present law cannot stand. It must be repealed or civilization must go backward.

WHY DO YOU NOT GET MARRIED?—We are aware that this query is quite in common use, and that many young ladies of a "certain age," are daily badgered into unhappy unions for life, by thoughtless crudities of opinion and observation. The less the world and the opinion of the world are allowed to take part in the determination of the question of matrimony, the less likely are those most nearly concerned to make a wrong or false decision. The household is the place in which to dispose of such delicate issues, and not the street, the ball, or the drawing-room. By no means give countenance to any such forced marriage as that which threatens your daughter. If her heart cannot go with the hand, she had better remain unwedded to the end of her days than to enter into a partnership the balance sheet of which will show no other result than the loss of independence, and the total wreck of every real comfort, for the sake of the mere name of 'wife.'

Furthermore, we do not consider the chances of an estimable and worthy young lady of "just 24 years of age," as by any means hopeless and unpromising. The happiest unions are not always the earliest, as a matter of course. American tables show that the favorite matrimonial period for females lies between the 20th and 25th years, in which nearly one-half of the whole number of marriages are consummated. In the period next beyond this, between 25 and 30—more than one-fifth receive their husbands; and the chances are very considerable, and almost equal to the previous, between the sober and well-defined boundaries of 30 and 40. Above all, as our closing advice, do not by any means allow your daughter to be jeered into marriage by the wolf-cry of 'old-maid!' for the real wolf will be most likely to come in that case, in the shape of the compulsory husband.—N. Y. Sunday Times.

Very well said, and mostly true. And on the other hand, some "young ladies of a certain age," are doubtless "badgered" out of "unions for life," which would greatly add to their happiness. The evil done by busy bodies, in both cases, is immense, and for the most part irreparable. We know of no cure for the evil custom except for every person to mind his (or her) own business.

The Maine Law ladies of Portland have presented the Hon. Neal Dow with a silver salver and four silver goblets. How much suffering might be alleviated by expending the value of these useless articles in behalf of the suffering poor. When will people learn wisdom?—Transcript.

We would refer our neighbour to the following parallel case:—"Then saith one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, which should betray him 'Why not this ointment sold for three hundred pence and given to the poor?' This he said, not that he cared for the poor."—John 12:4, 5, 6.—Northern Home Journal.

A rather extensive black mail operation has just come to light in New York, in which a fast male member of the Brown family, in partnership with a fascinating female, has, during the last seventeen years, bled a wealthy individual to the tune of from $50,000 to $150,000. The affair has been known to the police, but the wealthy person refused to have the exposure. The last of Brown's doings of this delicate nature, was the extortion of a deed of property at Harlem, valued at $20,000, and that is to be contested by a suit which will probably bring out the operations of the "injured husband" in full.—Boston Chronicle.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT FROM FIRE-ARMS.—On Tuesday last two boys, each about eighteen years of age, named Henry Barker and George Gay, of North Chelsea, were amusing themselves by firing at a target with a double barrel shot-gun. After Barker had fired one barrel, young Gay ran to the target to mark the shot, and while so doing, by accident the other barrel was discharged, lodging the contents in Gay's back and thigh. Dr. Wheeler of Chelsea was immediately called, and found forty-three shot wounds upon the person of young Gay, and succeded in extracting several of the shot, but was unable to reach the remainder as they were deeply buried in the flesh. The boys were friends, and Barker is very sorry for the occurrence.

A priest named Gregory Franchi, was hung at Piacenza, in Italy, on the 8th ult., for murder. He deliberately shot a respectable young man for having married his niece, who, with another sister, had been seduced by the reverend villain. The bishop and clergy of the city endeavored to obtain a commutation of his punishment, but did not succeed.

☞ On Friday morning, at half-past 2 o'clock, at Lowell, a fire broke out in Wyman's Exchange, damaging the building $15,000. Many of the occupants were also losers —among them, Mr. B. H. Penhallow, printer, formerly of this city. He is insured.

☞ Six stores were entered on one nigh last week in Portland—but the burglars got little money.

"If you are Coming, Why don't you Come along?"

THAT is the "mot" now-a-days. Every locomotive on every Railroad shrieks it. It is daily rapped out on every Telegraphic Line in the country. The echoing blows of our Ship Carpenters hourly exemplify it. The smith at his anvil hammers it out. The clanking Press with breathless haste, sends the cry home to every family—"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"

It is uttered in an hundred tongues in a hundred lands. It has sounded like a slogan through the political world, and the "Old Fogies" are creeping along among the baggage wagons and the wounded. Thought, that moved at a funeral pace, now rushes on a tremendous charge; and all the old remedies for Liver Complaint have given way for

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along."—Six paces to the front, is the word to everybody and everything that wants to be listened to or looked at. If you have anything to do, do it; if you wish any person to see anything, show it; if you have anything to be cured, CURE IT WITH

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you have a Bottle of Holman's Bitters in your house, you need not suffer from

Biliousness, Weakness at the Stomach, Indigestion, Heartburn, Lowness of Spirits,

Nor any of the diseases incident to the season.

It used to take six men to make a pin; now one boy, a pull, a clip, and two strokes, and that's the way the pins are made. Once it took a Physician, lots of precious time, and quantities of nauseous drugs to cure some simple disease of the Blood.—Now, a quarter expended in

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS

Brings Life and Health, flowing spirits and rosy cheeks.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you are sick and weak, why don't you cure yourself? Here we offer you the article that will do it—there is no mistake about it. Every body knows about HOLMAN'S BITTERS; they have been tried and have "toed the mark straight."

They are a good medicine; they are better than anything else for all Spring Complaints; they are just the best Bitters that can be bought—and that's the best thing we can say about them. "If you are coming, why don't you come along," before they are all gone?

LOCAL.

☞ On Friday night, during the storm, some thief or thieves broke two panes of glass in the shop window of Mr. A. J. Fitts's clothing store, Market street, and stole goods valued at about $40. A few of the stolen articles were afterwards found in Market and Hanover streets. The window was furnished with short shutters, and the thieves broke the glass above them.

MUSIC.—Nothing contributes more to the refinement and good feeling of society, than the prevalence of a Musical taste; and perhaps there is no other method by which so much real pleasure can be obtained as in the exercise and education of musical talent.—We are much gratified to notice that this subject is receiving increased attention, and that the use of Musical Instruments is becoming more common. Probably no instrument has grown so rapidly into public favor, than the Melodeon. So many improvements have been made on this within a few years, that it seems almost as if there was nothing more to be desired.

There are many makers of note, of this Instrument, the most extensive of whom are George A. Prince & Co., of Buffalo, N. Y., who have already made more than twenty thousand. They apply all the modern improvements, and have lately invented an attachment to each Instrument, which is their celebrated Divided Swell, which modulates the tone, and renders it much more pleasing.—It will be seen by the advertisement, that our neighbors, J. S. Harvey & Son, are agents for the sale of this valuable instrument. *

THE MURDER IN WASHINGTON.—The N. Y. Mirror, in commenting upon the recent murderous affray at Washington, uses the following language which will commend itself to the approval of most readers:

We forbear comments to-day upon this bloody business, beyond this: That the time, the place, and the relative position of the parties, render the conduct of Herbert wholly inexcusable. No gentleman, in a public dining-room, will have any altercation with the servants; and no man untainted by cowardice or ruffianism, will deem it necessary to go armed into a peaceful breakfast room. If waiters are "insolent" the gentlemanly guest will appeal to the host, and if he refuses to make the amende honorable, the only dignified alternative is to quit the house. We do not believe in hanging; but we would sentence the Honorable Mr. Herbert to the next severest penalty, and place the mark of Cain upon his brow.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—The examination of Mr. Herbert was resumed this evening.—Dist. Attorney Key asked for a postponement of the case, stating his desire that Mr. DuBois the Netherlands Minister, who saw the occurrence, should testify, but who declined doing so at present, wishing first to consult with other members of the Diplomatic corps. Foreign Mininters being exempt from process in such cases, Mr. DuBois must attend voluntarily, if at all, and there was no probability of his attending until to-morrow. The postponement being opposed, the justices ordered the case to proceed.

Arnold Harris, J. E. Reynolds, Maj. Graham, and Wm. A. Gardiner, were examined for the defence. Mr. Gardiner was in company with Herbert when the difficulty occurred, and with whose pistol Herbert shot Keating. Herbert and Gardiner lodged together, and the latter, as Mr. G. states, took the pistol from the mantle piece evening preceding.

Messrs. Bradley, Weller, Percy, Walker & Phillips addressed the court in favor of the discharge of the prisoner. District Attorney Key replied on the part of the prosecution.—The prisoner was remanded to the custody of the U. S. Marshal. The decision of the court will be rendered to-morrow.

DISASTER.—Charleston, May 10th.—Sloop Cinderella, which arrived last night from Cape Roman, brought as passengers Thos. Royal, late mate, and five seamen, taken from sch Alfaretta, of Newburyport, Ms. The Alfaretta, Capt. Chace, was on her passage from Attakapas, La. for Portsmouth, N. H. with a cargo of live oak timber, when on the 27th of April, lat 28, lon —, during a squall, Capt. Chase was knocked overboard by the boom and lost. After this accident, the mate not being a good navigator, the vessel drifted about for several days, when, being as was supposed, about 120 miles NE of Charleston, fell in with bark Hamilton, of Salem, for Doboy Island, Ga. the captain of which supplied the A. with provisions, and persuaded her commander to follow the bark and endeavor to reach Charleston.

On Friday last, at 2 AM, lost sight of the bark's light, when, a short time after made a light, which was thought might be the bark's but unfortunately it proved to be Cape Roman Light, and the schooner was, consequently, run ashore before daylight, on the beach near the lighthouse. The sch. will become a complete wreck.

MAINE FLOUR.—We have received from the Lewiston Flour Mills, a liberal specimen of the flour made there, which, we are glad to say, does credit both to them and to the State. It looks as well as any fancy brands from the South, and makes excellent bread. We wish we had wheat enough in Maine to supply its people, and then enough of such mills as those of Lewiston to turn it into flour. We don't know what wheat was used for the flour sent us, but the flour itself is unobjectionable. It is evident that as good flour can be made in Lewiston as elsewhere. We wish its millers abundant success.—Portland Argus.

CONGRESS.

FRIDAY, May 9.

SENATE.—The House bill, giving 1,500,000 acres of land to Iowa for railroads, was passed.

Yeas—Messrs. Adams, Allen, Bell of Tennessee, Bigler, Brown, Bright, Cass, Crittenden, Dodge, Douglas, Durkee, Fish, Fitzpatrick, Foster, Geyer, Hale, Harlan, James, Johnson, Jones of Iowa, Jones of Tennessee, Mallory, Pratt, Seaward, Slidell, Stuart, Sumner, Trumbull, Weller, Wilson, Yulee—31.

Nays—Messrs. Briggs, Brodhead, Hunter, Mason, Pugh, Reid, Thompson of Kentucky, Toombs, Wade—9.

Adjourned till Monday.

HOUSE.—The message of the Senate, asking for a third Committee of Conference, relative to the disagreeing amendments to the Deficiency bill, being under consideration, Mr. Phelps said he rose to defend the people of Missouri, whom Mr. Giddings yesterday said were traitors, and deserved to be hanged.

Mr. Giddings, interrupting, explained, saying his statement was, that the people of Missouri, by collecting an armed body for the purpose of usurping the government of Kansas, committed treason, and under the laws and Constitution of the United States, they were guilty of the charge.

Mr. Phelps of Missouri denied the charge, and said that such and idea existed only existed in the imagination of its author.—The Missourians who went to Kansas in November and December last, went for the purpose of maintaining the laws.

[This is decidedly a rich idea.]

After debate, the proposition to appoint a third Committee of Conference on the Deficiency bill, was adopted.

A long discussion ensued on the resolution to allow the parties to the New Mexico contested election case to be heard before the House in person or by counsel, and, without deciding the matter, the House adjourned.

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER OF LOTTERIES. Baltimore, April 18, 1856.

THE undersigned, Commissioner of Lotteries of the State of Maryland, being in receipt daily of letters from various portions of the country, making inquiry as to Lottery Schemes, with which the country is flooded, and which purport to be "decided by the drawings of the Maryland Consolidated Lotteries," takes this method to answer all such letters of inquiry, and inform the public that all Lotteries purporting to be decided by the Maryland Lotteries are gross frauds; that certain parties who style themselves Morris & Co., and pretend to be Managers or Sole Agents for the Grand Charter Lotteries at Cleveland, Ohio, are impostors, and solicit money by fraud, having neither legal nor presumptive existence; and that another fictitious firm, styled Murry & Co., Cleveland, Ohio, are also impostors, and all lotteries which they profess to be managers or agents for, are also frauds.

RICHARD FRANCE, of this city, is the Contractor for drawing the Maryland Lotteries. The business is conducted under the firm of R. FRANCE & Co., as Managers, and they have no sole agents in the city of Baltimore. There are, however, some forty licensed venders for the State of Maryland, who derive licenses under him, through this office, to sell tickets in the Maryland Lotteries.

FARM LANDS FOR SALE.

The Illinois Central Railroad Company

IS NOW PREPARED TO SELL

OF

FARMING LANDS,

In Tracts of 40 acres and upwards, on long credits and at low rates of interest.

THESE lands were granted by the Government to aid in the construction of this Railroad, and include some of the richest and most fertile Prairies in the State, interspersed here and there with magnificent groves of oak and other timber. The Road extends from Chicago, on the north-east, to Cairo at the south, and from thence to Galena and Dunleith, in the north-west extreme of the State, and as all the lands lie within fifteen miles on each side of this Road, ready and cheap means are afforded by it for transporting the products of the lands to any of those points and from thence to Eastern and Southern markets. Moreover, the rapid growth of flourishing towns and villages along the line, and the great increase in population by immigration, etc. afford a substantial and growing home demand for farm produce.

The soil is a dark, rich mould, from one to five feet in depth, is gently rolling and peculiarly fitted for grazing cattle and sheep, or the cultivation of wheat, Indian corn, etc.

Economy in cultivating and great productiveness are the well known characteristics of Illinois lands. Trees are not required to be cut down, stumps grubbed, or stones picked off, as is generally the case in cultivating new land in the older States. The first crop of Indian corn, planted on the newly broken sod, usually repays the cost of plowing and fencing.

Wheat sown on the newly-turned sod is sure to yield very large profits. A man with a plow and two yoke of oxen will break one and a half to two acres per day. Contracts can be made for breaking, ready for corn or wheat, at from $2 to 2.50 per acre. By judicious management, the land may be plowed and fenced the first, and under a high state of cultivation the second year.

Corn, grain, cattle, etc. will be forwarded at reasonable rates to Chicago, for the Eastern market, and to Cairo for the Southern. The larger yield on the cheap lands of Illinois over the high priced lands in the Eastern and Middle States, is known to be much more than sufficient to pay the difference of transportation to the Eastern market.

Bituminous coal is mined at several points along the Road, and is a cheap and desirable fuel. It can be delivered at several points along the Road at $1.50 to $2 per ton; Wood can be had at the same rates per cord.

Those who think of settling in Iowa or Minnesota, should bear in mind, that lands free of any value, along the water courses and for many miles inland, have been disposed of;—that for those located in the interior, there are no conveniences for transporting the produce to market, railroads not having been introduced there. That to send the produce of these lands, one or two hundred miles by wagon carts adds a wonderful cost much more than the expense of cultivating them; and hence Government lands thus situated, at $1.25 per acre are not so good investments as the lands of this company at the prices named.

The same remark holds good in relation to the lands in Kansas and Nebraska, for although vacant lands may be found nearer the water courses the distance to market is far greater, and every hundred miles they are removed from their home, and of course on their investments, annually and every year reduced.

The great fertility of the lands now offered for sale by this company, and their consequently yield over those of the Middle and Eastern States, is much more than sufficient to pay the difference in the cost of transportation, especially in view of the facilities furnished by this Road, and others with which it connects, the operations of which are not interrupted by the low water of summer, or the frosts of winter.

PRICES AND TERMS OF PAYMENT.

The Price will vary from $5 to $25, according to the quality, location, &c. Contracts for Deeds may be made during the year 1856, stipulating the purchase money to be paid in five annual installments; the first to become due in two years from the date of contract, and the others annually thereafter. The last payment will become due at the end of the sixth year from the date of the contract.

Interest will be charged at only 3 per ct. per ann.

As a security to the performance of the contract the first two years' interest must be paid in advance, and it must be understood that at least one tenth of the land purchased shall yearly be brought under cultivation. Twenty per cent. from the credit price will be deducted for cash. The Company's construction bonds will be received as cash.

READY FRAMED FARM BUILDINGS,

Which can be set up in a few days, can be obtained from Responsible Persons.

They will be 12 ft. by 20 ft. divided into one living and three bed rooms, and will cost complete set up on ground chosen anywhere along the road $150 in cash, exclusive of transportation. Larger buildings may be contracted for at proportionate rates The Company will forward all the materials for such buildings over the Road prepaid.

Special arrangements with dealers can be made to supply those purchasing the Company's lands with fencing materials, agricultural tools, and an outfit of provisions in any quantity, at the lowest wholesale prices.

It is believed that the prices, long credit, and low rate of interest, charged for these lands will enable a man with a few hundred dollars in cash, and ordinary industry, to make himself independent before all the purchase money becomes due. In the mean time, the rapid settlement of the country will probably have increased their value four or five fold. When required an experienced person will accompany applicants, to give information, and aid in selecting lands.

Circulars containing numerous instances of successful farming, signed by respectable and well known farmers living in the neighborhood of the Railroad lands, the facilities for transportation, the cost of fencing, price of cattle, expense of harvesting, threshing, &c. by contract—or any other information—will be cheerfully given, on application, either personally or by letter, in English, French or German, addressed to

JOHN WILSON,
Land Commissioner of Ill. Central R. R. Co.,
Office up to the 1st of May, 52 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Ill.; after that date in the New Stone Passenger Depot, So. Water st. a8 6m

ERRORS OF TEETOTALISM.

CHAPTER X.—CONCLUSION.

From the North American Review.

Finally, the reviewer, in taking a retrospect of his labors, states five propositions which must be proved to establish Total Abstinence as a scientific theory; but which, he says, he has entirely disproved. These we need not repeat, since with his method of proof the reader is already familiar. On the other hand, we assert that Total Abstinence may be defended upon the basis of the two following propositions alone:— 1. Alcohol does not exert a beneficial effect upon the healthy human organism; and, 2. Use tends to abuse. Both these propositions have, moreover, been established by Dr. Carpenter; and the reviewer himself, as we have seen, has virtually admitted them. We may therefore retort upon him his remark respecting Dr. Carpenter: "We have only to disentangle the confusion" of his article, "and we find him an ally."

In taking our leave of the reviewer, we merely add, that we have found that his vulnerable points constitute the rule, and not the exception; we have "called in the aid of logic to combat fallacies," and of science to combat scientific errors"; and have made it apparent that he has very "confused conceptions of what, strictly speaking, must be called food." We have also exposed the absurdity of divers propositions, at which logic, physiology, and fact have "shrugged their shoulders" in turn. Finally, we have "rescued a scientific question"; and have shown, we think, that he has utterly failed to demonstrate the "Physiological Errors of Teetotalism." We have detained the reader much longer than we would have desired. But it was necessary that our wily opponent should be closely followed through the windings of his errant logic, lest he might adroitly skulk for shelter behind an inconsequent conclusion. We must, however, in justice, admit that he has laid the manufacturers and venders of alcoholic drinks under no slight obligation; and if it should be deemed expedient to publish his article in a seperate form, we suggest that it be entitled, "An Essay on the Effects of Alcohol; for Distribution by Brewers and Distillers."

Before finally dismissing this subject, we would enter our protest against the carelessness of remark—if it deserve no severer epithet—in which some medical men are accustomed to indulge in regard to the physiological effects of the habitual use of alcohol.—No writer but a thorough physiologist can do justice to this subject. Yet we often hear announced, in a magisterial style, opinions on this subject which are utterly opposed to facts and to physiology. When a physician sets the example of the daily use of alcoholic drinks, and assigns as the reason, that he, though in health, requires the beneficial physiological effects of alcohol, it really becomes a matter of charity, if we suppose him sincere, to instruct him that no valid physiological reason has been, or can be given for the notion that the habitual use of alcohol is beneficial to a person in health. We have no quarrel with him who drinks habitually; that is not our affair. But let him not impress Physiology to screen him in the practice.—She abhors such service. Let him not "drink on pretexts"; but frankly admit that he drinks merely for the excitement alcohol produces; that he incurs a risk in so doing, hoping to avoid the so frequent consequences; but that he would not advise another to do the same, lest he might yield to the temptation. This is fair and honorable; and this is the only ground that medical men who habitually drink alcoholic liquors can take, without impeaching either their knowledge or their candor. We confess ourselves indignant, when we see Physiology distorted and mutilated till her most intimate disciples can scarcely recognize her, and then debased to do battle against a cause emphatically her own; and we have no excuse for those who, whether prompted by ignorance or by their own interests, thus lay unholy hands upon her. In her behalf would we address to all such, the blended supplication and command of the Sibyl,—

"Procul, O procul este, profani!"

A SHAMEFUL ACT.—One evening last week some villains entered the fine orchard of Rev. Mr. Fellows, in Tiverton, R. I., and completely girdled every tree, and cut up the vines and shrubbery around his premises, which he had cultivated with great care. This is the third time a similar deed has been done. The active part which Mr. Fellows has taken in the Temperance cause, is said to be the reason for this dastardly outrage.

Morning Chronicle.

TUESDAY, MAY 13, 1856.

Foreign Correspondence of the Chronicle.

LETTERS FROM GERMANY.—No. 8.

BONN, March 31, 1856.

Dear Uncle Toby;—Several months have now passed since I wrote you, notwithstanding the punctuality of your very interesting and faithful "Chronicle." I do not want to flatter you say, Uncle T., but I must say, I think some of your "hits" are about right; and when Judge Kane, the Gov. of Virginia, Rev. Mr. Lovejoy, Frank Pierce, and old fogies, old topers and their supporters and defenders in general "catch it," I say "that's good, uncle Toby, hit 'em again." I did not think when I wrote you last that it would be so long before I wrote again, and I confess I am a little ashamed of my negligence, but the truth is I became so interested in the lectures of some of these aged, experienced, profound, German, University Professors, and took upon my hands so much reading, &c., in connection with their lectures, that I have found no time, although I have had abundance of topics to write upon.

The University at Bonn is, at the present time, the most distinguished for its philological department of all the universities in Germany except that at Berlin. Gotingen has for many years past enjoyed that reputation, although Bonn has for some time been considered a strong rival, but the death of two of the most distinguished Professors of Philology in Gottingen during the past winter, Professors Schneidewin and Karl Friederick Hermann, has ended the contest and left the preference decidedly in favor of Bonn. This is plainly seen in the fact that two of the Prof's here, Prof. John and Prof. Ritschl, received a call immediately to go to Gotingen to fill the chairs thus vacated. This call produced quite a sensation among the students in Bonn, especially in respect to Prof. Ritschl, who is regarded as one of the most profound linguists now living. His Latin, which language he writes and speaks fluently, is said to be equal to that used by Cicero, and he is said to have but one living rival in this respect. The King of Prussia interfered and prevented his going to Gotingen by increasing his salary and giving him the title of "Privy-Counsellor." Prof. Welker is also one of the most distinguished Professors here. He is now seventy-two years old and has devoted more than fifty years to Greek Mythology, History and Literature.—While listening to him one feels as if in the presence of one who actually lived in those ancient times, and was an eye witness of and participant in the scenes of which he speaks.

He has travelled frequently and extensively in Greece, and it is only two or three years since he made a journey there in order to visit a particular spot and satisfy his mind in regard to some point he was then investigating.

This is the way German Professors distinguish themselves. They select some one subject, or rather a single department of a subject, and then devote a life-time to its investigation, sparing neither time, labor nor expense, that seems to promise a thought or idea in addition to what is already known.

By this means Germany has acquired the reputation of containing the most learned men in the world. A like course pursued by American youth who design to devote themselves to a literary life, under the additional advantages of our more liberal and stimulating form of government, might, and I hope will, in the course of two, or three generations at most, place the United States even ahead of where Germany now stands in this respect. Civilization in the U. S. is already far in advance of civilization here. In farming implements, household utensils and furniture, and all kinds of mechanical instruments, except such as pertain to scientific apparatus, the U. S. are a full century in advance of Germany.

The superstition, bigotry and blind devotion, and ignorance of practical subjects and of the employment of ingenious mechanical contrivances which I witness every day is really astonishing. Two or three days since I saw three men employed in setting one shoe on an old, gentle horse. One held the foot up, the second fitted the shoe, and the third "ran on errands" between the horse and the forge. The shoe, instead of being fitted to the foot by paring the hoof, was brought all glowing from the forge and burned into the hoof.

The women carry all manner of burdens upon their heads, such as baskets of potatoes, apples, garden vegetables of all kinds, coal and even manure; empty barrels, kegs of beer, large bundles of hoop-, hop-, bean- and other poles and firewood; travelers' trunks, chests, tables, bureaus, bedsteads and all kinds of household furniture. They also work in the fields, spade up the ground, plant and dig potatoes, mow, pitch sheaves, trundle wheel-barrows, draw hand-carts, and do nearly all kinds of labor.

But let us return once more to the Universities and consider for a moment the students. They are very numerous. Bonn has usually about 800, and Berlin many more. A large proportion of these students are connected with voluntary associations, of which there are a great many, the principal objects of which are drinking beer, smoking, singing songs, and fighting duels. These societies meet twice a week, drink, smoke and sing songs until a late hour, then resort to the most public promenade in the city, where they insult and challenge each other. These insults are given without the least malice, and, in most instances, the duels fought without the least ill will. The fighting itself is so much of a farce that it is not worthy the name of a duel, at the same time liable to consequences sufficently serious to make it despicable and wicked.

The weapon employed is the rapier, the point of which is made very sharp for about eight inches. The right arm and the front of the body are securely defended by armor.—The head is uncovered, and by the "rules of the game," is the only part at which a blow is to be aimed. A second stands at the left hand of each principal, a part of whose duty is to catch any unfair blow he may see descending. The fight continues fifteen minutes, but is interrupted every two or three blows with the command "halt" from one or the other of the seconds. If at the end of that time neither has been wounded, they shake hands and part as they met, good friends. A wound, of course, unless it be a very slight scratch, puts a stop to the entertainment at any time.

More than half of these silly sham fights are bloodless, the others result in wounds of more or less severity, nearly always in the face, sometimes leaving an ugly scar for life.

An acquaintance of mine, with whom I have spent a great many hours learning to speak German, received a wound last summer, extending from the top of his head, some two inches above his forehead, downwards across the forehead, severing his eyebrow, wounding the upper lid and greatly endangering the eye, and scratching slightly his cheek.

I have often seen another student here who has fought several duels. In one he received a wound from the left corner of his mouth to the ear, cutting entirely through the cheek, and exposing the teeth to view; in another a perpendicular gash of equal length and severity across the other cheek. Of course the scars are unseemly enough, spoiling his looks entirely.

An Englishman fought last summer with a German. Both were students, and not on the best of terms with each other. Soon after the contest began the Englishman receives a wound upon his forehead. This being bound up, in the hope of still wounding his antagonist, he declared himself "not satisfied" and the fight was continued. It did not continue long, however, before the Englishman's nose was seen suspended by a little skin, in a very awkward and unsightly manner, over his mouth. He was then satisfied that his antagonist was a better swordsman than himself, at least.

But face-scarring and nose-clipping are not the most serious results of this useless pastime. Duelling, fostered thus, becomes the usual mode of settling all serious quarrels.—One was fought here during the past winter with pistols, terminating, however, without injury to either party. Another was fought with the same weapon in Berlin, between the Chief of the Police and one of the aristocratic citizens, resulting in the instant death of the former. It is said that the parties had no personal quarrel but were called out as representatives of opposite political factions. The unfortunate officer fought for his King and the existing Government. The excitement resulting from it was very great in Berlin at the time, and the King and his whole court attended the funeral. There is a class of restless spirits in Prussia, and the present form of Government, although not the worst upon earth, by any means, has many opposers. I cannot predict the results, time must unfold them. I fear I have already made this communication too long and will only add—

Yours truly T. H.

SQUATTER SOVEREIGNTY.—Among the subjects coming before the Cincinnati Democratic Convention is the adoption of "Squatter Sovereignty," as is contained in the Nebraska Act, and has been advocated by Mr. Cass.—The Richmond Enquirer denounces it, as a plank unfit for the platform. It says:

"Among the fair, but false and fatal theories of the day, none attracts so much homage as the 'squatter sovereignty' courtezan.—There are none so radiant with meretricious charms, none so ready with deceitful promise, and none so sure to cover their victim with shame and reproach. The sovereignty of the people is a noble principle, and should command universal homage. "Squatter sovereignty" is an imposture—a counterfeit copy—an ugly idol wrought by men's hands—and should be kicked off the pedestal, where it sits in stock majesty and courts the admiration of fools and demagogues."

Is it so? Does the Richmond Enquirer, that model paper, denounce that great and beautiful principle whose praises have been sung in our ears in strains so musical,

With instruments dulcet,
And trumpets so clear,
With braying of donkeys,
And shouts of hear, hear!

IT WORKS WELL.—Nathan Bishop, Esq., has been re-elected Superintendent of Schools in Boston, and his salary fixed at $2500. The office has existed in that city for five years and, as the Journal says, "has become an essential feature of our school system, and one which greatly contributes to its economy and efficiency." In Providence it has existed for 16 years, and would no more be dispensed with than would the committee itself. It is everywhere pronounced a means of economy and efficiency, as in Danvers, Ware, Lawrence, Beverly, Gloucester, &c.

DAMAGES FROM THE TELEGRAPH.—The Detroit Tribune states that a commission merchant of Hamilton recovered in Court, last Friday, $3000 of the Montreal Telegraph Company, for a failure to deliver a telegraph, which he sent to his correspondent in New York, within a reasonable time, whereby he lost, in the decline of flour, the amount of damage returned him. The despatch was three days on the way.

SHOCKING OCCURRENCE.—At Philadelphia on Wednesday, at 2 A. M., a canal boat was burnt at the wharf, and with it a colored man attached to the craft, and a little son of the captain, aged 4 years. The captain and man had been ashore, and had come aboard drunk, set the boat on fire, and were so inebriated that they made no effort to stop the flames.—Boston Courier.

Hall, in his Journal of Health, says that the best method of keeping from a tendency to insanity is not to dwell too long on one idea.

OUR NEXT PRESIDENT.

"If you are Coming, Why don't you Come along?"
THAT is the "mot" now-a-days. Every locomotive on every Railroad shrieks it. It is daily rapped out on every Telegraphic Line in the country. The echoing blows of our Ship Carpenters hourly exemplify it. The smith at his anvil hammers it out. The clanking Press with breathless haste, sends the cry home to every family—"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"

It is uttered in an hundred tongues in a hundred lands. It has sounded like a slogan through the political world, and the "Old Fogies" are creeping along among the baggage wagons and the wounded. Thought, that moved at a funeral pace, now rushes on a tremendous charge; and all the old remedies for Liver Complaint have given way for

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along."—Six paces to the front, is the word to everybody and everything that wants to be listened to or looked at. If you have anything to do, do it; if you wish any person to see anything, show it; if you have anything to be cured, CURE IT WITH

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you have a Bottle of Holman's Bitters in your house, you need not suffer from

Biliousness, Weakness at the Stomach, Indigestion, Heartburn, Lowness of Spirits,

Nor any of the diseases incident to the season.

It used to take six men to make a pin; now one boy, a pull, a clip, and two strokes, and that's the way the pins are made. Once it took a Physician, lots of precious time, and quantities of nauseous drugs to cure some simple disease of the Blood.—Now, a quarter expended in

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS

Brings Life and Health, flowing spirits and rosy cheeks.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you are sick and weak, why don't you cure yourself? Here we offer you the article that will do it—there is no mistake about it. Every body knows about HOLMAN'S BITTERS; they have been tried and have "toed the mark straight."

They are a good medicine; they are better than anything else for all Spring Complaints; they are just the best Bitters that can be bought—and that's the best thing we can say about them. "If you are coming, why don't you come along," before they are all gone?

HERBERT, THE HOMICIDE.

A Washington dispatch states that on Saturday, Justices Smith and Birch delivered their decision in the case of Herbert.

They say:—"After a careful examination of the evidence, we feel it to be our duty we are alike to the defendant and to government,—that the ends of justice may be fully met,—to send this matter to the Criminal Court of this district,—that tribunal being, as we conceive, the proper one to grant or refuse the application of the defendant for discharge. As to the application for bail, we are divided in opinion, and we therefore commit the defendant to the custody of the Marshal, until he be discharged by due course of law."

On the same afternoon Herbert was brought before Judge Crawford on a writ of habeas corpus, his counsel praying for his discharge. The examination of witnesses occupied seven hours, but the testimony is about the same as that delivered before the police magistrates. The Judge will give his decision on Monday. The understanding with both parties was that the Minister for the Netherlands may then be examined, should he assent to the request to appear as a witness.

Keating, the murdered man, was one of Mr. Willard's principal waiters, and leaves a wife and two children.

The special correspondent of the Boston Advertiser says, "public sentiment condemns the refusal of Dubois, the Dutch Minister, to testify in the Herbert shooting case."

We hope some one who knows, will give some little account of the character and habit of the deceased, and also of Herbert. Of the latter, the Boston Courier says:—"Congress will, of course, expel him from his seat." It would be proper for the House to do so,—but we hardly expect it.

Washington, 12th.—Judge Crawford rendered his decision this morning in Herbert's case, deciding to admit him to bail $10,000 for appearance at the June term of the Criminal Court, to answer the charge of manslaughter. Joseph H. Herbert and James Owner became his sureties.

NOBLE SENTIMENTS. — Alexander, the present emperor of Russia, says in a late address to his people, on the peace:—

War is an abnormal state, and the greatest successes obtained by it scarcely compensate for the evil it occasions. It has caused an interruption of the commercial relations of the empire with most of the states of Europe. I should certainly have carried it on had not the voice of neighboring states pronounced itself against the policy of late years.

This looks as if there was really a public opinion among nations, which can condemn abominations and follies, and which does command respect, even from an absolute monarch.

Again he says:

Supposing the fate of arms should have remained constantly favorable to us, as it has been in Asia, the empire would have exhausted its resources in keeping up large armies on different points, the soldiers of which would, in a great measure, be taken away from agriculture and labor. In the government of Moscow itself many manufactories have been compelled to close. I prefer the real prosperity of the arts of peace to the vain glory of combats.

That's the talk: wars break down honest industry, close manufactories, destroy agriculture, exhaust resources, and demoralize the people,—all for the vain glory of combats, says the emperor! and he well understands, how vain it is to be the emperor of a bankrupt treasury.

Once more he resolves to encourage home industry and foreign commerce,—thus:

I have thrown open the ports of Russia to the commerce of the world, the frontiers to the free circulation of foreign produce. I wish, henceforth, that the greatest facility shall be afforded in our market for the exchange of wares of every origin, and of the raw materials and manufactures of our soils. Various projects will shortly be communicated to you, the object of which will be to give an impulse to home industry, and in which I trust every nobleman will take a share.

COLONIZATION SHIP.—The American Colonization Society have chartered the ship Elvira Owen, 873 tons, of Bath, Me., to take out the emigrants to be sent to Liberia under its auspices. The ship is now at Boston, and will sail for Hampton Roads about the 15th inst. She will then proceed to Savannah and sail from that port for Monrovia about the first of June. It is expected the number of blacks to go out in this ship will be about three hundred. It is reported that the sum of $10,000 is to be paid her owners for the voyage to Africa.

RUSSIA.—The Ministers of the Interior and of Finance of Russia have received formal orders from the Czar to do away with all obstructions in the way of commerce. The frontier traffic is already open, and vessels are arriving at all the ports. The export of precious metals is alone still suspended, and this is explained by the scarcity of gold and silver in the public treasury.

Another royal marriage is on the carpet.—A letter from Berlin of April 21st says:—

It is reported here, semi-officially, that Prince Oscar Frederick, the Duke of East Gothland, and Rear Admiral of the Swedish Navy, is about to become a wooer to the Princess Mary of Cambridge. Prince Oscar will accompany the Dowager Queen of Sweden to Paris—where she is to be godmother to the Prince Imperial—and will afterwards present himself in England.

It is reported that the Emperor Alexander has expressed his determination that all the children born of serfs on and after his day of coronation shall be free.

4 DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

NEW YORK, May 12.

The Collins steamship Atlantic arrived at her dock at 10 o'clock. She left Liverpool April 30, at 5 P. M., and brings 30 passengers.

The news by this arrival is the official publication of the Treaty of Peace. Attached to the treaty there are three separate Conventions, an also a declaration respecting maritime law, and the course to be pursued in respect to neutrals during a time of war, that is to say, to put an end to privateering.

The official text of the treaty is the same as that already published; but the missing articles, 5, 6, 7 and 8, are now added. Articles 5 and 6—Provide for a General Amnesty and exchange of prisoners; Articles 7 and 8—Admit Turkey to the public law and political system of Europe; secure her independence and territorial integrity, and engage each contracting power in the event of any serious misunderstanding with the Porte, not to proceed to force till they have given the other powers an opportunity of meditation.

TURKEY.—Letters from Constantinople to the 17th of April give information that 4000 French soldiers, whose term of service had expired, have embarked from the Crimea.—One-half of the Sardinian force had already left.

Marshal Pelissier would return home about the end of the month.

CONGRESS.

SATURDAY, May 10.

HOUSE.—Mr. Fuller of Pennsylvania defined his position, past and present, on the slavery question, avowing broad national principles and stigmatizing as forgeries certain publications attributing to him extreme Northern views. He exposed what he characterized as the marked inconsistency of Mr. Buchanan, and referred to documents to show that the prominent Democrats, some of them delegates to Cincinnati, were tainted with Free Soilism.

Mr. Todd of Pennsylvania explained why he ceased voting for Mr. Fuller as Speaker.—He said it was because he had made a mistake in believing Mr. Fuller as good an anti-Nebraska man as Mr. Banks.

Mr. Jones of Pennsylvania gave notice of his intention to reply to the speech of Mr. Fuller.

Mr. Jones of Tennessee, having published in his late circular to his constituents certain remarks against slavery attributed to Mr. Fuller, and which Mr. Fuller denounced as forgeries, interrogated the latter concerning the sentiments therein expressed. Mr. Jones did not declare himself satisfied with the response of Mr. Fuller. Adjourned.

MONDAY, 12th,

HOUSE.—The House is engaged to-day in an animated discussion of the Clingman resolution for the better protection of American citizens abroad, in which Messrs. Clingman, Campbell of Onio, Faulkner and others took part.

THE POWDER MILL EXPLOSION.—The explosion of the mixing mill at Gorham on Tuesday, was caused by the carelessness of Mr. Allen, who lost his life. He was engaged in cleaning the stones preparatory to grinding a new batch of powder. A portion of the material always adheres to the stones and Allen had been frequently cautioned to use nothing but wood in knocking it off. On this occasion he used a hammer, and an explosion was the result. Fotunately all the powder with the exception of six kegs had been removed from the building, and the boards of the roof and sides of the building only were blown off.

Allen lived several hours after the catastrophe, and stated how it occurred. He leaves a wife and two children to mourn his untimely end.—Portland Advertiser.

DETROIT, May 9.—Liquor Law Trial in Michigan.—Much excitement was occasioned here yesterday, in consequence of the arrest of four persons for violation of the prohibitory liquor law. The military were called out to preserve peace. During the examination of the cases, to-day, the informer was driven from the court room, and chased into a neighboring house, which was beseiged by an excited crowd several hours. He finally returned, and the trial proceeded without further interruption.

LIBERAL OFFERS TO ESSAYISTS.—We understand that Mr. Dave Atchison of Missouri, has offered a premium of $1000 for the best essay on the subject of legislative enactments designed to regulate Border Ruffianism, to be accompanied by an outline of a law for consideration. The Board of Judges will consist of Dr. Stringfellow of Missouri, Big Thunder, the Anti-Rent Chieftain; and the Rev. Mr. Brownlow of Tennessee.

It is also stated that the South Carolina Legislature is about to offer a premium for the best essay on the subject of the regulation of slavery and the slave trade. Judges—Rev. Dr. Lord of New Hampshire, Hon. Jeff. Davis of Mississippi, Mr.——Legree of Louisiana, and John Mitchel, Esq., late of Ireland.

As the questions of Border Ruffianism and Slavery are among the important problems of the age, which ought to excite the attention of the ablest and most imparlial minds, these efforts to bring out the wisdom which is lurking in the country on those subjects deserve attention. The impartial character of the Judges, in both these cases, cannot but be noticed.—Boston Telegraph.

HORRIBLE TRAGEDY.—The Galena (Ill.) Advertiser relates that on the 19th ult., while the steamer Golden Era was lying at Dunleith, and while the passengers were at supper, a man by the name of Willard H. Brown, formerly resident of Worcester, Mass., and who had a ticket from Dunleith to Hastings, Minnesota, rose from his chair at the table and inflicted upon himself several wounds with a bowie knife before it could be wrested from him, which wounds have terminated fatally. Mr. Brown also cut several of the passengers badly before he could be secured. He had travelled from North Adams, Mass., in company with his brother, Lyman J. Brown. The cause of the sad affair is unknown, but it was probably a fit of insanity.

Extract of a Letter from Capt. David Randall, New-Bedford, Mass.

NEW BEDFORD, April 21, 1856.

MR. GILBERT—Sir: .....Having used your Vegetable Hair Tonic, and received some benefit from it, I feel inclined to send to you for more of the article. I used about one bottle on the top of my head where there was not a spear of hair. It was as smooth as the back of your hand; now the new hair has started to grow.....

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER OF LOTTERIES. } BALTIMORE, April 18, 1856.

THE undersigned, Commissioner of Lotteries of the State of Maryland, being in receipt daily of letters from various portions of the country, making inquiry as to Lottery Schemes, with which the country is flooded, and which purport to be "decided by the sovereign of the Maryland Consolidated Lotteries," takes this method to answer all such letters of inquiry, and inform the public that all Lotteries purporting to be decided by the Maryland Lotteries are gross frauds; that certain parties who style themselves Morris & Co., and pretend to be Managers or Sole Agents for the Grand Charter Lotteries at Cleaveland, Ohio, are impostors, and said lottery a fraud, having neither legal nor presumptive existence; and that another fictitious firm, styled Murry & Co., Cleveland, Ohio, are also imposters, and all lotteries which they profess to be managers or agents for, are also frauds.

RICHARD FRANCE, of this city, is the Contractor for drawing the Maryland Lotteries. The business is conducted under the firm of R. FARM LANDS FOR SALE.

The Illinois Central Railroad Company

NOW PREPARED TO SELL

OF

FARMING LANDS,

In Tracts of 40 acres and upwards, on long credit, at low rates of interest.

THESE lands were granted by the Government to aid in the construction of this Railroad, and include some of the richest and most fertile Prairies in the State, interspersed here and there with magnificent groves of oak and other timber. The Road runs from Chicago, on the north-east, to Cairo at the south, and from thence to Galena and Dunleith, in the north-west extreme of the State, and as all the lands lie within fifteen miles on each side of this Road, ready and cheap means are afforded by it for transporting the products of the lands to any of those points and from thence to Eastern and Southern markets. Moreover, the rapid growth of flourishing towns and villages along the line, and the great increase in population by immigration, etc. afford a substantial and growing home demand for farm produce.

The soil is a dark, rich mould, from one to five feet in depth, is gently rolling and peculiarly fitted for grazing cattle and sheep, or the cultivation of wheat, Indian corn, etc.

Economy in cultivating and great productiveness are the well known characteristics of Illinois lands. Trees are not required to be cut down, stump grubbed, or stone picked off, as is generally the case in cultivating new land in the older States. The first crop of Indian corn, planted on the newly broken sod, usually repays the cost of plowing and fencing.

Wheat sown on the newly-turned sod is sure to yield very large profits. A man with a plow and two yoke of oxen will break one and a half to two acres per day. Contracts can be made for breaking, ready for corn or wheat, at from $2 to $3 per acre. By judicious management, this land may be plowed and fenced the first, and under a high state of cultivation the second year.

Corn, grain, cattle, etc. will be forwarded at reasonable rates to Chicago, for the Eastern market, and to Cairo for the Southern. The larger yield on the cheap lands of Illinois over the high priced lands in the Eastern and Middle States, is known to be much more than sufficient to pay the difference of transportation to the Eastern market.

Eleven Trains are established at several points along the Road, and is a cheap and desirable fuel. It can be delivered at several points along the Road at $1.50 to $4 per ton; Wood can be had at the same rates per cord.

Those who think of settling in Iowa or Minnesota, should bear in mind, that lands there of any value, along the water courses and for many miles inland, have been disposed of;—that for those located in the interior, there are no conveniences for transporting the produce to market, railroads not having been introduced there. That to send the produce of these lands, one or two hundred miles by wagon to market, would cost much more than the lands are worth, cultivation, then, and since Government lands thus situated, at $1.25 per acre are not so good investments as the lands of this company at the prices fixed.

The same remark holds good in relation to the lands in Kansas and Nebraska, for although vacant lands may be found nearer the water courses the distance to market is far greater, and every hundred miles the produce of those lands are carried either by wagon or navigated water communications, increases the expense of transportation, which must be borne by the settlers, in the reduced price of their products; and to that extent precisely are the incomes from their farms, and of course, the value of their investments, annually and every year reduced.

The great fertility of the lands now offered for sale by this company, and their consequent yield over those of the Middle and Eastern States, is much more than sufficient to pay the difference in the cost of transportation, especially in view of the facilities furnished by this Road, and others with which it connects, the operations of which are not interrupted by the low water of summer, or the frosts of winter.

PRICES AND TERMS OF PAYMENT.

The Price will vary from $6 to $25, according to the quality, location, &c. Contracts for Deeds may be made during the year 1856, stipulating the purchase money to be paid in five annual installments; the first to become due in two years from the date of contract, and the others annually thereafter. The last payment will become due at the end of the sixth year from the date of the contract.

Interest will be charged at only 3 per ct. per ann.

As a security to the performance of the contract the first two years' interest must be paid in advance, and it must be understood that at least one tenth of the land purchased shall yearly be broke under cultivation. Twenty per cent. from the credit price will be deducted for cash. The Company's construction bonds will be received as cash.

READY FRAMED FARM BUILDINGS,

Which can be set up in two days, can be obtained from Responsible Persons.

They will be 12 ft. by 20 ft. divided into one living and three bed rooms, and will cost complete set up on ground chosen anywhere along the road $150 in cash, exclusive of transportation. Larger buildings may be contracted for at proportionate rates The Company will forward all the materials for such buildings over the Road promptly.

Special arrangements with dealers can be made to supply those purchasing the Company's lands with fencing materials, agricultural tools, and an outfit of provisions in any quantity, at the lowest wholesale prices.

It is believed that the price, long credit, and low rate of interest, charged for these lands will enable a man with a few hundred dollars in cash, and ordinary industry, to make himself independent before all the purchase money becomes due. In the mean time, the rapid settlement of the country will probably have increased their value four or five fold. When required an experienced person will accompany applicants, to give information, and aid in selecting lands.

Circulars containing numerous instances of successful farming, signed by respectable and well known farmers living in the neighborhood of the Railroad lands, throughout the State—also the cost of fencing, price of cattle, expense of harvesting, threshing, &c. by contract—or any other information—will be cheerfully given, on application, either personally or by letter, in English, French or German, addressed to

THE GREAT TURNING POINT.

The present calm in our political elements is but the precursor of a violent conflict which will decide whether the liberties of our country shall be perpetual. For that conflict parties are now preparing. Should Kansas be admitted as a slave State, we hardly need say that Liberty would perish, unless again upheld by a struggle as sanguinary as that of our revolutionary war. Still we trust that so fearful a crisis will not occur. And our faith is grounded on the fact, that the Southern oligarchy is to weak too hazard the result of a civil war. The friends of freedom are in more danger of the corruption of the public morals and the public sentiment, than of all the combined forces of the oligarchists and their supporters, north and south.

The comparative physical power is vastly different. There are over two million voters in the free, and less than one million in the slave States. But of the latter, could they have the privilege of fairly expressing their opinions, we think that not one fourth part would join the oligarchists in establishing slavery in Kansas. We are assured that a large portion of the non-slaveholding emigrants from the slave States to Kansas, upon their arrival, at once rally under the banner of freedom. They will continue to do so—for at home they have seen that the unholy institution has rendered the virgin soil sterile, and the condition of the white population wretched and miserable, while it tends only to enrich and deprave the oligarchists—the few hundred thousand slaveholders. More than three-fourths of the "squatter sovereigns" or voters of Kansas, are in favor of freedom in that territory. The knowledge of that fact induced an army from adjacent States, chiefly Missourians, to invade the territory, largely outnumbering the settlers, and usurp the ballot boxes in the several districts, and ordain a civil government over the inhabitants, and then return to their homes. This fact is not denied by candid men, north or south. Its admission is a confession that the form of government, so ordained by a foreign army of voters, can have no binding or legal obligation upon the actual settlers. The latter have since organized and established a civil government of their own. Will northern men dispute the right of the latter so to do? The facts are now as fully developed as they will be under the commission sent by Congress to Kansas, but they will be authenticated, under that commission by indisputable testimony.

The momentous question we now submit it whether Northern freemen, the bone and muscle of the Union, having the greatest numerical and physical strength, will suffer the leprosy of slavery to be extended, and spread over the fairest republic upon which the sun ever shone? Will they blast the fond aspirations of the friends of liberty throughout the civilized world? Will they consent to surrender up into the hands of comparatively few Oligarchists the precious heritage bequeathed to them by the patriots and heroes of the Revolution? No—the spirit of '76 has not yet all died out. We trust that enough remains to sustain the free institutions they established.

The civilized world now casts a stigma upon our country on account of our toleration of slavery. Even the Russian aristocracy, for the same reasons, speaks in a style of ridicule. And it must be conceded that our Southern Oligarchy is a more pernicious and corrupt government, than an aristocracy odious as is the latter. The Russian serfs enjoy rights, but the laboring class, and the white population, generally, in our slave states, enjoy no rights, at least, none worth being so called. There is no democracy there;—it is idle to talk about a democratic party in our Southern States—for there is but a proud and oppressive Oligarchy, on the one hand, and a people whose rights and privileges are trampled in the dust, on the other.—It is high time that the truth of this statement should be generally known by northern people, in order that they may seasonably guard against the threatening danger. We proclaim the truth, unbiased by partisan motives. We ought to have a higher veneration for our country's glory than for the ephemeral triumph of party. And while we see the Oligarchists perfectly united in their struggle to extend the empire of slavery over this fair land, northern men are furnished with a strong motive to unite in resisting its encroachments—indeed they have stronger reasons for such resistance than the Colonists had in '76 in casting off the British yoke.—For it is certain that freedom and slavery, the opposites of each other, cannot long co-exist in the same republic. We have, therefore, the alternative before us, and must decide, under which government we will live.

Morning Chronicle.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 14. 1856.

ASSAULT.—In Boston, a man named John H. Getchell was complained of in the Police Court, on Saturday, for assaulting his sister-in-law, Rebecca Blake, and breaking her leg. The woman came to his house, in Crescent court, for the purpose of aiding a sick niece, when the man drove her from the house, pitched her into the street, and injured her as stated above. So says the Boston Chronicle.

The Courier says, Getchell was "arrested on the hideous charge of knocking down his sister-in-law, Mrs. Rebecca Blake, of Crescent court, falling upon her and breaking one of her legs: "—and adds:— "Confinement in the House of Correction is no punishment for an offence like this. These women-thumping fellows should be lashed to the tail of a cart, and whipped soundly in a public place.

The Advertiser calls the woman an "elderly female," and says that Getchell "was intoxicated at the time. In the Police Court on Saturday, he was ordered to give bail in $1500 for examination hereafter."

Quere, Whether it were best to set these items down among the moral and physical benefits of dram drinking in cities? Getchell probably believed all that some great doctors have said in favor of his beverage—medically, socially, morally and legally.

THE CASE OF HERBERT.—Does anybody believe that if the shooting had been the other way, and the legislator had been the dead man, Keating would have got off on bail, or been committed for anything less than murder? So far as the preliminary examination has gone, there is even no proof of provocation. The quarrel was altogether of Herbert's picking. The silence of Mr. Du Bois, the Minister for the Netherlands, who saw all, tends also strongly against Herbert, for if he could have testified aught in his favor, would he not have done it? Herbert is an Alabamian, thirty-six years of age, and quite irascible. —Boston Chronicle.

The Washington Globe says, of Keating, "the deceased was about thirty years of age, of good character, and left a wife and two children."

By the full report in the Washington papers, the testimony given by the waiters and that given by the friends of the prisoner, differs widely in important points. John Eldbright, an elderly man, a waiter, appears to have witnessed the whole affray without taking part in it. He said:

I was in the dining room when Herbert ordered a servant to bring his breakfast: the servant answered that he could not without an order from the office. Herbert then told the servant to clear out of the room, and called him a "d——d Irish son of a b——." Keating stood about three yards from Herbert.—Herbert then turned and said the same thing to him. Witness stood in the centre of the room, and could not hear the reply of Keating. Then Herbert stood up and struck Keating on the back of the neck with a pistol. Keating went back on one of the round tables, got a plate and made two attempts at throwing it, but paused. Herbert then took up a chair and threw it at Keating. Keating then threw a plate at Herbert, and came round the edge of the table.

Herbert and Keating met at the side of the table and jostled each other; then a gentleman came in, struck Keating with a chair and broke it; they jostled for a minute, breaking sugar bowls and pitchers; then Pat Keating, the steward, and the brother of the deceased, came in; Herbert laid hold of him and took out a pistol. Pat took hold of the pistol and held it about a minute, while they jostled together. The other gentleman, (Herbert's friend) followed up and struck Pat Keating with a chair upon the head. Herbert and his friend were engaged with the two Keatings when the French cook came in and separated them, jostling Pat Keating away so that he let go the barrel of the pistol; with that Herbert caught hold of the collar of Thomas Keating's coat with his left hand and shot him with his right hand; saw the blood rush out of Keating's coat; saw no knife drawn.

Was in the room during the whole affray; saw no one strike Herbert; took no hand in the business; when the shot was fired, went over to the assistance of the deceased.

☞ The coroner's jury, in Boston, on the suicide of Colonel Horace S. Bradley, have returned a verdict that he came to his death by three discharges of a pistol, while in bed, and that he was at the time in a state of temporary insanity, brought on by fear of pecuniary loss. Over $1,000 in bank bills were found in the room of the deceased. Poor man—died from fear; a dreadful death indeed,—and fear of poverty, too, which after all is not so very frightful, after one gets used to it.

FACTS.—There are 1003 justices of peace in Suffolk county, and 3200 grog shops in Boston.—Boston Courier.

And Boston practically nullifies the law which was meant to shut up the shops. Verily she has her reward.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—On the Eastern Railroad, Monday morning, quite a serious accident occurred. As the early train was crossing a bridge in South Malden, a workman named Allen, of Salem, was working under the bridge, unmindful of the approaching train. All the cars passed over one of his legs, breaking it in several places. He was taken on board the train, and brought to the hospital in Boston.

He died on Monday night.

MASS CONVENTION.—A desire being expressed by gentlemen in all parts of the State, that a Meeting be held early in June, to choose Delegates to the People's Philadelphia Convention,—Therefore, all people in New-Hampshire, without regard to past political differences or divisions, who are opposed to the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, to the policy of the present Administration, to the extension of Slavery into the Territories, in favor of the admission of Kansas as a free State, and of restoring the action of the Federal Government to the principles of the patriot fathers, are invited to meet in Convention at Phenix Hall, in Concord, on Tuesday, the 10th day of June next, at 11 o'clock, A. M., for the purpose of choosing Delegates to the aforesaid Convention, and to transact such other business as may properly come before said meeting.

CAUTION.—On Sunday afternoon last, two children in the eastern part of the city, indulged freely in blowing soap-bubbles through an old tobacco pipe, which had been used a long time without cleaning. After two hour's amusement of this kind they were both seized with vomiting, accompanied with symptoms of excessive collapse; acute inflammation of the stomach supervened, and on Tuesday morning the boy died. The girl still continues very low, but hopes are entertained of her ultimate recovery. The children were undoubtedly poisoned with the essential oil of tobacco received into the stomach in the manner indicated above. It is well known that a very small quantity of this article taken internally will produce death.—Bangor Whig, May 1st.

SALE OF NEGROES.—A sale of 183 negroes belonging to Col. T. B. Goldsby, of Dallas county, Alabama, took place at Cahaba on Monday of last week. The negroes brought in the aggregate $129,535, being an average of $707 84. They were sold for cash or its equivalent. As the negroes were of all ages and capacities, the average is a very high one, and demonstrates the improvement of value of this species of property.—Charleston Mercury.

Five thousand slaves in the city of Charleston, S. C., have contributed the last year to benevolent objects $15,000, it being on an average three dollars each.

WHAT THE CUP COSTS.—Statistics, carefully gathered, show that 'intoxication' costs in this land of Christian civilization, more than one hundred thousand lives every year. Wipe it out to-day, banish intoxicating drinks, and at the end of the year there would be living one hundred thousand men, women and children, who will then be in their graves as surely as that the year will roll around.

AFFECTING CASE.—The Dayton Gazette, in a recent number, told an affecting story of a farmer, who, while selling a load of wheat at a dollar a bushel in that city, burst into tears. The owner of the mill was touched, and kindly inquired the cause of his grief.—Sympathy was too much for him, and, bursting into a tremendous 'boohoo,' he replied:—"My son John could have got a dollar and seventy-five cents a bushel for this very wheat two months ago!"

AN AFFECTIONATE DOG.—A few days ago a dog in the family of the late Mr Isaac Pearson, died from actual grief for the loss of his master. The dog was over ten years old, and Mr. Pearson had always taken the utmost care of him, giving him meat and drink with his own hand, at certain hours of the day. After the death of his owner, he went into the house and appeared, as much as any person there, to know the event that had taken place, and from that hour he refused to eat or drink, and went mourning about till he pined away and died, without any appearance of disease. Do dogs reason?—Newburyport Herald.

FIRE AT HALLOWELL.—The Steam Saw Mill in Hallowell, near the Railroad bridge, was burned down on Friday evening, and the bridge so much injured as to detain the morning train from Augusta on Saturday.—The bridge was repaired and the afternoon train came through in regular time.

As the mill had not been occupied for some time, it is supposed the fire must have caught from a spark from the locomotive.—Portland Adv.

☞ The Ladies' Companion, a Monthly Magazine, for the instruction and entertainment of the home circle, is supplied by subscription or single numbers, by R. B. Marsh, at his newspaper and periodical depot, near the Eastern Depot. Price $1 per year, single copies, 12 1-2 cts. This Magazine is ably edited and neatly printed, with illustrations, and is well calculated to be a favorite at the fireside.

☞ Peterson's Magazine for June, 1856, has a most humorous frontispiece, A Philosopher in search of the Wind; a colored fashion plate, Les Modes Parisiennes; 46 articles; 41 embellishments.

A new volume begins in July; published monthly by Chas. P. Peterson, Philadelphia. $2 per annum.

☞ Miller, Orton & Mulligan, at Auburn New York, publish a large and very valuable list of books—including a great variety of standard and miscellaneous works. See their advertisement.

THE DECISION POSTPONED.—We are satisfied that it is not the purpose of the Supreme Court of the United States to render a decision upon the case from Missouri pending before them, involving the question of the constitutionality of the Missouri restriction, during their current session. So the Presidential election will come off before they dispose of this momentous question.—Washington Star.

Tackeray is to have $35,000 for a novel written during his sojourn in America, the pay for which he receives on his arrival in England. He cleared about $15,000 by his lectures, so that he gets $50,000 for six months' head and tongue-work.—That is getting money "respectably" fast.

CAPE VERDE ISLANDS.—A few gentlemen in Upper Fauquier, Va., have subscribed 270 bushels of corn, and $10 in money, for the suffering inhabitants of these islands, to be delivered in Alexandria.

DEATH FROM EXTREME OLD AGE.—Mr. Thomas Emmons, died at his residence in Boston, on Monday, at the advanced age of ninety-two years. It was only last fall that Mr. E. married, his bride being in her 77th year. They were, probably, the oldest couple ever united in the bonds of matrimony in Boston.—Times.

It is stated that Mr. Cass regards the declaration made by Mr. Buchanan, in his reception meeting in New York, that he had never apprehended any danger to the Union, as a direct reflection upon himself.

OUR NEXT PRESIDENT.

Who our next President is to be will be better known after election, but there is one thing we always know, and that is the most successful remedy in the cure of rheumatism, cuts, wounds, scalds, burns, cholera morbus, neuralgia, and all internal and external pains, ever introduced is Dyer's Healing Embrocation. "If you are Coming, Why don't you Come along?"

THAT is the "mot" now-a-days. Every locomotive on every Railroad shrieks it. It is daily rapped out on every Telegraphic Line in the country. The echoing blows of our Ship Carpenters hourly exemplify it. The smith at his anvil hammers it out. The clanking Press with breathless haste, sends the cry home to every family—"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"

It is uttered in an hundred tongues in a hundred lands. It has sounded like a slogan through the political world, and the "Old Fogies" are creeping along among the baggage wagons and the wounded. Thought, that moved at a funeral pace, now rushes on a tremendous charge; and all the old remedies for Liver Complaint have given way for

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—Six paces to the front, is the word to everybody and everything that wants to be listened to or looked at. If you have anything to do, do it; if you wish any person to see anything, show it; if you have anything to be cured, CURE IT WITH

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you have a Bottle of Holman's Bitters in your house, you need not suffer from

Biliousness, Weakness at the Stomach, Indigestion, Heartburn, Lowness of Spirits,

Nor any of the diseases incident to the season.

It used to take six men to make a pin; now one boy, a pull, a clip, and two strokes, and that's the way the pins are made. Once it took a Physician, lots of precious time, and quantities of nauseous drugs to cure some simple disease of the Blood.—Now, a quarter expended in

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS

Brings Life and Health, flowing spirits and rosy cheeks.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you are sick and weak, why don't you cure yourself? Here we offer you the article that will do it—there is no mistake about it. Every body knows about HOLMAN'S BITTERS; they have been tried and have "toed the mark straight."

They are a good medicine; they are better than anything else for all Spring Complaints; they are just the best Bitters that can be bought—and that's the best thing we can say about them. "If you are coming, why don't you come along," before they are all gone!

LOCAL.

☞ The course of Lectures before the Mechanics' Lyceum, will close on Thursday evening, with a lecture by Wendell Phillips, of Boston. Our readers have already seen, by the proceedings of the Mechanics' Association, that a course of lectures is announced for next Winter. It is worthy of consideration, whether it might not be wise to employ half the lecturers from this city and vicinity, as was formerly the usage in the Portsmouth Lyceum. There is no good reason why all the speakers should come from far.

THE LATE DR. J. C. WARREN.—The will of the old Doctor provided for the disposition of his body with an especial reference to the science which he had so long pursued and adorned. The will required that the body should remain twenty-four hours, at the close of which time arsenic should be infused into the veins; at the end of the twenty-four hours, the funeral ceremonies should take place, and the body be deposited beneath St. Paul's church, and twenty-four hours thereafter was to be given for examination to the officers of the Medical College and the Physicians of the Mass. General Hospital, to ascertain regarding certain peculiarities which he supposed to exist. After this the flesh was to be taken from the bones, the bones mascerated, wired and deposited in the college museum. The will, we understand, is peremptory upon the exact fulfilment of this requirement, and it has been complied with as far as time has admitted. We likewise learn that his youngest son, from strong filial regard, requested the gift of his father's heart, which he would preserve.—Boston Saturday Evening Gazette.

A VERY SINGULAR AFFAIR.—A very curious instance of confusion has taken place in a family in Lumber street. A mother and her daughter were both confined on the same day, each having a little son. In the bustle of the moment, both babies were placed in a cradle, and to the confusion of the mothers, when the youngsters were taken from the cradle, they were unable to tell which was the mother's, and which the daughter's son—a matter which, of course, must ever remain a mystery. The family is in great distress over the affair.—Albany Knickerbocker.

EUROPEAN MATTERS.—[Extracts from London letters, by the America.] An American writes:—"I was present at the great naval review at Spithead, and was assured by a number of people that it was intended as a demonstration for the benefit of Brother Jonathan." An English house writes: "The accounts of our increased navy will make you Yankees shake in your shoes."

Portugese Vines.—Another letter says;—"The vine disease has again made its appearance in Portugal, being quite forty days earlier than last year, and great fears are entertained for the crop."—Boston Courier.

THE HEAD-QUARTERS OF DEMOCRACY.—Though the famous meeting in Virginia, which repudiated Fillmore, turned out to be no more than a meeting of "the Goose Creek Literary Society" for a debating exercise, and school-master Francis H. Ray took part in it by appointment of the society, he has been compelled to leave the State on account of his sentiments expressed on that occasion. His home is Chatham, N. Y.—Boston Chron.

KANSAS.—The renowned Major Buford of Alabama has reached Kansas with his pro-slavery emigrants. They were about 175 in number, and on arriving at Westport, Mo., met with a grand reception from the citizens, who presented to Major Buford a horse worth $150, and a saddle that cost $40, for his services in behalf of slavery in Kansas. A correspondent of the Chicago Democrat says the members of the company were very fond of whiskey and card playing.

BARNUM'S HUMOR.—Barnum stated in his last examination at New York, that his only occupation was "tending bar" and that he had been occupied in this business ever since the lawyers had been pulling him up to the bars of the different courts. The counsel for his creditors remarked in the course of the inquisition that "we are after the crumbs that fall from the rich man's table," to which Barnum quickly responded, "are you the dogs or Lazarus?"

VILLAINY. — The barn of Capt. Joshua Robinson, of Durham, was entered by some villain, on Sunday night the 4th inst., and the throat of a fine horse belonging to Capt. R., was cut so as to sever the jugular vein and to cause his immediate death. The horse was a stallion, and worth $250.—Portland Advertiser.

A correspondent of the Savannah (Ga.) News relates the case of William Ellison, a negro, who purchased his freedom from his master several years ago, and now owns a large cotton plantation upon which he works fifty hands, and about one-half of the town of Statesburg, in Sumpter district, S. C.

NARROW ESCAPE.—A remarkable incident connected with the storm of Saturday night last, is related of a woman at Havre de Grace, the wife of a captain of a small oyster boat which lay at anchor in the river off that town. She had been across the river in a small boat, and was returning, having nearly reached her husband's vessel, as the storm overtook her. Her frail skiff was driven before the wind like a feather, and wafted rapidly away from the oyster boat out into the bay. She could do nothing but sit at the helm and keep her little boat before the wind, while the surging waters were lashed into wild commotion around her. At the mercy of the wind and the waves (or rather of Him who controls both,) she was driven through the darkness and gloom of the night entirely across the Chesapeake, to Grove point, at the mouth of the Sassafras river, a distance of 23 miles. There she landed and passed the next day, Sunday, and was taken off by a steamer for Baltimore on Monday, where she arrived on Monday night. On Tuesday moring she took the cars for Havre de Grace, where she arrived unharmed, to the great joy of her husband.—Elkton Dem.

CONGRESS.

MONDAY, May 12.

SENATE.—Mr. Crittenden moved a reconsideration of the vote by which the Iowa Railroad bill was passed on Friday, and after debate the subject was postponed.

The President sent to the Senate documents relative to the hostilities on the Pacific Coast:—Gen. Wool, under date of March 20, says:—"The war on Puget's Sound will soon be brought to a close, unless such a thing is prevented by Gov. Stevens's determination to carry on the war independently of the United States troops. He adds:—"That the same remark is applicable to Gov. Curry, and that both these Governors appear to be running a race to see which can dip deepest into the Public Treasury. He continues—In the dense forests of Puget Sound another Florida war can easily be carried on at an expense of $20 or 30,000,000, and says this will also apply to the mountain region round Puget's Sound Valley. Gen. Wool has no doubt but what he could settle the contest, if the Governors would withdraw from it. Gov. Stevens says:—Gen. Wool neglected and refused to send a force for the relief of myself and party, when known to be in imminent danger. There has been a breach of faith somewhere. I ask for an investigation into the whole matter.

Mr. Cass addressed the Senate on Squatter Sovereignty. He said this originated relative to the first settlers of California. They were called "squatter sovereigns" because they did not own the land. Mr. Cass proceeded to criticize Mr. Douglas's report on Kansas matters, dissenting from many of its conclusions. It did not allude at all to the true objects for which governments were instituted, and contained many ideas that are erroneous in theory and dangerous in practice. The Committee say the organization of a territory is eminently necessary and proper as to the means enabling the people thereof to form and mould their local and domestic interests, and establish a state government, under the authority of the Constitution, preparatory to admission into the Union, and thus argue the right of Congress to pass the organic act included in the provision, which authorizes the admission of new states; but Mr. Cass thought the doctrine that Congress has power to pass any measures they considered as tending to promote the prosperity of the territories would lead to false conclusions. Congress might think the Wilmot Proviso would be a good thing, but there would not be any limit to their discretion if they proceeded on such loose grounds. He also said the bill of the Committee on Territories did not allow the people of Kansas to regulate their affairs as they pleased; hence they did not carry out the doctrine of the Constitution relative to that subject. Adjourned.

HOUSE.—The resolution of Mr. Clingman authorizing the President to employ the land and naval forces of the United States to ensure protection to passengers crossing the Isthmus was refused admission and was consequently lost.

The question on suspending the rules to introduce this resolution was negatived by a vote of 53 to 76.

On motion of Mr. Barbour of Indiana, it was resolved, that the President be requested to inform the House whether U. S. soldiers have been employed in Kansas to arrest persons charged with violation of supposed laws, passed by a supposed Legislature in said Territory, which assembled in Shawnee Mission, and if such soldiers have been so employed, that the President inform the House by what authority they were employed.

The House passed the bill to enlarge the Post Office, Court and Custom House buildings, in Milwaukie; also the Senate bills, appropriating $100,000 to deepen the channel of the St. Mary's River, Michigan; and 330,000 to keep open the chanel of the mouth of the Mississippi.

BORDER RUFFIANS AND GOV. ROBINSON. St. Louis, May 12.—The steamer Star of the West left Kansas on the 10th inst. The bogus governor, Robinson, and family were among the passengers. At Lexington, Mo., Robinson was waited upon by a committee, and notified that they should detain him on the ground that he was fleeing from the Territory to avoid arrest on an indictment of treason, which had been found against him by the U. S. Dist. Court. Robinson replied that he had been informed by one of the Jury that an attempt had been made to find a bill, but had failed. The committee insisting that Robinson should remain, and he finally consented to do so.

The committee consisted of Gen. Shields, and a number of the most respectable citizens. The committee agreed to send a messenger to Kansas to ascertain if an indictment had been found. No violence or indignity was offered to Mr. R. during the proceedings.

The N. Y. Tribune has the following special despatch, dated St. Louis, 12th. The special correspondent of the Tribune in Kansas has sent a despatch here, to be forwarded, to the effect that Gov. Robinson was arrested by a mob in Lexington, on Friday last, on his way East.

10 o'clock, A. M. A despatch from Leavenworth, just received, reports an armed force on the way to that place. Its object is said to be the destruction of the testimony already taken before the Congressional Commission. This force was moving immediately on Lecompton, there to join other parties mustering for the same work.

A Kansas correspondent of the Tribune states that on the night of April 30, an attempt was made to assassinate J. N. Mace, formerly of Newburyport, by two ruffians. Mace had that day testified before the Commission to the doings of the Missouri Borderers in the elections at Bloomington. His testimony showed that Sheriff Jones was the leader of a mob of two or three hundred Missourians; that the Judges of election were ordered to resign in five minutes or die.

ONE OF THE MOTHERS.—Died, at Calais, Vt., April 22, Anna L. Hall, aged 82, wife of Stephen Hall, a non-commissioned officer of the revolution. Mrs. Hall was born in Exeter, N. H., January, 1774. At the age of nine years she went to live with the Shakers, and spent the early portion of her life with them. Many years since, however, she, as well as Mr. Hall, left the Shaker family, and were subsequently married and went to Vermont. She retained a respect for the religion in which she had been educated, and upon her death bed, requested to be buried in an unstained coffin, and that her funeral services might, as near as circumstances would admit, conform to the Shaker custom.

This item, which we find floating in the papers, impels us to say, that the deceased showed herself a wise woman, in respecting such parts of the Shaker religion as are harmless and innocent, while she rejected and nullified those parts which are alike repugnant to good sense, purity, and human nature.

Great American and Foreign Office

For Securing Patents for Inventions.

R. H. EDDY,

No. 76 State st, opp. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others), will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal thereof, by him within thirty days after the rejection.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that more is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would shd that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents; he also has the extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers and Drawings necessary to the procural of patents in this and foreign countries prepared and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, or infringement of patents. All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved to inventors.

Copies of claims of any patent furnished for one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington—Patents secured in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries, through Agents of the highest respectability. R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,

Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly versed in the patent law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER OF LOTTERIES.
BALTIMORE, April 15, 1856.

THE undersigned, Commissioner of Lotteries of the State of Maryland, being in receipt daily of letters from various portions of the country, making inquiry as to Lottery Schemes, with which the country is flooded, and which purport to be "decided by the drawings of the Maryland Consolidated Lotteries," takes this method to answer all such letters of inquiry, and inform the public that all Lotteries purporting to be decided by the Maryland Lotteries are great frauds; that certain parties who style themselves Morris & Co., and pretend to be Managers or Sole Agents for the Grand Charter Lotteries at Cleaveland, Ohio, are impostors, and said lottery a fraud, having neither legal nor presumptive existence; and that another fictitious firm, styled Murry & Co., Cleveland, Ohio, are also impostors, and all lotteries which they profess to be managers or agents for, are also frauds.

RICHARD FRANCE, of this city, is the Contractor for drawing the Maryland Lotteries. The business is conducted under the firm of R. FRANCE & Co., as Managers, and they have no sole agents in the city of Baltimore. There are, however, some fairly licensed venders for the State of Maryland, who derive licenses under him, through this office, to sell tickets in the Maryland Lotteries. D. H. McPHAIL,

FARM LANDS FOR SALE.

The Illinois Central Railroad Company

IS NOW PREPARED TO SELL

OF

FARMING LANDS,

In Tracts of 40 acres and upwards, on long credits and at low rates of interest.

THESE lands were granted by the Government to aid in the construction of the Railroad, and include some of the richest and most fertile Prairies in the State, interspersed here and there with magnificent groves of oak and other timber. The Road extends from Chicago, on the north, to Cairo at the south, and from Dunleith to Galena and Dunleith, in the north-west extreme of the State, and as all the lands lie within fifteen miles on each side of this Road, ready and cheap means are afforded by it for transporting the products of the lands to any of those points and from thence to Eastern and Southern markets. Moreover, the rapid growth of flourishing towns and villages along the line, and the great increase in population by immigration, etc. afford a substantial and growing home demand for farm produce.

The soil is a dark, rich mould, from one to five feet in depth, is gently rolling and peculiarly fitted for grazing cattle and sheep, or the cultivation of wheat, Indian corn, etc.

Economy in cultivating and great productiveness are the well known characteristics of Illinois lands. Trees are not required to be cut down, stumps grubbed, or stone picked off, as is generally the case in cultivating new land in the older States. The first crop of Indian corn, planted on the newly broken sod, usually repays the cost of plowing and fencing.

Wheat sown on the newly-turned sod is sure to yield very large profits. A man with a plow and two yoke of oxen can break one acre and a half or two acres per day. Contracts can be made for breaking, ready for corn or wheat, at from $2 to $50 per acre. By judicious management, the land may be planted and fenced the first, and under a high state of cultivation the second year.

Corn, grain, cattle, etc. will be forwarded at reasonable rates to Chicago, for the Eastern market, and to Cairo for the Southern. The larger yield on the cheap lands of Illinois over the high priced lands in the Eastern and Middle States, is known to be much more than sufficient to pay the difference of transportation to the Eastern market.

Bituminous coal is mined at several points along the Road, and is a cheap and desirable fuel. It can be delivered at several points along the Road at $1.50 to $4 per ton; Wood can be had at the same rates per cord.

To those who think of settling in Iowa or Minnesota, where lands are cheap, that lands have a low value, along the water courses and for many miles inland, have been disposed of;—that for those located in the interior, there are no conveniences for transporting the produce to market, railroads not having been introduced there. To send the produce of these lands, one or two hundred miles by wagon to market, would cost much more than the expense of cultivating them; and hence Government lands situated, at $1.25 per acre are not so good investments as the lands of the company at the prices fixed.

The same remark holds good in relation to the lands in Kansas and Nebraska, for although vacant lands may be found near the settlements, yet the distance to market is far greater, and every hundred miles the produce of those lands are carried either in wagons or interrupted water communications, increases the expense of transportation, which must be borne by the settlers, at the reduced price of their products; and to that extent precisely are the incomes from their farms, and of course on their investments, annually and every year reduced.

The great fertility of the lands now offered for sale by this company, and their consequent yield over those of the Middle and Eastern States, is much more than sufficient to pay the difference in the cost of transportation, especially when to one of the facilities furnished by this Road, and others with which it connects, the operations of which are not interrupted by the low water of summer, or the frosts of winter.

PRICES AND TERMS OF PAYMENT.

The Price will vary from $5 to $25, according to the quality, location, &c. Contracts for Deeds may be made during the year 1856, stipulating the purchase money to be paid in five annual installments; the first to become due in two years from the date of contract, and the others annually thereafter. The last payment will become due at the end of the sixth year from the date of the contract.

Interest will be charged at only 3 per ct. per ann.

As a security to the performance of the contract the first two years' interest must be paid in advance, and it must be understood that at least one tenth of the land purchased shall yearly be brought into cultivation. Twenty per cent. from the credit price will be deducted for cash. The Company's construction bonds will be received as cash.

READY FRAMED FARM BUILDINGS,

Which can be set up in a few days, can be obtained from Responsible Persons.

They will be 12 ft. by 20 ft. divided into one living and three bed rooms, and will cost complete set up on ground chosen anywhere along the road $150 in cash, exclusive of transportation. Larger buildings may be contracted for at proportionate rates The Company will forward all the materials for such buildings over the Road promptly.

Special arrangements with dealers can be made to supply those purchasing the Company's lands with fencing materials, agricultural tools, and an outfit of provisions in any quantity, at the lowest wholesale prices.

It is believed that the price, long credit, and low rate of interest, charged for these lands will enable a man with a few hundred dollars in cash, and ordinary industry, to make himself independent before all the purchase money becomes due. In the mean time, the rapid settlement of the country will probably have increased their value four or five fold. When required an experienced person will accompany applicants, to give information, and aid in selecting lands.

Circulars containing numerous instances of successful farming, signed by respectable and well known farmers living in the neighborhood of the Railroad lands, throughout the State—also the cost of fencing, price of cattle, expense of harvesting, threshing, &c. by contract—or any other information will be cheerfully given, on application, either personally or by letter, in English, French or German, addressed to

Land Commissioner of Ill. Central R. R. Co., Office up to the 1st of May, 52 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Ill.; after that date in the New Stone Passenger Depot, So. Water st. a8 6m

LIFE IN A BALL ROOM.

The New York Musical World translates from a French paper the following bit of Parisian gossip.

Madame de N., a lady who has a large circle of acquaintances and loves society passionately, has passed every night for two months at a ball. There is no exception, not a single intermission in this life of fetes. By day she sleeps, recruits her strength, refreshes her complexion, or arranges her toilette; not an hour for household cares, friendly visits or business.

Her lawyer lately demanded an interview on a matter of great importance. A lawsuit was in question which threatened to deprive her of a large part of her fortune. A conference was indispensable, and he asked for an hour's conversation.

"An hour, good heavens!" cried Madame de N., "these business men are strange creatures, they talk of an hour as if it were the merest trifle. Do they fancy that there is a whole hour to be lost, or rather to be found, in the midst of engagements which dispose so tyrannically of every moment?"

Yet, Madame de N., who knew so well the value of time, knew also the value of fortune. She understood the importance of the interview demanded, but what was to be done?—Sacrifice the repose so necessary by day? impossible; sacrifice a ball? more impossible still.

In this difficult dilemma, Madame de N., who is a woman of imagination, found an expedient to reconcile her interest with her pleasure. Her lawyer, next day, received an invitation which caused him most profound astonishment. It was for a ball at the house of a Countess of the Faubourg St. Germain, who was not his client, and who was a perfect stranger to him. But he had soon an explanation to the enigma. Madame de N., sent him word that he must not fail to go to the ball, as it was there alone that she could give him the interview that he wished for.

The lawyer went to the ball, and Madame de N. gave him his hour—not all at once—in fractions—between the cotillions and waltzes—but the conference took place; grave questions were discussed amid the music and laughter of the fete; the lawyer took notes in his memorandum book, while the lady wrote on the ivory of her tablets the names of her partners. Though often interrupted by the agreeable nonsense of gallant cavaliers, the interview was at last terminated, and as they were about to separate, the lawyer said:

"I shall have soon to make to you communications which will require further discussion."

"Again!"

"Yes, it is indispensable that I should have a second interview next week."

"On what day?"

"Say Thursday."

"Very well, then; on Thursday I visit Madame de B., in the Fauborg St. Honore.—It will be a charming fete. I will have an invitation sent to you."

"Another ball!"

"I can give you the hour nowhere else;—you may take it or leave it. But what are you complaining of?" A delicious ball and a magnificent supper! I depend upon you; and if a third or fourth interview is necessary, you need not be troubled; I have balls for every night until the first of April."

"AN OWER TRUE TALE."—The Lowell News tells the following story:

Polly Peablesome might have been the name of a very pretty Green Mountain girl, at work in one of our Lowell mills, and Hezekiah Winkle the name of a rough specimen of a homespun, who had courted and become "engaged" to Polly before she left home. He came to pay her a visit, a short time since, and to set the time for their wedding-day—Polly to return to Vermont, and superintend domestic duties on Hezekiah's farm. One evening they took a stroll out, and called at a refreshment saloon, invested liberally in kisses and bonbons, and, on their return, Hezekiah unfortunately missed his wallet, containing a round one hundred dollars. Of course Hezekiah was "knocked all in a heap," at his loss, and instituted a search wherever he thought it might avail anything, but all without success. At length—we do not know how it was brought about—Hezekiah was led to suspect Polly, and being of a frank nature—commonly called "blunt"—he insinuated his suspicions to her. This time Polly was "knocked all in a heap," and, her mother's "grit" getting aroused, she gave her lover a piece of her mind, for his insinuation—a most excellent Roland for his Oliver. This roused Hezekiah, and a lively "scene" ensued. At last Polly took to crying, and, Hezekiah, with his money lost, and his love greatly wounded, "put out" for his boarding-place, feeling as though he would be much more at home in the bottom of the "raging canawl," than in bed; but he concluded the weather was not warm enough for comfortable drowning, and so he sought his lodgings. As Hezekiah gained them, and pulled off one his boots, preparatory to retiring to bed—but not to rest—lo! out dropped the missing wallet, money all safe! At this discovery, Hezekiah danced a hornpipe over the floor, with one boot on, and would have acted still more extravagantly, had he not suddenly recollected the condition in which he had left Polly.—Catching his hat, he was half-way down stairs before he recollected the boot he had left behind. Rectifying the mistake, he was soon at the door of her boarding-house. Polly was abed. "Tell her I've found it—in my boot-leg; it is all right!" was the message sent up by the joyous Hezekiah. But he made quite a mistake. It wasn't all right.—Polly's wounded honor was not to be thus healed—with a breath; and the next morning Hezekiah was duly notified that Polly concluded not to superintend his domestic arrangements in Vermont, and also that he was expected to return, at his earliest convenience, whatever in the shape of notes and other valuables he might hold of Polly's, and that she stood ready to serve him in the like manner. In vain Hezekiah implored—Polly was inexorable; and the next day he departed for Vermont, thinking that the fuss he had made over the hundred dollars was the means of losing him as good as a thousand in domestic help on his farm.

Moral. Think twice, and look once in your boot-leg, before you accuse your intended of stealing your porte-monnaie.

UNCLE TOBY AND THE DOCTORS.

A DIALOGUE.

Doctor Argus.—A weight attaches to example as well as to precept, especially when that example bears the stamp of authority. At a late reunion of the Boston Society for Medical Improvement, the social benefits of alcoholic stimulants were practically and happily illustrated. A member of the Society informs me that the exhibition of "grape" upon that occasion was profuse and sparkling, evoking the liveliest wit, the most genial humor, and the kindliest fraternal feeling.

Uncle T.—Most edifying example — a bacchanalian revel, in which a profession of alcoholic stimulus caused silly sots to fancy themselves learned and skilful, witty and wise. An oyster supper, washed down with champagne, and paid for with a head ache next morning, after the Westminster Review's most approved pattern. This example, tho' stamped with authority, is not much to be commended. Now for the precept.

Doctor Boston.—The drunkard, with a good appetite and digestion, is never tuberculous; and if tubercles or cavities existed prior to his habits of excess, they are found after death to have ameliorated by conversion of particles, or are puckered into cicatrices.

Uncle T.—O most learned pundit, what a valuable discovery! that getting drunk is a preventative against consumption; and if this deadly disease should strike a sober man, he will do well to go into excess for amelioration!

But it is "the drunkard with a good appetite and digestion," that keeps clear of tubercles! Wonderful indeed! but how long do drunkards commonly keep such good appetite and digestion? And do not sober men who have good appetites and good digestion, escape as easily!

This argument of the Doctor, is not in favor of liberty, or license, or even of moderate drinking, but of excess and drunkenness.—Put into plain English, it reads, if you are fearful of consumption, become a drunkard, and you will escape.

Dr. Boston. — Morally we believe in absolute teetotalism, and could wish that physically the constitution and habits of persons would admit the same all-saving virtue of the time.

Dr. Argus.—Such use is morally as well as physically indispensable to the condition of things existing in the city. Artificial stimuli a commercial people will have—though its moral sentiment does not tolerate excess, more than in other places.

Uncle T.—You contradict each other. Argus advocates moderate drinking as morally and physically good in the city, but as desirable in the country. While Dr. Boston advocates drunkenness as a sovereign remedy for consumption every where—but at the same time commends teetotalism, as morally good every where.

Dr. Boston.—But the proposition is incontrovertible that phthisis (pulmonary consumption) has increased upon the spread of total abstinence, in almost exact proportion.

Uncle T.— Don't believe the statement: don't believe there is now, any more consumption, pro rata, than there was between 1810 and 1825—before the temperance societies were formed. And we know, that our bills of mortality in this place, presented as large a proportion of such disease then, as our observation indicates now.

Dr. Boston.—We would insist that those whose hereditary or acquired proclivities are towards tuberculosis, should employ alcohol. Commingled with the principles of food, no local disease is endangered by it. Less excitement of the nervous centres follows, and delirium tremens is impossible. Delirium tremens and phthisis have more points of connection than this.

Uncle T.—I said nothing of delirium tremens! but since you mention it, it seems to me not much better than consumption! Not possible! why yes it is, and horrible too, as many a poor wretch has testified.

Dr. Virginia.—In a practice of twenty-five year, I have not seen a case of consumption in what is called a drinking man, nor have I heard of one.

Uncle T—has seen lots of them, whose names, if printed here, would make many ears to tingle, and hearts to bleed.

Dr. V.—The pale, feeble and cachetic, are most subject to tuberculosis, and the most beautiful and delicate of the female sex (and they never drink).—

Uncle T.—Nonsense and falsehood. We have seen them drink wine, cordials, sangaree and gin toddy, time and again.

Dr. Jackson.—I believe that persons disposed to intemperance are not to be restrained from indulging their vicious propensity, by the abstinence of their more prudent neighbors.

Uncle T.—You don't believe in the omnipotence of moral suasion, then.

Dr. Buffalo—bears testimony to the beneficial effects of alcoholic liquors in moderate quantities, combined with a nourishing diet, and active, and in some cases violent, exercise in the open air.

Uncle T.—Indeed! Nourishing Diet, Active Exercise, Open Air—all three of these, with a little alcohol as the 4th ingredient, cured somebody. Very likely those three agents first named, might have done the work, without the 4th, or with a dish of herb tea, or some porridge. Dr. Buffalo's prescription puts us in mind of the Old Farmer's rule for wintering stock.

Somebody thought the old farmer's meadow hay was rather mean, and ventured to say so.

No, no, (said the old man,) half a ton of it will winter a calf!

You don't say so!

Yes it will—with a little meal every morning!

FRANCE.—The Prince Imperial is doing nicely. He is carried out for air and exercise on the terrace of the Tuilleries almost daily, and his parents evince a becoming solicitude for his welfare. This is the gist of many columns of news, under this head, in the French papers.

From several departments of France the accounts are cheering for the crops—

The rye begins to show the ear, the colza advances rapidly, the spring corn looks most promising, and the vines begin to show their leaves. Everything holds out hopes of abundant produce. The fruit on the peach, apricot, and cherry trees, is all well set, and promises an abundant crop, and the markets had begun to exhibit early vegetables, such as green peas, artichokes, and new potatoes.—The journals of the south of France speak in just as favorable terms of the appearance of their districts.

OUTRAGE BY A CATHOLIC PRIEST.—The York (Pa.) Republican relates that on Sunday, the 4th inst., the priest officiating at a Roman Catholic chapel in that town took occession to kick a woman, the mother of grown up men, all of them members of his congregation. The sons, indignant at such conduct, called at his residence, and resented the outrage. The sons appeared at their accustomed place at the afternoon service. No sooner had they made their appearance, however, than the priest attempted to eject them from the sanctuary by violence, which was resisted by them, when a general melee and "free fight" ensued, in which the congregation joined, whilst battered heads and bloody noses resulted therefrom. The priest and other participants in the row have been arrested.

Such clerical scoundralism will not be tolerated in this country.

THE PRICE OF FLOUR.—Complaints are constantly made by housekeepers that the great decline in the price of flour does not reach the retail trade, and that a barrel of flour of the best brands costs nearly twice as much as the price quoted in the reports of the market. The reasons is that from long habit, from carelessness and from extravagence, people persist in buying certain brands, doubtless of the highest quality, but at such disproportionate prices as altogether exceed the difference in grade. We do not pretend to know how to make good bread, and will not venture upon any directions; but we know what good bread is when we see it, and it is certain that with proper care and with the proper modes of preparation, the ordinary kinds of flour may be made into better and far more healthful bread than is generally produced from the better brands. With so wide a difference in the price of flour, there should be more care in the preparation of bread.

The above is from the Providence Journal, a paper which is always sound, in economy as well as in politics. People inquire every day how it is that breadstuffs are quoted lower every week in European and American prices current, and yet the reduction has not reached the consumer here. The answer may be that there is a great deal of fancy in the fancy brands of flour, which sell at such disproportionate rates; but the case is not confined to Boston or Providence. In Baltimore the price current makes a difference of from $2 to $3.50 between merchantable and family flour, which every one must allow to be far out of proportion to the merits of the two articles.—Boston Courier.

THE NEW MAINE LIQUOR LAW.—One person, Mr. Messenger Fisher, has been licensed under the new law, to sell liquor in the city of Bangor. The Whig says:— "Liquor is very freely sold, however, all over the city; and it is generally believed that the new law will be powerless to prevent it, even with the most rigorous execution."

This new law was not intended to prevent, but to encourage the business.

CINCINNATI, May 13.—A disturbance occurred at Covington, Ky., yesterday, where the German turners of this city were celebrating the day. Several boys were roughly handled by the Germans, and Marshals Rutts and Harvey, attempting to interfere, were badly wounded, one with a pistol shot and the other with a sabre. Further excitement ensued; a large crowd collected, and the aid of the United States troops from the Newport garrison was demanded. This demand was refused, when the mob proceeded to the use of stones and fire-arms. None, however, excepting the two officers, were seriously injured. Five of the turners surrendered voluntarily, and order was restored.

"THE NEXT CANNON SHOT."—In relation to the rumor that the French Minister of War had treated three United States officers rudely, when they applied to visit certain fortifications, the Courier des Etats Unis of New York says that such a story is absurd, for no permission is necessary to visit any part of the fortifications; they are open to the public. It is therefore not likely, in the opinion of our French cotemporary, that any such permission was ever applied for, or that it was discourteously refused.

ARREST OF RAND, THE BANK ROBBER.—Major Rixford, of Concord, N. H., Sheriff of Merrimac county, has received a message from the Mayor of Philadelphia, that John W. Rand, the notorious bank robber who broke jail a few months since in New Hampshire, is under arrest in that city. The Sheriff is on his way to take Rand back to Concord.

Great alarm prevails both in England and France lest the return of the allied armies from the Crimea should import some of the Asiatic plagues. The French government has taken precautions to guard against such contingencies, by assigning camps to the troops in desert localities. Half Paris is ill of the quinsy.

OUR NEXT PRESIDENT.

Who our next President is to be will be better known after election, but there is one thing we always knew, and that is the most successful remedy in the cure of rheumatism, cuts, wounds, scalds, burns, cholera morbus, neuralgia, and all internal and external pains, ever introduced is Dyer's Healing Embrocation. Sold every where.

"If you are Coming, Why don't you Come along!"

THAT is the "mot" now-a-days. Every locomotive on every Railroad shrieks it. It is daily rapped out on every Telegraphic Line in the country. The echoing blows of our Ship Carpenters hourly exemplify it. The smith at his anvil hammers it out. The clanking Press with breathless haste, sends the cry home to every family—"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"

It is uttered in an hundred tongues in a hundred lands. It has sounded like a slogan through the political world, and the "Old Fogies" are creeping along among the baggage wagons and the wounded. Thought, that moved at a funeral pace, now rushes on a tremendous charge; and all the old remedies for Liver Complaint have given way for

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along."—Six paces to the front, is the word to everybody and everything that wants to be listened to or looked at. If you have anything to do, do it; if you wish any person to see anything, show it; If you have anything to be cured, CURE IT WITH

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you have a Bottle of Holman's Bitters in your house, you need not suffer from

Biliousness, Weakness at the Stomach, Indigestion, Heartburn, Lowness of Spirits,

Nor any of the diseases incident to the season.

It used to take six men to make a pin; now one boy, a pull, a clip, and two strokes, and that's the way the pins are made. Once it took a Physician, lots of precious time, and quantities of nauseous drugs to cure some simple disease of the Blood.—Now, a quarter expended in

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS

Brings Life and Health, flowing spirits and rosy cheeks.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you are sick and weak, why don't you cure yourself? Here we offer you the article that will do it—there is no mistake about it. Every body knows about HOLMAN'S BITTERS; they have been tried and have "toed the mark straight."

They are a good medicine; they are better than anything else for all Spring Complaints; they are just the best Bitters that can be bought—and that's the best thing we can say about them. "If you are coming, why don't you come along," before they are all gone?

LOCAL.

P. & C. RAILROAD.

The Annual meeting of the above Corporation was held at the Court House in this city, Wednesday afternoon.

The meeting was called to order at 3 1-4 o'clock, by the President, A. W. Haven, Esq.

Proceeded to ballot for Proprietors' Clerk, and Brackett Hutchings was declared unanimously elected.

The Directors' Report was then read, and accepted, as follows:—

During the last year by the settlement of sundry accounts, and by the earnings for the month of May, 1855, the construction account has been increased, and several of the other accounts changed in amount.

The Construction account, including Station buildings and fixtures, and rolling stock now stands $1,108,171,95, being an increase of $8,681,58.

The Bills payable and personal accounts, the holders of which pretend an individual liability of stockholders, is $9,016,18, which is less than the amount reported last year, $10,517,41.

The report of last year included the earnings up to May 1, 1855; the earnings of May, 1855, amounting to $7,226,31 were absorbed in paying running expenses and settlement of old accounts.

On the first of June, 1855, the Road was delivered into the hands of the Trustees of the bondholders; and the Directors have received from them no account.

With this report is submitted the Balance Sheet from the books of the Treasurer up to May 1, 1856.

The above report was accepted.

Alfred W. Haven, Joshua W. Pierce, Arthur Fletcher, Nathaniel Bachelder, Horton D. Walker, Nathaniel White, William Plumer.

Mr. Richard Pickering said that it would afford him, and probably other stockholders much gratification to be informed of the future condition of the road. He would like to know why it was not sold at the expiration of the time required by the mortgage.

Mr. Emery, one of the Trustees, stated that they would give all the information in their power. The road had not been sold, because no application had been made, by bondholders to the amount of $50,000 as was required, that the sale should take place. The application had been delayed until certain suits in equity had been decided.

The meeting then dissolved.

THE APPOLONEONS.—This troupe, almost unknown hereabouts before, gave two concerts in this city on Monday and Tuesday evenings. The audience was small on the first evening, and smaller on the second,—the receipts being but $17 at both concerts, the while their expenses were about $90.

The troupe comprises a quartet of gentlemen singers, with occasional aid from a fifth. Mr. Thayer, tenor, and Mr. Keating, bass, have uncommonly fine voices—and the chorus singing in some pieces was admirable.—They sang without instruments. The song of the homesick Californians was given in costume, to perfection—and it seemed almost as though the used up miners were on the other side of the Isthmus. Their entertainments were well worthy of patronage—though we think some of their comic singing does not add to their popularity—and we are sure that the comic character of their illustrated posters did not aid them at all in getting an audience here.

LOOK OUT.—A young man in one of the livery stables in this city, a few days since, cut off one of his fingers from his left hand, in a revolving hay-cutter. Jack was no green hand at the business, either, but, like Mr. Micauber, was "always expecting" such an accident. We don't believe he'll put his hand so far in again—at least, not that finger.

☞ Allen Freeman's Oyster Saloon was entered on Saturday night last, and sixty coppers, and a few loose cigars stolen. Some smoking thief seems to be procuring a stock of cigars for his own use—but he may try on this store-breaking game once too often.

THE ROCKINGHAM HOUSE in this city, is being thoroughly painted and papered, and otherwise improved throughout It is to be newly furnished; and will be re-opened by T. J. Coburn, Esq., the proprietor, in season to accommodate the summer travel. The new landlord, and the improvements, must render the Rockingham even more popular with the travelling public, than heretofore.

☞ That stone post near Mr. Chas. Robinson's house was removed yesterday by the Street Commissioner, by direction of the Mayor and Aldermen. The Commissioner had hardly left the place, before a gang of hands were at work, and the stone re-set in the same position as before.

CONGRESS.

TUESDAY, May 13.

SENATE.—In the Senate, to-day, a motion was passed directing the Secretary of War to estimate the cost of making Hurlgate in Long Island Sound, navigable for the largest ships and war vessels.

The Senate also agreed to appoint a Committee of Conference on the Deficiency bill.

Mr. Cass concluded his remarks commenced yesterday, saying, with regard to Kansas, that the recent troubles in that territory had not in the least weakened his faith in the great doctrine of man to govern himself. He condemned the everlasting discussion on the slavery question, which was quadrennially renewed with increased violence on the eve of each Presidential election. The South does not meddle with the social system of the North, and if the North would follow its example, we should be the happiest, most contented, as we are to day-the freest nation on the face of the globe.

Mr. Clayton spoke on the question of the Sound Dues.

HOUSE.—In the House Mr. Jones of Pennsylvania replied to the remarks of his colleague, (Mr. Fuller.) Mr. Jones pointed with pride to the long public life of Mr. Buchanan. The record of the Democracy is luminous, but would be marred by any attempt to defend it from attack from any quarter.

Mr. Fuller of Pennsylvania gave the Democratic journal of that state as the authority for his assertion that Buchanan had reported the Lancaster resolutions denunciatory of the Missouri Compromise. It was published in 1852.

The House adopted the report of the Committee of Conference on the Deficiency bill, from which had been stricken an appropriation of $300,000 for the continuation of the Washington Aqueduct.

210,000 copies of the agricultural portion of the Patent Office report were ordered to be printed.

Mr. Evans depicted the fatal consequences to our nationality which must result from the continued agitation of the slavery question, and invoked the South to stand firm in an unbroken phalanx against the invaders of their constitutional rights. Adjourned.

THE BORDER RUFFIANS.

Despatches from St. Louis, May 12, says:

While Gov. Reeder was in attendance at the session of the Commission of Investigation, at Lecompton, on the evening of the 8th, the Deputy Marshal served on him a writ to appear before the Grand Jury at Lecompton, to answer to a charge of contempt, for having refused to comply with a summons from the Grand Jury previously served upon him. Mr. Reeder refused to obey the writs, and appealed to the Commission; but they decided that they had no power in the case. Messrs. Howard and Sherman, however, expressed as their opinion that Mr. Reeder was protected by his privilege. Mr. Oliver dissented, and said the Commission could not stand between him and the Marshal. Reeder said that although his life was in danger in Lecompton, he would remain, on his privilege, in attendance at the sittings of the Commission, and he warned them to touch him at their peril. The Marshal left, but was expected to return on the 9th, with the U. S. Dragoons.

The St. Louis despatch of the 13th, says:

Mrs. Robinson arrived here yesterday morning. She published a statement respecting her husband's detention at Lexington. She says Gov. Robinson was going east on personal business, and denies that he was aware of the indictment previous to his leaving the territory. Otherwise her statement does not differ materially from yesterday's despatch.

The Lawrence correspondent of the Democrat under date of 7th inst. says indictments for high treason had been found against Reeder, Robinson, Roberts, Lane and other prominent free state men.

The news brought from Lawrence by Missourians is that secret handbills are circulating to the effect that forces are marshaling on the border counties, and that the people have been warned to prepare for defence.

The wife of Keating entered the courtroom while Herbert was under examination, with a young child in her arms, which she bade look at the murderer of its father.

THE COMING SICKNESS.—The germs of pestilence are hatching in the elements. Everything points to the approach of a sickly summer and autumn. It should, therefore, be the care of every person to preserve the several functions of the body in their full tone.—Disease falls first upon those whose organism is already disordered through their own neglect. Guard well against constipation, and its opposite. Eat nothing indigestible. Avoid all green and half-matured vegetables and fruits. Pay strict attention to the cleanliness of the surface of your bodies; and above all begin the work of purification about your yards, and in your houses, early, and do it thoroughly. Cleanliness, simple diet, and regular habits, will form the strongest protection against the coming epidemic. As no man can tell where the arrow of death may fall first, he is the wisest man who first puts his house in order.—Hunter's Med. Specialist.

The Patterson Mirror has gone into spasms because Mr. John B. Gough, in a recent lecture in that city, spoke a few words in behalf of the slave. Fortunately, Mr. Gough's reputation does not depend upon the applause or censure of the slave-ocracy, and if it did, we doubt if it would alter his course in the least. He knows that the advocacy of Temperance truths does not disqualify him from speaking his thoughts on other questions, and we believe he is man enough to do what he considers right, though all the Doughface Editors in Christendom, howl and yelp at his heels.

HOW TO GET LETTERS FROM HOME.—A young merchant's clerk, who had been in California since 1849, without making his fortune, found it a very difficult matter to get any letters from home, and particularly from a young lady to whom he was engaged when he started "round the Horn." He subsequently became more successful in business, and wrote home to an acquaintance asking the price of a certain farm in Ohio. A reply came, and with it, very much to his surprise, a number of congratulatory letters from his intended-that-was, and from a number of other young ladies and their friends.

He did at buy the farm.—Eastern Argus.

These Pills should be used two or three weeks previous to confinement; they fortify the constitution, and lessen the suffering during labor, enabling the mother to perform her duties with safety to herself and child.

The Pills should not be taken by females during the FIRST THREE MONTHS of Pregnancy, as they are sure to bring on Miscarriage, but at any other time they are safe.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the most informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,

Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER OF LOTTERIES.
BALTIMORE, April 18, 1856.

THE undersigned, Commissioner of Lotteries for the State of Maryland, being in receipt daily of letters from various portions of the country, making inquiry as to Lottery Schemes, with which the country is flooded, and which purport to be "decided by the drawings of the Maryland Consolidated Lotteries," takes this method to answer all such letters of inquiry, and inform the public that all Lotteries purporting to be decided by the Maryland Lotteries are gross frauds; that certain parties who style themselves Morris & Co., and pretend to be Managers or Sole Agents for the Grand Charter Lotteries at Cleaveland, Ohio, are impostors, and said lottery a fraud, having neither legal nor presumptive existence; and that another fictitious firm, styled Murry & Co., Cleveland, Ohio, are also imposters, and all lotteries which they profess to be managers or agents for, are also frauds.

RICHARD FRANCE, of this city, is the Contractor for drawing the Maryland Lotteries. The business is conducted under the firm of R. FRANCE & Co., as Managers, and they have no sole agents in the city of Baltimore. There are, however, some forty licensed venders for the Sale of Maryland Lottery tickets, who derive licenses under him, through their office, to sell tickets in the Maryland Lotteries.

CURED BY EXTRACT OF ROCKROSE

FARM LANDS FOR SALE.

The Illinois Central Railroad Company

IS NOW PREPARED TO SELL

OF

FARMING LANDS,

In Tracts of 40 acres and upwards, on long credit, and at low rates of interest.

THESE lands were granted by the Government to aid in the construction of this Railroad, and include some of the richest and most fertile Prairies in the State, interspersed here and there with magnificent groves of oak and other timber. The Road runs from Chicago, on the northeast, to Cairo at the south, and from thence to Galena and Dunleith, in the north-west extreme of the State, and as all the lands lie within fifteen miles on each side of the Road, ready and cheap means are afforded by it for transporting the products of the lands to any of those points and from thence to Eastern and Southern markets. Moreover, the rapid growth of flourishing towns and villages along the line, and the great increase in population by immigration, etc. afford a substantial and growing home demand for farm produce.

The soil is a dark, rich mould, from one to five feet in depth, is gently rolling and peculiarly fitted for grazing cattle and sheep, or the cultivation of wheat, Indian corn, etc.

Wheat sown on the newly-turned sod is sure to yield very large profits. A man with a plow and two yoke of oxen will break one and a half to two acres per day. Contracts can be made for breaking, ready for corn or wheat, at from $2 to $3 per acre. By judicious management, the land may be plowed and fenced the first, and under a high state of cultivation the second year.

Corn, grain, cattle, etc. will be found at reasonable rates for Chicago, for the Eastern market, and Cairo for the Southern. The larger yield on the cheap lands of Illinois over the high priced lands in the Eastern and Middle States, is known to be much more than sufficient to pay the difference of transportation to the Eastern market.

Bituminous coal is mined at several points along the Road, and is a cheap and desirable fuel. It can be delivered at several points along the Road at $1.50 to $4 per ton; Wood can be had at the same rates per cord.

Those who think of settling in Iowa or Minnesota, should bear in mind, that lands there of any value, along the water courses and for many miles inland, have been disposed of;—that for those located in the interior, there are no conveniences for transporting the produce to market, railroads not having been introduced there. That to send the produce of these lands, one or two hundred miles by wagon to market, would cost much more than the expense of cultivating them; and hence Government lands thus situated, at $1.25 per acre are not so good investments as the lands of this company at the prices fixed.

The same remark holds good in relation to the lands in Kansas and Nebraska, for although vacant lands may be found nearer the water courses the distance to market is far greater, and every hundred miles the produce is thus hauled adds a proportionate value of interrupted water communications, increases the expense of transportation, which must be borne by the settlers, in the reduced price of their products; and to the extent precisely are they thus deprived of the value and of course lessen their investments, annually and every year reduced.

The great fertility of the lands now offered for sale by this company, and their consequent yield over those of the Middle and Eastern States, is much more than sufficient to pay the difference in the cost of transportation, especially in view of the facilities furnished by this Road, and others with which it connects, the operations of which are not interrupted by the low water of summer, or the frosts of winter.

PRICES AND TERMS OF PAYMENT.

The Price will vary from $5 to $25, according to the quality, location, &c. Contracts for Deeds may be made during the year 1856, stipulating the purchase money to be paid in five annual installments; the first to become due in two years from the date of contract, and the others annually thereafter. The last payment will become due at the end of the sixth year from the date of the contract.

Interest will be charged at only 3 per ct. per ann.

As a security to the performance of the contract the first two years' interest must be paid in advance, and it must be understood that at least one tenth of the land purchased shall yearly be bro't under cultivation. Twenty per cent. from the credit price will be deducted for cash. The Company's construction bonds will be received as cash.

READY FRAMED FARM BUILDINGS,

Which can be set up in a few days, can be obtained from Responsible Persons.

They will be 12 ft. by 20 ft. divided into one living and three bed rooms, and will cost complete set up on ground close adjacent to the place, $150 in cash, exclusive of transportation. Larger buildings may be contracted for at proportionate rates The Company will forward all the materials for such buildings over the Road property.

Special arrangements with dealers can be made to supply those purchasing the Company's lands with fencing materials, agricultural tools, and an outfit of provisions in any quantity, at the lowest wholesale prices.

It is believed that the price, long credit, and low rate of interest, charged for these lands will enable a man with a few hundred dollars in cash, and ordinary industry, to make himself independent before all the purchase money becomes due. In the mean time, the rapid settlement of the country will probably have increased their value four or five fold. When required an experienced person will accompany applicants, to give information, and aid in selecting lands.

Circulars containing numerous instances of successful farming, signed by respectable and well known farmers living in the neighborhood of the Railroad lands, throughout the States—also the cost of breeding, feeding, and fattening cattle, expense of harvesting, threshing, &c. by contract—or any other information—will be cheerfully given, on application, either personally or by letter, in English, French or German, addressed to

JOHN WILSON,

Land Commissioner of Ill. Central R. R. Co., Office up to the 1st of May, 52 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Ill.; after that date in the New Stone Passenger Depot, Sc. Water st. a8 6m

THE EARTH MOVES.

Truly it does: and the people upon it.—Liberty makes progress even in Turkey.

A correspondent of the Traveller speaks of the change which has taken place relative to religious toleration. A decree has been proclaimed, which in other ages would have cost the Sultan his head and Christians rivers of blood. It grants the most extended liberty to Christian subjects of other sects. All may now build churches, maintain public worship, found schools, and propagate their religion to any extent. More than this, all persons are eligible to any office of honor or profit, and the children of parents professing any faith, may enter any of the civil and military schools established by the government.

At the same time important steps have been taken to reform and improve the civil and judicial administration. Efforts are in progress for the encouragement of industry agriculture and commerce, the construction of railroads, canals and other important public works. Thus likewise the door has now been widely opened for the introduction of Christian missions, the circulation of the Bible, and every philanthropic and Christian enterprise. A Turk was lately murdered by three Catholic monks, who were tried, found guilty and sentenced to death; but the government has ordered the execution to be suspended until the Pope shall have had time to deprive the criminals of their office, so that the punishment may be inflicted on the man, and not on the priest.

In Mexico, there is some trouble about church property in the control of the priests, being taken out of that control by the new dictator.

The treasures and riches amassed by the clergy in Mexico are immense. In fact they may be said to control wholly the capital of the country. And how is this immensity of wealth in their hands employed? In the support of public education, in fostering national industry? No, but in nursing idleness, superstition, and consequent evils.

Romanism is not only suffering severely in Mexico, but is at present losing ground quite rapidly in Spain. It is now no longer unlawful to bury dead Protestants in Spain, a privilege humane as it is, which has for centuries been denied the deceased body of a "heretic." Not long since, at a banquet held in a Spanish city, a number of young men drank the following significant toast: "To the health of the first Protestant minister that will come to Spain to expound the doctrines of religion." This toast was given at a city which was formerly one of the strongest holds of Romish superstition.

Spain is advancing, light begins to break upon the benighted minds of her hitherto blinded subjects, civil and religious liberty begin to have some significance in the view of the people, and ere long may have a realization throughout the peninsula.

NO JOKE.—The Montpelier (Vt.) Freeman says that at social gathering in that vicinity, recently, a young man had the task of "getting a wife" imposed upon him during the evening's amusement, and with a young lady went through a mock ceremony, as they both supposed, of being married; but after the motions had been gone through with, it was discovered that the person who married them was a real justice, and the matrimonial knot could not be untied! The parties are satisfied with their bargain, but are considerable unsettled at the manner in which they were touched upon the sea of matrimony.

POISONOUS WINES.—Imitation wines are now extensively made in New Jersey from the juice of the apple, and more from the Harrison apple than from any other variety, and the most of it is made in Newark. The knowing ones are correct with regard to its being a mixture of poisonous drugs not fit for the human stomach. The ingredients used to give the compound the appearance of wine, are such as a person could not be brought to take in their natural form. It is probable that a large portion of the wine drinkers of this country never tasted of real wine in their lives.

As we write this paragraph a notice in a paper lying by catches our eye, and we read an advertisement of a New York dealer to furnish flavoring extracts with which "cognac brandy and all other choice liquors," may be made from pure spirit—which "pure spirit" is made from the corn whiskey of Ohio. Bad as alcohol is, the imbiber of strong drinks is constantly pouring down much worse substances. This adulteration is now extensively practiced in the wine and brandy producing countries of Europe, so that the pure article is seldom found even there. Shakspeare says:

> O thou invisible spirit of wine,
> If thou has no name to be known by,
> Let us call thee devil!"

What name would he give to that visible "spirit" that unites with the vilest drugs to form wine's counterfeit?—Lowell News.

PLENTY OF PEACHES.—A gentleman residing in West Roxbury, exhibited to us this morning a fine shoot from a peach tree which was literally covered with large healthy looking fruit buds. The tree from which it was taken stands in an exposed position in the orchard, and is only a fair sample of two hundred others that are in an equally fruitful and promising condition. The annual croaking about the general blight of the peach bud is likely to prove to be groundless. The cool and wet weather of the past month has been quite beneficial to grass, trees and shrubbery, and a few days of warm, genial weather will give to the country an aspect of glowing verdure. We predict from present indications, an abundant season of fruit of every description.—Boston Journal.

FRIDAY, MAY 16, 1856.

NATIONAL AFFAIRS.

Washington dispatches of the 14th, say, it is understood that the President will to-morrow communicate to Congress the documents, and probably a message upon the entire subject of Central American affairs.

The President is evidently in a position of great embarrassment, upon this as upon other questions. Congress recently sent to him for approval, the bill providing for the deepening of the flats over the channel of the St. Clair river, Michigan, and also the bill providing for the removal of the obstructions at the mouth of the Mississippi. In this way the North and South are apparently combined upon a subject of great public interest.—The earnest inquiry is raised—"Will he affix his signature to these measures?"

The opponents point to his position as defined in his veto message of January, 1855—and approached by friends favorable to those internal improvements—his position is one calculated to test any man.

The telegraphic despatches from Kansas have produced not a little excitement here today. The President on reading them was heard to exclaim to a gentlemen, not privately, but within hearing of those present at the White House—"If there is to be armed resistance to the laws of the country and the constitutional rights of the South, it might as well occur at this time, and in Kansas, as elsewhere.

We receive all these Washington reports with some distrust:—but if the latter paragraph above is correctly reported, we might reasonably expect the President to sign the Mississippi bill, and veto that for Michigan. The lapse of a few days will show how it is.

JEALOUSY.—In a divorce case, pending in Lowell, Ms.,—between a Mr. and Mrs. Getchell:—in regard to the church trouble it was shown that many years ago Mr. G. was suspended from the church for improper intimacy with a female while his wife was away. He was subsequently restored. There was trouble in the church last fall. Both parties made charges. Mr. Getchell complained because his wife had given away clothes to poor children to dress them up and bring them into the Sabbath school; that she had given away a bed and a coat. It seems she had a class in the Sabbath school, and was quite active in church matters. Mrs. Getchell complained that her husband was guilty of adultery; undertook to prove it by the Bible, quoting a passage relative to coveting other women. Knew her husband coveted other women, for she had seen him look at them while going to church! Both are now suspended. Witnesses on both sides testified to Mrs. Getchell's neatness and prudence as a housewife.

The woman is probably insane or partly so: the man—the less said of him the better. In many of our States, they would be divorced instanter.

SAD ACCIDENT.—The Boston papers give the particulars of a fatal railroad accident resulting in the instant death of two young women, which occured at Newton Corner on the Boston and Worcester Railroad on Wednesday afternoon. Mr. William McFarland, a baker, who resides at Newton Corner, was driving down in a covered wagon on the road called Church street, which runs parallel with the track for some distance. The horse became frightened, and ran across the track.—The locomotive of the Albany special train, was coming down, struck the back part of the wagon and dashed it to pieces. Mrs. McFarland and her sister, Miss Hunestis, who were sitting on the back seat, were thrown a distance of twenty feet against one of the posts which support the caution sign at the crossing, with fearful violence. Their skulls were fractured, and they died instantly. The only wounds inflicted were upon their heads. Mr. McFarland sustained a broken arm and some skull cuts; but his life is not supposed to be in danger. He was, however, quite insensible. The horse escaped injury. It is not clear whether the animal was frightened or was driven rapidly with a view of heading the approaching train.

Mr. McFarland formerly resided in Roxbury, and carried on business in that city in company with Mr. White.

Mrs. McF. was 24 years old, and was a daughter of Rev. Dr. Wendell, of Georgeville, Canada East. Miss Hunestis was 21 years old, and belongs in Coventry, N. H.

Of eighty clergymen who died in the year 1855, one half had passed "three score and ten," thus confirming the generally received opinion of statisticians that "theologians are the longest lived of all members of the human family."—Cong. Journal.

It also confirms another opinion, viz. that a hope and expectation of perfect happiness in a future state, makes the possessor healthier and happier in the present.

Col. Fremont is not a 'native of France.' He was born in South Carolina.—Boston Atlas.

BODY FOUND.—The Boston Chronicle says, the body of Capt. William Palmer, of sch Eudora Imogene, washed ashore at Hunter's Island, has been identified by a jury, which found George Wilson, the negro heretofore arrested, the murderer. The body was much decayed, having been in the water since the 23d of November, and the marks made with India ink had been removed from the arms by the murderer, but Capt. Arnold, a brother-in-law of the deceased, recognized him by a peculiar mark on one of his fingers and the letter P in India ink on the calf of the left leg, which the murderer had neglected to erase. Wilson is already under arrest for scuttling the schooner, though he was discharged on the first examination for murder. The body of Capt. Palmer was conveyed to his home, Deep River, Ct., for interment.

BOOT AND SHOE BUSINESS OF LYNN.—The Lynn Bay State says:

There has been a lull in the shoe business in Lynn for the past week or two, but there are very few shoes on hand. The season has now arrived when our manufacturers change from light, or summer work, to fall and winter. Manufacturers are pretty busy in filling small orders that come in to replenish spring stocks. There is, however, no disposition to manufacture any faster than the goods are wanted. The price of shoes has not risen in proportion to the rise in stock, and the rates at which shoes are now sold furnishes no encouragement for manufacturers to extend operations.

The stock of shoes has not for many years been so small as it is now; and there will be no increase at the present prices of leather, unless there is a decided improvement in the price of boots and shoes. Purchasers must, therefore, pay a higher price, or they will be unable to get a fall and winter stock; and as there is no indication of a fall in the price of material, (labor is as low as it ought to be) the price of shoes must come up, or they will not be manufactured.

INSTALLATIONS.—At Hinsdale, May 1, Rev. M. H. Wells, formerly of Pittsfield, over the Congregational Church in that place. Sermon, by Rev. Mr. Swift of South Hadley, Mass. Charge, by Rev. Dr. Barstow of Keene.

Rev. Thomas Rattray was installed Pastor of the Congregational Church in Salisbury, on Wednesday, May 7th. Sermon by Rev. Henry E. Parker, of Concord.

Rev. R. K. Hitchcock, D. D., was inaugurated Washburn Professor of Eclesiastical History in Union Theological Seminary on the 6th inst.

It is said that the Southern members (a majority) of the U. S. Supreme Court have decided that the law of a slave State holds a slave in bondage while in a free State. So there is no "free soil" in the country.

But this decision has not yet been pronounced. It will probably depend somewhat on the Presidential election, to come off next fall, whether it shall ever be pronounced.

DUDLEIAN LECTURE.—Rev. Dr. Peabody of this city, delivered the Dudleian lecture for the present year before the students of Harvard University, in the College Chapel, on Wednesday afternoon.

☞ A daily paper will be issued from the office of the N. H. Patriot, at Concord, during the coming session of the legislature.—Terms 25 cts. for the session.

One will also be issued from the office of the New Hampshire Statesmen, during the session.

LIQUOR ITEMS.—Between $300,000 and $400,000 worth of liquor was offered at auction Tuesday, in Boston, most of which was sold. As the amount was large and it was sold under the hammer, we suppose it went 'cheap;' but a good deal of it will cost many a poor fellow 'three dollars and costs' per glass before the last is heard of it. The amount it will take from the pockets of the poor in fines for assaults, &c., it might be hard to estimate, to say nothing of how much it will do to swell fees for coroner's inquests.

A vessel arrived here recently with 1000 barrels of Albany cream Ale. Another is now discharging 900 barrels. And still another is soon expected with 1500 barrels. What a significance the word "cream" has acquired as applied to Albany Ale since the developements of the Delavan trial some years since!—Boston Telegraph.

The James Mill has declared a semi-annual dividend of 3 per cent, payable Monday, 19th. Three per cent is only half the earnings of the mill in the last six months, but the dividend is kept down to cover recent improvements that have been made.

The Bartlet Mills, on Tuesday, declared a semi-annual dividend of 3 1-2 per cent.—Newburyport Herald.

MARVELLOUS RESCUE OF MINERS.—The four miners who were buried in a coal pit, near Zanesville, Ohio, were rescued, after a confinement of fourteen days, on Friday night last. The only food they had was a dinner provided for two men. Wonderful to relate, they were all able to walk and talk when taken out, and will soon be entirely well.

Stringfellow begins to complain that the South has sent him in Buford's army nothing better than "Southern paupers." Fifty of them fell short of funds at Kansas City and Stringfellow had to pay their bills. At St. Louis four of them deserted, having stolen a thousand dollars of Buford's money. Their Bibles have not saved them from gambling and drunkenness.

"If you are Coming, Why don't you Come along?"
THAT is the "mot" now-a-days. Every locomotive on every Railroad shrieks it. It is daily rapped out on every Telegraphic Line in the country. The echoing blows of our Ship Carpenters hourly exemplify it. The smith at his anvil hammers it out. The clanking Press with breathless haste, sends the cry home to every family—"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"
It is uttered in an hundred tongues in a hundred lands. It has sounded like a slogan through the political world, and the "Old Fogies" are creeping along among the baggage wagons and the wounded. Thought, that moved at a funeral pace, now rushes on a tremendous charge; and all the old remedies for Liver Complaint have given way for

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.
"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—Six paces to the front, is the word to everybody and everything that wants to be listened to or looked at. If you have anything to do, do it; if you wish any person to see anything, show it; if you have anything to be cured, CURE IT WITH

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.
"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you have a Bottle of Holman's Bitters in your house, you need not suffer from
Biliousness, Weakness at the Stomach, Indigestion, Heartburn, Lowness of Spirits,
Nor any of the diseases incident to the season.
It used to take six men to make a pin; now one boy, a pull, a clip, and two strokes, and that's the way the pins are made. Once it took a Physician, lots of precious time, and quantities of nauseous drugs to cure some simple disease of the Blood.—Now, a quarter expended in

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS
Brings Life and Health, flowing spirits and rosy cheeks.
"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you are sick and weak, why don't you cure yourself! Here we offer you the article that will do it—there is no mistake about it. Every body knows about HOLMAN'S BITTERS; they have been tried and have "toed the mark straight."
They are a good medicine; they are better than anything else for all Spring Complaints; they are just the best Bitters that can be bought—and that's the best thing we can say about them. "If you are coming, why don't you come along," before they are all gone!

CITY COUNCIL.

THURSDAY, May 15.

Thomas Murphy and M. Parry Jones asked for new sidewalks—referred.

Albert Jones and Samuel Donnell asked leave to obstruct streets while repairing buildings—granted.

The Street Commissioner was ordered to remove the stone post near Chas. Robinson's house, immediately.

No quorum in Common Council.

☞ The closing lecture of the Mechanics' Lyceum was given on Thursday evening, by Wendell Phillips, being the 99th lecture he has delivered since the middle of October.—It was on the subject of Agitation, as the means of public improvement in this country—and was a very able plea for Radicalism by a Radical.

We would like, were the lecture season not closed, to hear next week, as able a plea for Conservatism, by some eminent man who dissents from Mr. Phillips's views on this subject,—and who could do manful battle for the Institutions he set aside in his preference for the masses, the juries, and streets.

A course of lectures for next winter was announced.

PISCATAQUA FERRY.—We regret to learn that the project of a Ferry across this river, at Dover Point, has been abandoned, owing to the non-agreement of the subscribing stockholders as to the motive power of the boat—whether horses or steam. We cannot vouch for the rumor—don't know that the scheme has been abandoned, nor if it has, that this is the cause; but it the tale be true, we would recommend the non-concurring navigators to employ for a moving-power, certain animals procured by a cross of the horse with a more stubborn animal. Meanwhile, travellers to Dover, and elsewhere, in that direction, must go a circuit of several miles out of their way, to cross the river at Newmarket, or over Portsmouth bridge; and much business that would come here, if accommodated with this Ferry, will of course be diverted to other cities over the railroads.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Tuesday afternoon, a named Wm. McKay, 18 years of age, a waiter employed at the American House, went with his wife to the depot of the Boston and Worcester Railroad in Boston, to take the cars for Newton Corner. His wife took a seat in the ladies' room, while he got down upon the track in the depot to see the Brookline train back in. He did not get out of the way quick enough, and was run down by the backing in train, which cut off both his legs and one arm. He was immediately taken to the Massachusetts General Hospital for treatment, but died about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Coroner Stedman has summoned a jury to investigate the case.—Boston Telegraph.

SAD ACCIDENT.—George Noyes, a young man belonging in Lempster, N. H., was drowned in Townsend, Mass., on Monday afternoon, while sailing on the river in company with three young ladies. The boat was upset by the water falling from the dam, which he had been cautioned by the ladies not to go too near. Noyes and one of the young ladies, Miss Spaulding, to whom he was engaged, sank together, and after being taken from the water, she was with difficulty restored. The other young ladies reached the shore themselves.

HORRIBLE STORY.—A letter from Fort Pierre, N. T., published in a Milwaukie paper, states that three deserting dragoons and four returning travellers down the Kansas river, in December last, were caught by the snow, one being Cornell, a dragoon. The survivors ate portions of the bodies of their companions to preserve life, and they were found by a part of Major Howe's command regaling themselves upon the arms and legs of their dead companions. The survivors were taken to Major Howe's camp, and under proper care and attention have all recovered.

NEWARK, N. J., May 14.—The robber calling himself Alfred West, who was arrested in Philadelphia for larceny committed in Lambertville, N. J., turns out to be the notorious bank robber, John W. Rand, who escaped from Concord jail last winter.

THE HOMICIDE IN HIS SEAT.—Herbert, member from California, who shot the Irish waiter at Willard's was in his seat in the House on Tuesday. The widow of the murdered man intends to apply for a pension.

FROM CALIFORTIA.

NEW ORLEANS, May 14.

Steamer Empire City, from Havana, brings dates from San Francisco to 21st of April, received at that port.

The George Law, from Aspinwall, takes nearly $2,000,000 to New York.

The news from San Francisco unimportant markets quiet, flour improving.

The Oregon war continues. A body of regulars had been defeated at Rogue River by the Indians, and 28 killed.

It was rumored that 1000 Indians were approaching Dallas from the north. Several other fights had taken place in which the whites were victorious.

Nothing new from Nicaragua. It is reported at Aspinwall that Col. Schlessinger had been captured and would be shot.

Panama papers are filled with correspondence between the officials of New Grenada and the commander of the St. Mary's relative to the recent riots.

CONGRESS.

WEDNESDAY, May 14.

SENATE.—Mr. Clayton referred to an article published in the morning papers, purporting to be an extract from a letter from a letter from the British Minister at Washington, in which it was stated that Mr. Clayton had, on various occasions, acknowledged that "he considered Ruatan a British possession, as much as Jamaica, or any other British West India Island." This statement Mr. Clayton pronounces utterly untrue in every particular, and read a letter written by Mr. Crampton, in 1854, which attempted to prove that Ruatan was not exempted from the provisions of the treaty of 1850.

Mr. Crittenden corroborated Mr. Clayton's statement. He could not pretend to give the details of a conversation at which he was accidentally present, but according to his recollection the substance of it was directly contrary to the statement in the newspapers, and sustained the account Mr. Clayton had given of it.

Mr. Clayton thought there must be some mistake in the copy of the letter.

Mr. Cass said that Great Britain being repeatedly driven from one point of defence had invariably taken refuge in another, and recent events had shown this more strongly than ever.

The Senate, after debating the motion to reconsider the vote by which the Iowa Land bill was passed, refused to reconsider, and adjourned.

HOUSE.—In the House to-day, Mr. Bennett introduced a bill granting 1,000,000 acres of land for railroad purposes in Florida, and moved the previous question.

Mr. Jones of Tennesee objected.

Mr. Bennett, in reply, said the Committee on Lands intend to report bills for similar grants to Michigan, Louisiana, Missouri, Alabama, and Wisconsin to the amount of 6,000,000 acres.

An unsuccessful motion was made to table the bill. The bill passed by a vote of 84 against 57.

The bill defining duties of Commissioners of Elections at Washington was then taken up, and, pending the discussion upon it, the House adjourned.

ANOTHER INDIAN WAR IN PREPARATION. A late number of the San Francisco Herald contains a statement which shows how Indian Wars are got up.

Some time since a party of white men on the borders of Mendocino County, went among the tribe known as the "Tatoe Indians," and wantonly killed eleven of them, giving no better reason for the act, than, to use their own expressive language, just to see them "jump." Well, the poor fellows did "jump" upon receiving the white man's leaden messengers, and are now, no doubt, in their "happy hunting ground," where it is to be hoped powder and lead are unknown. A short time after this cruel act, a man named Jamieson, who lived in the vicinity, had an Indian boy, to whom he was much attached, stolen from him. Taking with him five friendly Indians, he went to the Tatoe country to recover the boy, and instead of bringing his mission to a successful issue, himself and three of his companions were killed, the other two returning home wounded. This, no doubt was intended as a retaliation for the rifle exercise on tae devoted eleven. Upon the receipt of this news, a meeting of the inhabitants of Parker's Valley was held, and the settlers are arming and preparing for a war of extormination against the tribe.

WASHINGTON, May 14.—The Nicaragua Representative.—Padre Vijil presented his credentials as Minister from Nicaragua to-day, and was immediately recognized by the President.

The event created great sensation. The intelligence was immediately telegraphed to New Orleans, and it is believed a steamer will at once leave for San Juan, with material aid for Gen. Walker.

Cabinet consultations are now going on with the President with respect to the case of the British Minister.

PROVIDENCE, May 14.—At the municipal election, to-day, James Y. Smith, the American candidate, was re-elected Mayor by about 500 majority. The American Aldermen and 23 of the 28 Councilmen were elected.

CANKER.—Those who suffer from Canker will find the means of quelling and destroying it in Arnold's Globules and Vital Fluid. Canker is a scourge of no little power, and ability to conquer it, and drive it entirely from the system is of no little value. Chemical action upon the blood is being appreciated by thousands, and the results are most satisfactory.

WHITE SLAVERY.—An exciting slave case lately occurred at Palmyra, Mo. A female slave of Mr. Pond was captured on the ferry boat, making her way to Quincy, Ill. She had been kept at the house of a Mr. Daves, a German, in Palmyra, for a few days, and brought thence by Sheible, another German, to the ferry boat opposite Quincy. When she was taken back to Palmyra, both Germans and a free negro were imprisoned. The Germans declared that they had no suspicion that the woman was a slave, and several gentlemen of Palmyra testified that they had seen her at Davis's, and took her for a white woman. It fact she was white, and her genealogy had to be resorted to, to show that she had a slight taint of negro blood. The German who took her in his carriage to the boat, was acquitted but compelled to leave the State, being threatened with lynch law; and Davis is held for further trial, and stands a fair chance for five years in the penitentiary, for harboring a white woman. This is the institution Missouri proposes to force upon Kansas, and this law under which Davis is in danger of the penitentiary, is one of the code adopted for Kansas by the ruffian Legislature, and to be enforced by United States muskets.

Samuel Lattus, into whose face a lady of Lawrence threw some hot water, when he came to search for and arrest her husband, is very badly off; one side of his face is scalded bad, taking off his beard and skin. It will probably be a long time before he will be out again.

THE undersigned, Commissioner of Lotteries of the State of Maryland, being in receipt daily of letters from various portions of the country, making inquiry as to Lottery Schemes, with which the country is flooded, and which purport to be "decided by the drawings of the Maryland Consolidated Lotteries," takes this method to answer all such letters of inquiry, and inform the public that all Lotteries purporting to be decided by the Maryland Lotteries are gross frauds; that certain parties who style themselves Morris & Co., and pretend to be Managers or Sole Agents for the Grand Charter Lotteries at Cleveland, Ohio, are impostors, and said lottery a fraud, having neither legal nor presumptive existence; and that another fictitious firm, styled Murry & Co., Cleveland, Ohio, are also imposters, and all lotteries which they profess to be managers or agents for, are also frauds.

RICHARD FRANCE, of this city, is the Contractor for drawing the Maryland Lotteries. The business is conducted under the firm of R. FRANCE & Co., as Managers, and they have no sole agents in the city of Baltimore. FARM LANDS FOR SALE.

The Illinois Central Railroad Company

OF

FARMING LANDS,

In Tracts of 40 acres and upwards, on long credits and at low rates of interest.

THESE lands were granted by the Government to aid in the construction of this Railroad, and include some of the richest and most fertile Prairies in the State, interspersed here and there with magnificent groves of oak and other timber. The Road extends from Chicago, on the northeast, to Cairo at the south, and from Dunleith or Galena and Dunleith, in the north-west extreme of the State, and as all the lands lie within fifteen miles on each side of this Road, ready and cheap means are afforded by it for transporting the products of the lands to any of those points or from thence to Eastern and Southern markets. Moreover, the rapid growth of flourishing towns and villages along the line, and the great increase in population by immigration, etc. afford a substantial and growing home demand for farm products.

The soil is a dark, rich mould, from one to five feet in depth, is gently rolling and peculiarly fitted for grazing cattle and sheep, or the cultivation of wheat, Indian corn, etc.

Economy in cultivating and great productiveness are the well known characteristics of Illinois lands. Trees are not required to be cut down, stumps grubbed, or stone picked off, as is generally the case in cultivating new land in the older States. The first crop of Indian corn, planted on the newly broken sod, usually repays the cost of plowing and fencing.

Wheat sown on the newly-turned sod is sure to yield very large crops. A man with a plow and two yoke of oxen will break one acre and a half to two acres per day. Contracts can be made for breaking, ready for corn or wheat, at from $2 to 2.50 per acre. By judicious management, the land may be plowed and fenced the first, and under a high state of cultivation the second year.

Corn, grain, cattle, etc. will be forwarded at reasonable rates to Chicago, for the Eastern market, and to Cairo for the Southern. The larger yield on the cheap lands of Illinois over the high priced lands in the Eastern and Middle States, is known to be much more than sufficient to pay the difference of transportation to the Eastern market.

Bituminous coal is mined at several points along the Road, and is cheap and desirable fuel. It can be delivered at several points along the Road at $1.50 to $4 per ton; Wood can be had at the same rates per cord.

Those who think of settling in Iowa or Minnesota, should bear in mind, that independent of any value, along the water courses and for many miles inland, have been disposed of;—that for those located in the interior, there are no conveniences for transporting the produce to market, railroads not having been introduced there. That the cost of the produce of these lands, one or two hundred miles by wagon to market, would cost much more than the expense of cultivating them; and hence Government lands thus situated, at $1.25 per acre are not so good investments as the lands of this company at the prices fixed.

The same remark holds good in relation to the lands in Kansas and Nebraska, for although vacant lands may be located nearer the water courses the distance to market is far greater, and every hundred miles the produce of those lands are carried either in wagons or interrupted water communication, increases the expense of transportation, which must be borne by the settlers, in the reduced price of their products; and to that extent precisely are the incomes from their farms, and of course on their investments, annually and every year reduced.

The great fertility of the lands now offered for sale by this company, and their consequent yield over those of the Middle and Eastern States, is much more than sufficient to pay the difference in the cost of transportation, especially in view of the facilities furnished by this Road, and others with which it connects, the operations of which are not interrupted by the low water of summer, or the frosts of winter.

PRICES AND TERMS OF PAYMENT.

The Price will vary from $5 to $25, according to the quality, location, &c. Contracts for Deeds may be made during the year 1856, stipulating the purchase money to be paid in five annual installments; the first to become due in two years from the date of contract, and the others annually thereafter. The last payment will become due at the end of the sixth year from the date of the contract.

Interest will be charged at only 3 per ct. per ann.

As a security to the performance of the contract the first two years' interest must be paid in advance, and it must be understood that at least one tenth of the land purchased shall yearly be bro't under cultivation. Twenty per cent. from the credit price will be deducted for cash. The Company's construction bonds will be received as cash.

READY FRAMED FARM BUILDINGS,

Which can be set up in a few days, can be obtained from Responsible Persons.

They will be 12 ft. by 20 ft. divided into one living and three bed rooms, and will cost complete set up on ground chosen anywhere above the road $150 in cash, exclusive of transportation. Larger buildings may be contracted for at proportionate rates The Company will forward all the materials for such buildings over the Road promptly.

Special arrangements with dealers can be made to supply those purchasing the Company's lands with fencing materials, agricultural tools, and an outfit of provisions in any quantity, at the lowest wholesale prices.

It is believed that the price, long credit, and low rate of interest, charged for these lands will enable a man with a few hundred dollars in cash, and ordinary industry, to make himself independent before all the purchase money becomes due. In the mean time, the rapid settlement of the country must greatly have increased their value for farming purposes. Any one of experience in person will accompany applicants, to give information, and aid in selecting lands.

Circulars containing numerous instances of successful farming, signed by respectable and well known farmers living in the neighborhood of the Railroad lands, throughout the State—also the cost of fencing, price of cattle, expense of harvesting, threshing, &c. by contract—or any other information—will be cheerfully given on application, either personally or by letter, in English, French or German, addressed to GIRLS SHOULD LEARN TO KEEP HOUSE.—No young lady can be too well instructed in anything that will affect the comfort of a family. Whatever position in society she may occupy, she needs a practical knowledge of the duties of a house keeper. She may be placed in such circumstances that it will be unnecessary for her to perform much domestic labor; but on this account she needs no less a knowledge than if she was obliged to preside personally over the cooking stove and pantry. Indeed, I have often thought it was more difficult to direct others, and requires more experience, than to do the same work with our own hands.

Mothers are frequently so nice and particular in their domestic arrangements, that they do not like to give up any part of their care to their children. This is a great mistake; mothers are often burdened with labor, and need relief. Children should be early taught to make themselves useful—to assist their parents in every way in their power, and consider it a privilege to do so.

Young people cannot realize the importance of a thorough knowledge of housewifery, but those who have suffered the inconveniences and mortifications of ignorance.—Children should be early indulged in their dispositions to bake and experiment in cooking in various ways. It is often but a troublesome help they afford; still it is a great advantage to them.

I know a little girl, who, at nine years old, made a loaf of bread every week during the winter. Her mother taught her how much yeast and flour to use, and she became an expert baker. Whenever she is disposed to try her skill in making simple cake and pies, she is permitted to do so. She is thus, while amusing herself, learning an important lesson. Her mother calls her 'her little housekeeper,' and she often permits her to get what is necessary for the table. She hangs the keys by her side, and very musical is their jingling to her ears. I think, before she is out of her teens, upon which she has not yet entered, that she will have some idea how to cook.

Some mothers give their daughters the care of housekeeping each a week by turns. It seems to me a good arrangement, and a most useful part of their education.

Domestic labor is by no means incompatible with the highest degree of refinement and mental culture. Many of the most elegant and accomplished women I have known, have looked well to their household duties, and have honored themselves and their husbands by so doing.—Anon.

CONNUBIAL ADVENTURE.—The Buffalo Republican relates that recently a false-hearted married man in Detroit attempted to elope from his lawful spouse with another woman, to Canada. The guilty couple crossed the river in one steamer, while the injured but spunky wife pursued them in another; and just as the train was leaving Windsor the latter sprung upon the rear car and ran through the coaches until she found the runaway couple, quietly seated side by side. She upbraided the man for running away from his lawfully wedded wife, and insisted that he should leave the cars and return with her. This the husband stoutly refused to do, when the wife appealed to the conductor, and produced the necessary vouchers of her identity.—The conductor, with much good sense, decided that a woman was entitled to her husband, and informed the man that he would be under the necessity of delivering him over to the custody of his better half. By this time the passengers had crowded around, and the scene became extremely ludicrous. The man declared he would not leave his dulcinea, and she persisted in retaining him. The tears and entreaties of the wife were too much for the sympathetic conductor; he pulled the check-string, stopped the train, ejected the husband from the car, and delivered him to his wife, several of the passengers holding the other woman, who made the most desperate endeavors to follow. The man tried hard to get on the cars after they were in motion, but was unable to do so, in consequence of the tight grasp of his wife on his coat tails. The last that was seen of the pair they were rolling down the bank, closely locked in each other's embrace. The frail fair one who was the cause of the trouble, was carried out of the reach of her companion, for a time, at least.

AMERICAN PRINTING PRESS FOR ENGLAND.—The steamer Ericsson, which sailed from New York on Saturday, took out one of Hoe's Six Cylinder Lightning Presses, for Lloyd's Weekly, a London paper with a large circulation. Mr. Blair, engineer and machinist, and Mr. William Conquest, foreman, both excellent mechanics, who have recently superintended the putting up of Hoe & Co.'s machines in the Journal and in the Transcript offices, in Boston, have gone out to set up the machine, and are accompanied by six expert "feeders," to work the press. This shipment is quite an honor to American mechanics, and is 'better than a victory on the battle field.' In no other department of business has the inventive genius of our country achieved greater triumphs than in the improvements made in the printing press. We believe the United States now lead the world in this work, and as we witness the operation of Hoe & Co.'s Lightning Press, and see eight newspapers printed by the revolution of a single cylinder, and twenty thousand papers printed in an hour, we are led to speak of the Yankee machine in the terms applied to an English politician by the London Times, and to pronounce the intricate mechanism to be "genius without conscience." — Boston Transcript.

VOTING IN KANSAS.

Some accounts of the testimony taken before the Committee has been furnished to the New York Times for publication. We take from this account the following particulars in regard to the interference of Missourians in the Kansas elections :

Mr. Jordan Davidson, the first witness who was examined before this Committee, testified that he was a member of a Secret Society formed in Missouri, the express object of which was to make Kansas a Slave State :—and that he had reason to believe that it existed also in other Southern States,—in Virginia, in Tennessee, Kentucky and Arkansas.—He came from Missouri to Kansas to vote :—was sworn on the spot as one of the officers of election; and knew of many others who came from Missouri and voted. Augustus Wattles, living in the Second District, testified after an examination of the census returns, that there were but twenty five legal voters in that District; and yet several hundred votes were cast. At that poll Mr. Hammond Muzzy testified that just as he got there a Mr. Mace offered to vote,—and that

"When the pro-slavery party saw that his vote was a free State vote, they said he should not vote it; several men took hold of him by the collar and pulled him away; they took hold of me and we were both pulled away together from the polls; they cried out, "Cut his throat; tear his d——d heart out of him;—saw one man draw his knife upon him without doing any injury; saw a man with a lever, trying to pry up a corner of the cabin; others cried out, "Don't do it until you have orders; saw Ellison come out of the cabin with a ballot-box in his hand, and cry out "Hurrah for Missouri!" Ellison was one of the Judges; heard Jones (now Sheriff) say he would give the Judge five minutes to resign or die; Jones gave one more minute, and they then left; these Judges were Ramsay and Burson, both free state men; was there when the other Judges were appointed; the crowd then commenced voting; saw no free state man vote."

Here the Missouri mob obtained entire control of the polls,—and, with Sheriff Jones at their head, compelled two of the Judges, under threats of death, to resign, and then put two others in their place. In the Seventh District, Marcus H. Rose testifies that there could not have been over 90 legal voters in the District—and that 234 votes were cast.—J. B. Titus testifies that over 100 Missourians encamped near his place, and told him they had come there expressly to vote. William Jessie swears that he was at the polls in Second District, and that

"Things went on until about 38 votes were taken, when one man came forward whose vote was objected to; the Judge would not receive it until he swore he was a resident of the Territory; they cried out that he should vote without swearing; while this was going on a dozen came to vote and were pulled away;—pistols were presented to the Judges, and they were told their brains should be blown out if they did not receive the votes of these persons who refused to take the oath; they declared they came there to vote, and they would vote."

The mob finally demanded of Burson and Ramsay, the free state Judges, that they should resign, and threatened to blow out their brains if they refused. Jessie further says:

I suppose there were nearly 400 strangers there; have not seen them in the District since; they were well armed, with knives, guns and revolvers; I do not know as any settlers of the District voted.

It is no wonder the perpetrators and abettors of these deeds wish to obliterate the record. But it is wonderful that any decent man should dignify the sets of legislators thus chosen, by calling them laws. And more wonderful still that any respectable executive officers should lend themselves to enforce them.

THE MISSOURI SLAVE CASE.—The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Evening Post, says:

"The Supreme Court have postponed a decision on the case of Dred Scott, the Missouri slave, who petitions for his freedom on the ground that his master had carried him into a free State or Territory. The Court required further evidence as to the facts involved, and particularly upon the point whether the petitioner is a citizen of Missouri, so as to be entitled to sue, and whether the issue presented to the Court is a real or a feigned issue. They order the petition or rather the appeal upon it to be filed for re-argument."

The Squatter Sovereign of April 28th talks as follows :—

"We are now in favor of levelling Lawrence, and chastising the traitors there congregated, should it result in the total destruction of the Union. If we are to have war, let it come now. While the memory of our murdered friends, Clark and Jones, is fresh in our memories, we can cooly and determinedly enter into the contest, let it result as it may. We do not approve of the course of the Governor, in calling out the United States troops to enforce the laws of the Territory. It looks to us as a virtual admission that the Law and order party in Kansas are not strong enough within themselves to enforce the law."

FISHING IN NANTUCKET.—Since the late easterly storm, the pollock have visited the waters of the sea-girt isle in great numbers. Fifteen boats were "loaded and rafted" off Siasconet, on Monday last. The season for these fish lasts about a fortnight.—New Bedford Standard, 14th.

MR. BUCHANAN, one of the candidates for a nomination at Cincinnati, made a speech at Baltimore, in which he deemed the Union safe enough.

He never despaired of the country, though he was mortified abroad; by the press of England it was dissolved every week—when the election of Speaker was known there they thought it was the country's funeral knell—they could not imagine how a white man could be a Black Republican. Slavery agitation could not keep up in this country much longer—he thought it was getting to be a finality. He could not see how the people could repeal a law allowing them to mind their own business—the question which has been so long discussed he regarded as ended. After a storm, the waves for a time will dash against the shore, but the danger is gone.

The N. Y. Commercial Advertiser says :

Many conservative Whigs were inclined to the belief that Mr. Buchanan was politically too conservative and honorable to justify the repeal of the Missouri compromise, and because of sectional Republicanism and proscriptive Know Nothingism, to give Mr. Buchanan their support. They will indulge in such a purpose no longer. Mr. Fillmore as a Whig, though a Know Nothing, will necessarily be preferred by them to Mr. Buchanan as a Democrat, pledging himself to follow in the steps of Franklin Pierce on the slavery and Kansas question.

To this, the Boston Courier adds :—

The same opinion has been expressed by many Whigs of Massachusetts, who had a disposition to vote for a candidate who was sound upon the slavery question, and who, if elected, would favor neither section, and who also had a chance of election.

FAILURE.—The Newburyport Herald says, the failure of Currier & Townsend, shipbuilders, has become generally known in the community, and as it is not of a nature to be concealed, we do no harm in its announcement. There is no suspicion of fraud or dishonesty resting upon the insolvents. They have labored on and paid out to the last hour and the last dollar. It has been ascertained their liabilities are little if any less than $200,000, and their assets are estimated at about $75,000, though they might not bring that amount at a forced sale. A majority of the debts are owed in that vicinity, and mostly to mechanics and laboring men, to whom the loss is very severe; indeed, in several instances, it was their all; in some, perhaps, more than all, free from their own debts.

This is the heaviest failure in Newburyport that comes within our recollection, and more disastrous than any calamity that has befallen the city with the exception of the "great fire." We know not how many persons were directly or indirectly employed by this firm, but as they were the largest builders in the city, they might have varied anywhere from three to five hundred.

Messrs. Currier & Townsend have now two ships on the stocks; and it is not yet determined whether they go on to complete these or not; or whether it is better for all parties to compromise or to close the concern in chancery. As we have no pecuniary interest in the matter, it does not become us to dwell upon such points; one thing we may say, that Newburyport can not afford to lose Mr. Townsend, as a shipbuilder, whatever else it may lose.

SATTER THE PIANIST.—We copy below an advertisement which last week appeared in some of the Boston papers,—by which it will be seen that Mr. Satter claims to be at the head of the pianists in this country; and this claim he is willing to submit to the people, his peers, for settlement. We are sure we should vote, "Satter," and have no doubt that he would be "declared the victor;" unless, indeed, this very fact of his claiming the superiority, should prevent his receiving the "public approbation." But here is the advertisement; and if such a trial does come off, "may we be there to see" and hear.

Gustave Satter makes the following propositions to all the pianists in the United States.

1. He challenges them to play on three evenings in succession with him at the Tremont Temple, Boston, next fall.

2. He promises to pay three hundred dollars to any one, whom public approbation will declare as the victor.

3. Every pianist shall have the choice of his own six pieces, with the condition, that three must be classical, and three modern compositions.

4. The names of the Pianists and of pieces must be communicated to Mr. Satter before the 1st of July, at the Adams House, Boston.

Rev. J. M. Bacon, of Salisbury, has accepted an invitation to take the pastoral charge of the First Congregational Church and Society in Essex, Mass., late Dr. Crowell's.

NO FLAG MAN.—It is stated that the Worcester Railroad has never had a flag man stationed at the crossing in Newton where the terrible accident occurred Wednesday afternoon.

A Hanover correspondent of the Manchester Democrat writes that it is rumored that President Lord will resign his position as President of Dartmouth College at the end of the year.

ALBANY, 17th.—Boiler Exploded.—The boiler at Edson's distillery exploded this morning, killing Cyrus Edson, and also the engineer and fireman, and severely injuring two others.

WASHINGTON, 15th—The Nicaraguan Minister.—Yesterday afternoon Mr. Marcy sent for Mr. Marcoleta, the Nicaraguan Minister, and informed him, as an act of courtesy, of the determination of the Administration to receive M. Vijil as the accredited Minister of Nicaragua. Marcoleta complained of the proceeding, as a violation of the law of nations, entered his solemn protest against the proceeding, and informed Mr. Marcy that he should prepare a statement of all the facts, to be communicated to the diplomatic corps near this government.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—On Monday night, at Gloucester, one of the drivers attached to the circus establishment, mistaking the road, drove his team off the bank, and had his back broken by the fall. There is little prospect of his recovery. His name is John Burrows, and he belongs in Providence.

HAYDEN'S IMPROVED VEGETABLE PURGATIVE PILLS.

The following letter from Rev. J. F. Manning, of Birmingham, England, a missionary of the Gospel, is worthy of particular mention:

BOSTON, July 7, 1847.

BRO. HAYDEN:—Before departing from my native home, across the mighty deep, and leaving this land of liberty, I feel it to be a duty which I owe to you and suffering humanity, to say one word in favor of your Pills. Two years ago, when I came among you, I was taken with ship fever (so called), and, when hovering on the brink of eternity, a friend advised me to use your Pills; I as a last resort, I did so, and, thanks to you and an overruling Providence, I recovered almost immediately. Yours, with grateful feelings,

JOHN F. MANNING.

Sweet Milk.

IF you would have your Milk nice and sweet, furnish your Milkman with a small Can, which will contain the exact quantity you daily use, and you will accomplish an object that can be reached in no other way. Experience proves that the quality of milk distributed from an ordinary can depreciates exceedingly to the special cost of the recipients of the last few quarts, the cream (if there be any) being always in the upper portion of the can. Cans containing precisely one and two quarts respectively, (standard government measure,) will be furnished to all who may desire, at Chapman's Tin Ware Factory, Daniel street, near the Post Office, Sign of the Big Coffee Pot. "If you are Coming, Why don't you Come along?"

THAT is the "mot" now-a-days. Every locomotive on every Railroad shrieks it. It is daily rapped out on every Telegraphic Line in the country. The echoing blows of our Ship Carpenters hourly exemplify it. The smith at his anvil hammers it out. The clanking Press with breathless haste, sends the cry home to every family—"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"

It is uttered in an hundred tongues in a hundred lands. It has sounded like a slogan through the political world, and the "Old Fogies" are creeping along among the baggage wagons and the wounded. Thought, that moved at a funeral pace, now rushes on a tremendous charge; and all the old remedies for Liver Complaint have given way for

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—Six paces to the front, is the word to everybody and everything that wants to be listened to or looked at. If you have anything to do, do it: if you wish any person to see anything, show it: if you have anything to be cured, CURE IT WITH

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you have a Bottle of Holman's Bitters in your house, you need not suffer from

Billousness, Weakness at the Stomach, Indigestion, Heartburn, Lowness of Spirits,

Nor any of the diseases incident to the season.

It used to take six men to make a pin; now one boy, a pull, a clip, and two strokes, and that's the way the pins are made. Once it took a Physician, lots of precious time, and quantities of nauseous drugs to cure some simple disease of the Blood.—Now, a quarter expended in

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS

Brings Life and Health, flowing spirits and rosy cheeks.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you are sick and weak, why don't you cure yourself? Here we offer you the article that will do it—there is no mistake about it. Every body knows about HOLMAN'S BITTERS; they have been tried and have "toed the mark straight."

They are a good medicine; they are better than anything else for all Spring Complaints; they are just the best Bitters that can be bought—and that's the best thing we can say about them. "If you are coming, why don't you come along," before they are all gone?

CONGRESS.

THURSDAY, May. 15.

SENATE.—The Senate passed the House bill granting lands, in alternate sections, to Florida and Alabama, to aid in the construction of railroads.

Mr. Mallory spoke on the subject of the naval Retiring Board.

A message was received from the President, relative to the routes of transit between the Atlantic and Pacific, and the general condition of Central America, in which he says that a small body of citizen's invited to Nicaragua by Castillion's party had apparently put an end to the struggle. The new government exercises the actual power, and we do not go behind this fact to investigate the questions of legitimacy; we do not inquire into the causes which may have led to a change of government. If, therefore, when the Nicuraguan Minister (French) came here a few months ago, the facts now presented had existed, he must have been received. Another has now presented himself and been received, satisfactory evidence existing that he represents the government de facto and de jure. Numerous considerations of interest are advanced in the message in reference to the propriety of his reception; and additional measures are suggested for the security of transit across Nicaragua.

The documents accompanying the report are very voluminous.

Mr. Mason moved to refer the message to the committee on Foreign Affairs, and to print it.

Mr. Crittenden regarded the subject as very important.

In one week's time the country would be agitated from one end to the other on this subject, and it might result in our being involved in war. If we were to have a war, however, he wanted it to be accepted or denounced by Senators, in an open, manly manner, and not have a course of policy pursued by which we should go on, step by step, blindly until we fell into the right.

Mr. Mason could see no objection to the reference. The documents merely informed the Senate of the actual condition of the country in which we take a great deal of interest.

Mr. Pratt said that the government of Nicaragua, being recognized, our citizens would have the right to go there, and could make that a stable government, which was not so now.

He thought that nineteen twentieths of those who had established the government were Americans, who had gone there in violation of the neutrality laws.

Mr. Mason said the recognition would not affect our neutrality laws in the slightest degree.

The documents were ordered to be printed and without taking the question on the reference, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—The Herbert Murder Question was brought before the house by Knowlton of Maine. The House, however, laid the question aside, by a vote of 79 to 70.

Their vote to lay on the table, if equivalent to a vote to suppress investigation.

The House took up the bill to regulate the Washington municipal elections, and it was passed.

A message from the President on Central Americans affairs was received and read.—Adjourned.

MORE ABOUT HERBERT.—This congressional homicide, as our readers have learned, still occupies his seat. A Washington correspondent of the Boston Telegraph says, that had Herbert been unarmed, there is no doubt but that he would have received a severe beating at the hands of the servants whom he had so grossly insulted; but he would have been without the stain of blood upon his hands.

You have doubtless been informed that Mr. H. was languishing in jail, and suffering severely from the upbraidings of conscience, &c. That has been the supposition here; but Saturday it was ascertained that the United States Marshal who had him in custoday, gave him a room in his own house, and that on Saturday he gave a dinner party, at which Herbert and several of his friends were present.

Herbert is not much over 30 years old, I should think. He is by birth an Alabamian; served through the whole of the Mexican war with Gillespie's Rangers, and attained great reputation for daring and intrepidity.—At the close of the war he went to California, and engaged in politics as soon as the State was admitted to the Union, and was in the first Legislature, from whence he came to Congress. He is related to the Fairfax family in Virginia, and to the Herberts of Maryland. He has a large property in his own right, and all his immediate relatives are influential and wealthy. Since his boyhood he has been noted for getting into scrapes, and for his extraordinary tact in getting out of them.

Among the people here his crime is looked upon, as a general thing, with all the horror it deserves. The Irish as a class vow vengeance against Herbert, and declare that if he is not punished they will take the law in their own hands. In Congress there is a rumor that a resolution will be soon introduced appointing a Committee of Investigation into the affair, with a view of expelling the man for disgracing the House, in case he should be acquitted by the Court, as will undoubtedly be the case. The Californians in town are making common cause with Herbert, and express great indignation that so much fuss is made about a mere waiter.

The next step would naturally be for the Irish waiters to arm themselves,— so that when members of Congress come in to breakfast drunk or disorderly, they may have pistols all ready to shoot them.

A bill is now before the French Legislature for reducing the postage on printed matter to 3-5 of a cent per ounce to any part of the country—from any department to any part of the same department one-half the above rate.

This is about one-third only of existing rates. There seems to be little doubt that the law will pass, and if so it will go into operation the 1st of next July.

3 DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE ASIA.

NEW YORK, May 16.—The steamship Asia from Liverpool 3d inst. arrived this morning.

The news is unimportant, but the official report of the proceedings of the Congress at Paris has come to hand. The report adds but little to our previous knowledge, and, in fact, is but little more than the re-production of the treaty itself, in a conversational shape.

In the British Parliament, the adjourned debate on Mr. Whiteside's vote of censure on the government, for the fall of Kars, had been pressed to a division, when the motion was lost by a majority against is of 127.

Italy.—A letter from Rome, April 24, says that the High Ecclesiastical circles of Rome are panic-struck at the Sardinian programme of Italian reform, and irritated with the strong language made use of respecting the mal-administration of the Pope's government. The sudden departure from Paris of Berardi, Under Sec. of State for Foreign Affairs, is attributed to the consternation of the Court at the bare mention of a question of such vital importance as a limit to the Pope's temporal sovereignty, and the consequent desire to have a negotiator of sagacity and devotedness on the spot, to assist the Nuncio in his remonstrance, and counteract the suggestions of the plenipotentiaries.

It is stated that two French divisions, and some English troops will remain some time at Constantinople, after the evacuation of the Crimea, perhaps with a view to the repression of a rising against the Christians.

The Presse d'Orient announces that the majority of the inhabitants of Eupatoria are emigrating, through fear of being compromised, and similar movements are taking place in Abasia and in Mingrelia.

FROM CALIFORNIA.

SANDY HOOK, May 16.—The George Law is off this point, with 800 passengers, and $1,700,000 in treasure.

A severe accident had happened on the Panama Railroad, to the train carrying the Geo. Law's outward bound passengers. The whole train was run off the track, and a great number of passengers were killed and wounded, but the correct number could not be ascertained when the steamer left.

The accident occurred on the Obispo bridge 15 miles from Panama. There were nine cars and 900 passengers. At the latest advices the wreck had not been wholly cleared, but thirty bodies had been taken out.

There were no signs of further disturbance at Panama. The citizens of Paname had formed a guard for the protection of property and the authorities had placed a force at the disposal of the Railroad Co.

CALIFORNIA. Mining operations have taken a new start. The grain crop promises an abundant harvest.

The Democrats have carried their municipal ticket at Sacramento. The Republicans attempted to hold a mass convention at the same place, but were driven from the ground.

There was a large fire at Placerville on the 16th, loss $50,000.

A powder vessel at Sacramento, sunk in the river on election day, loss $70,000.

Business was dull at San Francisco.

LIVERY.—Mr. Nathan Jones, at his new livery stable on Vaughan street, (as will be seen by his advertisement) is ready to furnish first-rate teams for pleasure riding—and now is a favorable time to enjoy it. He has an excellent stock of horses and carriages, and we guess don't mean to be beat in this line.

HACKING. — Messrs. Dennett & Sides, at their old stand, No. 9 Vaughan street, have put their teams in thorough order for summer travel. By our advertising colums, it will be seen that they spare no pains to accommodate the public—and so of course their business will thrive.

A most fiendish attempt was made last week to destroy an evening express train from Chicago on the Southern Michigan Railroad. A pile of rails and ties were chained across the track! Fortunately for the express train which contained about 200 passengers, a freight train behind the time first met the obstacle. It perished utterly. The engineer and fireman were badly hurt and sixteen valuable horses were killed. But for this we should have had to record a horror beyond all railroad precedent.—Boston Chronicle.

A THREATENED LIBEL SUIT.—Some time ago there went the rounds of the press a "big-best item" to the effect that a young lady named Wilkinson, a school teacher in Lisbon, New York, stood 6 feet 7 inches in her stockings, a pretty tall story. Her brother, James Wilkinson of Potsdam, New York, writes to the New York Tribune, which was guilty of copying the article, that it was first published in the Ogdensburgh Sentinel, "evidently with the intention of wounding the young lady's feelings and holding her up to public ridicule," and as a man and a gentleman he demands "explanation and redress," which, not being obtained, his sister will institute proceedings, &c., in the proper court. The Tribune promptly explained that the item was put in by "scissors" innocently, though in not the best taste, and it redresses by taking off one foot from the lady's height, and offering to take off more, if that wont do. It is certainly an unhandsome thing to exaggerate a lady's physical stature. But the mental exhibition made by the brother in her behalf certainly indicates that the family does run a good deal to straw.—Boston Chronicle.

APPLES.—Enormous quantities of apples have perished this spring after reaching New York market—the growers having held back for better prices until too late; and the case was then aggravated by an excess of supply.

NEW YORK, May 14.—The Brick Church property, in Beekman street, (Rev. Dr. Spring's) was sold to-day for $270,000 to Wesley, Raymond & Co., proprietors of the N. Y. Daily Times.

FARM LANDS FOR SALE.
The Illinois Central Railroad Company
IS NOW PREPARED TO SELL
OF
FARMING LANDS,
In Tracts of 40 acres and upwards, on long credits and at low rates of interest.

THESE lands were granted by the Government to aid in the construction of this Railroad, and include some of the richest and most fertile Prairies in the State, interspersed here and there with magnificent groves of oak and other timber. The Road extends from Chicago, on the north-east, to Cairo at the south, and from thence to Galena and Dunleith, in the north-west extreme of the State, and as all the lands lie within fifteen miles on each side of this Road, ready and cheap means are afforded by it for transporting the products of the lands to any of those points and from thence to Eastern and Southern markets. Moreover, the rapid growth of flourishing towns and villages along the line, and the great increase in population by immigration, must afford a substantial and growing home demand for farm produce.

The soil is a dark, rich mould, from one to five feet in depth, is gently rolling and peculiarly fitted for grazing cattle and sheep, or the cultivation of wheat, Indian corn, etc.

Wheat sown on the newly-turned sod is sure to yield very large profits. A man with a plow and two yoke of oxen will break one and a half to two acres per day. Contracts can be made for breaking, ready for corn or wheat, at from $3 to $50 per acre. By judicious management, the land may be plowed and fenced the first, and under a high state of cultivation the second year.

Corn, grain, cattle, etc. will be forwarded at reasonable rates to Chicago, for the Eastern market, and to Cairo for the Southern. The larger yield on the cheap lands of Illinois over the high priced lands in the Eastern and Middle States, is known to be much more than sufficient to pay the difference of transportation to the Eastern market.

Bituminous coal is mined at several points along the Road, and is a cheap and desirable fuel. It can be delivered at several points along the Road at $1.50 to $4 per ton; Wood can be had at the same rates per cord.

Those who think of settling in Iowa or Minnesota, should bear in mind, that lands there of any value, along the water courses and for many miles inland, have been disposed of;—that for those located in the interior, there are no conveniences for transporting the produce to market, railroads not having been introduced there. That to send the produce of these lands, one or two hundred miles by wagon to market, would cost much more than the expense of cultivating them; and hence Government lands thus situated, at $1.25 per acre are not so good investments as the lands of this company at the prices fixed.

The same remark holds good in relation to the lands in Kansas and Nebraska, for although vast tracts lands may be found nearer the water courses the distance to market is far greater, and every hundred miles the produce of those lands are carried either in wagons or interrupted water communications, increases the expense of transportation, which must be borne by the settlers, in the reduced price of their products; and to that extent precisely are the incomes from their farms, and of course on their investments, annually and every year reduced.

The great fertility of the lands now offered for sale by this company, and their consequent yield over those of the Middle and Eastern States, is much more than sufficient to pay the difference in the cost of transportation, especially in view of the facilities furnished by this Road, and others with which it connects, the operations of which are not interrupted by the low water of summer, or the frosts of winter.

PRICES AND TERMS OF PAYMENT.

The Price will vary from $5 to $25, according to the quality, location, &c. Contracts for Deeds may be made during the year 1856, stipulating the purchase money to be paid in five annual installments; the first to become due in two years from the date of contract, and the others annually thereafter. The last payment will become due at the end of the sixth year from the date of the contract.

Interest will be charged at only 3 per ct. per ann.

As a security to the performance of the contract the first two years' interest must be paid in advance, and it must be understood that at least one tenth of the land purchased shall yearly be brought into cultivation. The interest on the credit price will be deducted for cash. The Company's construction bonds will be received as cash.

READY FRAMED FARM BUILDINGS,

Which can be set up in a few days, can be obtained from Responsible Persons.

They will be 12 ft. by 20 ft. divided into one living and three bed rooms, and will cost complete set up on ground chosen anywhere along the road $150 in cash, exclusive of transportation. Larger buildings may be contracted for at proportionate rates. The Company will forward all the materials for such buildings over the Road promptly.

Special arrangements with dealers can be made to supply those purchasing the Company's lands with fencing materials, agricultural tools, and an outfit of provisions in any quantity, at the lowest wholesale prices.

It is believed that the price, long credit, and low rate of interest, charged for these lands will enable a man with a few hundred dollars in cash, and ordinary industry, to make himself independent before all the purchase money becomes due. In the mean time, the rapid settlement of the country will probably have increased their value four or five fold. When required, an experienced person will accompany applicants, to give information, and aid in selecting lands.

Circulars containing numerous instances of successful farming, signed by respectable and well known farmers in the neighborhood of the Railroad lands, throughout the State—also the cost of fencing, price of cattle, expense of harvesting, threshing, &c. by contract—and other information—will be cheerfully given, on application either personally or by letter, in English, French or German, addressed to
JOHN WILSON,
Land Commissioner of Ill. Central R. R. Co.,
Office up to the last of May, 52 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Ill.; after that date in the New Stone Passenger Depot, So. Water st. a8 6m

BURGLARS FRIGHTENED BY A WOMAN.—The Boston Herald gives an account of an attempt to rob the house of Mrs. Louisa Atwill, at Brookline, on Wednesday. The rogues entered the house, went to Mrs. Atwill's room, and of them waved a lantern over her with one hand, and threatened to shoot her with a pistol held in his right hand, if she made the slightest noise. She closed her eyes without uttering a word, and lay as one dead. The robber touched her hand and found it very cold. He directed his companion to go down stairs and gather the plate and hand it out of the parlor window. He then took the money from two purses in a bureau in the room, amounting to nearly $200, and a diamond ring valued at $75. He also took a gold watch and pair of gold framed eye glasses, and then opening a closet, took from it a small trunk which contained nearly $3000 worth of diamonds and jewelry, and prepared to go down stairs. Mrs. Atwill had given no signs of animation until the robber left the room, when she sprang from the bed, and just as the fellow had commenced descending the stairs she pushed him down headlong with such force that he broke through the plastering of the wall at the landing.—Thinking she had killed him, she screamed and alarmed the house. The rogues succeeded in escaping from the house, minus their booty.

A BENEVOLENT WILL FRUSTRATED.—A communication has been laid before the Baltimore City Council from the agents of the McDonogh estate, which shows that the litigations and deteriorations have decreased the value of the propety fully one-half of what was its value at the death of the testator. At that time the estate was valued at $5,000,000, and now only at $2,270,000!. One of the agents, on the part of New Orleans, at a meeting of the Board, stated that over $250,000 had been spent in littigation; over $100,000 had been reported in charges and commissions; over $500,000 had been lost in interest and delays; and over $500,000 had been lost in pillage and decay. Notwithstanding all this, not one dollar of charity had ever been received from the estate; not one negro had been sent to Liberia, nor the tears and sorrows of one poor orphan boy ever been assuaged. At every point and in every way the last will and testament of John McDonough has been frustrated and thwarted.

PADRE VIJIL, the newly recognized Minister of Nicaragua, probably does not pronounce himself Pay-dur Vidg-il, as our luminous orthography might lead some to think, but rather Pah-dray Vee-hel. Isn't it a pity that the people who made our alphabet for us did not make it fit for the purpose it professes to serve? It is, in fact, the most imperfect, awkward, bungling, expensive, old fogy kit of tools used by any trade in the nineteenth century.

By the way, if the Rev. Father had happened to be a minister on behalf of some free-labor State, our Democrats would not be slow to pronounce him Father Longheel, for it is not at all unlikely he may have a drop of the African in his veins.—Boston Chronicle.

HOME MISSIONS IN MAINE.—The Secretary of the Maine Missionary Society, in a recent circular to the friends of the cause in that State, says "more than one hundred of its Congregational churches are too feeble to support a pastor, without assistance; and in many places, where no church has been gathered, the voice of the preacher will seldom be heard, except he be sent. The tide of westward emigration is still bearing hundreds away, who might have rendered valuable service in sustaining our religious institutions."

GEORGE WHITEFIELD.

Some notice of this celebrated preacher and revivalist, who labored here an hundred years ago, may interest those readers who like to revive the recollections of past days.

In the year 1770, (says Mr. Adams,) on Sunday morning, September 30th, the Rev. George Whitefield died at Newburyport, in the 56th year of his age. On Tuesday, being the day of his funeral, all the bells in this town, tolled from eleven o'clock until sunset, on the occasion.

Mr. Whitefield was born at Gloucester in England, in 1714. His father was an inn-keeper, and he was designed for the same employment. "He was distinguished at school, for a retentive memory, and good elocution." As he approached towards manhood, he received some serious impressions, and began to think of qualifying himself for the ministry. About the age of 18 he was admitted a servitor of Pembroke College, in Oxford;—where he associated with young persons of the same habits and disposition with himself; which served to "cherish that religious enthusiasm, to which he was strongly addicted."—He took the degree of Bachelor of Arts in 1736, and about the same time was ordained a deacon by the Bishop of Gloucester. He crossed the Atlantic in 1738, and arrived at Savannah, in Georgia, in May, where he determined to erect a seminary upon a charitable foundation, for the education of orphan children, which he called the orphan-house; and returned to England the next year to collect money for the purpose. He was admitted to Priest's orders in 1740, and being very popular as a preacher, he commanded large audiences, wherever he went. Many of the clergy refused him admittance into their pulpits; and but few of the churches, to which he had access, could accommodate the crowds of people, that assembled to hear him; which compelled him to preach in the open air. On these occasions he was sometimes treated with rudeness, but his peculiarly happy address, generally commanded respectful attention. In 1748, the Countess of Huntington appointed him her chaplain. "His labors were incessant." He spent a great part of his time, as an itinerant preacher, in various parts of England, Scotland, and North America. He made seven visits to this country, and travelled from Georgia to Maine, preaching in every populous town he passed through to very numerous assemblies.

Whitefield's first visit to New England was in 1740, when he arrived from the South at Newport, R. I., Sept. 14.

On the 1st day of October, 1740, Wednesday morning, he preached at Hampton, to some thousands in the open air. The high wind made it difficult to be heard, and he had not his usual freedom. A few, however, were affected. At Portsmouth, he preached "to a polite auditory, but so very unconcerned, that I began to question whether I had been speaking to rational or brute creatures. Seeing no immediate effects of the word preached, I was a little dejected; but God, to comfort my heart, sent one young man, crying out in great anguish of spirit, 'What shall I do to be saved?' " He went on to York, in Maine, "to see one Mr. Moody, a worthy, plain and powerful minister of Jesus Christ, though now much impaired by old age." The next morning, he was much comforted to hear from Mr. Moody, that he should preach to an hundred new creatures that morning; "and indeed I believe I did; I could speak little or no terror, but most consolation." He preached morning and evening. "The hearers looked plain and simple, and the tears trickled apace down most of their cheeks." He returned to Portsmouth that night, and the next morning preached to a far greater congregation, and with much better effect, than before. "Instead of preaching to dead stocks, I now had reason to believe I was preaching to living men. People began to melt, soon after I began to pray; and the power increased more and more, during the whole sermon." A collection of £27, 7s. 6d. was taken up for the orphan house, and Mr. Shurtleff, the pastor, [of the church worshiping at the Old South,] in remitting it, wrote that numbers were under deep religious impressions. He preached to several thousands, and collected £41, 10s. at Hampton, and to large congregations the next day at Newbury, where he collected £80 9s., and at Ipswich.

The above paragraph is from the Great Awakening, derived mainly from Prince's Christian History; whence we learn that he passed the Sabbath, Oct. 19, 1740, with Rev. Jonathan Edwards, at Northampton, Ms.

On the Sabbath, he "felt wonderful satisfaction in being at the house of Mr. Edwards.—He is a son himself, and hath also a daughter of Abraham for his wife. A tender couple I have not yet seen. Their children were dressed, not in silks and satins, but plain, as becomes the children of those who in all things ought to be examples of Christian simplicity. She is a woman adorned with a meek and quiet spirit, and talked so feelingly and solidly of the things of God, and seemed to be such a helpmeet to her husband, that she caused me to renew those prayers which for some months I have put up to God, that he would send me a daughter of Abraham to be my wife. I find, upon many accounts, it is my duty to marry. Lord, I desire to have no choice of my own. Thou knowest my circumstances." He had not yet learned, if he ever did, that God is not pleased to make such "sweet couples" out of persons who have no choice of their own.

On the 24th of January, 1741, he sailed from Charleston, S. C.,—and arrived at Falmouth, Eng., March 11.

FIVE DOCUMENTS.

Reader, please to peruse and compare them carefully.

No. 1.— THE TRUE POLICY.— The true policy, then, is that which the national men of the north insist upon—to select the presidential candidate, not because he was identified with the late Nebraska struggle—not because he was not so identified with it—but because he is cordially and thoroughly identified with the issue, and because his election will be an unmistakable triumph of the principle of the Nebraska law.—Washington Union.

No. 2.—The Washington Union will pardon us for saying that its apparent solicitude for the principle of the Nebraska bill does injustice to the Northern Democracy. It labors earnestly to show that this principle must be asserted in the Cincinnati Convention, and must be maintained in the subsequent struggle. We assure it that there is no Northern Democrat who thinks differently! nor do we quite understand why it should be so earnest and zealous in repeating a labor which seems superfluous.—Eastern Argus.

No. 3.—In 1854 the Legislature of Maine—being in session at the time the Kansas-Nebraska bill was pending before Congress—passed the following resolutions, with but six nays in the House, and only one in the Senate—

Resolved, That the Senators in Congress from Maine be instructed, and the Representatives requested to oppose in every practicable way the passage of the Nebraska bill, so called, so long as it shall contain any provision repealing, abrogating, rescinding or in any way invalidating that provision of the act of Congress approved March 6, 1820, commonly called the Missouri Compromise.

No. 4. — In 1851, General Pierce, in the convention of New Hampshire for revising the Constitution, left the chair, made a speech which was reported in the New Hampshire Patriot, and among other things said:

I would take the ground of non-extension of slavery — that slavery should not become stronger. But Congress have only re-enacted the law of 1793. Union-loving men, desiring peace and loving their country, conceded that point — unwillingly conceded it—and, planting themselves upon this law against the outbursts of popular feeling, resisted the agitation which is assaulting all who stand up for their country. But the gentleman says the law is obnoxious. What single thing is there connected with slavery that is not obnoxious? Even the gentleman from Marlborough, (Dr. Batchelder) cannot feel more deeply than I do on the subject.

No. 5.—The Democratic State Committee of New Hampshire, in October, 1847, passed the following resolution:

Resolved, That we declare it our solemn conviction, as the Democratic party have heretofore done, that neither slavery nor involuntary servitude should hereafter exist in any territory which may be acquired by or annexed to the United States; and that we approve of the votes of our delegation in Congress in favor of the Wilmot Proviso.

In 1848 and 49, the Legislature of New Hampshire passed similar, but stronger, resolutions.

The reader will, if he pleases, answer to his own conscience, this question, viz: — Have principles changed within these ten years?

If not, then have not men, and parties, changed somewhat?

Something has changed, most certainly, as the reader will see by comparing Documents No. 2 and No 3.

A MORMON STATE.—The Washington Star says that private advices indicate the arrival at Washington in about fifteen days of a delegation from Salt Lake City, bringing a State Constitution for Utah, in which they will ask the admission of that Territory into the Union.

PREMIUM FIRE-WORKS.—We would refer all interested, to Mr. James G. Hovey's annual advertisement of Fireworks for the Fourth of July next. Besides the usual variety from his extensive Laboratory, he offers the new article called "UNCLE SAM'S CRACKER," of mammoth size, which he imported from Canton for his own exclusive sales.

BOAT RACE.—A boat race for two thousand dollars, between the Putnam Club, of New York, and the Union Club, of St. Johns, New Brunswick, with four-oared boats, will take place on Charles river, Boston, in September next.

☞ Harper's New Monthly for June, has been received from Fetridge & Co., Boston, per J. F. Shores, jr., of this city. It is a very interesting number.

Says the New York Tribune, the work of throwing away a United States Senator in Connecticut is already fairly commenced.—The Americans and Republicans have held separate caucuses; a Republican nomination has been made, and the "Americans" have resolved to fool away another week before finishing up the business.

John H. Lather of Worcester, on Wednesday afternoon, shot at a mark for a while with his pistol, and then purposely shot himself. The ball made an ugly hole, and has not been found. His recovery is doubtful.

As treason consists only in levying war against the United States, the parties indicted for high treason in Kansas are probably indicted for shooting Jones.

LIBERTY A MISTAKE.—None of the copper money of France stamped with the head of Liberty will be a legal tender after the first of next October.

A bread league for procuring the necessaries of life at reasonable prices, is about to be started at Brooklyn, with a cash capital of $25,000.

HAYDEN'S IMPROVED VEGETABLE PURGATIVE PILLS.

BIRMINGHAM, ENG., Boston, July 7, 1847.

BRO. HAYDEN:—Before departing from my native home, across the mighty deep, and leaving this land of liberty, I feel it to be a duty which I owe to you and suffering humanity, to say one word in favor of your Pills. Two years ago, when I came among you, I was taken with ship fever (so called), and, when hovering on the brink of eternity, a friend advised me to use your Pills; I as a last resort, I did so, and, thanks to you and an overruling Providence, I recovered almost immediately. Yours, with grateful feelings,

JOHN F. MANNING.

Dyer's Healing Embrocation.—The sale of this admirable preparation is increasing with unprecedented rapidity. We are not surprised at this, for the Embrocation is certainly one of the most valuable remedies for burns, scalds, bruises, sprains, &c. ever invented. "If you are Coming, Why don't you Come along?"

THAT is the "mot" now-a-days. Every locomotive on every Railroad shrieks it. It is daily rapped out on every Telegraphic Line in the country. The echoing blows of our Ship Carpenters hourly exemplify it. The smith at his anvil hammers it out. The clanking Press with breathless haste, sends the cry home to every family—"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"

It is uttered in an hundred tongues in a hundred lands. It has sounded like a slogan through the political world, and the "Old Fogies" are creeping along among the baggage wagons and the wounded. Thought, that moved at a funeral pace, now rushes on a tremendous charge; and all the old remedies for Liver Complaint have given way for

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along."—Six pages to the front, is the word to everybody and everything that wants to be listened to or looked at. If you have anything to do, do it: if you wish any person to see anything, show it; if you have anything to be cured, CURE IT WITH

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you have a Bottle of Holman's Bitters in your house, you need not suffer from

Biliousness, Weakness at the Stomach, Indigestion, Heartburn, Lowness of Spirits,

Nor any of the diseases incident to the season.

It used to take six men to make a pin; now one boy, a pull, a clip, and two strokes, and that's the way the pins are made. Once it took a Physician, lots of precious time, and quantities of nauseous drugs to cure some simple disease of the Blood.—Now, a quarter expended in

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS

Brings Life and Health, flowing spirits and rosy cheeks.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you are sick and weak, why don't you cure yourself? Here we offer you the article that will do it—there is no mistake about it. Every body knows about HOLMAN'S BITTERS; they have been tried and have "toed the mark straight."

They are a good medicine; they are better than anything else for all Spring Complaints; they are just the best Bitters that can be bought—and that's the best thing we can say about them. "If you are coming, why don't you come along," before they are all gone?

LOCAL.

☞ Our new High School House, it seems, is not to be occupied this Summer. We are informed that it is intended to complete all the arrangements, outside and in, before the house is dedicated or occupied at all. So the schools must grub on in the old houses "a little longer."

☞ Col. A. J. Beck, our new City Marshal, has been necessarily off duty for several days—being confined at home by severe sickness, of lung fever. We are pleased to learn that he is convalescent, and hope he may speedily regain his full health.

We understand that the celebrated Mrs. Barrow is to give an evening's reading, (miscellaneous,) including a portion of Hiawatha, in this city, at the Temple, on Monday evening, June 9th.

QUITE ACCEPTABLE.—Messrs. Geo. A. Prince & Co., of Albany, N. Y., as an acknowledgement of the active and successful services of Messrs. J. S. Harvey & Son, their agents in this city, in introducing and disposing of their celebrated melodeons in this vicinity, have forwarded them, as a present for home use, a superior five-octave instrument, of their manufacture. It is in the form and appearance of a piano, and their name is a guaranty of its excellence.

THE EVENING LEDGER is the title of a new independent Daily paper published in Boston, by Mr. James W. Ricker, for the proprietors. The Ledger was built on the remains of the Daily Mail; and Mr. Ricker, as a native of this city, a typo, formerly employed in the Messenger office here, is well known to many of our citizens. He has for several years been connected with the Boston Herald—and left that situation to enter the ranks of the editorial profession, in which we wish him all the success he expects. The Ledger is a very little larger than the Daily Chronicle, and is sold for one cent a copy.—Two editions are issued daily. The paper makes a very good appearance, and we should have noticed it before; but we did not see the first number, and have accidentally omitted it since. May friend Ricker's accounts all foot up with Cr. balances. Mr. Morse will furnish the Ledger to subscribers in Portsmouth.

BOYS LOST.—A Mr. Cose, residing at the foot of the Alleghany Mountain, in Belford County, Pennsylvania, started out to hunt, and was followed by his two little boys, aged seven and five years. After hunting awhile he returned home, and found that the children had not returned. Search was made, and not finding them, the neighborhood was aroused, and the search was continudd day and night by from five hundred to one thousand people. On the twelfth day the children were found dead in a swamp seven miles from their home. The search had unfortunately been too much confined to the mountains, and the poor little boys continued to wander through the swamps and bottoms, until, overcome by hunger and fatigue, they laid down and died. —Boston Chronicle.

A boy and a girl, respectively six and eight years of age, who had been lost for upwards of ten days at Altoona, Pa., were recently found in the woods, dead, lying side by side.

We suppose these two items to relate to one and the same case.

THE COOLIE TRADE.—The regular correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Havana, May 8, 1856, has the following:

The ship Golden Eagle has just arrived with four hundred and eighty-five Asiatic colonists, destined to swell the ranks of our free white country population. So far, all our planters are delighted with the results of the Chinese immigration, and would gladly increase the number if they could. They cannot be brought fast enough for the demand.—I heard an intelligent Creole say that when their time is up, he intends to lay out his estate in farms of thirty acres each, and cultivate the sugar-cane, employing only Chinese laborers. The thing is feasible, if they can only get persons to carry it out. That these people are destined to revolutionize Cuba, there cannot be the slightest doubt. Their intelligence and industry will soon place them on terms of dictation. The island will owe them a living, and they must have it. It is preposterous to think for a moment that this race will every submit tamely to outrage, as the poor African does. The Chinese know their rights about as well as the most of white laboring men, and will always manage to have them. It is really remarkable to see in what a short time they become masters of every. they are applied to. Some of the finest classes of cigars are now made by them, and I am happy to inform you that the Government places no obstacle in the way of the poorest man who wishes to better his state. All trades are open, even to the negro. Such is the spirit and letter of the laws of much abused Spain.

The historian Stowe tells us that needles were sold in Cheapside, and other busy streets in London in the reign of Queen Mary, and were at that time made by a Spanish Negro, who refused to discover the secret of his art. Another authority states that the art of making steel needles was lost at the negro's death, but was afterwards revived by a German in 1566. Probably these facts may account for the crest of the needle-makers' coat of arms being the head of a negro.—History of Needle-Making.

CONGRESS.

FRIDAY, May 16.

SENATE.—A resolution was adopted directing experiments at the Mint, with the view of detecting and preventing the unlawful deterioration of coins.

Messrs. Mallory and Benjamin defended, and Messrs. Crittenden and Benjamin condemned, the action of the Naval Board. Adjourned to Monday.

HOUSE.—A discussion arose as to what disposition should be made of several private bills heretofore transmitted from the Court of Claims. The debate involved the powers of that tribunal.

A rule was finally adopted, that all bills and reports from the Court of Claims shall be referred to the Committee on Claims, and every Friday, immediately after the reading of the Journal, it shall be in order for that committee to report with reference to the business from the Court of Claims.

The House considered and passed one private bill. Adjourned till Monday.

THE RECENT HOMICIDE AT WASHINGTON.—The New York Courier and Enquirer is justly severe upon M. Du Bois, the Dutch Envoy, and M. Sartiges, the French Minister, at Washington—upon the former, who was an eye witness of the killing of the waiter Keating, and who unhesitatingly pronounced the act to be an unprovoked murder, and who, when formally and civilly requested by the Secretary of State to appear before a Court and relate the circumstances, refused to do so, knowing that he was shielded from any process by his diplomatic Character; and upon the Frenchman Sartiges for having advised this pusillanimous and unmanly conduct.—When the intelligence is announced in Europe that a waiter has been shot down and killed in a hotel at the seat of government, by a member of Congress, the act may be looked upon as one which might be likely to be perpetrated anywhere, but when it is stated that the perpetrator has been held to bail in a paltry sum of money, there will rise up everywhere a feeling of reproach and indignation, not unmixed with contempt, for a people which claims for itself a superior morality and greater intelligence than any other nation, at the same time that it admits the immunity from punishment of men in authority, and countenances the carrying of concealed weapons, and the shooting down in hot or cold blood, as the case may be, all who dare to give offence, no matter how trifling.

The Courier and Enquirer, in commenting upon the conduct of the two functionaries, says:—

We learn that M. Du Bois alleges that M. Sartiges, the French Minister, earnestly protested against his appearing as a witness, and that, considering the dictation of the French Minister as of far greater weight than the request of the President of the United States, made through the Secretary of State, he peremptorily declined to become a witness, while he continues to declare publicly that the act was a foul and most unprovoked murder!!

From the very nature of the case, and the hour at which the killing occurred, the only testimony against the slayer was the fellow-waiters of the deceased. M. Du Bois was the exception. Sitting, as he says, at a separate table, and hearing every word that passed, witnessing the whole affray, and being the first to raise the wounded man from the floor, he publishes and proclaims that the killing was an unprovoked and deliberate murder!—and then, under advisement of the French Minister, who is known to be in almost universal bad odor at Washington, he refuses to comply with the solicitation of our government, and give his testimony in the case!

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER OF LOTTERIES.
BALTIMORE, April 18, 1856.

THE undersigned, Commissioner of Lotteries of the State of Maryland, being in receipt daily of letters from various portions of the country, making inquiry as to Lottery Schemes, with which the country is flooded, and which purport to be "decided by the drawings of the Maryland Consolidated Lotteries," takes this method to answer all such letters of inquiry, and inform the public that all Lotteries purporting to be decided by the Maryland Lotteries are gross frauds; that certain parties who style themselves Morris & Co., not pretend to be Managers or Sole Agents for the Grand Charter Lotteries at Cleaveland, Ohio, are impostors, and said lottery a fraud, having neither legal nor presumptive existence; and that another fictitious firm, styled Murry & Co., Cleveland, Ohio, are also impostors, and all lotteries which they profess to be managers or agents for, are also frauds.

RICHARD FRANCE, of this city, is the Contractor for drawing the Maryland Lotteries. The business is conducted under the firm of R. FRANCE & Co., as Managers, and they have no sole agents in the city of Baltimore. There are, however, some forty licensed venders for the State of Maryland, who derive their authority from him, through this office, to sell tickets in the Maryland Lotteries.

FARM LANDS FOR SALE.
The Illinois Central Railroad Company
OF
FARMING LANDS,
In Tracts of 40 acres and upwards, on long credit and at low rates of interest.

THESE lands were granted by the Government to aid in the construction of this Railroad, and include some of the richest and most fertile Prairies in the State, interspersed here and there with magnificent groves of oak and other timber. The Road extends from Chicago, on the northeast, to Cairo at the south, and from thence to Galena and Dunleith, in the north-west extreme of the State, and as all the lands lie within fifteen miles on each side of this Road, ready and cheap means are afforded by it for transporting the products of the lands to any of those points and from thence to Eastern and Southern markets. Moreover, the rapid growth of flourishing towns and villages along the line, and the great increase in population by immigration, etc. afford a substantial and growing home demand for farm produce.

The soil is a dark, rich mould, from one to five feet in depth, is gently rolling and peculiarly fitted for grazing cattle and sheep, or the cultivation of wheat, Indian corn, etc.

Economy in cultivating and great productiveness are the well known characteristics of Illinois lands. Trees are not required to be cut down, stumps grubbed, or stone picked off, as is generally the case in cultivating new land in the Eastern States. The first crop of Indian corn, planted on the newly broken sod, usually repays the cost of plowing and fencing.

Wheat sown on the newly-turned sod is sure to yield very large profits. A man with a plow and two yoke of oxen will break one and a half to two acres per day. Contracts can be made for breaking, ready for corn or wheat, at from $2 to 2.50 per acre. By judicious management, the land may be plowed and fenced the first, and under a high state of cultivation the second year.

Corn, grain, cattle, etc. will be forwarded at reasonable rates to Chicago, for the Eastern market, and to Cairo for the Southern. The larger yield on the cheap lands of Illinois over the high priced lands in the Eastern and Middle States, is known to be much more than sufficient to pay the difference of transportation to the Eastern market.

Bituminous coal is mined at several points along the Road, and is a cheap and desirable fuel. It can be delivered at several points along the Road at $1.50 to $4 per ton; Wood can be had at the same rates per cord.

Those who think of settling in Iowa or Minnesota, should bear in mind, that lands there of any value, along the water courses and for many miles inland, have been disposed of;—that for those located in the interior, there are no conveniences for transporting the produce to market, railroads not having been introduced there. To send the produce of these lands, one or two hundred miles by wagon to market, would cost much more than the expense of cultivating them; and hence Government lands thus situated, at $1.25 per acre are not as good investments as the lands of this company at the prices fixed.

The same remark holds good in relation to the lands in Kansas and Nebraska, for although vacant lands may be found nearer the water courses the distance to market is far greater, and every hundred miles the produce of those lands are carried either in wagons or interrupted water communications, increases the expense of transportation, which must be borne by the settler, in the reduced price of their products; and to that extent precisely are the incomes from their farms, and of course on their investments, annually and every year reduced.

The great fertility of the lands now offered for sale by this company, and their consequent yield over those of the Middle and Eastern States, is much more than sufficient to pay the difference in the cost of transportation, especially in view of the facilities furnished by this Road, and others with which it connects, the operations of which are not interrupted by the low water of summer, or the frosts of winter.

PRICES AND TERMS OF PAYMENT.

The Price will vary from $5 to $25, according to the quality, location, &c. Contracts for Deeds may be made during the year 1856, stipulating the purchase money to be paid in five annual installments; the first to become due in two years from the date of contract, and the others annually thereafter. The last payment will become due at the end of the sixth year from the date of the contract.

Interest will be charged at only 3 per ct. per ann.

As a security to the performance of the contract the first two years' interest must be paid in advance, and it must be understood that at least one tenth of the land purchased shall yearly be broke under cultivation. Twenty per cent. from the purchase money will be required for cash. The Company's construction bonds will be received as cash.

READY FRAMED FARM BUILDINGS,

Which can be set up in a few days, can be obtained from Responsible Persons.

They will be 12 ft. by 20 ft. divided into one living and three bed rooms, and will cost complete set up on ground chosen anywhere along the road $150 in cash, exclusive of transportation. Larger buildings may be contracted for at proportionate rates. The Company will forward all the materials for such buildings over the Road promptly.

Special arrangements with dealers can be made to supply those purchasing the Company's lands with fencing materials, agricultural tools, and an outfit of provisions in any quantity, at the lowest wholesale prices.

It is believed that the price, long credit, and low rate of interest, charged for these lands will enable a man with a few hundred dollars in cash, and ordinary industry, to make himself independent before all the purchase money becomes due. In the mean time, the rapid settlement of the country will probably have increased their value four or five fold. When required an experienced person will accompany applicants, to give information, and aid in selecting lands.

Circulars containing numerous instances of successful farming, signed by respectable and well known farmers living in the neighborhood of the Railroad lands, throughout the Union—also the cost of fencing, price of cattle, expense of harvesting, threshing, &c. by contract—or any other information—will be cheerfully given, on application, either personally or by letter, in English, French or German, addressed to

JOHN WILSON,
Land Commissioner of Ill. Central R. R. Co.,
Office up to the 1st of May, 52 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Ill.; after that date in the New Stone Passenger Depot, So. Water st. a8 6m

TUESDAY, MAY 20, 1856.

WHITEFIELD'S SECOND VISIT.

Between Mr. Whitefield's departure in 1741, and his second visit to New England in '44, dissension, dispute, long and bitter controversy, had sprung up in relation to him, to his labors, and to the conversions or other alleged fruits of those labors.

In such a state of things Whitefield returned to New England. After a voyage of eleven weeks, he arrived at York, in Maine, October 30, 1744. Owing to some slight imprudence, he became unwell before landing, and violently and dangerously sick soon after. By the sedulous attention of his host, a physician, once a noted deist, but now one of his spiritual children, he obtained relief after four days, and from that time gradually improved. The good Mr. Moody called upon him, and said, "Sir, you are, first, welcome to America; secondly, to New England;—thirdly, to all faithful ministers in New England; fourthly, to all the good people in New England; fifthly, to all the good people in York; and sixthly and lastly, to me, dear Sir, less than the least of all." The "Christian History" announced his arrival, and added, "that his intention was, to pass on to Georgia; and, as he goes on, to meddle with no controversies, but only to preach up the parts of vital piety and the pure truths of the gospel, to all that are willing to hear them." At Mr. Moody's earnest request, after some hesitation, he preached, and immediately went to Portsmouth, November 6. He preached that evening for Mr. Fitch, Pastor of the North Church, and was to have preached the next morning, but was too ill, and deferred it till the afternoon. His audiences were large, attentive, and affected. In the evening, his malady returned, and confined him at Portsmouth till November 24.

It must have been of his second day at Portsmouth, that he wrote: "My pains returned; but what gave most concern was, that notice had been given of my being to preach. I felt a divine life, distinct from my animal life, which made me, as it were, laugh at my pains, though every one thought I was 'taken with death.' My dear York physician was then about to administer a medicine. I, on a sudden, cried out, Doctor, my pains are suspended; by the help of God, I will go and preach, and then come home and die.—With some difficulty I reached the pulpit.—All looked quite surprised, as though they saw one risen from the dead. I, indeed, was as pale as death, and told them they must look upon me as a dying man, come to bear my dying testimony to the truths I had formerly preached to them. All seemed melted, and were drowned in tears. The cry after me, when I left the pulpit, was like the cry of sincere mourners, when attending the funeral of a dear departed friend. Upon my coming home, I was laid on a bed upon the ground, near the fire, and I heard them say, 'he is gone.' But God was pleased to order it otherwise. I gradually recovered.

The day before he left Portsmouth, Shurtleff wrote: "The prejudices of most that set themselves against him before his coming, seem to be in a great measure abated, and in some, to be wholly removed; and there is no open opposition made to him. I have frequent opportunities of being with him, and there always appears in him such a concern for the advancement of the Redeemer's kingdom and the good of souls, such a care to employ his whole time to these purposes, such sweetness of disposition, and so much of the temper of his great Lord and Master, that every time I see him, I find my heart further drawn out towards him."

"Saturday, November 24," says the "Christian History" of December 15, "the Rev. Mr. Whitefield was so far revived as to be able to take coach, with his consort, and set out from Portsmouth to Boston: whither he came, in a very feeble state, the Monday evening after; since which he has been able to preach in several of our largest houses of public worship."

Whitefield himself was made sensible of some errors. In 1744, February 19, he wrote: "Some unguarded expressions, in the heat of less experienced youth, I certainly did drop. I was too precipitate in hearkening to and publishing private information, and, Peter-like, cut off too many ears." This is certainly not very far from the truth. Yet there is reason to suspect that he still thought too favorably of the "disorders" and their authors. In a letter dated February 6, he informs a friend, that the "high sheriff, who was once most foremost in persecuting the good Mr. Davenport," was "a little convinced." Davenport, at that time, would hardly have called his treatment at Boston, persecution. His 'Retractation', was dated July 28, 1744.

Whitefield began by publishing a letter to Dr. Chauncy, dated November 19, 1744, and written while he was sick at Portsmouth. In his "preface to the reader," dated January 18 1745, he says, "I should have published it much sooner, had I not hoped that the manner and method of my preaching would, by the blessing of God, have rendered it needless. But being called upon from different quarters to give an account of my conduct and some part of my writings, I now think it my duty to publish the letter.

It was in reply to some parts of Chauncy's "Seasonable Thoughts on the State of Religion." Its temper, Chauncy, in his answer, dated January 31, acknowledged to be unexceptionable, though its substance failed to remove his objections.

EXETER, May 19, 1856.

The great Circus, composed of members who hail from "New England, which is proudly claimed as the place of its birth, it having been originated and organized by men claiming descent from those who laid the foundation of American liberty on Plymouth Rock," came here on Wednesday last, went through with its "wonderful feats of agility and strength," and then left, "unwept, unhonored, and unsung." The only visible proof of their noble descent, however, which I could detect, was the jokes perpetrated by the clowns,—for these must have originated with the Pilgrims, and been handed down from father to son through many generations. Yet it accomplished one thing, in drawing so many of the country people into the town, thus benefitting the traders, by making Wednesday also a market-day.

On Thursday evening, Miss Adelaide Phillipps, assisted by Mr. C. B. Adams, and Mr. H. S. May, the English Pianist, gave a concert in the New Town Hall, at which a large and fashionable audience were present. Miss Phillipps gave universal delight, and was frequently encored,—too much so, possibly, to please her. Mr. Adams, who has once or twice before given a concert in our village, fully sustained the high reputation he had previously obtained. But your readers will pardon us if we say nothing concerning "the English Pianist," when we hint that he appeared on the stage in such a condition as to be totally unfit to add pleasure to the entertainment, and seriously marred the enjoyment otherwise received. We are sorry it happened, and probably he is so, also, now that the "exhilarating effects" have passed away. If Miss Phillipps and Mr. Adams, accompanied by Satter, (we know you are not weary of him,) could be induced to favor your citizens with an entertainment, and they return the favor, by giving them a full house, we feel assured that all would be pleased, and ask for a repetition.

Advertising by means of hand-bills is all the rage now. One shoe-dealer heads his with the exciting question, "Shall Kansas be free?"—followed by an unusual shower of exclamation points; and another answers, "Kansas will be free—a slight change in the efforts of the Free State men, having decided the Destiny of that great territory. They, instead of arming themselves with Minnie and Sharp's Rifles, have hit upon the plan of furnishing themselves with a pair of the subscriber's strong boots, so well put together, that they will hold to kick any 'Border Ruffian' quite beyond the limit of the territory."—That is what we call running the affair into the ground, although it does relate to men's "understandings."

But competition is the life of trade, and we see it exemplified in the conduct of two other merchants. One is the proprietor of the "Grand Grease-juice or Quintessence of Fat," you may whisper to your readers that this is a preparation for the hair,—and with a great display of signs, he announces to the public that his establishment is the "grand grease-juice depot." Another, desiring to take advantage of the favor expected to be raised, immediately states that his is the "grand apple-juice depot."

By the way, speaking of signs, would it not be well for many of the painters to supply themselves with Wilson's book on the art of punctuation? We once saw a sign in Portsmouth stating that "tin sheet iron,' was for sale by the proprietor; and we might mention cases here, which are far more ridiculous.

We have been much pleased in looking over the Report of our public schools for the past year. It abounds in short, pithy sentences, and, as is usually the case in such documents, in numerous complaints in regard to the buildings used for the accommodation of the scholars. There are six districts, containing thirteen school rooms, and, of the latter, six are somewhat severely criticized. The High School is confined to one district, and all the others, we believe, are deprived of the benefit arising from such an institution. In speaking of this school, the committee ask "how much dancing is consistent with getting the most good possible from the day school?" To what this refers we know not, and as it might afford the text for an hour's talk, it is better to say nothing about it at present.

There is one feature introduced into this report, which indeed has some arguments in its favor, but, on the whole, seems rather objectionable. This is publishing the names of such scholars as have not been absent or tardy during two terms. There are quite a number of whom this is said, and it appears well for the general punctuality of the students.

A superintending school committee, consisting of three persons, perform all the duty of examinatiion, &c., and have, we believe, a small salary; they also have the charge of the Town Library.

In speaking of district No. 5, the teacher states that "the scholars are well bred, and a profane boy cannot be found in the district." Of how many districts or even streets, anywhere, can that with truth be said. O. P.

MR. CRAMPTON.

We have refrained from copying most of the Washington rumors about what was done or to be done, about Mr. Crampton, the British minister. At last we copy one, which seems reliable, from the Boston Advertiser's special correspondent.

WASHINGTON, May 18, 1856.—The city is full of erroneous statements, that Mr. Crampton has been officially dismissed; and they are generally believed. The despatches from England, declining to recal him, were received yesterday. They are conciliatory in their tone, but persist in presenting Mr. Crampton's assertion, that what he did was done with the knowledge and consent of Mr. Marcy, as evidence that he is not guilty of violating our law, and ought not to be recalled. The despatches have not yet been considered in the Cabinet. They will be considered to-morrow, and Mr. Crampton will be dismissed. Thus far however, his diplomatic relations remain unchanged.

Mr. Cass will make a speech in the Senate tomorrow, denying in toto the statements of Crampton's letter of September, 1853, upon the Central American question.

Mr. Marcy will take no public mode of denying the other letter of Mr. Crampton, which alleges that the former conceded, in private conversation, the British sovereignty over the Belize.

☞ A Washington dispatch of the 19th, says—

All the foreign Legations have determined not to recognise Padre Vijil, officially or socially. Senor Marcoleta now asserts his claim to the British Mission from Nicaragua, on the faith of a former commission from the deposed governments, and it is believed that he will be recognised.

Mr. Dubois is willing to testify in the homicide case, if his simple declaration of facts witnessed, will satisfy both parties. The question of official delicacy alone embarrasses his inclination, as he is fearful of compromising his Government.

Satisfy both parties! What can this mean? Satisfy the murderer and the victim?

INDIAN OUTRAGE IN FLORIDA.—The Tribune has intelligence from Fort Myers to 4th of May. The Indians had committed several new outrages and murders, but all attempts to capture an enemy or discover their hiding places had proved fruitless. There was much sickness among the troops on duty in the swamp. Capt. Pratt's command returned to Key West, 10th inst. In an attempt to reach Maj. Arnold's command, near Bowlegs' town, he got within five miles of him, but was unable to approach nearer, on account of the impenetrable swamp. His men were all healthy.

THE LATE DR. J. C. WARREN.—At a meeting of the Council of the Massachusetts Temperance Society, of which Dr. Warren was President for nearly thirty years, resolutions were offered expressive of "sincere regret at the loss sustained, by the death of one who for many years devoted much of his time and labor to a cause on which the welfare and happiness of society essentially depends." The deceased left, in trust, to this society, the sum of $2000, to be appropriated in the purchase and distribution of publications for the promotion of temperance.

This bequest, made to this body, is one of best answers possible, to those small doctors who furnish small aid and comfort to the advocates of tippling.

☞ The Winnipisaukee Gazette, late the Winnepissiogee Gazette, and formerly the Belknap Gazette, which has been published at Laconia (formerly Meredith Bridge) in this State, has been discontinued. It was at one time a democratic paper, but with change of proprietors became whig, and latterly has advocated the American and republican movements.

☞ The Fourth of July is to be celebrated in Exeter this year, under the auspices of the American organizations there. They will doubtless get up a showy procession, and have a large attendance on the occasion.

St. Louis, May 16.—Hon. John G. Miller, M. C., from the 9th District of Missouri, died at his residence on Sunday last.

THE FIRE.—There were ninety-six patients in the Hospital, when the building took fire yesterday, and all with one exception were saved. The building cost $100,000; the insurance was $35,000. The patients were removed to the United States Marine Hospital.

"If you are Coming, Why don't you Come along?"

THAT is the "mot" now-a-days. Every locomotive on every Railroad shrieks it. It is daily rapped out on every Telegraphic Line in the country. The echoing blows of our Ship Carpenters hourly exemplify it. The smith at his anvil hammers it out. The clanking Press with breathless haste, sends the cry home to every family—"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"
It is uttered in an hundred tongues in a hundred lands. It has sounded like a slogan through the political world, and the "Old Eagles" are creeping along among the baggage wagons and the wounded. Thought, that moved at a funeral pace, now rushes on a tremendous charge; and all the old remedies for Liver Complaint have given way for

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along."—Six paces to the front, is the word to everybody and everything that wants to be listened to or looked at. If you have anything to do, do it; if you wish any person to see anything, show it; if you have anything to be cured, CURE IT WITH

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you have a Bottle of Holman's Bitters in your house, you need not suffer from
Biliousness, Weakness at the Stomach, Indigestion, Heartburn, Lowness of Spirits,
Nor any of the diseases incident to the season.
It used to take six men to make a pin; now one boy, a pull, a clip, and two strokes, and that's the way the pins are made. Once it took a Physician, lots of precious time, and quantities of nauseous drugs to cure some simple disease of the Blood.—Now, a quarter expended in

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS

Brings Life and Health, flowing spirits and rosy cheeks.
"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you are sick and weak, why don't you cure yourself? Here we offer you the article that will do it—there is no mistake about it. Every body knows about HOLMAN'S BITTERS; they have been tried and have "toed the mark straight."
They are a good medicine; they are better than anything else for all Spring Complaints; they are just the best Bitters that can be bought—and that's the best thing we can say about them. "If you are coming, why don't you come along," before they are all gone?

PUBLIC BUILDINGS. — The editor of the Portsmouth Journal, in his "Rambles about Portsmouth," tells last week, of a Meeting-House which was erected at the Plains, "on the elevation at the left, as we leave the training-field for home, by the South road. It was erected in the year 1725, and stood for twenty-three years, and was for a portion of the time occupied. We have never been able to find the records of the Society, and doubt the existence of any such record. The house being a frail structure, was blown down in 1748, and the parish became again united with the North parish, under Rev. S. Langdon. The Plains Meeting-House occupied the spot where Mr. Branscomb's house now stands. At that time there was a crook in the road, which left the meeting-house on the south side." Since that time, fashions have changed so much, that people object to going themselves, or allowing their children to go, more than the length of a block or two, to school or church, now-a-days.

☞ In the Police Court, Joshua M. Walden was brought before Justice Odell, on Saturday last, charged with making an assault upon Mary Walden. The case was continued to Monday, and after a hearing, Walden was fined $5 and costs, and ordered to give $50 bonds to keep the peace.

☞ Two men in the employ of Mr. Chas. Robinson, were arrested on Monday by the Police, who acted under the orders of the Mayor and Street Commissioner. Their offence was, putting down a post in the street in front of Mr. R.'s premises, contrary to an order from the Mayor and Aldermen.

The Street Commissioner took up two posts from this place, and a third one is now standing in the same place.

HOW IT HAPPENED.—Hitherto we have seen no statement giving any clue to the cause of the Railroad Disaster on the Panama R. R. But now we see it was fast driving over a curved road. A passenger, Mr. Alfred M. Armstrong of Illinois, says:

The two trains joined were drawn by one locomotive. They contained in all twenty cars—eighteen passenger cars and two baggage cars. After getting on the main track, the train proceeded to Obispo Bridge. It was found impossible to go on to Panama in in consequence of the baggage train obstructing the track. It was a complete wilderness there, and no food being obtainable, it was determined to go back with the entire passengers to Aspinwall. It was about 2 P. M. when the train thus started to return. The engine was a powerful one, and drew the cars along at full speed without difficulty.

I was seated in the seventh passenger car from the locomotive. The train was going at an unusually high rate of speed,—so much so that the fact was a subject of remark among the passengers generally in the car in which I sat. The speed was commented upon as dangerous, from the frequent and short curves in the road. I felt somewhat alarmed, and put my head out of the windows. I did not have my head out more than a minute, when I saw the front passenger car (as the train was passing a curve) suddenly force the out rail from its place, and darting from the track, instantaneously turned a complete side summerset. All I recollect from that moment is feeling a sudden crash and crying out, "We are all killed." I saw the passengers jump to their feet, and made a jump myself. I found myself in an instant landed upright on my feet in a pond alongside the track.

The locomotive and first baggage car having retained their place on the track, proceeded some distance. The seven cars succeeding the one first thrown from the track, were a mingled mass of shattered fragments. They had been thrown sideways, lengthways, crossways, bottom side up, and in every imaginable way. * * * I learned that all the brakemen of the train were killed.—Over eight hundred persons were on the train, of which 300 were killed and seriously wounded.

Mr. Shew, another passenger says:—

When we consider that there were not less than 500 persons in the cars that were shivered to atoms, it must be a low estimate to say that fifty were killed, and at least 100, and perhaps many more, badly wounded.

KANSAS MATTERS.—Mrs. Robinson, wife of the Governor, informs the St. Louis Democrat that no process of any description was served against her husband in Kansas, and that he left Lawrence with the knowledge of hundreds of people. She says the mob at Lexington was boisterous but made no hostile demonstrations. She presumed her husband will be liberated in a day or two.

The Kansas correspondent of the St. Louis Republican writes that Governor Shannon has sent an express to Lexington, Mo. with the necessary papers for the arrest and return of Mr. Robinson. The Committee of Investigation are in session at Leavenworth. It is understood that Mr. Oliver will present a minority report when the committee return to Washington.

A letter from Kansas, dated 9th inst. states the Missourians having threatened to destroy the testimony of the Investigating Committee, sealed packages of the proceedings up to the time of the departure of Mr. Robinson were placed in charge of that gentleman for Washington. These despatches were not found in the possession of Mr. Robinson at Lexington, his wife having proceeded with them after his arrest.

GUANO! GUANO! GUANO!
MEXICAN PHOSPHATIC GUANO!
Of which Dr A A Hayes, Assayer to the State of Massachusetts:
"This Guano is peculiarly fitted for use in New England, containing 40 to 75 per ct of bone phosphate of lime, besides other valuable fertilizing ingredients; and from its permanency is of more value to the agriculturist than any other guano, and will answer for all arts as well as agricultural purposes. On all kinds of plants and root crops, it is found to possess superior advantages, and does not require to be renewed oftener than four or five years. It should be sown broadcast, at the rate of 500 or 600 pounds to the acre."

JESUITISM.

THE CATHOLIC LETTERS,
Addressed to a Young Kinsman about to join the Church of Rome.
By E. Haskett Derby, Esq.
In one volume, 12mo. Price 75 cents.

These letters, covering the whole Catholic question, are, without doubt, the most able and learned resume of this subject ever given to the world.
The arguments and the conclusions are masterly and irresistible, and strange as it may seem for an eminent lawyer to leave Blackstone and Coke, and, for a time, bend the whole energies of his mind, with that keen sagacity peculiar to the legal profession, to an exhausting research among the tomes of the Fathers of Theology; still, the service which he has rendered to the cause of truth, and the fact that his labors resulted in changing for life the course of a beloved kinsman who would otherwise have joined the Church of Rome, will ever be a cause for gratitude.
One of the merits of the book is a spirited review of Bunsen, Howson, Conybeare, Milner, and other modern writers, and a well-digested argument on the planting of the Church in Britain by St. Paul before the Roman Pontificate was founded.
Rev. Dr. Peabody, in a note to Mr. Derby, after a careful reading of proof-sheets, uses the following language:
Your main argument, it seems to me, is to the point, and overwhelmingly conclusive. I hope, and do not doubt, that it will do much good, while it is honorable to yourself, both as a parent and a scholar.
We believe this work is destined to become A TEXT-BOOK FOR PROTESTANTS,
A vade-mecum of unanswerable arguments against the falsehoods of Romanism:

28 WINTER ST.
VERY, VERY, CHEAP,
FOR SALE AT ADAMS'
WAREROOMS.
Owing to the continual demand all through the past season for their peculiarly easy fitting CORSETS, they have been duced to order largely, and now would offer the French, English and German Corsets at unprecedented low prices, together with all the beautiful varieties of Mrs. ADAMS' own French made Bodices, which are now too well-known and appreciated to need comment. It being the intention of Mrs. A. to sell all the Corsets that are to be sold in Boston this spring, owing to the prices, she would beg that ladies will bear in mind that 28 WINTER STREET is the only place where Mrs. Adams is to be found, it being the impression with some persons that she still has a store, or Corset Warerooms, in her old neighborhood; her desire is to guard her customers from such a mistake.
Inquire of the Boston or New-York Customs, who is the most extensive importer of Corsets. They will tell you GEO. W. ADAMS, of 28 WINTER STREET. This establishment is conducted on most liberally low price principles, and is at all times posted and amply supplied with every style of Bodice, Jacket or Corset in vogue. One or the other of this House is in Europe conducting the manufacturing and shipping business to the advantage—these facilities affording the means to sell much less than others in the business, together with a determination to keep the lead by disposing of low and high priced goods at a very fraction of profit. It is well-known that Mrs. Adams has long been at the head of her profession, having had during thirty years much experience and opportunity for cultivating business talent in the best French and English schools; also, she being the first woman patentee in America. The celebrated ADAMS' PATENT ABDOMINAL SUPPORTER, so justly pronounced by Sir Astley Cooper and Sir James Clark, as the cleverest thing of its kind, is her own invention. Those in need of this article will please make personal application as above.
For sale the FRENCH PATENT WERLEY CORSET, of the Boston Agent, as above.
Dealers can be supplied with Mrs. Adams' French Busts for the exhibition of Corsets. They may also be furnished with her French metallic cuts, for advertising.

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER OF LOTTERIES. } BALTIMORE, April 18, 1856.

THE undersigned, Commissioner of Lotteries for the State of Maryland, being in receipt daily of letters from various portions of the country, making inquiry as to Lottery Schemes, with which the country is flooded, and which purport to be "decided by the drawings of the Maryland Consolidated Lotteries," takes this method to answer all such letters of inquiry, and inform the public that all Lotteries purporting to be decided by the Maryland Lotteries are gross frauds; that certain parties who style themselves Morris & Co., and pretend to be Managers or Sole Agents for the Grand Charter Lotteries at Cleaveland, Ohio, are impostors, and said lottery a fraud, having neither legal nor presumptive existence; and that another fictitious firm, styled Murry & Co., Cleveland, Ohio, are also impostors, and all lotteries which they profess to be managers or agents for, are also frauds.

RICHARD FRANCE, of this city, is the Contractor for drawing the Maryland Lotteries. The business is conducted under the firm of R. France & Co., as Managers, and they have no sole agents in the city of Baltimore. There are, however, some forty licensed venders for the State of Maryland, who derive licenses under him, through his office, to sell tickets in the Maryland Lotteries.

CURED BY EXTRACT OF ROCK ROSE:

FARM LANDS FOR SALE.

The Illinois Central Railroad Company

IS NOW PREPARED TO SELL

OF

FARMING LANDS,

In Tracts of 40 acres and upwards, on long credit, and at low rates of interest.

THESE lands were granted by the Government to aid in the construction of this Railroad, and include some of the richest and most fertile Prairies in the State, interspersed here and there with magnificent groves of oak and other timber. The Road extends from Chicago, on the northeast, to Cairo at the south, and from thence to Galena and Dunleith, in the north-west extreme of the State, and as all the lands lie within miles on each side of this Road, ready and cheap means are afforded by it for transporting the products of the lands to any of those points and from thence to Eastern and Southern markets. Moreover, the rapid growth of flourishing towns and villages along the line, and the great increase in population by immigration, etc. afford a substantial and growing home demand for farm produce.

The soil is a dark, rich mould, from one to five feet in depth, is gently rolling and peculiarly fitted for grain, cattle and sheep, or the cultivation of wheat, Indian corn, etc.

Economy in cultivating and great productiveness are the well known characteristics of Illinois lands. Trees are not required to be cut down, stumps uprooted, or stone picked off, as is generally the case in cultivating new land in the older States. The first crop of Indian corn, planted on the newly broken sod, usually repays the cost of plowing and fencing.

Wheat sown on the newly-turned sod is sure to yield very large profits. A man with a plow and two yoke of oxen will break one and a half to two acres per day. Contracts can be made for breaking, ready for corn or wheat, at from $2 to 2.50 per acre, by responsible management, the land may be plowed and fenced the first, and under a high state of cultivation the second year.

Corn, grain, cattle, etc. will be forwarded at reasonable rates to Chicago, for the Eastern market, and to Cairo for the Southern. The larger yield on the cheap lands of Illinois over the high priced lands in the Eastern and Middle States, is known to be much more than sufficient to pay the difference of transportation to the Eastern market.

Immense coal is found at several points along the Road, and is a cheap and desirable fuel. It can be delivered at several points along the Road at $1.50 to $4 per ton; Wood can be had at the same rates per cord.

Those who think of settling in Iowa or Minnesota, should bear in mind, that lands there of any value, along the water courses and for many miles inland, have been disposed of;—that for those located in the interior, there are no conveniences for transporting the produce to market, railroads not having been introduced there. That to send the produce of these lands, one or two hundred miles by wagon to market, would cost much more than the expense of cultivating them; and hence the Government lands are situated, at $1.25 per acre are not so good investments as the lands of this company at the prices fixed.

The same remark holds good in relation to the lands in Kansas and Nebraska, for although various lands may be found nearer the water courses the distance to market is far greater, and every hundred miles the produce of those lands are carried either in wagons or interrupted water conveyances, increases the expense of transportation, which must be borne by the settlers, in the reduced price of their products; and to that extent precisely are the incomes from their farms, and of course on their investments, annually and every year reduced.

The great fertility of the lands now offered for sale by this company, and their consequent yield over those of the Middle and Eastern States, is much more than sufficient to pay the difference in the cost of transportation, especially in view of the facilities furnished by this Road, and others with which it connects, the operations of which are not interrupted by the low water of summer, or the frosts of winter.

PRICES AND TERMS OF PAYMENT.

The Price will vary from $5 to $25, according to the quality, location, &c. Contracts for Deeds may be made during the year 1856, stipulating the purchase money to be paid in five annual installments; the first to become due in two years from the date of contract, and the others annually thereafter. The last payment will become due at the end of the sixth year from the date of the contract.

Interest will be charged at only 3 per ct. per ann.

As a security to the performance of the contract the first two years' interest must be paid in advance, and it must be understood that at least one tenth of the land purchased shall yearly be brought under cultivation; or cash payments from the credit price will be deducted for cash. The Company's construction bonds will be received as cash.

READY FRAMED FARM BUILDINGS,

Which can be set up in a few days, can be obtained from Responsible Persons.

They will be 12 by 20 ft. divided into one living and three bed rooms, and will cost complete set up on ground chosen anywhere along the road $150 in cash, exclusive of transportation. Larger buildings may be contracted for at proportionate rates. The Company will forward all the materials for such buildings over the Road promptly.

Special arrangements with dealers can be made to supply those purchasing the Company's lands with fencing materials, agricultural tools, and an outfit of provisions in any quantity, at the lowest wholesale prices.

It is believed that the price, long credit, and low rate of interest, charged for these lands will enable a man with a few hundred dollars in cash, and ordinary industry, to make himself independent before all the purchase money becomes due. In the mean time, the rapid settlement of the country will probably have increased their value four or five fold. When required, the experienced, on application, will assist emigrant applicants, to give information, and aid in selecting lands.

Circulars containing numerous instances of successful farming, signed by respectable and well known farmers living in the neighborhood of the Railroad lands, throughout the State—also the cost of fencing, price of cattle, expense of harvesting, threshing, &c. by contract—or any other information—will be cheerfully given, on application, either personally or by letter, in English, French or German, addressed to

JOHN WILSON,

Land Commissioner of Ill. Central R. R. Co.,

WEDNESDAY, MAY 21, 1856.

PRESIDENTIAL VETOES.

It will be seen, on reference to the Journal of Congress, that President Pierce has vetoed two important bills for Internal Improvement,—and there can consequently be no doubt he has determined to veto the Internal Improvement bills, as fast as they come before him. The vetoed bills are the St. Clair Flats bill, and the bill for the deepening of the channel of the chief pass at the mouth of the Mississippi. No two projects could be selected which are so decidedly national in their character, as these.

Three hundred and fifty millions of dollars worth of property pass over the St. Clair annually. It is therefore desirable to have the navigation there, improved.

But the President vetoes this bill, because, as he says, he is "convinced that the expenditure would serve no valuable purpose, as contributing to the common defence," and because he does not believe Congress can make any such improvements, except for warlike purposes.

Relative to the Mississippi improvement, the President repeats his constitutional objections to internal improvements, as applicable to the whole system, whether they consist of works on land, or in navigable waters, either of sea coast, or interior lakes and rivers.

The principle, if we understand it, on which these vetoes rest, is, that our general government is powerless, for any purposes but those of mischief;—that it may fight and enslave, but it cannot cultivate the arts of peace, commerce and liberty.

The Boston Advertiser's special correspondent says the President's veto of the River Improvement bills has greatly exasperated the Northwest.

MR. CRAMPTON NOT GONE YET.—The Boston Advertiser's special Washington dispatch of the 19th says:

The Cabinet considered Mr. Crampton's case to-day, but came to no decision. It appears that the British documents in this affair, which were laid before Parliament, have not yet arrived. Perhaps it is deemed necessary to await these before sending the Minister his dismissal. The Cabinet meet again to-morrow.

Of course no one knows exactly what will be done to-morrow,—but a day or two ago the Washington correspondent of the New York Evening Post believed that the Administration will "back down" from its threats to dismiss Mr. Crampton, and gave the following reason for this belief:

"It is stated, on what I deem good authority, that almost the entire Southern delegation in Congress have united in protesting against his dismissal, as an act likely to involve this country in a war with Great Britain, and that the President has been seriously influenced by them."

His Excellency Gov. Metcalf, and Hon. John J. Prentiss, were in this city yesterday. —Manchester American.

There is no such person in New Hampshire as "His Excellency Gov. Metcalf"; there is plain Gov. Metcalf, though. The governor of Massachusetts is, we believe, the only Chief Magistrate in the Union who is entitled by law to the title of "His Excellency. —Lowell News.

The News is wrong, and the American is right; as may be seen by consulting sec. 41 of our Constitution, which says he "shall be styled Governor of New Hampshire;" and his "title shall be His Excellency."

BERKSHIRE IN A BAD WAY.—The Great Barrington (Mass.) Courier calls for a citizens' meeting to devise means to check the alarming increase of intemperance in that town; it complains that on Sundays loads of drunken Irishmen drive through the streets making daylight hideous with their yells.—The Pittsfield Eagle also complains of the retrograding morals of that town, and says—

"Since the first Monday in April, there have been more drunken, noisy and disorderly men in the streets and more yelling and obscene shouts at night than in any similar length of time during our recollection of the town."

Here is something remarkable, in the way of coincidence. Berkshire is said to be the only county of Massachusetts, beside Suffolk, in which no verdicts have been given against sellers of strong drinks, for breaches of the liquor law of that State.

The same public opinion which nullifies the law, promotes the drunkenness. The case is quite plain.

TESTIMONY SAFE.—The telegraphic summary of Washington matters says, a portion of the testimony taken by the Kansas Investigating Commission, has been deposited in a sealed package in the hands of the Speaker of the House of Representatives. This is the testimony which the Missourians threatened to destroy.

☞ Godey's Lady's Book, for June, closing vol. 52, comes to us from Mr. Morse, of this city. Illustrations, The Gipsy; Godey's Unrivalled Fashion Plate, colored; and many patterns and plans.

"MIDDLE GROUND."—A correspondent of the Mirror a week or two ago, speaking of a dispute here about Universal Salvation and Partial Damnation, said he stood on the "middle ground." The Portsmouth Chronicle very pertinently wants to know what that "middle ground" in theology is. It intimates that some new discovery has been made.—Manchester Mirror.

This is true;—and presents our query in its proper light. In the Mirror of the next day, is the following, from a correspondent:

I noticed in your last issue, that the Portsmouth Chronicle man finds himself in somewhat of a quandary, at my announcement, in the Mirror of the 5th inst., while noticing the Religious controversy now going on Sabbath after Sabbath in this city, that there is a high "middle ground" in theology between "ultra Universalism, and stiff necked Orthodoxy,"—and enquires with apparent earnestness, if a "New Faith" has been introduced into the world.

This is not true; but utterly misrepresents the position we took. We said nothing of ultra Universalism or stiff necked orthodoxy. We learned from this correspondent that there was an attack on Universalism by Rev. Mr. Bartlett. By Universalism we understand the belief that all men will be saved.—Those who do not believe this, believe that some will be lost. Mr. Bartlett and others take this ground. This we can understand. But we cannot understand how any one can go between these views, on either high or low ground.

The correspondent speaks now of Ultra (i. e. beyond) Universalism. What can he mean by this? Does any body believe that more than all will be saved? or what does he mean?

So of "stiff-necked orthodoxy"—the title may mean something to the man who uses it, —but in relation to this particular controversy it has no force whatever, beyond pointing out the belief of some who are greatly opposed to Universalism,—among whom may be found men who differ widely on other points.

In regard to many of these things, there may be spots of middle ground, high or low, —but in regard to the main point assailed by Rev. Mr. Bartlett, in Manchester, there can be no middle ground. It is either true or false.

Some men there may be who have no settled belief on this point, or any other—but we don't call their ground a very high one, and are not quite sure that they are in the middle of any thing. They seem rather to be in the middle of nothing, with no land in sight.

It is a good sign of the times that two commissioners from South Carolina are in New York, to examine the school system, with a view of establishing a similar one in their own State.

Common Schools in South Carolina! Free Schools? How is this? The Richmond Enquirer and other such authorities have assured us that a "little learning is a dangerous thing" especially for laborers of all sorts, whether white, black or mixed; and that free labor, free soil, and all other bad free things, come naturally and properly out of free schools, which are represented as the old parent fowls that hatch out broods of free monsters. But here come up some Southern Commissioners to get a pattern for such nests of mischief at home.

COOLIES.—The Coolie trade will be checked by our government so far as Americans are engaged in it, considering it replete with immoralities, revolting and inhuman atrocities, strongly resembling those of the African slave trade. It is not permitted by any treaty, and is therefore, illegal, and Americans in China are warned to desist; otherwise they will not only forfeit the protection of this government, but render themselves liable to heavy penalties.

THE LATE DR. J. C. WARREN, OF BOSTON.—We have mentioned his bequest, of $2000 to distribute temperance tracts. The Boston Telegraph says:

Mr. Warren has ever been a firm and true friend to the temperance cause. In its earlier history, and during its darkest days, he gave it his hearty support. He was also a friend to the prohibitive movement, and was a subscriber to the million fund.

NEW YORK, May 20.—[Washington Tribune Correspondence.]—The Cabinet sat to-day until half-past four o'clock, deliberating upon the answer of the British Government. It will meet again to-morrow morning, which is an unusual proceeding. The character of the reply divests the issue of any threatening consequences, except those necessarily resulting from a suspension of friendly intercourse between the two Governments at peace, if the dismissal takes place. The paper is uncommonly adroit and ably put. Much labor has been expended upon it.

The British Government now distinctly disavows having entertained any intention to violate our municipal laws, or outrage our national sovereignty. It is understood in diplomatic circles that Mr. Crampton will leave the country immediately after receiving his passports, and carry the Secretary and other members of his legation with him, not included in our dismissal, his object being to close the embassy entirely, and thus emphasize the suspension of intercourse.

It will be seen by this last item, that nothing at all beyond a small mouse is to come out of this great Crampton mountain, after all. We have rarely alluded to it.

A suit for freedom was recently brought in a Vir inia court, by a colored woman named Betty, and twenty of her descendants. It was claimed and proved that she was emancipated in 1799, by her master, John Anderson, and her suit was granted.

HAYDEN'S IMPROVED VEGETABLE PURGATIVE PILLS.

The following letter from Rev. J. F. Manning, of Birmingham, England, a missionary of the Gospel, is worthy of particular mention:

BIRMINGHAM, July 7, 1847.

BRO. HAYDEN:—Before departing from my native home, across the mighty deep, and leaving this land of liberty, I feel it to be a duty which I owe to you and suffering humanity, to say one word in favor of your pills. Two years ago, when I came among you, I was taken with ship fever (so called), and, when hovering on the brink of eternity, a friend advised me to use your Pills; I as a last resort, I did so, and, thanks to you and an overruling Providence, I recovered almost immediately. Yours, with grateful feelings,

JOHN F. MANNING.

"If you are Coming, Why don't you Come along?"

THAT is the "mot" now-a-days. Every locomotive on every Railroad shrieks it. It is daily rapped out on every Telegraphic Line in the country. The echoing blows of our Ship Carpenters hourly exemplify it. The smith at his anvil hammers it out. The clanking Press with breathless haste, sends the cry home to every family—"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"

It is uttered in an hundred tongues in a hundred lands. It has sounded like a slogan through the political world, and the "Old Fogies" are creeping along among the baggage wagons and the wounded. Thought, that moved at a funeral pace, now rushes on a tremendous charge; and all the old remedies for Liver Complaint have given way for

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along."—Six paces to the front, is the word to everybody and everything that wants to be listened to or looked at. If you have anything to do, do it: if you wish any person to see anything, show it; if you have anything to be cured, CURE IT WITH

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you have a Bottle of Holman's Bitters in your house, you need not suffer from

Biliousness, Weakness at the Stomach, Indigestion, Heartburn, Lowness of Spirits,

Nor any of the diseases incident to the season.

It used to take six men to make a pin; now one boy, a pull, a clip, and two strokes, and that's the way the pins are made. Once it took a Physician, lots of precious time, and quantities of nauseous drugs to cure some simple disease of the Blood.—Now, a quarter expended in

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS

Brings Life and Health, flowing spirits and rosy cheeks.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you are sick and weak, why don't you cure yourself? Here we offer you the article that will do it—there is no mistake about it. Every body knows about HOLMAN'S BITTERS; they have been tried and have "toed the mark straight."

They are a good medicine; they are better than anything else for all Spring Complaints; they are just the best Bitters that can be bought—and that's the best thing we can say about them. "If you are coming, why don't you come along," before they are all gone?

LOCAL.

THE PLAINS SCHOOL HOUSE.—This building, we are pleased to observe, is now undergoing repairs, which were very much needed. A good double floor has been laid, the desks are being firmly replaced, and altered somewhat, suitable blackboards are being constructed, and the inside of the house is to be painted, as also the trimmings on the outside.

This building has been considered decidedly dangerous, in consequence of the middle part of the side walls bulging out nearly three inches, which would render them likely in a short time, to fall to the ground, and cause the roof to tumble in, to the immediate danger of the inmates. To remedy this, two stout iron rods have been placed across the building, extending through the walls, and fastened on the outside by nuts. These serve merely to keep them in their present position.

Notwithstanding all the "fixing," it is a frail concern, and we hope the city will soon erect a new one in its place. C.

For the Chronicle.

Uncle Toby:—Permit me, through you, to call the attention of teamsters and expressmen, as well as others in carriages and on horseback, to the impropriety, to say nothing of impoliteness, of stopping their carriages and horses across the public crosswalks of the city.

My attention has often been called to this matter, when I have been to the post office for my letters, by observing carriages and horses stationed directly across the cross-walks in that vicinity, thereby compelling ladies and gentlemen to wade around them through the mud (in some cases nearly ancle deep) to get across the street. This is a nuisance which ought to be abated. In most of the cases, it is a result of thoughtlessness, and a gentle hint, through the Chronicle—will probably correct the evil in such cases. Is there not a law against obstructing these cross-walks?

There is another practice which requires correction. Many of our young men, clerks and apprentices, are in the habit of collecting together near the Post office, about noon, puffing and chewing, spitting and talking, giggling and laughing, much to the annoyance of all passers by. Can it be possible that some of these young men are aware how impolite and unmanly such a practice is?—We think a little reflection will lead them to put a stop to the practice at once.

OBSERVER.

THE POST.—The policemen inform us that on Thursday morning they opened the doors of the lock up, and discharged the two men whom they arrested on Monday for putting a post in front of the premises of Charles Robinson, contrary to the order of the city government. This discharge was by order of the same officer who ordered their arrest.

☞ The Walton house, in Gates street, was sold at Auction on Tuesday, by H. F. Wendell, Esq. for $1006—to L. Cotton.

PORTSMOUTH BOYS AT THE PANAMA MASSACRE.—We are informed that two sons of John H. Mugridge, Esq. of this city, were among the passengers of the Illinois on her last trip, and were present in Panama at the time of the late riot and massacre at that place. Letters have been received from them. They both escaped uninjured, suffering no other loss than that of their valises. They report that twenty of their fellow passengers lay dead in the depot the next morning, and twenty-five of the wounded continued their voyage to San Francisco. They were unable for want of time to write further particulars. —Gazette.

TWO YOUNG MEN DROWNED AT NEWBURYPORT.—On Monday afternoon, about three o'clock, three young men, eighteen or nineteen years of age, started in a whale boat on a pleasure excursion to the mouth of the harbor. Upon being advised of the danger—there being a heavy sea on the bar—one of them, Charles Bayley, son of Capt. C. M. Bayley, went on shore, and the others, Joseph Kimball, son of Mr. Hervey Kimball, and George Bray, son of Capt. Nehemiah A. Bray, proceeded down the river. Somehow they ventured too far, and the boat being caught upon the breakers was upset, and both were drowned. No assistance could be rendered them, and neither the boat or the bodies have been recovered. They were lads of good habits and much promise; and young Bray was the only child of his parents. This loss, so sudden and so sad, has covered the community with gloom.—Herald.

The Baltimore Clipper says that counterfeit gold coin of the denomination of one dollar seems to be passing quite currently in that city at the present time. They are made of zinc, plated and quite well executed and are apt to deceive the unwary.

The New York Shiping List says, if builders would turn out more vessels from 150 to 350 tons, and fewer large ships, for a period, the change would result beneficially to all parties concerned.

CONGRESS.

MONDAY, May 19.

SENATE.—The President sent to the Senate this morning vetoes on the bills for improving the mouth of the Mississippi, and also of the St. Clair river, giving his reasons at length.

Mr. Cass gave notice of another speech on the Central American Question.

Mr. Sumner then commenced his promised speech on Kansas. He said, "you are now called to redress a great transgression, in which is involved, not only the liberty of a distant territory, but the peace of the whole country. Against Kansas a crime has been committed without parallel in the records of the past—worse than anything done by Verres against Sicily. Are you against sacrilege? I present it for your execration;—are you against robbery? I hold it up to your scorn;—are you for the protection of American citizens? I show you here their dearest rights have been cloven down, while a tyrranical usurpation has installed itself on their very necks. This crime hazards civil war. It all proceeds from the slave power, which is the criminal. In opposing it, we are not fanatical or sectional, as said by the Senator from South Carolina, (Mr. Butler) who is the Don Quixote of Slavery;—the Senator from Illinois, (Mr. Douglas) is the Squire of Slavery—its Sancho Panza, ready do all its humiliating offices. He cannot compel obedience to this usurpation. He imitates the British officer, who, with bold swagger, said he would cram the stamp down the throats of the American people, and he will meet with a similar failure." Mr. Sumner then considered the crime against Kansas, in its origin and extent, and next the apologies for the crime, dwelling upon the assaults upon the Emigrant Aid Co, which assaults he characterized as infamous, and vindicated Massachusetts.

HOUSE.—The House took up Mr. Wheeler's resolution authorizing the Secretary of the Navy to dispatch a vessel with provisions, privately contributed, for the Cape Verd sufferers.

Mr. Kelly referred to the liberality of New York in aiding the starving people, appealing to the generous sympathy of the House to pass the resolution, which asked for no appropriation of money.

Mr. Smith of Va., while deeply feeling for their distressed condition, was not willing, even in this trifling particular, to usurp a power not guaranteed by the Constitution. He considered the sending of a ship equivelant to the appropriation of money for that purpose.

The resolution was adopted by 123 against 24.

[So only 24 men felt Mr. Smith's scruple to be of any consequence.]

Mr, Galloway asked leave to introduce a resolution requesting the President to inform the House whether he has information concerning the murder of three American citizens, named Dow, Barber, and Brown, and whether legal measures have been taken for the prosecution of the murderers; and also whether he has information regarding the forcible abduction of Wm. Phillips, and of his being carried across to Missouri, and there tarred and feathered; likewise with regard to the outrage on Rev. Pardee Butler, who was tarred and feathered at Atchison; also with regard to the shooting of Mr. Mace, on whom an attempt to kill was made after he had given testimony before the House investigating Commission, and whether legal steps have been taken for the prosecution of the persons engaged in these outrages; also, that the President inform the House whether he has issued special instructions for the protection of American citizens in Kansas from violence and murder.

Mr. Smith of Virginia suggested, and Mr. Galloway agreed to add a paragraph, calling for information relative to the murder of sheriff Jones.

Mr. Giddings—Better wait till he is dead.

Mr. Ruffin was opposed to such a string of nonsense, and objected to its reception.

Mr. Galloway moved to suspend the rules, in order that he might introduce the resolution.

The motion to suspend was lost—102 to 55, not two-thirds.

Mr. Walker moved to discharge the Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union from the further consideration of the bill for continuing the improvement of Mobile harbor. Disagreed to,60 against 57, not two-thirds.

Mr. Keitt moved a suspension of the rules to enable him to offer a resolution for the adjournment of Congress on the 5th of August. Negatived—62 against 67.

Mr. Wakeman introduced a bill making an appropriation for the survey of Harlem river. Referred to the Committee on Commerce.

Adjourned.

KANSAS MATTERS.—St. Louis, May 19.—Advices from Kansas to the 14th inst., state that about 1000 men have responded to the proclamation of the United States marshal, and are encamped in the vicinity of Lawrence and Lecompton, their avowed purpose being to compel the people of Lawrence to acknowledge the territorial laws.

It is said that there are about 1500 men in Lawrence, thoroughly armed with Sharpe's rifles, and have two pieces of artillery in their possession. They erected breastworks, and have given notice that they will resist all attempts at arrest.

Judge Fane of Ga., has been appointed sheriff until Jones is able to resume the duties of the office. Jones is reported as convalescent, and is expected soon to be out.—Fane, it is rumored, has been shot at twice while in the discharge of his official duties.

The requisition of Gov. Shannon upon the authorities of Missouri, for the return of Robinson, was placed in the hands of U. S. Marshal Donaldson, and deputies Preston and Wallace. They left Kansas for Lexington on Wednesday last.

Mr. Brown, editor of the Herald of Freedom, was arrested while endeavoring to escape from the territory.

Ex-Gov. Reedor has fled, but his capture is considered certain.

It is said that Hon. Reverdy Johnson has been secured as counsel by the friends of T. Keating, who was killed in Washington by Herbert.

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER OF LOTTERIES.
BALTIMORE, April 18, 1856.

THE undersigned, Commissioner of Lotteries of the State of Maryland, being in receipt daily of letters from various parts of the country, making inquiry as to Lottery Schemes, with which the country is flooded, and which purport to be "decided by the drawings of the Maryland Consolidated Lotteries," takes this method to answer all such letters of inquiry, and inform the public that all Lotteries purporting to be decided by the Maryland Lotteries are gross frauds; that certain parties who style themselves Morris & Co., and pretend to be Managers or Sole Agents for the Grand Charter Lotteries at Cleaveland, Ohio, are impostors, and said lottery a fraud, having neither legal nor presumptive existence; and that another fictitious firm, styled Murry & Co., Cleveland, Ohio, are also impostors, and all lotteries which they profess to be managers or agents for, are also frauds.

RICHARD FRANCE, of this city, is the Contractor for drawing the Maryland Lotteries. The business is conducted under the firm of R. FRANCE & Co., as Managers, and they have no sole agents in the city of Baltimore. There are, however, some forty licensed venders for the State of Maryland, who derive licenses under him, through this office, to sell tickets in the Maryland Lotteries.

Sick Headache

CURED BY EXTRACT OF ROCK ROSE;

FARM LANDS FOR SALE.

The Illinois Central Railroad Company
IS NOW PREPARED TO SELL
OF
FARMING LANDS,

In Tracts of 40 acres and upwards, on long credits and at low rates of interest.

THESE lands were granted by the Government to aid in the construction of this Railroad, and include some of the richest and most fertile Prairies in the State, interspersed here and there with magnificent groves of oak and other timber. The Road extends from Chicago, on the northeast, to Cairo at the south, and from thence to Gales and Dunleith, at the north-west extreme of the State, and as all the lands lie within fifteen miles on each side of this Road, ready and cheap means are afforded by it for transporting the products of the lands to any of those points and from thence to Eastern and Southern markets. Moreover, the rapid growth of flourishing towns and villages along the line, and the great increase in population by immigration, etc. afford a substantial and growing home demand for farm produce.

The soil is dark, rich mould, from one to five feet in depth, is gently rolling and peculiarly fitted for grazing cattle and sheep, or the cultivation of wheat, Indian corn, etc.

Economy in cultivating and great productiveness are the well known characteristics of Illinois lands. Trees are not required to be cut down, stumps grubbed, or stone picked off, as is generally the case in cultivating new land in the older States. The first crop of Indian corn, planted on the newly broken sod, usually repays the cost of plowing and fencing.

Wheat sown on the newly-turned sod is sure to yield very large profits. A man with a plow and two yoke of oxen will break one and a half to two acres per day. Contracts can be made for breaking, ready for corn or wheat, at from $2 to 2.50 per acre. By judicious management, the land may be plowed and fenced the first, and under a high state of cultivation the second year.

Corn, grain, cattle, etc. will be forwarded at reasonable rates to Chicago, for the Eastern market, and to Cairo for the Southern. The larger yield on the cheap lands of Illinois over the high priced lands in the Eastern and Middle States, is known to be much more than sufficient to pay the difference of transportation to the Eastern market.

Bituminous coal is mined at several points along the Road, and is a cheap and desirable fuel. It can be delivered at several points along the Road at $1.50 to $4 per ton; Wood can be had at the same rates per cord.

Those who think of settling in Iowa or Minnesota, should bear in mind, that lands there of any value, along the water courses and for many miles inland, have been taken up, and that those located in the interior, there are no conveniences for transporting the produce to market, railroads not having been introduced there. That to send the produce of these lands, one or two hundred miles by wagon to market, would cost more than the expense of cultivating them; and hence Government lands thus situated, at $1.25 per acre are not so good investments as the lands of this company at the prices fixed.

The same remark holds good in relation to the lands in Kansas and Nebraska, for although vacant lands may be found nearer the water courses the distance to market is far greater, and every hundred miles the produce of those lands are carried either in wagons or over rivers, by our communications, increases the expense of transportation, which must be borne by the settlers, in the reduced price of their products; and to that extent precisely are the incomes from their farms, and of course on their investments, annually and every year reduced.

The great fertility of the lands now offered for sale by this company, and their consequent yield over those of the Middle and Eastern States, is much more than sufficient to pay the difference in the cost of transportation, especially in view of the facilities furnished by this Road, and others with which it connects, the operations of which are not interrupted by the low water of summer, or the frosts of winter.

PRICES AND TERMS OF PAYMENT.

The Price will vary from $5 to $25, according to the quality, location, &c. Contracts for Deeds may be made during the year 1856, giving the purchase money to be paid in five annual installments; the first to become due in two years from the date of contract, and the others annually thereafter. The last payment will become due at the end of the sixth year from the date of the contract.

Interest will be charged at only 3 per ct. per ann.

As a security to the performance of the contract the first two years' interest must be paid in advance, and it must be understood that at least one tenth of the land purchased shall yearly be put under cultivation. Twenty per cent. from the credit price will be deducted for cash. The Company's construction bonds will be received as cash.

READY FRAMED FARM BUILDINGS,

Which can be set up in a few days, can be obtained upon application from the Company.

They will be 12 ft. by 20 ft. divided into one living and three bed rooms, and will cost complete set up on ground chosen any where along the road $150 in cash, exclusive of transportation. Larger buildings may be contracted for at proportionate rates The Company will forward all the materials for such buildings over the Road promptly.

Special arrangements with dealers can be made to supply those purchasing the Company's lands with fencing materials, agricultural tools, and an outfit of provisions in any quantity, at the lowest wholesale prices.

It is believed that the price, long credit, and low rate of interest, charged for these lands will enable a man with a few hundred dollars in cash, and ordinary industry, to make himself independent before all the purchase money becomes due. In the mean time, the rapid settlement of the country will probably have increased their value four or five fold. When required an experienced person will accompany applicants, to give information, and aid in selecting lands.

Circulars containing numerous instances of successful farming, signed by respectable and well known farmers living in the neighborhood of the Railroad lands, throughout the State—also the cost of fencing, price of cattle, expense of harvesting, threshing, &c. by contract—and any other information will be cheerfully given, on application, either personally or by letter, in English, French or German, addressed to

JOHN WILSON,
Land Commissioner of Ill. Central R. R. Co.,

A MURDERER IN CONGRESS—Refusal of the House to Investigate. Our readers are already informed that on Thursday Mr. Knowlton of Maine offered a resolution in the House of Representatives, instructing the Judiciary Committee to inquire into the recent murder of an Irish waiter by Mr. Herbert, member of Congress from California, with a view to the punishment of that member, if found guilty. Mr. Stephens of Georgia moved to lay the matter upon the table, and this vote was carried 79 to 70, and investigation was thus suppressed.

We think it worth while to print the record of the yeas and nays on this question:

Yeas—Aiken, Allen, Barksdale, Bell, Bowie, Boyce, Burnett, Broom, Crauch, Chadwallader, John P. Campbell, Carlisle, Cling, man, Howell Cobb, Williamson R. W. Cobb, Cox, Cullen, Davidson, Henry W. Davis, Denver, Dowdell, Edmundson, Elliott, English, Faulkner, Florence, Foster, Henry M. Fuller, Thomas J. D. Fuller, Goode, Greenwood, J. Morrison Harris, Simpson W. Harris, Harrison, Haven, Hickman, Hoffman, George W. Jones, J. Clancy Jones, Keitt, Kennett, Letcher, Lindley, Lumpkin, Alex. K. Marshall, Maxwell, McQueen, Smith, Miller, Millson, Millward, Paine, Peck, Phelps, Puryear, Ready, Ricaud, Richardson, Rivers, Robinson, Ruffin, Savage, Scott, Samuel A. Smith, Wm. Smith, Wm. R. Smith, Sneed, Stephens, Stewart, Swope, Talbot, Taylor, Thurston, Trippe, Tyson, Walker, Warner, Watkins, Wells, Whitney.

Nays—Messrs. Albright, Allison, Barbour, Henry Bennett, Benson, Billinghurst, Bingham, Bliss, Bradshaw, Brenton, Buffinton, Burlingame, Jas. H. Campbell, Lewis D. Campbell, Chaffee, Ezra Clark, Clawson, Colfax, Cragin, Cumback, Timothy Davis, Dick, Dickson, Flagler, Galloway, Giddings, Gilbert, Granger, Grow, Harlan, Holloway, Thos. R. Horton, Valentine B. Horton, Kelly, Knapp, Knight, Knowlton, Humphrey, Marshall, Matteson, McCarthy, Meacham, Killian Miller, Morgan, Morrill, Murray, Andrew Oliver, Parker, Perry, Pike, Pringle, Purviance, Ritchie, Sabin, Sapp, Stanton, Stranahan, Tappan, Thorington, Todd, Trafton, Wakeman, Walbridge, Waldron, Cadwallader C. Washburne, Israel Washburne, Welch, Williams, Woodruff and Woodworth.

This is pretty nearly a party vote between the Border Ruffian Democracy and the Fillmoreites on one hand and the Republicans on the other. Two or three Pennsylvanians and Mr. Thurston of Rhode Island are the only Republicans we recognise as voting against investigation, and Humphrey Marshall and Kelly of New York the only men of the other stamp, so far as we observe, who voted the other way. Not only did the Northern Democrats come to the rescue of their brother, but the National Americans, such as Haven, Broom, Whitney, Henry M. Fuller and Scott Harrison, went with them. We were aware of the closeness of the coalition between all classes of men interested in the extension of Slavery, but did not suppose it would extend so far as to prevent these Northern "Americans" from voting to investigate into the fact of an alleged murder by one of the members of the House. Perhaps the fact that the murder was committed upon an Irishman had some weight with them.—Boston Telegraph.

Morning Chronicle.

THURSDAY, MAY 22, 1856.

A Pair of Prospects.—The Richmond, Va., Whig cyphers out a majority of votes for Mr. Fillmore; and then says:—

Taking it altogether, we look upon this estimate as pretty fair. The friends of Fillmore, therefore, have a right to feel encouraged. Their chances are at least ten-fold better than those of the democracy, as things stand at present. We care nothing much who may be nominated at Cincinnati; we regard one candidate just about as formidable as another. With proper exertions, Fillmore can beat any man they may put forth—and that is enough.

Don't laugh, good reader, but keep your countenance and read what the Mobile, Ala., Sentinel, says of the Democratic National Convention.

This convention will assemble under almost the responsibilities of an electoral college.—For it is as certain as anything human can be, that its choice of a candidate will be the Chief Magistrate of the Union for the next four years. We hold it to be quite certain that one of the three prominent statesmen—Messrs Pierce, Douglas, or Buchanan—upon whom the eyes of the country have rested, will be the nominee of the body. It is fortunate that in such a choice the Republic can suffer no detriment.

Save the Union!—The Charlestown, S. C., Standard says:

We believe that the Union will be temporarily prolonged by the introduction of Slavery into Kansas, but we believe it might be extended to an indefinitely distant period by the measure we propose—(the restoration of the Slave trade.) With the certainty of turning the balance of political power, we would have little motive to a dissolution; while the stability and repose to the North from the predominance of Slave power in the government, would counterbalance any inclination they might have to leave us.

Will not all the free men of New England speak at once in favor of this project to restore the slave trade? And will they not rejoice at the privilege of being governed and kept in the Union, by the predominance of the slave power?

What a flattering prospect! Yet it is offered, we dare say, in earnest.

A man named William Smith, from New York, while intoxicated, on Thursday, attempted to shoot a young man in Jersey City. The young man had merely looked at him, when Smith presented the pistol to his breast and pulled the trigger. It fortunately missed fire, and he was immediately arrested.

Protection (says the Trenton Reformer) is the ostensible object of government, and constitutions and laws are framed to secure that object, but what protection can there be in any community that encourages rum-selling. There is not a citizen exempt from danger of deadly assaults like that recorded above while a band of conspirators against the public safety are continually at work changing men into devils—ready at any moment to do murder.

Reform.—The Newburyport Herald says;

The descent of the Police upon one of the dens at the northend, one night last week, and the capture of a couple of indiscreet women and fast young men, is said to have created a sensation elsewhere—since it is understood to have been done by the advice of the Mayor and Aldermen; and the like action may be expected in other quarters, and upon unlicensed transactions of a different character.—The invaded premises the other night, had been notorious for two years—but not more so than some of the gambling and drinking 'hells,' that are owned by respectable landlords, where young men are ruined, to the great distress of their friends and the untold grief of their families, every day.

This we understand to be an approval of law enforced, and a call for more of it. This is exactly what penal laws can do, viz. they can be a terror to evil doers. So all our penal laws ought to be.

Effects of Liquor.—A female named Margaret Leman, was arrested in commercial street, Boston, Saturday night, while in a state of intoxication. She was taken to the Hanover street Station House, and while there was seized with delirium tremens. She was taken to her home by her husband, and there confined, but managing to escape was again placed in confinement in the Station House.

On Friday, in the same city, the officers arrested an Irishman named Thomas Kennedy, charged with making an attempt to commit a rape on Catharine O'Hara, a girl nine years of age. The attempt was made in the house where the girl lived, and her screams brought assistance. Kennedy was intoxicated at the time. He was committed in default of $3000 bail.

New Platform.—The Independent Democrat ironically proposes the following preamble and resolution.

Whereas, Mr. Herbert, M. C. from California, has been most grossly abused by the "black-republican-abolition-Hindoo-fanatics" of the country, for his recent display of prowess in "subduing" a foreigner, therefore

Resolved, That the "Constitutional rights of the South," and the "preservation of the Union," demand that the shooting of "caddies" shall be freely tolerated throughout the land, and that we will "crush out" all impudent fanatics who dare to question this salutary and "Constitutional right."

An Eccentric Minister.—A writer of "Historical Memoranda," in the Dover Enquirer, tells of the organization of a Church at Durham, in 1718, at which time a Mr. Hugh Adams was ordained,—though he commenced preaching there in 1716. He says, Mr. Adams was a good and pious man, tradition tells us, but knew a thousand times more about scripture than human nature.—This, with the peculiar habits of the people as to harmony, caused him no little difficulty during his ministry, and finally brought it to an abrupt termination. A curious petition of his to the General Assembly in 1738, complaining of the delinquencies of his people, is still preserved; in this he represents Durham "as an Achan in the camp; and as the seven sons of Saul in the days of King David; and as Jonah in the ship of the Commonwealth of the Province;" he prays for justice to himself, and also that neglect to pay a minister may be made penal as in Massachusetts, which he considered the principal reason why that Province had been "proportionally spared from the throat pestilence, and other impoverishing, more than New Hampshire.

He informed the assembly also of his power in prayer, specifying how that being provoked by the injustice of his people and their robbing him of £50 addition to his salary, he prayed three months before harvest, that it might not rain; and it did not rain for three months, when he was coaxed out of his position and "appointed and conscientiously sanctified a church fast from evening to evening, and abstained three meals from eating, drinking, and smoking anything." And the rain came, and they had, in answer, considerable of a harvest after all. He wound up by begging for justice, expressing his full conviction that after he had got it, God would be entreated for New Hampshire.

As might be supposed, Mr. Adams was a man of some self-complacency. Once, in praying for a sick person, who had desired the prayers of the congregation, he prayed very earnestly that the man might prepared to die, "for," said he, "we, O Lord, who are skillful, know there is no possibility of his recovery."

In making "the prayer" at a ministerial association which met at Portsmouth, he introduced the horses mentioned in the Revelations; but becoming suddenly embarrassed with the "white horse" he closed very abruptly; one of his brethren afterwards observed to him that at his time of life, he should be particularly cautious in mounting strange horses, if he would avoid a fall.

An ecclesiastical council assembled in 1739, and dismissed him; they censured him for the petition alluded to above, and were "of opinion that it would not be for the honor of Christ, or the interest of religion, nor any way answer the great ends of his ministry in this place for him to continue any longer in it." He remained in Durham, though dismissed from the ministry, and he retained the confidence and affection of many of his people and a good deal of influence in the town.

Kansas.—Shannon has enlisted and organized Buford's men as "Kansas Militia," and of course taken them into the pay of the United States, they having no disposition to work, and the Missourians being tired of supporting them. But these fellows went to Kansas merely to fight the free state men. A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing at Lawrence, May 10, says:

"Yesterday Gov. Reeder was invisible all day, and to day it is rumored that he has gone or is going East at the urgent request of friends of peace, who dont wish hostilities precipitated. Reeder having taken the position that he would not allow those petty writs to be served on him, the matter is brought to a direct issue, and as the people here would have stood to him and defended him if necessary, hostilities were, at least, probable."

Further from Kansas.—St. Louis, May 20.—A steamer arrived here last night from St Josephs on Friday 16th, bringing intelligence that large numbers had responded to the proclamation of Gov. Shannon and the U. S. Marshal, and a battle was anticipated shortly. 600 men were assembled at Lecompton, and 400 at Franklin. A large company was to leave Kickapoo on Saturday for Lecompton, with two cannon. They are all well armed and provisioned.

It is reported that ex-Gov. Reeder succeeded in making his escape, carrying away with him a considerable amount of funds, belonging to friends.

The Vigilance Committee of Kansas City on Saturday took off from the steamer Arabia a large field-piece consigned to Lawrence.

The Bentonian Democrats of the 5th Congressional District of Missouri, have nominated F. P. Blair, Jr., as their candidate for Congress, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the decease of Mr. Miller.

G. W. Ingalls, leader of the Concord Brass Band, was presented, last week, with a German Silver Cornet, by some of his fellow-citizens. It is a beautiful instrument, and was manufactured by Isaac Fisk, of Worcester, Mass, who has manufactured a set of instruments for Dodsworth's Band.

A man named William Wales, from Claremont, New Hampshire, hang himself in New Bedford, on Monday morning. He was about 55 years old, and unmarried.

☞ The Hughes Telegraph Instrument is said to be completed, and promises great results. This invention may be called a printing press and telegraph instrument combined,—for it prints all messages in plain Roman capitals with unerring correctness, and at an almost incredible rate of speed, in the ordinary dispatch of business of from 20 to 25,000 letters per hour.

In the Newburyport Police Court, Tuesday morning, Joseph H. Colby indignantly denied he was drunk on Monday evening, but the testimony of three watchmen was too much for him. In want of $6 31, he was sent to jail. Mr. John Conant, of Ipswich, was not aware that he had been inebriated, but Capt. Young refreshed his memory; not being able to raise $6 09, he was sent to Ipswich three months. George Armstrong acknowledged that he was very drunk on Monday night, and also that he was a common drunkand.—He was put down for six months in the House of Correction.

Our Consul at Panama has forwarded to Washington a mass of evidence concerning the late riots, tending to show the deliberate criminality of the passengers.

HAYDEN'S IMPROVED VEGETABLE PURGATIVE PILLS.

The following letter from Rev. J. F. Manning, of Birmingham, England, a missionary of the Gospel, is worthy of particular mention:

Bro. Hayden:—Before departing from my native home, across the mighty deep, and leaving this land of liberty, I feel it to be a duty which I owe to you and suffering humanity, to say one word in favor of your Pills. Two years ago, when I came among you, I was taken with ship fever (so called), and, when hovering on the brink of eternity, a friend advised me to use your Pills; I, as a last resort, I did so, and, thanks to you and an overruling Providence, I recovered almost immediately. Yours, with grateful feelings,

JOHN F. MANNING.

"If you are Coming, Why don't you Come along?"

THAT is the "mot" now-a-days. Every locomotive on every Railroad shrieks it. It is daily rapped out on every Telegraphic Line in the country. The echoing blows of our Ship Carpenters hourly exemplify it. The smith at his anvil hammers it out. The clanking Press with breathless haste, sends the cry home to every family—"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"

It is uttered in an hundred tongues in a hundred lands. It has sounded like a slogan through the political world, and the "Old Fogies" are creeping along among the baggage wagons and the wounded. Thought, that moved at a funeral pace, now rushes on a tremendous charge; and all the old remedies for Liver Complaint have given way for

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—Six paces to the front, is the word to everybody and everything that wants to be listened to or looked at. If you have anything to do, do it; if you wish any person to see anything, show it; if you have anything to be cured, CURE IT WITH

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you have a Bottle of Holman's Bitters in your house, you need not suffer from

Billiousness, Weakness at the Stomach, Indigestion, Heartburn, Lowness of Spirits,

Nor any of the diseases incident to the season.

It used to take six men to make a pin; now one boy, a pull, a clip, and two strokes, and that's the way the pins are made. Once it took a Physician, lots of precious time, and quantities of nauseous drugs to cure some simple disease of the Blood.—Now, a quarter expended in

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS

Brings Life and Health, flowing spirits and rosy cheeks.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you are sick and weak, why don't you cure yourself? Here we offer you the article that will do it—there is no mistake about it. Every body knows about HOLMAN'S BITTERS; they have been tried and have "toed the mark straight."

They are a good medicine; they are better than anything else for all Spring Complaints; they are just the best Bitters that can be bought—and that's the best thing we can say about them. "If you are coming, why don't you come along," before they are all gone?

LOCAL.

SHIP LOST.—By the arrival of the Canada, news is received that the American ship S. C. Thwing, with 5000 bales of cotton, is totally wrecked at Lessoe in the Baltic.

She was built at this port, about a year ago, and is owned by Capt. Daniel Marcy and others of this city.

☞ Sch. Emerald, Small, from Rockland, with a cargo of lime, beating up our harbor on Wednesday, ran afoul of the Beacon, and sunk immediately. Her sails and rigging were taken off, and the hull may be saved;—but the cargo is a total loss.

The vessel and cargo were owned by Capt. Small, and were uninsured.

☞ We find it almost impossible to accomodate all the advertisements which apply for insertion in the DAILY CHRONICLE. We hope to have more room, by enlarging our borders, in a few months; and, till then, can promise the favors of yearly advertisers but a few insertions each. We should have enlarged our sheet ere this, but for the great advance in the price of stock and labor within two or three years.

MUSIC IN EPPING.—Messrs. Editors.—As you frequently allude to the musical performances in this vicinity, allow me to make mention of the pleasure I received last Sabbath afternoon, in listning to the rehersal of the stringed instrument orchestra in Epping. It is gratifying to one to notice that Epping sustains the oft-repeated assertion that "it takes the lead in sacred music." With no incentive other than self-improvement, a small choir meet and practice each Sabbath after noon, the classical music of the best masters, with the organ and orchestral accompaniment for each instrument. Their performances elicit praise from those who can appreciate cultivated tastes, and we hope soon to hear them in Concert. SWAMSCOT.

We cheerfully give place to the above very complimentary notice; and should like to have a taste of the sacred music ourselves.—If a Choir and Orchestra as good as "Swamscot" tells off, will come down here and give a Concert, we'll guarantee Portsmouth will fill a house for them.

7 DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE CANADA.

HALIFAX, May 20.

The steamship Canada, from Liverpool shortly after 1 P. M., of Saturday, 10th inst., arrived at this port at 8 1-2 o'clock this evening.

The clipper ship Racer has gone ashore at Arklow bank, and will probably be a total wreck; all the passengers and crew, over 500, were saved.

Great Britain.—The Queen held a court at Buckingham Palace on Thursday, the 7th, for the purpose of receiving addresses on the peace, from the Houses of Lords, Commons, and the city of London. The deputations came in great state, and numbered nearly 100 persons. The Queen's reply briefly acknowledged the addresses, and expressed satisfaction that the peace is re-established on a basis that affords security for its permanency.

May 29th is to be the holiday throughout Britain to celebrate the peace.

The regiment of German Yagers at Plymouth raised a mutiny. The ringleaders were arrested; they complain that the drill is too severe, and that they only enlisted to the end of the war.

France.—A bill has been introduced into the Legislature granting 400,000 francs for the baptism of the imperial prince in June.

Speculation on Paris Bourse has reached a great height, and English commercial papers warn British capitalists against it.

Weather has been severe for several days past in France.

Spain.—Arrests of suspected persons continued at Barcelona. The conscription passed off quietly throughout the country.

Holland.—A treaty of commercu and navigation, based on the principles of reciprocity, has just been concluded between Austria and Holland.

Denmark.—The Hanse towns have refused to adhere to the capitalization forced by Denmark, in the question of dues. Considerable excitement is caused by the announcement that an American fleet is on the way to Copenhagen.

Austria.—The synod of Austrian Bishops at Vienna is about adjourning, without having accomplished its objects.

PORTLAND, 21st.—A fire broke out in Poor's Block, on Island Pond at 1 1-2 o'cl'k this morning. The Green Mountain House, Hobart & Chamberlain's store, and a stable were destroyed. Poor's block was 120 feet long, and 7 stories high, and was owned by John A. Poor, Esq., of this city. He had a small insurance on it.

In the Washington Navy Yard, on Thursday, J. R. Nally, a young man of 20 to 21 years, was shot dead by a fellow workman named Daniel W. Jarboe, aged 22. Jarboe accused the deceased of having seduced his sister, and asked if he intended to marry her. Nally's reply is stated to have been negative or evasive, whereupon Jarboe advanced and fired one barrel of a revolver at Nally, the ball entering the left breast.

CONGRESS.

TUESDAY, May 20.

SENATE.—In the Senate to-day, Mr. Seward made an ineffectual attempt to get the joint resolutions relative to the Cape Verd sufferers passed.

The joint resolutions relative to the growth and consumption of tobacco and cotton in other countries, were passed; as also the bill appropriating money for consular and diplomatic expenses.

Mr. Sumner then concluded his speech on Kansas affairs.

Mr. Cass said he had listened to Mr. Sumner's speech with equal regret and surprise.—The Senator from Massachusetts had totally misunderstood and misapplied the case of Michigan. The Topeka Convention showed no analogy between the proceeings in Michigan and those in Kansas.

Mr. Douglas adverted to the malignity which characterized Mr. Sumner's speech, and the many personalities in which it abound ed.

Mr. Douglas said he had been arraigned as a conspirator and traitor, by a man (Sumner) himself guilty of the crime, having taken oath to support the Constitution, and then violated it.

Mr. Mason said—Political relations, in obedience to the forms of our government, bring Senators in associations which beyond the walls of the Senate chamber is dishonor. They were compelled to listen to language here to which no gentleman would lend an ear elsewhere, in obedience to the Constitution. Mr. Mason defended Atchison, whom he was proud to call his friend.

Mr. Sumner said he had just been attacked by three senators. The senator from Michigan must know full well that nothing could fall from him (Sumner) which could possess anything but kindness towards him, and he would now say that his statements regarding Michigan were founded on legal documents, and on the principles of Jackson, Grundy, Buchanan, Benton, and the democratic party of that day; therefore, the attack of Mr. Cass did not touch him, (Sumner), but the old democrats and the democratic party. As to Mr. Douglas, he should leave to him the privilege of the common scold, the "last word."—That senator had the audacity to venture a charge of calumny against him. He had said that he (Sumner) had taken oath to support the Constitution, yet was determined not to support a particular clause of that instrument. To this statement Mr. Sumner gave the flattest denial, saying he replied to a simlar charge in June, 1854, as reported in the Globe, from which he now read, in effect, that he had sworn to support the Constitution as he understood it, no more nor less, and the clause alluded to did not impose upon him any obligation to take part, directly or indirectly, in restoring fugitive slaves; and yet, in the face of all this, calumny had benn extensively circulated, discussed, and criticized by the Senator from Illinois, who had presumed to arraign him; he wished to give Mr Douglas a word of advice,—to avoid expending himself in gusts of vulgarity, and endeavor to obtain that truth which is the handmaid of wisdom, and let him remember that the bowie knife and bludgeons are not proper emblems of Senatorial debate; swaggering and ferocity cannot add dignity to this body. The Senator from Illinois, weltering in venom, had brought forth statements utterly without foundation, heaping upon him personal obloquy. No person with the upright form of man—(Here Mr. Sumner paused.)

Mr. Douglas—Say it, say it!

Mr. Sumner—I shall say it. No person with the upright form of man, can be allowed to discharge from his tongue indecent personalities. The noisome nameless animal, whose nature it is to discharge venom, is not a proper model for a Senator. Will the Senator take notice?

Mr. Douglas—I shall; and shall certainly not imitate you in that respect. (Laughter.

Mr. Sumner—Ah! the Senator again switches his tongue, and again fills the Senate with offensive odor. Then, turning towards Mr. Mason, he cottinued—I would simply say to the Senator from Virginia, that hard words are not arguments, nor do scolds belong to Senatorial dignity.

Mr. Mason was understood to say—The Senator is certainly non compos mentis!—(Laughter.)

Here the war of words ceased. The galleries were densely crowded.

Adjourned.

HOUSE.—In the house a bill was reported, granting land to Wisconsin for Railroad purposes. An ineffectual motion was made to lay it on the table. 69 against 70.

Pending the consideration of the bill, the House adjourned.

WEDNESDAY, May 21.

SENATE.—Mr. Collamer introduced in the Senate this morning a bill providing for testing the Atmospheric Railroad.

HOUSE.—The House passed the Wisconsin Railroad bill—81 to 67.

BALTIMORE, April 18, 1856.

THE undersigned, Commissioner of Lotteries of the State of Maryland, being in receipt daily of letters from all parts of the country, making inquiry as to Lottery Schemes, with which the country is flooded, and which purport to be "decided by the drawings of the Maryland Consolidated Lotteries," takes this method to answer all such letters of inquiry, and inform the public that all Lotteries purporting to be decided by the Maryland Lotteries are gross frauds; that certain parties who style themselves Morris & Co., and pretend to be Managers or Sole Agents for the Grand Charter Lotteries at Cleaveland, Ohio, are impostors, and said lottery a fraud, having neither legal nor presumptive existence; and that another fictitious firm, styled Murry & Co., Cleveland, Ohio, are also impostors, and all lotteries which they profess to be managers or agents for, are also frauds.

RICHARD FRANCE, of this city, is the Contractor for drawing the Maryland Lotteries. The business is conducted under the firm of R. FRANCE & Co., as Managers, and they have no sole agents in the city of Baltimore. CURED BY EXTRACT OF ROCK ROSE:

FARM LANDS FOR SALE.
The Illinois Central Railroad Company
IS NOW PREPARED TO SELL
OF
FARMING LANDS,
In Tracts of 40 acres and upwards, on long credits and at low rates of interest.

THESE lands were granted by the Government to aid in the construction of this Railroad, and include some of the richest and most fertile Prairies in the State, interspersed here and there with magnificent groves of oak and other timber. The Road extends from Chicago, on the northeast, to Cairo at the south, and from thence to Galena and Dunleith, in the north-west extreme of the State, and as all the land lie within fifteen miles on each side of this Road, ready and cheap means are afforded by it for transporting the products of the lands to any of those points and from thence to Eastern and Southern markets. Moreover, the rapid growth of flourishing towns and villages along the line, and the great increase in population by immigration, etc. afford a substantial and growing home demand for farm produce.

The soil is a dark, rich mould, from one to five feet in depth, is gently rolling and peculiarly fitted for grazing cattle and sheep, or the cultivation of wheat, Indian corn, etc.

Economy in cultivating and great productiveness are the well known characteristics of Illinois lands. Trees are not required to be cut down, stumps grubbed, or stone picked off, as is generally the case in cultivating new land in the older States. The first crop of Indian corn, planted on the sod, broken sod, usually repays the cost of plowing and fencing.

Wheat sown on the newly-turned sod is sure to yield very large profits. A man with a plow and two yoke of oxen will break one and a half to two acres per day. Contracts can be made for breaking, ready for corn or wheat, at from 50 to 250 per acre. By judicious management, the land may be plowed and fenced the first, and under a high state of cultivation the second year.

Corn, grain, cattle, etc. will be forwarded at reasonable rates to Chicago, for the Eastern market, and to Cairo for the Southern. The larger yield on the cheap lands of Illinois over the high priced lands in the Eastern and Middle States, is known to be much more than sufficient to pay the difference of transportation to the Eastern market.

Bituminous coal is mined at several points along the Road, and is a cheap and desirable fuel. It can be delivered at several points along the Road at $1.50 to $4 per ton; Wood can be had at the same rates per cord.

Those who think of settling in Iowa or Minnesota, should bear in mind, that lands there of any value, along the water courses and for many miles inland, have been disposed of;—that for those located in the interior, there are no convenient means for transporting the produce to market, railroads not having been introduced there. That to send the produce of these lands, one or two hundred miles by wagon to market, would cost much more than the entire proceeds of the crop. Those Government lands thus situated, at $1.25 per acre are not so good investments as the lands of this company at the prices fixed.

The same remark holds good in relation to the lands in Kansas and Nebraska, for although vacant lands may be found nearer the water courses the distance to market is far greater, and every hundred miles the produce of those lands are carried either in wagons or interrupted water communications, increases the expense of transportation, which must be borne by the settlers, in the reduced price of their products; and to that extent precisely are the incomes from their farms, and of course on their investments, annually and every year reduced.

The great fertility of the lands now offered for sale by this company, and their consequent yield over those of the Middle and Eastern States, is much more than sufficient to pay the difference in the cost of transportation, especially in view of the facilities furnished by this Road, and others with which it connects, the operations of which are not interrupted by the low water of summer, or the frosts of winter.

PRICES AND TERMS OF PAYMENT.

The Price will vary from $5 to $25, according to the quality, location, &c. Contracts for Deeds may be made during the year 1856, stipulating the purchase money to be paid in five annual payments; the first to become due in two years from the date of contract, and the others annually thereafter. The last payment will become due at the end of the sixth year from the date of the contract.

Interest will be charged at only 3 per ct. per ann.

As a security to the performance of the contract the first two years' interest must be paid in advance, and it must be understood that at least one tenth of the land purchased shall yearly be brot under cultivation. Twenty per cents from the credit price will be deducted for cash. The Company's construction bonds will be received as cash.

READY FRAMED FARM BUILDINGS,
Which can be set up in a few days, can be obtained from Commissioner Persons.

They will be 12 ft. by 20 ft. divided into one living and three bed rooms, and will cost complete set up on ground chosen anywhere along the road $150 in cash, exclusive of transportation. Larger buildings may be contracted for at proportionate rates The Company will forward all the materials for such buildings over the Road promptly.

Special arrangements with dealers can be made to supply those purchasing the Company's lands with fencing materials, agricultural tools, and an outfit of provisions in any quantity, at the lowest wholesale prices.

It is believed that the price, long credit, and low rate of interest, charged for these lands will enable a man with a few hundred dollars in cash, by ordinary industry, to make himself independent before all the purchase money becomes due. In the mean time, the rapid settlement of the country will probably have increased their value four or five fold. When required an experienced person will accompany applicants, to give information, and aid in selecting lands.

Circulars containing numerous instances of successful farming, recent, by respectable and well known farmers living in the neighborhood of the Railroad lands, throughout the State—also the cost of fencing, price of cattle, expense of harvesting, threshing, &c. by contract—or any other information—will be cheerfully given, on application, either personally or by letter, in English, French or German, addressed to

JOHN WILSON,
Land Commissioner of Ill. Central R. R. Co.,
Office up to the 1st of May, 52 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Ill.; after that date in the New Stone Passenger Depot, So. Water st. a5 6m

INSANITY.

The greatest cause of insanity is the intemperate use of spitituous liquors. The direct result is to produce insanity. Every drunken man is insane. But beyond this temporary and partial loss of reason and self-control, the habitual use of liquors, especially those that have been adulterated, as most of them are, is to derange the nervous system and disease the brain, so as to confirm and perpetuate the insanity. Thus twenty per cent at least of the insanity of the United States, is from this one cause; and as the liquors are the more poisoned, the ratio is increased. In countries where there is slight intoxication the cases are fewer.

The worse aspect of this matter, however, is that insanity is not only hereditary, but inebriety, also; and thus both the cause and effect are propagated. If there was no other reason in the world why a man should be temperate in his habits, this ought to be sufficient—that the disease of drunkenness is transmissable, and thus the curse may descend to children and children's children, to the third and fourth generations. We all acknowledge this in actual confirmed insanity—and often times on this ground alone business arrangements and marriage connections have been broken off. Not that every child must be insane because its father or mother was; but the liability was so great that others would not assume the risk. Intemperance has been a more common and a less personal evil, and therefore the results have not been so well marked, and the statistics are not so full; but many individual cases can be pointed out; and if the same means were taken, we have no doubt the descent could be shown to be as certain. The old Greeks made their slaves drink, that in them their children might see and be warned of the evil; but the tendency of a father and mother being inebriates, is not to make sober families, but exactly the contrary; and it often happens from the love of stimulus born in them. This sometimes runs through generations, so that families are born to be drunkards; and as drunkenness becomes more permanent, affecting the health of body and mind, they are born to be insane also, until the families become extinct.

A New York writer has recently stated that one quarter of the children under ten years of age in that city, die of hereditary inebriety—or more than 4000 annually. The number increases or decreases in localities, as inebriety advances or diminishes. Thus there are fewer in Italy than in France, and fewer in France than in England, Scotland or the United States. He says: "Dr. Turner, of New York, who has given much time to this subject, believes that in ten years 680,779 persons have died in the United States of hereditary inebriety, and that 20,274 children under ten died yearly of the same disease, or 202,740 in all. The disease produces acute insanity, and then expands into the worst cases of chronic insanity, loss of intellect and an utter darkening of the understanding.—The spread of such a disease over the system is a moral leprosy. It rageth like a fire, biteth like a serpent and stingeth like an adder.

General cases of insanity increased in the United States from 1840 to 1850, at the rate of 80 per cent., and on this ratio there will be in 1890 about eleven millions and a quarter of insane persons in a population of about 244,000,000, or one insane and idiotic person to every 21 inhabitants! Climate, malaria, as in the West, and other causes, bring the disease, but inebriety is the great Pandora's box of the affliction, and even hope is not left at the bottom."

The Newburyport Herald remarks on the above:—The statement given in the above figures may be high, as people who pay particular attention to any evil, are apt to attribute much to it that belongs somewhere else; but if it be half true, or a quarter, it is certainly a very important consideration to those who have children and wish them to be pure, happy and respectable. If the single person may destroy himself or herself, no one who would be the father or mother of others has a right to transmit crime, insanity, idiocy, or any other avoidable burdens upon posterity; and though the above subject is not often presented by the friends of sobriety, yet it is perhaps as strong a point as can be made to the rational man against inebriety.

ANOTHER FEMALE "SEIZURE."—The women of Hanover, Ill., have followed in the footsteps of their sisters in several of the western towns. About sixty of them, led by the grand-daughter of Daniel Boone, "the hunter of Kentucky," a few days since attacked a large building next to the post-office, used as a gambling and drinking establishment, burst the doors with a sledge hammer, broke the bottles, stove the casks, and finished by pulling down the building with ropes. When they had leveled it, they organized in front of the post-office, and resolved,

"That we, the ladies of Hanover, watchful of the character and welfare of our fathers, husbands and sons, will put a decided veto upon the further sales of intoxicating liquors in our town as a beverage, and will totally demolish —as we have done this day—the first liquor shop established in our town."

Morning Chronicle.

FRIDAY, MAY 23, 1856.

THE BARTLET STEAM MILLS, of Newburyport, in sixteen years, have earned $506,000, or nine per cent on an average, annually, upon the capital. $388,740 has been paid in dividends, averaging seven per cent per annum since the incorporation of the company. The corporation employs about 400 hands, whose daily manufacture of cloth, is 7100 yds., consuming 2000 pounds of cotton. One thousand tons of coal and 1800 galls. of oil are used per year. The pay roll amounts to $5,500 per month, or $66,000 for the year.—The number of spindles in operation is 17,320. The success of this company is alone sufficient to vindicate the equality of well-arranged and well-conducted mills with those moved by water.

THE LATE DR. WARREN.—A Boston correspondent of the Portland Journal says,—It seems that no organic disease was found to exist in the body of the deceased, but I learn from a reliable source that it is the opinion of those who had the best opportunities of observing him for some time previous to his death, that the unfortunate condition of his son, Dr. J. Mason Warren,—who is now confined in an Insane Asylum in England,—added to other mental anxieties, was the real cause of his death.

☞ "The Medical Exponent and Gazette of Health, devoted to the diffusion of popular Medical knowledge," is a new quarterly publication, in newspaper form, issued by S. S. Fitch & Co., in New York. Dr. Fitch is widely and favorably known, as a lecturer, writer, and practitioner on diseases of the respiratory organs; and we think the general circulation of his paper would be a public benefit. Price twenty-five cents a year.

BOSTON LIQUOR TRADE.—The longest advertisement of Imported Wines and Spirits, ever inserted in the Chronicle, appears to-day, by T. D. Richards & Sons, of Boston. The getting up of such an expensive notice, to be published out of Boston, taken in connexion with the fact noticed a few days ago, that $300,000 worth of liquors were offered there at auction, indicates that the business there is overdone, and wants vent—as the peace in Europe, and the moral and legal efforts against the use of intoxicating drinks in New England, must affect both the sales and prices.

☞ A correspondent of the N. Y. Spirit of the Times states that Gen. T. J. Wells sold the celebrated race-horse Lecompte, and a bay filly of renowned stock, for $12,500!—Mr. R. Ten Broeck, a noted patron of the turf, is the purchaser. He is also the owner of the renowned racer Lexington; and it is thought that he will take the trio to England, under the direction of the celebrated horse trainer, J. B. Fryer,—for a contest between the English and American turf.

On Thursday, there was sold at auction in Topsfield a lot of live stock belonging to the estate of Frederick Boyden, Esq. Among the animals sold was the fine horse Tippo, which brought $2000. The horse, Tri-Color, was sold for $1500, and others sold at prices varying from $100 to $350 each.

☞ A Citizen, in the Portland Advertiser, says of that city:—

Free trade in liquors seems to have made our usual quiet and orderly New England Sabbath a day of drinking and rioting upon the port of some of our Irish population, and we have seen more intoxicated persons in our streets on the Sabbath within a few weeks past than we have seen before for years.

The police were, as we learn, somewhat rudely handled last Sunday in attempting to arrest persons for intoxication, and the Marshal's Office and City Government House surrounded by a mob in mid-day, that made Congress street far from a fit pathway to the various churches which adorn it. The oaths and imprecations of this motley gang mingled with the sound of the Church going bell.

TEMPERANCE IN MACHIAS.—The Machias Union says that as a Grand Jury panel was about to separate, recently, in Machias, while waiting for business, the subject of temperance and the habit of drinking liquors were discussed. It was proposed, and heartily and readily acceded to, that every member of the Jury should state upon his honor and integrity as a man, what his habits were and had been with regard to the use of intoxicating beverages. Only in two cases, of the seventeen gentlemen comprising the panel, had liquor been used as a beverage for the last year, and only once each; ten others had not used it for six, and others still for ten to twenty years, and one or two for the space of thirty-five years, except for medicinal purposes, and some, even had not for any purpose. The County Attorney was found also to be a strict teetotaller.

DELIRIUM TREMENS.—An Irishman named Michael Reynolds, was found over in Dracut, yesterday morning, lying by the road side, trying to beat his brains out with a stone. He had succeeded in cutting some severe gashes on the top and sides of his head, and was very anxious for somebody to kill him. He was taken to the city, had his wounds dressed by the city physician, and was sent to the State Pauper Asylum at Tewksbury.—Lowell News.

CHICAGO, May 21.—KANSAS.—Dates from Fort Leavenworth of Saturday last are received. Wednesday (to-day) had been fixed upon for the attack on Lawrence.

There is a general reign of terror in the territory. Two cannon had crossed the river at Atchison, destined for Lawrence. Buford's company were enrolled in the militia and furnished with United States arms by Governor Shannon.

The free state men want arms and ammunition.

Donaldson, the United States Marshal, has proclaimed his intention to make clean work of what he has to do this time.

Gov. Robinson is still at Lexington.

The correspondent of the Jefferson (Mo.) Enquirer states that a petition is being circulated in the border counties, praying for the immediate removal of Col. Sumner.

Mr. Brown, editor of the Herald of Freedom, writes that a mob entered the hotel at Kansas city, where he was staying, and dragged off a man whom they supposed to be himself. On discovering their mistake, they returned and demanded him of the proprietor, who refused to deliver him up to them. A company of Michigan emigrants then entered the hotel to protect the occupants. The mob were still surrounding the hotel and gathering reinforcements at the close of his letter—No authentic information has been received concerning his (Brown's) fate since his capture.

The Kansas correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat writes, under date of the 16th inst, that eight to twelve hundred men were encamped near Lecompton.

The people of Lawrence had sent a note to Col. Sumner, asking him to station a body of troops in the vicinity, to prevent a mob from proceeding to sanguinary extremities. He declined, saying he had no power to move without orders.

Mr. Cox of Lawrence, waited on Marshal Donaldson to ascertain if anything could be done peaceably to prevent his monster posse entering the town. Mr. Donaldson said their demands must be complied with; that every man against whom a process was issued shall be surrendered; that all munitions of war in Lawrence should be delivered up, and that the citizens of Lawrence pledge themselves under oath, to implicitly obey the enactments under which the territory is governed. Upon receipt of this, the citizens held a meeting, and drew up a letter to the Marshal, stating that any person acting under him would be allowed to execute a process against any inhabitant of Lawrence, and that, if called upon, they would serve as a posse in aiding the arrest; that there would not now, nor at any future time, be any resistance to the law, and that they only awaited an opportunity to testify their fidelity to the Union and the Constitution. They claimed to be law-abiding, order-loving citizens, and asked the protection of the constituted authorities. The purport of the Marshal's answer was that he did not believe the promises of the people of Lawrence; that he regarded them as rebels and traitors, and that they should know what his demands were when he came.

☞ A Washington dispatch of the 21st to the Boston Advertiser says:

Fresh orders have been issued to the troops in Kansas to sustain the territorial laws at all hazards. Intelligence of blood having been shed, is hourly expected. The President evinces considerable alarm, lest he has kindled a conflagration which he cannot suppress.

SAD DROWNING FROM A FRESHET.—The Nashville, Tenn., Banner, in speaking of the damage done by the recent freshet in that section of the country, gives an account of a melancholy case of drowning of several children. It says:

But the most melancholy result occurred at Lynnville, situated on the Turnpike Road, about fourteen miles north of Pulaski. Lynn Creek, running through the town, rose to such a height on Tuesday morning, and so suddenly, as to destroy almost without a warning, a house occupied by a man named Richardson, situated in the lower part of the village, and within some 20 feet of the main road. The building was crushed in a few moments, the father and mother finding themselves with an infant drifting down the angry torrent, two other children having perished in bed, at the time the house fell

After floating with the wreck about three-quarters of a mile, the whole family lodged against a tree, the father severely injured, the three children dead, and the mother so jammed amongst the drift, as with the best efforts of the husband barely able to keep her head above the roaring waters. In this condition they were discovered a little after daylight, and heroically rescued by a young man named Isaac Bearden, who swam his horse to the spot, declaring his intention to "save them or perish in the attempt." Others finally aided him in the generous endeavor. Such noble conduct needs no eulogy—it is an honor to human nature.

STATE TEMPERANCE CONVENTION.

A Mass Convention of the friends of Temperance will be held in the City of Dover on the 27th of June, commencing at 10 o'clock A. M. The arrangements will be announced hereafter.

NEW YORK, May 21.—The discussion in the Presbyterian General Assembly, (new school) on the subject of slavery, was continued throughout the day, but without coming to any result as to the disposition of the two reports touching the powers of the assembly in regard to slavery. Some members advocated the declaration that slavery is a sin, per se, and a number of Southern gentlemen threatened, in case of such a declaration, to withdraw from the assembly.

☞ Rev. Benedict Johnson, of Exeter, N. H., has removed to West Woodstock, Conn.

NEW YORK, 22d.—The steamer Quaker City arrived from Havana. She brings dates to the 18th. There were rumors in Havana that the Spanish Government are to fit out immediately at that port an expedition, to proceed to Costa Rica, to operate against Walker, in Nicaragua.

It was further rumored that Vera Cruz was to be blockaded by Spanish forces, in order to enforce the payment of certain claims due from Mexico to the Spanish Government.

STRENGTH.—Nothing is more desirable at this season, than a feeling of strength and vigor, and no preparations are so well calculated to impart these sensations as Arnold's Globules and Vital Fluid. The peculiar action of the Fluid strengthens the blood at once.

HAYDEN'S IMPROVED VEGETABLE PURGATIVE PILLS.

BIRMINGHAM, Bordesley, Worcester, July 7, 1847.

BRO. HAYDEN:—Before departing from my native home, across the mighty deep, and leaving this land of liberty, I feel it to be a duty which I owe to you and suffering humanity, to say one word in favor of your Pills. Two years ago, when I came among you, I was taken with ship fever (so called), and, when hovering on the brink of eternity, a friend advised me to use your Pills; I did so, as a last resort, I took them according to your directions, and, through Providence, I recovered almost immediately. Yours, with grateful feelings,

JOHN F. MANNING.

"If you are Coming, Why don't you Come along?"

THAT is the "mot" now-a-days. Every locomotive on every Railroad shrieks it. It is daily rapped out on every Telegraphic Line in the country. The echoing blows of our Ship Carpenters hourly exemplify it. The smith at his anvil hammers it out. The clanking Press with breathless haste, sends the cry home to every family—"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"

It is uttered in an hundred tongues in a hundred lands. It has sounded like a slogan through the political world, and the "Old Fogies" are creeping along among the baggage wagons and the wounded. Thought, that moved at a funeral pace, now rushes on a tremendous charge; and all the old remedies for Liver Complaint have given way for

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along."—Six paces to the front, is the word to everybody and everything that wants to be listened to or looked at. If you have anything to do, do it: if you wish any person to see anything, show it; if you have anything to be cured, CURE IT WITH

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you have a Bottle of Holman's Bitters in your house, you need not suffer from

Biliousness, Weakness at the Stomach, Indigestion, Heartburn, Lowness of Spirits,

Nor any of the diseases incident to the season.

It used to take six men to make a pin; now one boy, a pull, a clip, and two strokes, and that's the way the pins are made. Once it took a Physician, lots of precious time, and quantities of nauseous drugs to cure some simple disease of the Blood.—Now, a quarter expended in

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS

THURSDAY, May 22.

Aldermen.—Voted that a joint committee be appointed to revise the City Ordinances, to be printed in the Directory.

The two Irishmen who were put in the watch house by order of the Street Commissioner, asked for compensation for false imprisonment. They had leave to withdraw their memorial.

Engine No. 6 requested the board to reconsider their vote disallowing their bill; otherwise a suit would be commenced.—Leave to withdraw granted.

An ordinance for the prevention and removal of nuisances, was read and referred. [This was the same as the Mill Pond ordinance of last year.]

A joint special committee was appointed to consider the expediency of celebrating the 4th of July.

Both boards voted to visit the Alms House on Thursday next.

OLD MONUMENTS.—The Point of Graves is our oldest public burial ground; it is now but little used as a place for new burials;—though a body is occasionally deposited there. It is decently fenced on all sides but one, against a part of which there is only a shabby fence.

But there is not a tree in the enclosure, though a dozen elms would grow finely there, and be pleasant and ornamental.

The monuments of the dead are, many of them, greatly dilapidated by time and neglect, and some, we believe, by wanton mutilation in a former day.

We had ocassion, a short time since, to look there for some information which we could not find, and while there, observed that splendid marble slab, which once rested on the Vaughan tomb, was broken in two, and that the pieces lay apart. This induced us to copy the inscription, as we thought it one of the oldest, and supposed it might soon be lost. It is as follows:

Here Lyeth the Body of Margaret the Wife of William Vaughan, and Daughter of the late Richard Cutt, Esq., who departed this Life the 22d January Anno 1690, aged 40 years. Also the Body of Mary, Wife of George Vaughan Esq., Daughter of Andrew Belcher, Esq., who dec'd Feb. 3, 1699, in the 20th year of her age—and ye Daut'r at 3 dayes old & were Inter'd together.

There are some older engraved stones in that yard, however. Digging below the surface where there appeared a little piece of engraved slate, we found a slab of slate, lying horizontally, 3 feet by 2 feet, covered with 6 inches of earth, and bearing this inscription:

Here Lyeth Buried ye Body of Mr. Phillip Siveret, Aged 40. years Dec'd ye 20. of March, 1689.

There is one stone older still; which appeared, at the surface, to be only a mossy piece of ledge;—but on digging at the earth, we found it to be a freestone slab, six feet long, which had been the top of a monument. The tablet was gone, (as is every one from that yard,) but on the freestone itself was cut a latin inscription, of which the following is a part.

Hic Jacet Sepultus, Thomas Daniel, Armiger—Anno—1683.—Aet. 49.

These people, above named, were all persons of some note in their day—but in less than 170 years their monuments have almost perished, as we said, partly by time—but more by neglect, and somewhat by abuse. It would seem to be well, that in some way, by public or private care, and very small cost, the old burial grounds and monuments should be preserved as well as possible.

SABBATH SCHOOL CONVENTION.—At the last anniversary of the Portsmouth Baptist Association, held in Portsmouth, it was voted that a Sabbath School Convention be held with the Baptist Church, in Dover, N. H., on the 4th Tuesday in May, the 27th inst. Rev. S. E. Brown, of Hampton Falls, was appointed to give the opening address. Services will commence at 10 o'clock, A. M. It is expected that each Sabbath School in the Association will be reported and represented. Let a large delegation attend from every School.

☞ The S. C. Thwing was a ship of 1341 tuns, nearly new, and was valued at $80,000. Her freight money amounted to $30,000, which, together with the vessel, was insured in Boston to the amount of $85,000.

☞ The Gazette of Thursday evening, May 22, contains this announcement:

In accordance with previous notice, the publication of the Daily Evening Gazette will be discontinued with the present number.

☞ Mr. G. R. Russell, an accomplished penman, has exhibited to us an elegant lithograph engraving of 24 by 30 inches, comprising the Declaration of Independence, in the centre of which is an accurate full length view of Gen. Washington. The original draft for this engraving was made by Mr. Russell entirely with his pen; and it is an evidence of his industry and skill in the art of penmanship. The fine effort must meet with an extensive sale. Mr. Russell intends to visit this city shortly for the purpose of presenting his picture to our citizens.

CONGRESS.

WEDNESDAY, May 21.

SENATE.—Mr. Collamer introduced in the Senate this morning a bill providing for testing the Atmospheric Railroad.

The bill granting the right of pre-emption in certain cases to the Indiana yearly meeting of the Society of Friends was passed.

Mr. Benjamin stated his reasons why the Senate should pass the bill making appropriation for removing obstructions at the mouth of the Mississippi, the objections of the President to the contrary notwithstanding. He adverted to the fact that the President had vetoed the general River and Harbor Bill, at the same time intimating he would approve of separate bills making appropriations for many of those works. This bill was drawn up in compliance with that suggestion, and was eminently national in its character. The President had now changed his principles, and he believed the judgment of the American people is against that of the President.

Mr. Toombs approved of the President's course, and said he desired to defend it at length.

The subject was postponed till to morrow.

A communication was received from the President, furnishing additional documents relative to the British recruitments, involving the question of veracity between Mr. Buchanan and Lord Palmerston.

HOUSE.—The House passed the Wisconsin Railroad bill—81 to 67.

Mr. Cobb of Alabama, from the Committee on Public Lands, reported a bill granting about a million acres of land to Alabama for five railroads, connecting with Georgia and Tennessee lines. Passed by 13 majority.

Mr. Bliss made an anti-slavery speech. Adjourned.

THURSDAY, 22d.

HOUSE.—In the House, eulogies were delivered on the character of Mr. Miller, recently deceased, and the House adjourned.

I. D. RICHARDS & SONS.

SUICIDE OF A BOY.—A boy killed himself under extraordinary circumstances at Sheffield. He was 12 years of age. He was the son of respectable parents, and was found drowned in a canal. The boy's father, who had always treated him kindly, chastised him for some fault. Two hours afterwards, the lad left his home and was not heard of by his parents till his body was found in the canal. After he left his home, his mother found on the chimney piece, amongst a number of letters, a paper containing the following lines:

"Art thou gone; shall thy steps on the green hills no more Give echoes of music that charmed us before."

And beneath this the deceased had written:

"I am going to drown myself, so you must go to the canal, and you will find me there.—It is for you hitting me."

Another warning, against the too common practice of hasty burials, occurred in Freemont, Sandusky County, last week. Daniel Sterns, Esq., who had been ill with fever for some time, to all appearances died on Friday afternoon. His burial was to take place on Sunday afternoon; all the arrangements were made, and the friends and the clergymen were assembled to pay the last tribute of respect to the supposed deceased, when the body appeared warm to the touch. Restoratives were administered, and in a few minutes the man who had come so near being buried alive was sitting up. He is now in a fair way to recover.

DEATH OF A POLITICIAN.—Died in Malden, May 18th, at the residence of his son, Gen. Wm. Carey, of Amesbury, aged 62 years. Gen. Carey was born in Lempster, N. H., had been a member of the New Hampshire Legislature, and an active politician.—He was a Webster whig, then a Republican, and finally joined the American party. Hon. A. C. Carey, Senator from Essex County in the present Legislature, is his son.

Great American and Foreign Office

Agency for business with U'S Patent Office, Washington

R. H. EDDY,

No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS.—The Subscriber (late Agent of the U.S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages in applying for Patents superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements to have his applications prepared and conducted by him. THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others), will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal thereof by him within thirty days after the rejection.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would abd that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers and Drawings necessary for the procural of patents in this and foreign countries prepared and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, or infringement of patents. All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Copies of claims of any patent furnished for one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington—Patents secured in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries, through Agents of the highest respectability. R. H. EDDY.

Solicitor of Patents.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER OF LOTTERIES.
BALTIMORE, April 18, 1856.

THE undersigned, Comptroller of Lotteries of the State of Maryland, being in receipt daily of letters from various portions of the country, making inquiry as to Lottery Schemes, with which the country is flooded, and which purport to be "decided by the drawings of the Maryland Consolidated Lotteries," takes this method to answer all such letters of inquiry, and inform the public that all Lotteries purporting to be decided by the Maryland Lotteries are gross frauds; that certain parties who style themselves Morris & Co., and pretend to be Managers or Sole Agents for the Grand Charter Lotteries at Cleaveland, Ohio, are impostors, and said lottery a fraud, having neither legal nor presumptive existence; and that another fictitious firm, styled Murry & Co., Cleveland, Ohio, are also impostors, and all lotteries which they profess to be managers or agents for, are also frauds.

RICHARD FRANCE, of this city, is the Contractor for drawing the Maryland Lotteries. The business is conducted under the firm of R. FRANCE & Co., as Managers, and they have no sole agents in the city of Baltimore. There are, however, some forty licensed venders for the State of Maryland, who derive license under him, through this office, to sell tickets in the Maryland Lotteries. D. H. McPHAIL,

FARM LANDS FOR SALE.
The Illinois Central Railroad Company
IS NOW PREPARED TO SELL
OF
FARMING LANDS,
In Tracts of 40 acres and upwards, on long credit and at low rates of interest.

THESE lands were granted by the Government to aid in the construction of this Railroad, and include some of the richest and most fertile Prairies in the State, interspersed here and there with magnificent groves of oak and other timber. The Road extends from Chicago, on the northeast, to Cairo at the south, and from thence to Galena and Dunleith, in the north-west extreme of the State, and as all the lands lie within fifteen miles on each side of this Road, ready and cheap means are afforded by it for transporting the products of the lands to any of those points and from thence to Eastern and Southern markets. Moreover, the rapid growth of flourishing towns and villages along the line, and the great increase in population by immigration, etc. afford a substantial and growing home demand for farm produce.

The soil is a dark, rich mould, from one to five feet in depth, is gently rolling and peculiarly fitted for grazing cattle and sheep, or the cultivation of wheat, Indian corn, etc.

Wheat sown on the newly-turned sod is sure to yield very large profits. A man with a plow and two yoke of oxen will break one and a half to two acres per day. Contracts can be made for breaking, ready for corn or wheat, at from $2 to 2.50 per acre. By judicious management, the land may be plowed and fenced the first, and under a high state of cultivation the second year.

Corn, grain, cattle, etc. will be forwarded at reasonable rates to Chicago, for the Eastern market, and to Cairo for the Southern. The larger yield on the cheap lands of Illinois over the high priced lands in the Eastern and Middle States, is known to be much more than sufficient to pay the difference of transportation to the Eastern market.

Bituminous coal is mined at several points along the Road, and is a cheap and desirable fuel. It can be delivered at several points along the Road at $1.50 to $4 per ton; Wood can be had at the same rates per cord.

Those who think of settling in Iowa or Minnesota, should bear in mind, that lands there of any value, along the water courses and for many miles inland, have been disposed of;—that for those located in the interior, there are no conveniences for transporting their produce to market, railroads not having been introduced there. That to send the produce of these lands, one or two hundred miles by wagon to market, would cost much more than the expense of cultivating them; and hence Government lands thus situated, at $1.25 per acre are not so good investments as the lands of this company at the prices fixed.

The same remark holds good in relation to the lands in Iowa and Nebraska, for although vacant lands may be found nearer the water courses the distance to market is far greater, and every hundred miles the produce of those lands are carried either in wagons or interrupted water communications, adds the expense of transportation, which must be borne by the settlers, in the reduced price of their products; and to that extent precisely are the incomes from their farms, and of course on their investments, annually and every year, reduced.

The great fertility of the lands now offered for sale by this company, and their consequent yield over those of the Middle and Eastern States, is much more than sufficient to pay the difference in the cost of transportation, especially in view of the facilities furnished by this Road, and others with which it connects, the operations of which are not interrupted by the low water of summer, or the frosts and snows of winter.

PRICES AND TERMS OF PAYMENT.

The Price will vary from $5 to $25, according to the quality, location, &c. Contracts for Deeds may be made during the year 1856, stipulating the purchase money to be paid in five annual installments; the first to become due in two years from the date of contract, and the others annually thereafter. The last payment will become due at the end of the sixth year from the date of the contract.

Interest will be charged at only 3 per ct. per ann.

As a security to the performance of the contract the first two years' interest must be paid in advance, and it must be understood that at least one tenth of the land purchased shall yearly be put under cultivation. Twenty per cent. from the credit price will be deducted for cash. The Company's construction bonds will be received as cash.

READY FRAMED FARM BUILDINGS,

Which can be set up in a few days, can be obtained from Responsible Persons.

They will be 12 ft. by 20 ft. divided into one living and three bed rooms, and will cost complete set up on ground chosen anywhere along the road $150 in cash, exclusive of transportation. Larger buildings may be constructed for at proportionate rates. The Company will forward all the materials for such buildings over the Road promptly.

Special arrangements with dealers can be made to supply those purchasing the Company's lands with fencing materials, agricultural tools, and an outfit of provisions in any quantity, at the lowest wholesale prices.

It is believed that the price, long credit, and low rate of interest, charged for these lands will enable a man with a few hundred dollars in cash, and ordinary industry, to make himself independent before all the purchase money becomes due. In the mean time, the rapid settlement of the country will probably have increased their value four or five fold. When required an experienced person will accompany applicants, to give information, and aid in selecting lands.

Circulars containing numerous instances of successful farming, signed by respectable and well known farmers living in the neighborhood of the Railroad lands, throughout the State—also the cost of fencing, price of cattle, expense of harvesting, threshing, &c. by contract—or any other information—will be cheerfully given, on application, either personally or by letter, in English, French or German, addressed to
JOHN WILSON,
Land Commissioner of Ill. Central R. R. Co.,
Office up to the 1st of May, 62 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Ill.; after that date in the New Stone Passenger Depot, So. Water st. a8 6m

THE STORY OF A KING.

DEDICATED TO AN EMPEROR.
BY JAMES NACK.

"WHAT are those people reading?"
Said Frederick, half aloud,
While, standing by the window,
He saw an eager crowd.
High on a wall adjoining
A paper had been stuck;
The people stood on tip-toe
To read, with wonder struck.
One of his six-foot guardsmen
Who heard him, answered "Sire,
Your Majesty permitting,
I hasten to enquire."
Soon, flushed with indignation,
The guard returned—"I see
'Tis an atrocious libel
Upon your Majesty!"
The King took out his snuff-box,
With more of smile than frown—
"A libel, my good fellow!
Well, go, and take it down."
"Yes, Sire"—"Friend, stop a moment:—
You'll take it down, indeed;
But just to place it lower,
So all with ease may read."
'Tis done—around the soldier
Amazed the people stand,
And question of his doings—
"'Tis by the King's command!"
"He cares not what is written,
Or said, by friend or foe,
Content to ask his people,
Are these things true or no?"
They spurned away the libel;
Its words had lost their weight;—
A thunder rolled to heaven—
"Live Frederick the Great!"
Now, this was not the weakness
Of a good-natured fool—
It was the manly wisdom
Of one that knew to rule.
Thou who to France has given
Her former power and glory,
Complete thy own, by taking
The moral of my story.
Trust in thyself and people—
In fines and prisons less—
To make all libels harmless,
Give freedom to the Press!

TEMPERANCE ITEMS.—The friends of temperance in this city are making efforts to secure an increase of feeling in relation to the drinking habits which prevails so extensively. There is need enough of effort among us.—Lowell Ch. Era.

The prohibitive liquor laws have operated to reduce the profits of the hotels, as they have the general business of such places as Dover and Portsmouth.—Portsmouth Eve. Gazette.

His (the President's) habits are strictly abstemious. He drinks nothing stronger than coffee, tea or cold water, and his example in this respect upon those who have attended at public dinners, and on other occasions, has exerted a restraining and salutary influence. I cannot be too particular about this. I feel authorized to say that he does not touch a drop of intoxicating liquors of any kind unless by the prescription of a physician.—Washington Letter to Ch. Times.

We should think that rulers who respect the Sabbath, perform the duties of family worship, attend weekly prayer meetings, and drink nothing stronger than tea or coffee, would be considerably above the average moral standard of the nation; and almost hopelessly beyond the average moral standard of that particular class of politicians who love to assail moral character.—Ibid.

We should think so too; and if we really have such rulers, it is really a pity some of the people were not more like them.

☞ The Portland Enquirer says, "that people will bear a good deal of Prohibition under the soothing name of License. "Reforms never go backward"—though they may seem to do so, for the moment, like the rising tide. The principle of Prohibition cannot be taken out of the statute book, and those who employ their mightiest efforts to overthrow one law that involves it, will find as the result that they have only exchanged one form of restraint for another. They may have better opportunity for evasion—more liberty under a new regulation, but it is a dangerous gift for them, for it is one which they will infallibly use to their own destruction."

Speaking of Brunswick, Me., the editor says:

Several men are preparing here, as many are all over the State, to engage in the rum business. As a matter of course drunkenness with its kindred vices is on the increase in Brunswick. We opine that the students in College will not, to say the least, be so exempt from temptation as they have been for the last five years. If any of these young should happen to entertain Senator Barnes' notions about neutral "rights," they certainly will have an opportunity to indulge their proclivities to their entire satisfaction. * * *

A new society has been organized here, and it is in a flourishing condition. The object of this society is to promote temperance, by moral suasion, and the use of the pledge. It is doing good; moral suasion cannot be dispensed with, neither can prohibition. In spite of all that persuasion can do, if the rum shops are left open, intemperance, with all of its attendant vices will flow on. We cannot dispense with moral suasion, nor with the influence of example, nor with the law. Each will aid the other, and in persuasion, example, and law, we have a three fold power, that cannot be resisted.

WHITEFIELD'S LAST VISIT.

We have already mentioned two visits which Rev. George Whitefield paid to Portsmouth;—and noticed the facts that he preached on his first visit here, at the South Meeting House for Rev. Mr. Shurtleff, and on his second visit at the North Meeting House for Rev. Mr. Fitch. On both of these visits he preached at York for Rev. Samuel Moody.—His last visit here was in 1770. Mr. Adams says: The week previous to his death, he preached four times in this town, and on Saturday, at Exeter.

At this last visit, though Mr. Adams does not name the place, we know from other testimony that he preached in the North Meeting House, as we have conversed with an old lady who heard him there, and saw him enter, not by the door, but by a ladder at the pulpit window.

In the long interval between his second visit to Portsmouth and this final visit, some of his old friends in the ministry had died, viz. Samuel Moody of York in 1747, Wm. Shurtleff of the South Church in Portsmouth in '47, and Jabez Fitch of the North, in '46.—Rev. Mr. Langdon, who was assistant minister of the North Church, with Mr. Fitch, was the pastor in 1770, when Whitefield last preached here,—and it was to be expected he would preach in his meeting house.

At the South Church, Mr. Shurtleff's successor, Mr. Strong, also died in '51, and Rev. Dr. Haven was settled in '52. Of him, Whitefield probably knew nothing, and whether he preached at the South Meeting house on that visit, or not, we do not know. It is not improbable that he did.

Mr. Adams notices Whitefield's last sermon in Exeter, and says: As none of the public buildings in that place, could contain the people, assembled on the occasion, he officiated in the open air; and in the afternoon rode to Newburyport, where he intended to preach the next day. But Providence had ordered it otherwise. He was much afflicted with the asthma, and it was supposed that his exertions the day before, brought on a paroxysm, which put a period to his life and usefulness. No clergyman ever possessed the powers of oratory in a higher degree. His gestures were graceful, "his voice was strong and musical, his pronunciation clear and distinct, his imagination was lively, and his feelings were warm." These qualifications gave him a most absolute command of the attentions and passions of his hearers. He was easy, polite, and engaging in his manners, facetious and pleasant in conversation, and sometimes indulged himself in a vein of satire, where the occasion justified him. His heart was susceptible of the most tender and generous friendship, and he continually expressed his gratitude to the Giver of every good and perfect gift, for the many instances of kindness, which he received from his fellow men. He never forgot the important business in which he was engaged, but embraced every opportunity that was offered to enforce the truths of religion, and the practise of virtue; guarding his hearers against depending upon the flights of imagination, and admonishing them that a holy life is the best evidence of a state of grace.

LETTER FROM KANSAS.

LAWRENCE, K. T., May 12, 1856.

I arrived at Leavenworth last Friday evening at half-past nine o'clock, and after considerable effort secured the privilege of sharing a corn husk mattress, in a small room, where there were only three beds. Our party consisted of five persons, and two individuals had previously taken possession of the room. As we were all very tired, we did not stop to solve the problem of stowing seven persons in three beds, for one of us banked on the floor.

In the morning we found our way to the Hotel and breakfasted, after which we started out to view the town. Leavenworth has now two or three hundred houses; there are many more being rapidly built. The town is located on a river bank, and its level is always accessible to steamboats. The back country as far as the Kansas river (30 miles) consists of a high rolling prairie, and is dotted all over with buildings of humble appearance. As soon as the much vexed question of Kansas becoming a state is settled, these buildings will be without doubt superceded by houses of better pretensions. Eighteen months ago there was only one house on the present site of Leavenworth City.

You have no idea of the rates at which property is valued in this vicinity; no desirable store lot can be purchased for less $600, and six thousand was paid for one on the levee a few days ago.—A gentleman who owns a claim about half a mile from the centre of the city, containing 160 acres, refused $15,000 for it recently. All this is in a region which cannot legally belong to the settlers—as all Leavenworth City and the country around it, is located on the Indian reserve.—Still no trouble is apprehended.

On Friday evening last, a party of fifty men left Leavenworth, stating it to be their intention to sweep Lawrence of every inhabitant. Everybody there was on the tiptoe of expectation, and anxious to receive intelligence from the doomed city. As no news had reached Leavenworth up to Sunday morning, I concluded to go over to Lawrence and see what I could. The wagon (called here a stage) was to leave with the mails. I took passage and arrived here last evening at dusk, I found a crowd of people in the one street of which Lawrence can boast, congregated near their fine Hotel (and really it is one the finest I have ever seen): I soon learned that an attack on the town by 400 Missourians was apprehended that night; sentinels were stationed and every preparation made for war. The inhabitants of Lawrence are drilling and have been all day. Sharpe's rifles are as plenty as flies in June.

I was anxious for A——, who left Leavenworth on foot Saturday, I found him, but he had just arrived. He slept out on the open prarie Saturday night, having lost his way between here and Leavenworth. No prettier country can be found under the canopy, than between here and Leavenworth. I will write again soon.

F. H. B.

THE BORDER RUFFIANS at Washington, are eminently progressive. Herbert, of the House, having killed an Irish waiter, Keating, for being so impudent as to tell him the truth about his breakfast, the House did not expel him,—but there he sits.

Now another man of the House, Brooks, attacks Senator Sumner, and tries to kill him also, for being so impudent as to tell too much truth about the honorable men who conspire against liberty.

Now query,—If it is no crime at all to kill an Irish waiter, what crime can it be to kill a Yankee Senator?

The Boston Chronicle says:

The sycophants of slavery have told us how terribly Mr. Butler of South Carolina punished Mr. Sumner for his speech, in his retort at the close of it. Mr Butler seems to think differently, and hence his nephew Brooks with the assistance of Keitt, stole upon Mr. Sumner while alone at his desk in the Senate Chamber, yesterday, knocked him down and beat him till he was senseless and afterwards. After this who will doubt the nobleness of South Carolina chivalry? We wait to see whether the representatives of the slave power will adopt this as their answer to Mr. Sumner's argument. If so we shall know how to meet them hereafter. If they can afford it, most assuredly we can.

It is stated by the correspondent of the Pennsylvania Inquirer that Mr. Herbert, M. C., from California, who killed the waiter, Keating, at Willard's Hotel, has given to the widow of the deceased a neat house, settled on her a handsome annuity, and provided for the education of her children.

This may possibly be true; but it seems most unlikely.

For the Chronicle.

QUEM DEUS VULT PERDERE, PRIUS DEMENTAT.

Prior to the present session of Congress, we predicted that there would be a commotion in our political elements, such as our country has never witnessed—for there must be a crisis in our history, when the great question must be settled—whether Liberty or Slavery shall triumph.

That momentous crisis is at hand. The oligarchists see clearly that the scales must now turn for or against them, and therefore they vainly resort to threats and violence. The utterance of the plain truth in respect to their unfortunate political condition, they cannot endure. They would silence the champions of freedom in the legislative halls by the bowie knife or pistol—they would put down freedom of speech.

The murder of the Commissioners in Kansas, acting under the authority of Congress, would not be an improbable event. Even now, through fear of violence, they transmit their report, in part, to Congress in a secret manner. But the Almighty rules, and we trust that His outstretched arm will protect the liberties of our beloved country. Our motto above, may apply to the oligarchists. They are "mad."—It may be that God dements them prior to their overthrow.

The attempt to take the life of Senator Sumner, one of the ablest men in the Senate, was premeditated—preconcerted by advocates of slavery—and the consequences will fall upon their own heads.—If anything can open the eyes of the people of the North, this bold outrage cannot fail to do it. It will arouse the citizens of the North to the defence of our free institutions, and the downfall of the barbarous institution will be a natural sequence.—Sixteen millions of Northern freemen will never submit their necks to the yoke of the demented oligarchists.

BODY FOUND.—The Lewiston Advocate says that on Monday evening Mr. Oliver Maxwell, crossing the river, discovered floating on the water near the falls, the body of a man. The body was towed ashore. The Coroner was called and an inquest held.—From the facts elicited, it was the body of Ward Putnam, who committed suicide by leaping from the railroad bridge, on the night of the 30th December last. He was about 33 years of age, of intemperate habits, which, together with a jealousy of his wife, caused temporary insanity.

TUBS AND PAILS.—The Fitchburg Reveille says that the town of Winchenden, in that State is more largely engaged in the manufacture of wooden ware than any other place in the country. They furnish annually 1,560,000 pails, 240,000 tubs, 15,000 churns, and 1,000,000 toy pails—that have a total value of $360,000, or about $100 a day, including Sundays, through the year.

A farmer by the name of Wallace, near Utica, N. Y., while spreading manure, hit his little girl, three years old, of whose approach he was not aware, perforating her skull with one of the tines of the fork and causing immediate death.

A man by the name of John Davis, was found dead in his bed in the United S. Hotel, Newport, on Saturday last. He was thrown from a carriage some months ago, and received a severe wound on his skull, which it was thought was the cause of his death. He was about 30 years old.

HAYDEN'S IMPROVED VEGETABLE PURGATIVE PILLS.

From J. M. Lemman, Esq., a Scientific Chemist.

After a careful and minute examination of the component parts of Dr. Wm. R. Hayden's Improved Vegetable Purgative Pills, I can pronounce them a most excellent combination of medicinal plants, which must exercise the most happy influence on the system, when laboring under the effects of disease. I find them to be composed entirely of vegetable matter, and perfectly free from any mineral or poisonous substance whatever.

"If you are Coming, Why don't you Come along?"

THAT is the "mot" now-a-days. Every locomotive on every Railroad shrieks it. It is daily rapped out on every Telegraphic Line in the country. The echoing blows of our Ship Carpenters hourly exemplify it. The smith at his anvil hammers it out. The clanking Press with breathless haste, sends the cry home to every family—"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"

It is uttered in an hundred tongues in a hundred lands. It has sounded like a slogan through the political world, and the "Old Fogies" are creeping along among the baggage wagons and the wounded. Thought, that moved at a funeral pace, now rushes on a tremendous charge; and all the old remedies for Liver Complaint have given way for

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—Six paces to the front, is the word to everybody and everything that wants to be listened to or looked at. If you have anything to do, do it; if you wish any person to see anything, show it; if you have anything to be cured, CURE IT WITH

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you have a Bottle of Holman's Bitters in your house, you need not suffer from

Billiousness, Weakness at the Stomach, Indigestion, Heartburn, Lowness of Spirits,

Nor any of the diseases incident to the season.

It used to take six men to make a pin; now one boy, a pull, a clip, and two strokes, and that's the way the pins are made. Once it took a Physician, lots of precious time, and quantities of nauseous drugs to cure some simple disease of the Blood.—Now, a quarter expended in

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS

Brings Life and Health, flowing spirits and rosy cheeks.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you are sick and weak, why don't you cure yourself? Here we offer you the article that will do it—there is no mistake about it. Every body knows about HOLMAN'S BITTERS; they have been tried and have "toed the mark straight."

They are a good medicine; they are better than anything else for all Spring Complaints; they are just the best Bitters that can be bought—and that's the best thing we can say about them. "If you are coming, why don't you come along," before they are all gone?

☞ Elder L. Boutell, (formerly a Congregationalist,) will preach at the Advent Chapel to-morrow. House free. Friends are invited to attend.

☞ The Fourth Anniversary Lecture before the Young Men's Christian Association, is to be delivered at the Temple to-morrow evening. The yearly report of the progress and condition of the Society, will be read, as usual. These exercises will be interspersed with singing, by the large choir that has aided this Association at the lectures during the past winter. All singers are invited. See advertisement.

FOURTH OF JULY.—As we have already noticed in our municipal report, a joint special committee has been appointed by the City Council, to consider whether or not it is expedient to "celebrate" the "glorious Fourth," now so near at hand, that if Portsmouth means to do anything on that day, it is time that somebody knew what. $100 is set down in the proposed appropriation bill,—to ring bells, fire salutes, &c.; and if it is desirable to get up more of a show than that, why let us be about it. If not, we can all go up country to 4th of July—for they are to have one in Exeter. A few hundred dollars, judiciously & tastefully expended, would draw as many thousands of dollars, and many more people, here. Who will take hold?

PACING MATCH.—A correspondent informs us that a match came off at Portsmouth Plains, on Thursday last, between "the celebrated pacing horses Skip and Walter"—half-mile heats, best 2 in 3, to wagons. Time,

Skip, 1:21—1:26—1:26.

And he also states that the same horses are matched to go again, on Thursday next, 29th inst., at 3 o'clock, at the same place, for a purse of $25.

CONGRESS.

THURSDAY, May 22.

SENATE.—A joint resolution allowing Dr. Kane, and the officers associated with him in the late Arctic Expedition, in search for Sir John Franklin, to accept such tokens of acknowledgement from the British government as it may please it to present, was passed by yeas 33, nays 4. Those who voted negative were—Briggs, Iverson, Reid and Toombs.

A message was then received from the House announcing the death of Mr. Miller of Missouri.

Mr. Geyer pronounced a eulogy upon him.

The usual resolutions were then passed and the Senate adjourned.

ACCIDENT AT LOWELL.—A young man named James Sanborn was accidentally shot and fatally wounded, on Wednesday afternoon, under the following circumstances:—He was in the employment of Sylvester Crosby, and at work on some land near the city farm, and in the afternoon took a gun with him to shoot a woodchuck that infested the place. Mr. Crosby and another man got out of the wagon, after driving up from dinner, and had gone a few rods when they heard the report of the gun, and looking back saw young Sanborn lying in the wagon, shot. In attempting to get out with the gun it was accidentally discharged, the whole charge entering his side, creating a frightful wound. He was immediately taken to Mr. Crosby's residence on Central street, and Drs. Graves and Kimball were called, who pronounced the wound fatal. Sanborn is about 18 years of age, a young man of excellent habits and character, and came from Bristol, N. H., in March. His folks were sent for and arrived this forenoon.

At 12 o'clock M., to-day, young Sanborn, though alive, was in a dying condtion.—Lowell News, Thursday.

A serious accident occurred at Woonsocket, R. I. on Monday afternoon last, to the lady who performs the feat of walking up a wire in Myers's circus. A sudden gust of wind threw her off her balance, and she fell a distance of some thirty feet, fracturing three of her ribs, and otherwise injuring herself.

DARING OUTRAGE.—Edw. Vallerley and several other rowdies, meeting Mr. Leander Crosby as he was returning to Billerica with a night cart, demanded of him some rum.—Mr. Crosby replied that he had none, when Vallerley caught him by his neck-scarf, and threw him to the ground, the heavy cart passing over his chest diagonally, breaking several ribs on the right side, and seriously injuring him internally. His recovery is considered doubtful. Vallerley was arrested.—Lowell Courier.

THE NEWTON ACCIDENT.—Mary Jane Houston, (and not Heustis) was the name of the young lady killed at Newton on Wednesday. She was the half sister of Mr. William McFarland.

BRUTAL ASSAULT ON MR. SUMNER.

The special despatch to the Boston Advertiser, dated Washington, May 22, 1856, says:

Senator Sumner has just been assaulted in the Senate Chamber, while seated at his writing, by Mr. Brooks, Representative from South Carolina, who struck him a stunning blow on the head with a cane, repeating it frequently. The cause of the assault was the allusions in Mr. Sumner's speech, to Mr. Butler of South Carolina.

The evidence is positive that the assault on Mr. Sumner was deliberately planned last night among a party of Southerners. Mr. Brooks waited at the Porter's Lodge in the capitol grounds this morning, to make the assault, but Mr. Sumner happened to ride up in a carriage. After the adjournment, Mr. Brooks took a seat in the Senate and waited some 20 minutes until Mr. Sumner was quite alone, before approaching him. The latter gentleman was writing hurriedly, penned into his arm-chair and desk. Mr. Brooks approached and called him by name. Mr. Sumner looked up, when the former said:—"I have read your speech twice and carefully. It is a libel on South Carolina, and also on Mr. Butler, a relative of mine." At the same instant, without warning, he struck him a blow which rendered him unconscious, repeating it at least a dozen or fifteen times. Such gentlemen as Messrs. Crittenden, Geyer and Payne promptly characterized it as a cowardly and shameful outrage. This seemed to excite Messrs. Keitt of S. C. and Brooks, who exchanged glances when the latter exclaimed:—"No matter, one will do for you to day." The meaning of this expression seemed to be that they would forbear to assault Mr. Crittenden for his denunciations.

Mr. Brooks's colleagues and a majority of the Southern men justify the brutal act.—Brooks has been arrested, and will have his examination to-morrow. My opinion is decided that the intention was to take Sumner's life, and not one man in a thousand would recover from the effect of such blows. It is contemplated to-night to move to expel Brooks from the House, tomorrow. Some action in the Senate is also designed.

Other despatches give the following particulars:

Mr. Sumner was sitting in his place in the Senate, writing, after the adjournment, when Brooks came up to him, interchanged some words, and then struck him on the head with a large cane. Sumner rose from his seat, but staggered, and was quite unable to defend himself. Brooks repeated the blow a dozen or twenty times, notwithstanding this. He was accompanied by Mr. Keitt of South Carolina, who attempted to prevent interference by the bystanders in Sumner's behalf. Mr. Sumner fell from the effects of the blows, and Brooks continued beating him. Mr. Sumner soon recovered sufficiently to call for help, but no one interfered, and Brooks repeated the blows until Mr. Sumner was deprived of the power of speech. Some eye witnesses state that Brooks struck him as many as fifty times on the head.

Brooks was complained of by William Y. Leader, on whose oath Justice Hollingshead required Brooks to give bail in the sum of $500 as security for his appearance to-morrow afternoon.

Mr. Sumner has several severe but not dangerous wounds on his head.

The cane used by Brooks was shattered to pieces by the blows.

When the attack was made there were probably 15 or 20 persons present, including Crittenden, Foster, Toombs, Fitzpatrick, Murray, Morgan, and other members of Congress, together with Gov. Gorman, several officers of the Senate, and some strangers.—The attack was so sudden and unexpected that Mr. Sumner had no opportunity whatever to place himself in a defensive attitude.—The first blow given him by Mr. Brooks stunned him, and the gutta percha stick which was used by Mr. Brooks was broken into many pieces by the time the assault terminated.

Messrs. Crittenden, Toombs, Murray and others interfered as soon as they could, and probably prevented further damage. The greatest excitement prevailed. Mr. Sumner sank perfectly unconscious to the floor, where he lay, bloody and dreadfully bruised, till he was raised by his friends.

Mr. Sumner's physicians say his wounds are the most severe flesh wounds they ever saw on a man's head, and deny his friends admission to him.

A Washington despatch of the 23d says:

Mr. Sumner is better this morning, and will probably be able to occupy his seat in a day or two. He did not call for help, as has been falsely stated by some parties, he being rendered almost entirely unconscious after the first blow.

A MOTHER.—Died, at Holderness, of old age, Mrs. Elizabeth Drew, aged 91 years, 9 mos. and 23 days. The subject of this notice was born in the town of Lee, June 3d, 1765, where she lived until she was 20 years of age. She then came to this town with her husband, Moses Drew, where they settled for life when this town was almost an unbroken forest, where they have lived in love and unison through life, until within about two years, when her companion was called from labor to reward, and she left to mourn her loss. She has left four sons and four daughters to mourn their loss.—Patriot.

PRINTING.—Thirty years after Caxton introduced Printing into England, it was begun in Scotland, and in Edinburgh it is now one of the most important of all the branches of trade that are carried on in that metropolis.—The first printing-press established in America was set up at Cambridge, Massachusetts, in the year 1638—yet it is recorded that in 1700 there were only four printing-presses in all the colonies. In Ireland, printing was unpractised before the year 1700, and there are few prominent book-making or book-selling establishments in that island this day.

FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—A young man of 19 years, named Perly Putnam, of Lyndeborough, mail carrier between Hillsboro' and Benington, while in the act of coupling cars at West Henniker on the 19th, was caught between them and so injured that he died in about two hours.—Manchester Mirror.

It amused somebody to say that the late personalities that took place between Senators Clay and Hale may be looked upon as an elementary warfare. Hale stormed, and Clay turned into mad.

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER OF LOTTERIES, BALTIMORE, April 18, 1856.

THE undersigned, Commissioner of Lotteries of the State of Maryland, being in receipt daily of letters from various portions of the country, making inquiry as to Lottery Schemes, with which the country is flooded, and which purport to be "decided by the Authorities of the Maryland Consolidated Lotteries," takes this method to answer all such letters of inquiry, and inform the public that all Lotteries purporting to be decided by the Maryland Lotteries are gross frauds; that certain parties who style themselves Morris & Co., and pretend to be Managers or Sole Agents for the Grand Charter Lotteries at Cleaveland, Ohio, are impostors, and said lottery a fraud, having neither legal nor presumptive existence; and that another fictitious firm, styled Murry & Co., Cleveland, Ohio, are also imposters, and all lotteries which they profess to be managers or agents for, are also frauds.

RICHARD FRANCE, of this city, is the Contractor for drawing the Maryland Lotteries. The business is conducted under the firm of R. FRANCE & Co., as Managers, and they have no sole agents in the city of Baltimore. There are, however, some forty licensed venders for the State of Maryland, who derive licenses under him, through this office, to sell tickets in the Maryland Lotteries.

FARM LANDS FOR SALE.
The Illinois Central Railroad Company
IS NOW PREPARED TO SELL
OF
FARMING LANDS,
In Tracts of 40 acres and upwards, on long credits and at low rates of interest.

THESE lands were granted by the Government to aid in the construction of this Railroad, and include some of the richest and most fertile Prairie in the State, interspersed here and there with magnificent groves of oak and other timber. The Road extends from Chicago, on the northeast, to Cairo at the south, and from thence to Galena and Dunleith, in the north-west extreme of the State, and as all the lands lie within fifteen miles on each side of this Road, ready and cheap means are afforded by it for transporting the products of the lands to any of those points and from thence to Eastern and Southern markets. Moreover, the rapid growth of flourishing towns and villages along the line, and the great increase in population by immigration, etc. afford a substantial and growing home demand for farm produce.

The soil is a dark, rich mould, from one to five feet in depth, is gently rolling and peculiarly fitted for grazing cattle and sheep, or the cultivation of wheat, Indian corn, etc.

Economy in cultivating and great productiveness are the well known characteristics of Illinois lands. Trees are not required to be cut down, stumps grubbed, or stone picked off, as is generally the case in cultivating new land in the older States. The first crop of Indian corn, planted on the newly broken sod, usually repays the cost of plowing and fencing.

Wheat sown on the newly-turned sod is sure to yield very large profits. A man with a plow and two yoke of oxen will break one and a half to two acres per day. Contracts can be made for breaking, ready for sowing wheat, at from $2 to 2.50 per acre. By judicious management, the land may be plowed and fenced the first, and under a high state of cultivation the second year.

Corn, grain, cattle, etc. will be forwarded at reasonable rates to Chicago, for the Eastern market, and to Cairo for the Southern. The larger yield on the cheap lands of Illinois over the high priced lands in the Eastern and Middle States, is known to be much more than sufficient to offset the difference of transportation to the Eastern market.

Bituminous coal is mined at several points along the Road, and is a cheap and desirable fuel. It can be delivered at several points along the Road at $1.50 to $2 per ton; Wood can be had at the same rates per cord.

Those who think of settling in Iowa or Minnesota, should bear in mind, that lands there of any value, along the water courses and for many miles beyond, have been purchased of;—that for those located in the interior, there are no conveniences for transporting the produce to market, railroads not having been introduced there. That to send the produce of these lands, one or two hundred miles to a market, would cost much more than the expense of cultivating them; and hence Government lands thus situated, at $1.25 per acre are not so good investments as the lands of this company at the prices fixed.

Those who remain here, are good in relation to the lands in Kansas and Nebraska, for although vacant lands may be found nearer the water courses the distance to market is far greater, and every hundred miles the product of those lands are required either in wagoning or for interrupted water communications, increases the expense of transportation, which must be borne by the settlers, in the reduced price of their products; and to that extent precisely are the lands incomes from their farms and of course on their investments, annually and every year reduced.

The great fertility of the lands now offered for sale by this company, and their consequent yield over those of the Middle and Eastern States, is much more than sufficient to pay the difference in the cost of transportation, especially in view of the facilities furnished by this Road, and others with which it connects, the operations of which are not interrupted by the low water of summer, or the frosts of winter.

PRICES AND TERMS OF PAYMENT.

The Price will vary from $5 to $25, according to the quality, location, &c. Contracts for lands may be made during the year 1856, stipulating the purchase money to be paid in five annual installments; the first to become due in two years from the date of contract, and the others annually thereafter. The last payment will become due at the end of the sixth year from the date of the contract.

Interest will be charged at only 3 per ct. per ann.

As a security to the performance of the contract the first two years' interest must be paid in advance, and it must be understood that at least one tenth of the land purchased shall yearly be brought under cultivation. Twenty per cent. from the credit price will be deducted for cash. The Company's construction bonds will be received as cash.

READY FRAMED FARM BUILDINGS,
Which can be set up in a few days, can be obtained from Responsible Persons.

They will be 12 ft. by 20 ft. divided into one living and three bed rooms, and will cost complete set up on ground chosen anywhere along the road $150 in cash, exclusive of transportation. Larger buildings may be contracted for at proportionate rates The Company will forward all the materials for such buildings over the road promptly.

Special arrangements with dealers can be made to supply those purchasing the Company's lands with fencing materials, agricultural tools, and an outfit of provisions in any quantity, at the lowest wholesale prices.

It is believed that the price, long credit, and low rate of interest, charged for these lands will enable a man with a few hundred dollars in cash, and ordinary industry, to make himself independent before all the purchase money becomes due. In the mean time, the rapid settlement of the country will probably have increased their value four or five fold. When required an experienced person will accompany applicants, to give information, and aid in selecting lands.

Circulars containing numerous instances of successful farming, signed by respectable and well known farmers living in the neighborhood of the Railroad lands, throughout the State—also the cost of fencing, price of cattle, expense of harvesting, threshing, &c. by contract—or any other information—will be cheerfully given, on application, either personally or by letter, in English, French or German, addressed to

A WALK IN THE SPRING.—Nothing can be more delightful to a person of a contemplative mind, than to wander forth to the outskirts of our city, or enter the "green wood gay," at this bewitching and enchanting time, when all creation seems to feel and acknowledge the supreme and overwhelming power of Omnipotence. As he wanders, he here sees the tender sapling, there the mighty oak, while the tall pine trees lift their stately heads, as if to bid defiance to the clouds; if he should enter the woods, under his feet is spread a carpet of flowers, which fill the air with their sweet odors; and as some have loved to imagine which contain the written thoughts of angels or the spirits of departed dear ones, who have often mingled with us in our sports, and joined with us in our accustomed walks. Anon, his ears are filled the while with the melodious notes of a thousand warblers, which almost lead him to imagine the happy spirits of another land were hovering near.

At such a time all perplexing cares are banished—the mind is left free to wander from the present to the future, and here methinks it would be difficult to dream of aught but coming felicity. The mind of the Christian would be drawn from "nature up to nature's God." Yes! he could look round upon all these beauties and exclaim "My Father made them all;" and feel the assurance in his heart that there is laid up for him a crown of blissful immortality in a land far brighter and more beautiful than ought we can imagine or conceive.

Thus a walk in the woods seen through the the medium of a grateful heart, will lead one to find 'tongues in trees,' 'books in vines,' 'sermons in flowers,' and 'God in everything.'

S. W. C.

WASHINGTONIANISM.—The recent movements in this city are still progressing, and men who could not be forced by law, are now voluntarily, and as men, capable of judging and acting for themselves, signing the pledge, and co-operating in the good work of the promotion of temperance.—They are doing great good, and our city bears ample witness of this in its good order and quiet. A friend from Union writes us that the work goes bravely on in that town; and in many parts of the State similar associations are in active operation. We bid them God speed!—[Augusta, Me. Age.

So do we. But do tell us whether these men were sellers! or only drinkers! If, as we suppose, they were the latter, the law did not touch them.

As a menagerie was entering Newark, Oo., last week, the elephant's keeper fell in a fit.—Some of the attendants attempted to take him up, but the elephant would allow no one to touch him, not even the physician called in the case, till the man himself had so far recovered as to request it. While the man was senseless the elephant himself gently lifted him upon a horse, but finding he could not sit there, softly laid him down, and supposing him dead, became furious in his grief. His joy at the recovery was equally intense.—Boston Chronicle.

Our Canadian neighbors are providing for the armament of the militia, with the very best weapons and the latest improved equipments. We notice the landing, from an English ship, of 129 cases of Minie rifles, carbines, swords and pistols, all expressly for the militia, of which a formidable force has recently been enrolled and officered.

Deacon Isaac Snow, of Hallowell, was at Panama, on his way to California, at the time of the late riot, and narrowly escaped with his life, losing baggage, &c. His account of the affair does not vary materially from that already published. He states that the trouble commenced with a drunken man from this State, and ended in a general fight.—Augusta Age.

BEQUESTS.—The will of the late Jabez Barber of Chicago, who, with his wife and daughter were passengers on the ill-fated steamer Pacific, has been opened for probate. His estate is valued at $250,000, and his will makes bequests of $1000 to the American and Foreign Missonary Society, $1000 to the American Home Missionary Society, $1000 to the American Bible Society, and $3000 to the Third Presbyterian Church, Chicago.—A little orphan girl is sole heir to his estate.

Sweet Milk.
IF you would have your Milk nice and sweet, furnish your Milkman with a small Can, which will contain the exact quantity you daily use, and you will accomplish an object that can be reached in no other way. Experience proves that the quality of milk distributed from an ordinary can depreciates exceedingly by the special cost of the recipients of the last few quarts, the cream (if there be any) being always in the upper portion of the can. Cans containing precisely one and two quarts respectively, (standard government measure,) will be furnished to all who may desire, at Chapman's Tin Ware Factory, Daniel street, near the Post Office, Sign of the Big Coffee Pot. MONDAY, MAY 26, 1856.

ASSAULT ON SENATOR SUMNER.

No event of the year has occasioned so deep an impression in the community as the brutal and cowardly assault on Senator Sumner. The New York Tribune's correspondent says:

Mr. Sumner was writing unsuspectingly and busily at his desk, when attacked by Brooks. The Senate had adjourned early, on the announcement of the death of Mr. Miller.

Messrs. Brooks and Keitt approached him, each with a cane. Several persons had been about Mr. Sumner's desk after the adjournment, but at the time chosen for the attack he was alone. Mr. Wilson had just left him, on his way out passing Brooks, who was sitting in a back seat.

Brooks walked up in front of Mr. Sumner, and told him that he read his speech twice, and it was a libel on South Carolina and a relative of his, Judge Butler. Without waiting for any reply, or asking for any explanation, he immediately struck Mr. Sumner a violent blow over the head with his cane, while Mr. Sumner sat in his seat, unable to extricate himself, cutting by the blow a gash four inches in length on his head.

Mr. Sumner had no distinct consciousness after the first blow. He involuntarily strove to rise from his seat, but being fastened by by his position, tore up his desk from its fastenings in the attempt to extricate himself.—He staggered under the blows, and fell senseless to the floor. It is stated by a reporter who was present, that Keitt stood by, and brandished his cane to keep off others.

Messrs. Morgan and Murray, of the New York delegation, were in the front ante-room, and hearing the noise came in. Mr. Murray seized hold of Brooks, who had now broken his cane in several pieces, and Mr. Morgan went to the relief of Mr. Sumner, whom he found prostrate and nearly unconscious. The persons present in the Senate were Mr. Sutton, one of the reporters, the Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms, Mr. Simonton; Senators Crittenden, Iverson, Bright, Toombs, Douglas, Pearce, and others. No one of the Senators seemed to offer to interfere, but Mr. Crittenden, who pronounced it an inexcusable outrage.

Mr. Wilson rushed into the Senate chamber on hearing of the attack, but found Mr. Sumner had been removed to the Vice President's rooms, and a surgeon was in attendance. He then helped to put his colleague into a carriage, and went with him to his lodgings.

We copy some of the comments of the press on the transaction;

A Senator in Congress, sitting in his seat, in the very Senate Chamber, surrounded by all the protection of the Constitution, is assailed and half murdered for words spoken in debate. The floor of the Senate Chamber is covered with the blood of a Senator. The interference, of the bystanders prevented a brutal and cowardly murder; and the assailant is bound over in the sum of five hundred dollars! The telegraph informs us that public opinion in Washington is divided on the subject! Some condemning and some applauding the deed! It is time that the national capitol was removed to a place where there is a different kind of public opinion, and where murder is regarded as a crime.—Providence Jour.

The assault is akin to the war upon the people of Kansas. Together they show how lordly and impudent slavery has become, and must deepen and widen the conviction that the people of the free States must close with it in serious combat in the pending national election if they would maintain not simply their equal rights, but their independent existence as freemen. Kansas conquered, the free state settlers driven out, and the freedom of speech destroyed at Washington, and what, pray, is there left to us?

The Mr. Brooks, who made this assault upon Mr. Sumner, has been burning with fury against Massachusetts and her representative all winter. He threatened earlier in the session to kill Senator Wilson, but, though opportunity was afforded him, he never attempted to fulfil his threat.—Springfield Republican.

We hope there is some error in this report; for if it be true, and "border ruffianism" has been transferred to the Senate Chamber, and the first blow has been struck in violation of free speech, it will awaken a sensation in Massachusetts and throughout the whole country, such as was never experienced before.—Newburyport Herald.

Approaching a man who is unguarded, and utterly unable from his position to defend himself, striking him down at a single blow and before he could put himself upon the defensive, and then unmercifully beating the senseless body, may be in accordance with the rules of South Carolina chivalry, but we at the North have a different code of manliness.—Boston Jour.

Mr. Brooks, of South Carolina, by his cowardly attack upon Senator Sumner, has placed himself in a light, compared with which Herbert, who shot the waiter, appears as a saint.—Boston Ledger.

An outrage so gross and villainous was never before committed within the walls of the Capitol. It is rendered additionally infamous and barbaric from the fact that Swedish bystanders prevented persons who were disposed, from interfering.—Boston Bee.

Under the head of "Ruffianism National," the Boston Transcript offers the following remarks:

The cowardly and brutal assault upon Senator Sumner, indicating, as it plainly does, that no delegate of the free States can perform his whole duty without risk of being murdered, has taken some of our citizens by surprise. We think the surprise altogether superfluous. The act is a legitimate result of the events which have grown out of the Kansas iniquity. The especial cause for national shame in the Kansas matter, is not that certain bullies, ruffians and assassins invaded and conquered a peaceful territory, and imposed on it their criminal instincts as laws.—They did after their kind. But when the National Government adopted the results of the acts of these ruffians, bullies and assassins, and placed the force of the United States on their side, they made ruffianism national. In upholding barbarism, and eulogizing its leaders, the President and a majority of the Senate share in the infamy they support. The crime is not merely against liberty but civilization. Now we believe that no man can stigmatize in Congress such conduct as it deserves, without being made the victim of his honesty and courage. Mr. Sumner's noble speech was in all respects worthy of him, not merely as a statesman and a patriot, but as a high toned gentleman. He retorted on his opponents, it is true, but he retorted on opponents who have scandalously assailed him in the Senate for the last two years. He had already proved himself the superior of such men as Mason, Butler, and Douglas, in knowledge, in eloquence, and in genius.

It only remained that he should prove himself an unsafe man for them to make the mark of their vituperation. This he did so thoroughly that their only answer was affected contempt, and the only answer of their ruffian supporters was an attempt at murder.

We trust that we shall hear no more of Southern chivalry. We can now understand the affinities which these politicians have for their border brethren of Missouri, and why they are proud to "call Atchison friend."—Ruffianism being dominant in the Government, and exalted into an institution, may now dispense with the thin varnish of respectability, with which, in Washington, it partly disguised its essential nature.

MR. SUMNER.—The special correspondent of the Boston Advertiser says, under date of Friday evening:

Mr. Sumner is somewhat feverish, but very weak. Otherwise he is doing remarkably well.

No single political friend of Mr. Sumner is on the Senate committee of investigation, elected under Mr. Mason's proposition for a secret ballot. Strenuous efforts are making by Mr. Brooks' friends to create a public sentiment in his justification. It will be observed that every word of Mr. Sumner's invective upon Senator Butler, was predicated on the remarks of the latter in this debate, and that the former was always polished and parliamentary, while the latter was not so.

For the Chronicle.

Mr. Editor—Coming home to-day from the Reading-room, so filled with accounts of "Capitol and Border Ruffianism" or Sumner's bloody story, and Kansas' terrible condition; I chanced to open a copy of the Scriptures to these remarkable sentences. They graphically declare the career of the amazing policies of the Slavery madness now raging at Washington.

"They remove the landmarks;
They violently take away the flocks and feed thereof. * * * *
Behold! as wild asses in the desert, go they forth to their work,
Rising betimes for a prey.
* * * * *
Men groan from out of the city;
And the soul of the wounded crieth out.
They are of those that rebel against the light;
They know not the ways thereof.
Nor abide in the paths thereof.
The murderer rising with the light,
Killeth the poor and needy,
And in the night is as a thief." [How exact the account.]

In another passage we are borne into that bloody Senate Chamber—

"He also draweth the mighty with his power:
He riseth up and no man is sure of life!
Then we almost read the story of the officers under the safe-conduct of the government;—one chased and shot at, and others captured and cruelly used; in this passage—

"Though it be given him to be in safety;
whereon he resteth;
Yet his eyes are upon their ways."

A few other expressions in the section will be found, doubtless, as true as these are seen to be.

"Their portion is cursed in the earth.
Drought and heat consume the snow waters;
So doth the grave those that have sinned.
They are exalted for a little while, but are gone and brought low;
They are taken out of the way, as all other,
And cut off as the tops of the ears of corn."

Job. 24c. Coit's arrangement.

Portsmouth, May 24. W.

LEFT THE PULPIT.—Meeting a friend on the street, he wished us great success, but regretted that we had left the pulpit. Left the pulpit! Never! Never, while we can do good in it, shall we leave it; at least, this is our present profound assurance.—Bible Times.

There are many instances of clergymen who have left the pulpit for the field of politics. From their conduct in their new sphere it is quite evident that most of them were justified in leaving the old one, by the rule here stated. They left the pulpit, for the pulpit's good. There are some others still remaining in the ministry, who seem to be actively preparing to follow their example.—Eastern Argus.

Any allusion here to Brother Lovejoy?

FIRE.—The Engine House and Freight Car House and Freight Depot on the Boston, Concord & Montreal Railroad, at Plymouth, were destroyed by fire on Thursday afternoon last. Loss $7000.

MORE MORMONS.—The ship S. Curling arrived at quarantine below Boston, Friday morning from Liverpool, with 700 Mormons. All well.

MIXTURE OF RACES.—Some twenty years ago, we spent a winter in the West Indies, and well remember that while scarcely anybody was legally married, nobody was so poor, and nobody so rich or so virtuous, as to be deprived of female society. Taking up the Church Journal, it surprises us to learn that since the emancipation of slaves, matters are even worse in respect to this species of immorality than before. Rev. Mr. Hawley is endeavoring to bring about a reform in St. Croix and St. Thomas, by promoting regular marriage in place of the promiscuous customs now prevailing. His religious superior, the Bishop of Antigua, writes that all previous efforts have sadly failed; that strong remonstrances against this sin are equally needed in all the English West Indian Colonies. St Croix is under the Danes, and a married Dane was almost unknown in the Island at the time we were there.—Hartford Courant.

No doubt the state of things is bad enough. But the statement of the Courant is quite vague and general. The West Indies, of which it speaks from knowledge, seems to be only St. Croix.—The Church Journal ought to be good authority on such a matter — but its statements surprise as much as they did the Courant—chiefly because they contradict all former statements made by other missionaries, which have fallen under our observation.

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE.—A young man in Virginia had become sadly intemperate. He was a young man of great capacity, fascination and power, but he had a passion for brandy which nothing could control. Often in his walks a friend remonstrated with him, but in vain. On one occasion the latter agreed to yield to him, and as they walked up to the bar, the barkeeper said,

"What will you have?"
"Wine, sir," was the reply.

The glasses were filled, and the two men stood ready to pledge each other in renewed and eternal friendship, when he paused, and said to his intemperate friend:

"Now if I drink this glass and become a drunkard, will you take the responsibility?"

The drunkard looked at him with severity, and said, "set down that glass."

It was set down, and the two walked off without saying a word.

The drunkard knows the awful consequences of the first glass. Even in his own madness for liquor, he is not willing to assume the responsibility of another's becoming a drunkard.

A lady in Westboro', Mass., answered an advertisement for a wife, published in a New York paper, and the advertiser, who was a physician, came on to see her, examined her phrenologically, was satisfied, called the parson, and in a few days they started for the west to settle.

HAYDEN'S IMPROVED VEGETABLE PURGATIVE PILLS.

From J. M. Leman, Esq., a Scientific Chemist.

After a careful and minute examination of the component parts of Dr. Wm. R. Hayden's Improved Vegetable Purgative Pills, I can pronounce them a most excellent combination of medicinal plants, which must exercise the most happy influence on the system, when laboring under the effects of disease. I find them to be composed entirely of vegetable matter, and perfectly free from any mineral or poisonous substance whatever.

"If you are Coming, Why don't you Come along?"

THAT is the "mot" now-a-days. Every locomotive on every Railroad shrieks it. It is daily rapped out on every Telegraphic Line in the country. The echoing blows of our Ship Carpenters hourly exemplify it. The smith at his anvil hammers it out. The clanking Press with breathless haste, sends the cry home to every family—"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"

It is uttered in an hundred tongues in a hundred lands. It has sounded like a slogan through the political world, and the "Old Fogies" are creeping along among the baggage wagons and the wounded. Thought, that moved at a funeral pace, now rushes on a tremendous charge; and all the old remedies for Liver Complaint have given way for

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—Six paces to the front, is the word to everybody and everything that wants to be listened to or looked at. If you have anything to do, do it; if you wish any person to see anything, show it; if you have anything to be cured, CURE IT WITH

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you have a Bottle of Holman's Bitters in your house, you need not suffer from

Billiousness, Weakness at the Stomach, Indigestion, Heartburn, Lowness of Spirits,

Nor any of the diseases incident to the season.

It used to take six men to make a pin; now one boy, a pull, a clip, and two strokes, and that's the way the pins are made. Once it took a Physician, lots of precious time, and quantities of nauseous drugs to cure some simple disease of the Blood.—Now, a quarter expended in

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS

Brings Life and Health, flowing spirits and rosy cheeks.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you are sick and weak, why don't you cure yourself? Here we offer you the article that will do it—there is no mistake about it. Every body knows about HOLMAN'S BITTERS; they have been tried and have "toed the mark straight."

They are a good medicine; they are better than anything else for all Spring Complaints; they are just the best Bitters that can be bought—and that's the best thing we can say about them. "If you are coming, why don't you come along," before they are all gone?

LOCAL.

ECONOMICAL.—On Thursday evening, in the City Council, a member, one of the majority, introduced a resolution that the members of the City Council visit the Alms House on Thursday next, and that the City Clerk be directed to procure means of conveyance for the members; which resolution was adopted. This latter provision was never before proposed even by the most extravagant former Councils; the members walking to the House. It remained for the present economical Council to adopt this suggestion. The proposed carriages were upset, however, by the vigilance and economy of the Board of Aldermen.

☞ A pretty canary bird, evidently accustomed to pleasant apartments, flew into the apartments of Mayor Jonness on Friday. The Mayor did not send him to the alms-house, where some other foundlings go, but left him with Mr. Franklin O. Badger, where his owner can find him.

*Elected.

By the above it appears that there is an election in every District, and that the Senate will stand 9 to 3.—Reporter.

FROM KANSAS.—We have letters from Lawrence to the 12th of May, from the most reliable authorities, which contain a distinct history of proceedings and of the events which threaten that devoted city. The policy of President Pierce and his satellites is to introduce, under the pretence of a posse, the ungovernable chivalry of Alabama. Once in the town, they may be expected to throw off restraint, and to do whatever is convenient in their eyes,—destroying life and property, and we shall then be told that the Marshal could not control them. Under these circumstances, we cannot be surprised that the greatest indignation reigns at Lawrence.

These letters explain what has not before been intelligible, who Marshal Donaldson is. He is one of those men of Major Buford's, who has not been a month in the territory.—Boston Advertiser.

Atchison, Stringfellow and Buford, in Kansas—Herbert, Brooks, and Keitt in Washington, seem to be engaged in one cause, and appear much as if they were moved by the same wires and charged by the same hands, like the fire alarm bells is some large cities.

FROM KANSAS.—St. Louis, May 23d.—A despatch from Westport of May 20, states that as Mr. Cosgrove and Dr. Brannon were on their way from Lecompton to Franklin, they were fired upon by a party of Free State men. Brannon was wounded. Cosgrove returned the fire; shooting the leader of the other party through the head. A free state man was shot at Blanton's bridge on the 19th.

It was reported at Kansas City that the people were preparing to evacuate Lawrence, and had called upon Col. Sumner to protect their property.

The towns of Kickapoo, Leavenworth, Doniphan and Atchison, were almost deserted, the men having gone to the aid of the U. S. Marshal at Lawrence.

A gentleman who arrived here yesterday from Jefferson City states that a despatch had been received there, stating that a battle had been fought at Lawrence.

A mass meeting had been held at Kickapoo at which it was resolved to sack the Kansas Hotel, in Kansas City, belonging to Massachusetts men. The citizens of Kickapoo had offered a reward for the apprehension of Gen. Pomeroy, and parties had been sent in search of him.

Geo. Schuyler, M. E. Conway, and the Kansas correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat were arrested at Parkerville on the 8th, while en route from Leavenworth to St. Louis on suspicion of being fugitives.

CONGRESS.

FRIDAY, May 23.

SENATE.—A message was received from the President, returning, with his objections, the bill making an appropriation for the improvement of St. Mary's river, Michigan.

Mr. Wilson rose and said—The seat of my colleague is vacant to-day—for the first time after five years of public service, that seat is vacant. Mr. Wilson described the assault on Mr. Sumner; but made no motion.

Mr. Seaward submitted a resolution, that a committee of five members be appointed by President pro tem. to inquire into the circumstances attending the assault committed on the person of Charles Sumner, a member of the Senate, in the Senate Chamber, yesterday; and that said committee be instructed to report a statement of the facts, with their opinion thereon, to the Senate.

On suggestion of Mr. Mason, the resolution was amended so that the committee should be elected by the Senate, when Messrs. Cass, Allen, Dodge, Pearce and Geyer were elected.

A large number of private bills were then passed, and the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—Mr. Washburn of Maine, from the Committee on Elections, reported a resolution that James C. Allen of Illinois, is not, and Wm. B. Archer is, entitled to the seat now held by the former.

The subject was postponed to the 6th of June.

Mr. Campbell of Ohio, rising to a question of privilege, offered the following:

Whereas, On the 22d day of May, Hon. P. S. Brooks, and Hon. Lawrence M. Keitt, members of this House from South Carolina, and other members, either as principals or accessories, perpetrated a violent assault on the person of Hon. Charles Sumner, Senator of the United States from Massachusetts, while remaining in his seat in the Senate Chamber, and while in the performance of duties pertaining to his official station; therefore—

Resolved, That a select committee of five members be appointed by the Speaker to investigate the subject, and report the facts, with such resolutions in reference thereto, as in their judgement may be proper and necessary for the vindication of the character of this House; and that said committee have power to send for persons and papers, employ a clerk, and sit through the session of the House.

Messrs. Smith of Virginia, Clingman, Craige, Paine, Letcher, and the slavocracy generally endeavored to stave off the proceedings, so as to favor the scoundrel Brooks.

Mr. Campbell was willing to modify the preamble, which he did, so as to read, "Whereas, it is represented, &c.;"

The Speaker decided the proposition to be in order, as a question of privilege.

Mr. Clingman appealed from the decision of the Chair.

Mr. Campbell moved to lay Mr. Clingman's appeal from the decision of the Chair on the table. The motion was agreed to by yeas 85 nays 71.

Mr. Brooks explained and said—"I take the whole responsibility on myself, and state on my honor as a gentleman, that no human being beside myself, knew when the transaction would take place."

[The testimony of a murderer in his own case, and the honor of a ruffian, are of about equal value.]

Mr. Haven appealed to Mr. Campbell, to omit the name of Mr. Keitt from the preamble.

Mr. Campbell assented.

Several members derired him to strike out the words, "other members," but Mr. Campbell refused, saying he had reasons for retaining them.

Mr. Keitt remarked, that as his name had been withdrawn, he would say that he neither knew the time nor place when the act would be committed, and when it was committed, he was behind the chair of the President of the Senate, with gentlemen from his own State, and he did not see the beginning of it, therefore, he had not the slightest preconcert with his colleague.

[Rather a doubtful therefore. It does not follow. Mr. Keitt does not deny that he knew the attack would take place,—he only did not know when or where. He is accessory, before and after the fact.]

The Resolution was adopted, yeas 95, nays 68.

The Speaker appointed the following named gentlemen as members of the committee: Messrs. Campbell of Ohio, Allison, Cobb of Ga., Greenwood and Spinner.

Mr. Allison, at his request, was excused, and Mr. Pennington appointed in his place.

Mr. Stanton offered a resolution, directing the arrest of Judge Lecompte, and Marshal Donaldson of Kansas, that they may be brought before the House to answer a charge of contempt and breach of privilege, in issuing and serving a process against Hon. A. H. Reeder.

The Speaker decided the mation not a question of privilege, and Mr. S. withdrew it.

Various reports were read from the Committees. Adj. to Monday.

The Rev. D. Smith of Durham, Ct., who is about 90 years of age, recently preached at the Capitol in Washington for the Rev. Chaplin Waldo, who is 94 years of age. "It would be difficult," says the Religious Herald, "to say which is the most elert of the two. Young America hangs his head in their presence, and the feeble licentiates of this generation wonder at such vigorous antiquity. The octogenarian looks down on the young men of fifty or sixty, almost worn out in the service."

LIABILITIES OF TELEGRAPH COMPANIES.—The paragraph goine the rounds of the newspapers to the effect that a flour merchant in Hamilton had obtained $3000 damages the Montreal Telegraph Company, in an action for an erroneous despatch, is utterly untrue. FARM LANDS FOR SALE.

The Illinois Central Railroad Company

IS NOW PREPARED TO SELL
OF

FARMING LANDS,

In Tracts of 40 acres and upwards, on long credit.

THESE lands were granted by the Government to aid in the construction of this Railroad, and include some of the richest and most fertile Prairies in the State, interspersed here and there with magnificent groves of Oak and other timber. The Road extends from Chicago, on the northeast, to Cairo at the south, and from thence to Galena and Dunleith, in the north-west extreme of this State, and as all the lands lie within fifteen miles on each side of this Road, ready and cheap means are afforded by it for transporting the products of the lands to any of those points and from thence to Eastern and Southern markets. Moreover, the rapid growth of flourishing towns and villages along the line, and the great increase in population by immigration, etc. afford a substantial and growing home demand for farm produce.

The soil is a dark, rich mould, from one to five feet in depth, is gently rolling and peculiarly fitted for grazing cattle and sheep, or the cultivation of wheat, Indian corn, etc.

Economy in cultivating and great productiveness are the well known characteristics of Illinois lands. Trees are not required to be cut down, stumps grubbed, or stone picked off, as is generally the case in cultivating new land in the older States. The first crop of Indian corn, planted on the newly broken sod, usually repays the cost of plowing and fencing.

Wheat sown on the newly-turned sod is sure to yield very large profits. A man with a plow and two yoke of oxen will break one and a half to two acres per day. Contracts can be made for breaking, ready for corn or wheat, at from $2 to 2.50 per acre. By judicious management, the land may be plowed and fenced the first, and under a high state of cultivation the second year.

Corn, grain, cattle, etc. will be forwarded at reasonable rates to Chicago, for the Eastern market, and to Cairo for the Southern. The larger yield on the cheap lands of Illinois over the high priced lands in the Eastern and Middle States, is known to be much more than sufficient to pay the difference of transportation to the Eastern market.

Bituminous coal is mined at several points along the Road, and is a cheap and desirable fuel. It can be delivered at several points along the Road at $1.50 to $4 per ton; Wood can be had at the same rates per cord.

Those who think of settling in Iowa or Minnesota, should bear in mind, that lands there of any value, along the water courses and for many miles inland, have been disposed of;—that for those located in the interior, there are no conveniences for transporting the produce to market, railroads not having been introduced there. That to send the produce of these lands, one or two hundred miles by wagon to market, would cost much more than the expense of cultivating them; and that Government lands thus situated, at $1.25 per acre are not so good investments as the lands of this company at the prices fixed.

The same remark holds good in relation to the lands in Kansas and Nebraska, for although vacant lands may be found nearer the water courses the distance to market is far greater, and every hundred miles the produce of those lands are carried either by wagon or transported over communications, increases the expense of transportation, which must be borne by the settlers, in the reduced price of their products; and to that extent precisely are the incomes from their farms, and of course on their investments, annually and every year reduced.

The great fertility of the lands now offered for sale by this company, and their consequent yield over those of the Middle and Eastern States, is more than sufficient to pay the difference in the cost of transportation, especially in view of the facilities furnished by this Road, and others with which it connects, the operations of which are not interrupted by the low water of summer, or the frosts of winter.

PRICES AND TERMS OF PAYMENT.

The Price will vary from $5 to $25, according to the quality, location, &c. Contracts for Deeds may be made during the year 1856, stipulating the purchase money to be paid in five annual installments; the first to become due in two years from the date of contract, and the others annually thereafter. The last payment will become due at the end of the sixth year from the date of the contract.

Interest will be charged at only 3 per ct. per ann.

As a security to the performance of the contract the first two years' interest must be paid in advance, and it must be understood that at least one tenth of the land purchased shall yearly be put under cultivation. Twenty per cent. from the credit price will be deducted for cash. The Company's construction bonds will be received as cash.

READY FRAMED FARM BUILDINGS,
Which can be set up in a few days, can be obtained from Responsible Persons.

They will be 12 ft. by 20 ft. divided into one living and three bed rooms, and will cost complete set up on ground chosen anywhere along the road $150 in cash, exclusive of transportation. Larger buildings may be contracted for at proportionate rates The Company will forward all the materials for such buildings over the Road promptly.

Special arrangements with dealers can be made to supply those purchasing the Company's lands with fencing materials, agricultural tools, and an outfit of provisions in any quantity, at the lowest wholesale prices.

It is believed that the price, long credit, and low rate of interest, charged for these lands will enable a man with a few hundred dollars in cash, and ordinary industry, to make himself independent before all the purchase money becomes due. In the mean time, the rapid settlement of the country will probably have increased their value four or five fold. When required an experienced person will accompany applicants, to give information, and aid in selecting lands.

Circulars containing numerous instances of successful farming, signed by respectable and well known farmers living in the neighborhood of the Railroad lands, throughout the State—also the cost of fencing, price of cattle, expense of harvesting, threshing, &c. by contract—or any other information—will be cheerfully given, on application, either personally or by letter, in English, French or German, addressed to

TUESDAY, MAY 27, 1856.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

In the Portland Argus, a correspondent characterises the attack on Sumner, as "most diabolical and cowardly, meriting the severest penalty of the law." He goes on to say:

There can be no excuse for it. Personal assault is brutal at any time and under any circumstances. But to strike a man unarmed, unexpectant, and non-resistant, is the meanest act of which any one pretending to be a man, can be capable. We say "pretending to be a man"—for there is no element of true manhood in it. He who gave the blow, should be classed with the vilest of reptiles.

We trust that the Senate of the United States will take prompt and efficient measures touching this matter; for it is not only a dastardly assault upon one of its members, who should be protected in his privilege of speech, but it is a deadly blow at the freedom of Senatorial debate.

We hope, also, that the court before whom the person committing the assault shall be tried, will see to it that he receive his full desert. It is a national affair, and the nation will demand justice on the perpetrator.

We are far from extenuating the inflammatory and seditious speech which instigated the attack. If we may judge at all of it from the remarks at its conclusion and in condemnation, made by the venerable Cass, portions of it were deserving of the severest censure—unworthy of a Senator or of the Senate chamber—but the freedom of debate is too deeply cherished, and lies too near the foundation of our institutions, to be struck at or curtailed by every ruffian who can swing a club. It is therefore an offence of which every person in the country is emphatically called upon to express their utter detestation.

The Portland Advertiser says:

The remarks made by Mr. Sumner, in his speech, in relation to Mr. Butler and South Casolina, could afford no justification for any such proceeding. Their severity consisted in their truth, and he forbore to tell even half the truth. This matter may, perhaps, be better understood, when it is known that Mr. Butler is not unfrequently under the evident excitement of liquor, even in his seat at the Senate Board, and makes speeches and exhibitions of himself not at all creditable either to him or the body of which he is a member—and the remarks of Mr. Sumner were not only strictly true, but were not half as severe as have often been indulged in on the other side without truth or justice to sustain them.

It would seem as if the reign of terror and violence which is now spread over Kansas, is also to be attempted at Washington. It looks as if not only the pens of editors, but the mouths of our Representatives and Senators, are to be silenced by canes, bowie-knives and pistols. Very well. The sooner we understand this, the better. If violence must come, it may be well for Northern men to know how to defend themselves.

We hope, for the credit of humanity, that every man in the Free States, without regard to party, will feel this outrage as a personal indignity, no less than an insult to the Free States. It is a perfect manifestation of the very essence and spirit of slavery, which can be met and conquered only by resistance.

The Boston Telegraph says:

Mr. Butler is notorious for his intemperate habits, and it is a common saying that he has not been perfectly sober for thirty years. We have been told that at dinner parties in Washington he not unfrequently makes use of language that would forever debar him from respectable society in New England. He was the intimate friend of Atchison and lived in the same house. He has several times assailed Mr. Sumner and Massachusetts with language which even drunkenness furnishes no apology for. So much for the mild and gentlemanly Butler.

Mr. Butler's nephew, Brooks, the assaulter, is also said to be a drunkard. This goes far towards explaining the whole thing. Drunken chivalry is capable of the meanest, as well as the most actrocious acts.

The Boston Post says;

Irritated by Mr. Sumner's attack on his absent uncle, Senator Butler of South Carolina, young Mr. Brooks, according to the telegraph, went into the Senate Chamber and assaulted the orator in his seat. The act was ill-advised and unfortunate, as it will please nobody so much as the black republicans.

Simply "ill advised and unfortunate" is it? it was not prudent; but it must be excused on the ground that "young Mr. Brooks" could not be expected to be as prudent as older men.

The "young Mr. Brooks" in question is something over thirty years old, and about six feet high. The Transcript is happy to say that he is no relation to the Brooks family in this section of the country.

This fellow threatened last winter to kill Senator Wilson, but postponed the attempt, because it was said, perhaps not truly, that Wilson went armed.

Such ruffians and all their abettors and employers, should be put down by the the people rising in their might.

The following sarcastic paragraph is from the Courier and Enquirer.

The Right Man in the Right Place.—We nominate Tom Hyer for Congress. We are ambitious that the Fourth District of New York should be represented more respectably than the Fourth District of South Carolina. It is not to be endured that such an artist as Preston S. Brooks should be the champion of the Congressional ring. True he 'travels on his muscle' splendidly. He is a regular bruiser. But he lacks chivalry. He takes advantage. When he 'sails in' he does it like a coward. He is worse than Yankee Sullivan. 'Yankee,' ungentlemanly as he was, never 'sailed in' unless the man was on his feet, and had some notice. The late lamented William Poole would have treated Preston S. Brooks as a trickish, dastardly, despicable bully—a disgrace to 'the noble art of self defense.'—Brooks must be made to respect the laws of the ring; and Mr. Hyer is just the man to accomplish this.

One of the wisest democrats in this city, says Brooks is a fool for making this attack,—as it will work badly.

We hope the people will understand, that Rust, and Herbert, and Brooks, are all allied in the same "holy league" which tried to crush out freedom in Massachusetts, and are now trying the same in Kansas.

VOICE OF BOSTON.—The intense feeling in Boston, produced by the deliberate and malicious attack of the slave power upon Senator Sumner, has been expressed in a great public meeting, of which the Boston papers give an extended account, but of which we can give but a brief notice.

A meeting of five thousand or more citizens was held in Faneuil Hall on Saturday evening, the throng crowding every inch of room in that capacious place. His Excellency the Governor presided; among the Vice Presidents were eminent gentlemen of various political parties; and the proceedings, says the Advertiser, were free from any partizan or sectional taint. The resolutions were moved by Judge Russell, and speeches in their support were made by John C. Park, John A. Andrew, E. C. Baker, Charles A. Phelps, A. O. Brewster, George S. Hillard, Samuel H. Walley, and Peleg W. Chandler. Of these nine gentlemen, the three first-named are republicans, the three next Americans, and the last three straight whigs. The Governor likewise made a brief speech on taking the Chair. The resolutions announce the sympathy and support for Mr. Sumner; recognize the manly behavior of such southern statesmen as Crittenden in disapproving the assault; and call upon the House to expel Brooks.

John C. Park said.

If justice cannot be had, and if the freedom of speech in the Senate is not to be vindicated then our ancestors fled from tyranny in the old world, and braved the perils of the wilderness, to no purpose. But I believe it will be established all the more and the sooner for this assault. It is a token of victory. The progress of right must always be baptized in blood. So it was in the days of the Revolution. So it is now with the liberty of Kansas. (Applause.)

Dr. C. A. Phelps, after alluding to the Kansas question, said that Mr. Sumner had only expressed the voice of a majority of the people of Massachusetts.

Massachusetts on this great question claims a free and equal voice in Councils of the Union, and the full protection of the Constitution—she claims no more, and Heaven willing, she will take no less. On this issue she is entirely without party or division. * * * * When we see the standard of Freedom of Speech assailed in this great conflict, God forbid we should ask who holds it, but let us one and all rally round it.

Samuel H. Walley said:

I well know there are those, even among us, who palliate this outrage by the provocation. They say, forsooth, that the speech was unpalatable! What if it were so? It was nevertheless parliamentary. Remember, if Mr. Sumner was out of order, they had their remedy. They could have called him to order. If he had gone one step beyond the rights of Massachusetts or his own, they had their remedy according to law. The fact that they took none is a complete justification of Mr. Sumner, and strips the assailants of every shadow of excuse.

Osmyn A. Brewster said:

For his own part he had no half-way on this subject, but said with the patriotic Virginian, give me liberty or give me death.

A southern paper had just come to him which called Brooks chivalrous for defending Southern character by the act of a craven assassin. He would remind that sort of chivalry of the reply which Mr. Webster gave to its champion Hayne. Remember, said he, that in a controversy of this sort there are blows to take as well as to give. If they are for that game, let me tell them that two can play at it. I deprecate such a resort, but if they choose it, I am for war to the knife and the knife to the hilt. * * * * In no other way can we signify effectually what is true in regard to this premeditated and murderous assault on our Senator and out rights, that Massachusetts resents it. [A voice, Except the Administration.] Yes, except the Administration. And that reminds me to say that it is the most burning shame that the administration sees the rights of Kansas struck down by murderous robbers and ruffians and does not interfere to protect them.

☞ M'lle Louise, who performs the feat of walking up the elastic wire at Jim Myer's Circus, did not fall and break her ribs at Woonsocket, R. I., as has been represented. The Woonsocket Patriot says she successfully performed the "terrific ascension."

FIRE IN FEDERAL STREET, BOSTON.—Soon after midnight, Monday morning, a fire broke out in the steam saw and planing mill, corner of Federal (formerly Sea) and Furnace streets. The building was two stories in height, and contained a large amount of valuable machinery, and a great quantity of stock. The flames spread with great rapidity, and baffled the attempts of the firemen, until the whole was a mass of ruins. A block of 6 or 8 houses in rear of the mill, were damaged to some extent. These were occupied by a number of Irish families, who managed to save most of their effects.

ST. LOUIS, May 23.—Kansas Affair.—The correspondent of the Democrat, at Leavenworth, writes—

Since Messrs. Robinson, Reeder, Lane and others, are absent, the committee of public safety at Lawrence have determined to offer no resistance to the United States Marshal entering the city. Immediate measures were taken to hide all the arms and ammunition in the town as soon as this determination was made known, and crowds of people contemplated leaving.

It is said the free state men are gathering at Topeka, and will attack the invaders if they dare to execute their threats on Lawrence.

The settlers at Van Bonsa, recently from New Haven, will send 100 men to aid them, and Manhattan about the same number.

KANSAS.—A telegraphic despatch from a prominent merchant in St. Louis to Dr. Thomas H Webb of this city, dated at St. Louis on Saturday and received this morning, states that Lawrence was attacked on Wednesday, and the hotel, printing office, &c., destroyed, together with several lives.

From J. M. Leman, Esq., a Scientific Chemist.

After a careful and minute examination of the component parts of Dr. Wm. R. Hayden's Improved Vegetable Purgative Pills, I can pronounce them a most excellent combination of medicinal plants, which must exercise the most happy influence on the system, when laboring under the effects of disease. I find them to be composed entirely of vegetable matter, and perfectly free from any mineral or poisonous substance whatever.

"If you are Coming, Why don't you Come along?"

THAT is the "mot" now-a-days. Every locomotive on every Railroad shrieks it. It is daily rapped out on every Telegraphic Line in the country. The echoing blows of our Ship Carpenters hourly exemplify it. The smith at his anvil hammers it out. The clanking Press with breathless haste, sends the cry home to every family—"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"

It is uttered in an hundred tongues in a hundred lands. It has sounded like a slogan through the political world, and the "Old Fogies" are creeping along among the baggage wagons and the wounded. Thought, that moved at a funeral pace, now rushes on a tremendous charge; and all the old remedies for Liver Complaint have given way for

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—Six pates in the front, is the word to everybody and everything that wants to be listened to or looked at. If you have anything to do, do it; if you wish any person to see anything, show it; if you have anything to be cured, CURE IT WITH

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you have a Bottle of Holman's Bitters in your house, you need not suffer from

Biliousness, Weakness at the Stomach, Indigestion, Heartburn, Lowness of Spirits,

Nor any of the diseases incident to the season.

It used to take six men to make a pin; now one boy, a pull, a clip, and two strokes, and that's the way the pins are made. Once it took a Physician, lots of precious time, and quantities of nauseous drugs to cure some simple disease of the Blood.—Now, a quarter expended in

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS

Brings Life and Health, flowing spirits and rosy cheeks.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you are sick and weak, why don't you cure yourself? Here we offer you the article that will do it—there is no mistake about it. Every body knows about HOLMAN'S BITTERS; they have been tried and have "hed the mark straight."

They are a good medicine; they are better than anything else for all Spring Complaints; they are just the best Bitters that can be bought—and that's the best thing we can say about them. "If you are coming, why don't you come along," before they are all gone?

LOCAL.

CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.

The public services at the Temple on Sunday evening, on the occasion of the fourth anniversary of the Young Men's Christian Association, were interesting; and the crowded house evinced that the public feel an interest in the Association. The services commenced with singing by a good choir of about forty singers, under direction of Mr. Pearson. After which, the opening prayer was offered by Rev. Mr. Patterson, of the Universalist church; who also offered the concluding prayer and benediction.

Mr. J. E. Rider, a member of the Association, then read an interesting and somewhat extended yearly Report of the Association; interspersed with remarks on similar Associations elsewhere—which we shall probably publish in a day or two.

Rev. Mr. Holman, of the Methodist church, delivered the Lecture, which was written in his usual earnest and feeling manner, and listened to with attention. His subject was, as near as we can particularize it, "The young men of the Times"—and the discourse was well calculated to incite the young to be up and doing the right.

The exercises were closed by singing the Harvest Hymn, and Old Hundred.

PISCATAQUA FERRY COMPANY.—The annual meeting of the Stockholders of this Corporation was held on Thursday, 15th inst. at Dover Point Cottage. Thomas H. Cushing, Thomas Stackpole, George H. Pierce, Wm. F. Estes of Dover, and Ira Hazelton of this city, were chosen Directors. Thomas H. Cushing was subsequently chosen President, and Thomas Stackpole Clerk and Treasurer. The amount of stock is all taken up, and we understand that the Ferry will be put in operation as soon as a boat can be built, and other necessary arrangements completed.

☞ Charles L. Woodbury, Esq., and Major Winthrop Pickering start for the Cincinnati Convention to-day. They are both bachelors, and will probably go for Mr. Buchanan, who is also a bachelor, for President; from whom, if nominated and elected, they will naturally expect offices. *

NEWSPAPER STEALING.—Our subscribers and ourselves are very much annoyed by newspaper thieves, who repeatedly and constantly pilfer the Daily Chronicle from the doors of houses and stores,—particularly the latter, which are not open early. Perhaps those who thus wrong us and our patrons, are not aware that they are subject to a heavy fine every time they steal a newspaper,—but it is so. We will willingly pay $10 reward for evidence which will convict any one of the offence.

We are daily called upon to furnish copies of our morning paper, to persons whom we are sure our carriers have already served.—This is not just or reasonable—if we leave the papers as directed, at the doors of subscribers, they should be responsible for them. If they would have them safe from thieves, they should have a drop-box fitted for their safe keeping.

N. H. STATE FAIR.—A Manchester correspondent of the Boston Herald, May 24th, writes as follows, by which it would seem that the New Hampshire State Fair will be held in Manchester this fall:

Previous to Thursday morning, no movement had been made in this city to secure the State Fair at Manchester; but before the sun had fairly set, the sufficient amount of money was subscribed, and the Secretary of the Society was informed that Manchester would accept the proposals made by the board of Directors. As the Fair will be held at the first town that accepts the proposals, it must of course be at Manchester, on October 8, 9, 10.

A Dover correspondent of the Boston Times, gives some reasons why it is not to be held there, viz, that up to a certain time—

Six hundred dollars only had been raised from a class of persons who could ill-afford to pay the sums affixed against their names.—The most of our monied men stand aloof, and also the Cocheco Manufacturing Co. who would be obliged to shut down the gates for 24 hours, to enable the girls to have a holiday.

We had hoped the company, (who have the reputation of being more liberal than most corporations) would have seconded the effort; but alas, they turned the cold shoulder. Another fruitful source of opposition came from the drinking houses throughout the city, whose taps have been cut off by the present accursed Maine liquor law of this State. On occasions like these, a large amount of money can always be raised from saloons, but they wisely say, you have cut our throats and injured our traffic, and therefore we cannot afford to subscribe.

He states that afterwards the needful $1000 was raised—but the correspondent's reasons for the delay, show clearly that a certain law does have a good effect, in Dover, even on the testimony of some of its opponents.

AFFLICTION.—On the morning of the 7th ult., the youngest son of Mr. Robert Boyd, a highly respectable citizen of Taylor County, Virginia, was taken sick. On the night of the same day, another son was taken in the same way. The next day, a daughter was taken as the others, and the youngest died on that day. Two days afterwards, the other son and daughter were laid in one grave. On the day they were buried, two other children were taken ill, and, on the 13th, one died, making a loss of four children in one week.—But this was only a portion of the cup of bitterness. On the Saturday before the death of his last son, the fires which had been raging so extensively, lately, in Virginia, broke out about two miles from Mr. Boyd's residence, and in one hour, he was stripped of all he possessed, house, barn, wheat, hay, oats, and corn-cribs. The dying boy, was hastily removed to save him from the flames, and when brought back, there was not a bed to lay him on.

How afflicting, sometimes are the dispensations of Providence.

CONGRESS.

MONDAY, 26th.

SENATE.—In the Senate this morning, the Investigating Committee had power granted them to send persons for papers.

Mr. Weller petition from California for a wagon between San Francisco and the Atlantic States.

HOUSE.—Mr. Ball introduced a resolution of inquiry into the expenditures on the Capitol and Post office.

WASHINGTON, May 24.—The late Assault Case.—Mr. Brooks, this afternoon, accompanied by Mr. Keitt, appeared before Justice Hollingshead. The examination was about to commence, when Mr. Brooks said there was no necessity for it, as he acknowledged that he committed the assault and battery upon Mr. Sumner. The Justice required security in the sum of $1000 for his appearance in Court. James Maguire and Truxton Beale became his sureties.

The Committee of each House took this morning the preliminary steps for the investigation of the circumstances attending the assault on Mr. Sumner, whose condition today is not considered so favorable as it was yesterday. His physicians forbid him leaving his room.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—Mr. Sumner continues comfortable, though he is somewhat weak and feverish. The calls upon him have been innumerable. Every member of the diplomatic corps has tendered this attention.—Members of the Massachusetts delegation to Cincinnati Convention gave an entertainment at Willard's, on Saturday evening, at which were present Messrs. Brooks and Keitt.

THE YEAS AND NAYS, in the House of Representatives, on the 23d, were taken on the question of raising a committee to examine into the ruffian assault of Brooks on Senator Sumner. They 93 years to 68 nays, as follows:

Yeas—Messrs. Albright, Allison, Barbour, Ball, Bennett of NY, Benson, Billinghurst, Bingham, Bishop, Bliss, Bradshaw, Brenton, Brown, Buffington, Burlingame, Campbell of Penn, Campbell of O, Chaffee, Clawson, Colfax, Comins, Corrode, Cragin, Cumback, Davis of Mass, Day, Dick, Dickson, Dodd, Durfee, Edie, Edwards, Emrie, Flagler, Fuller of Me, Galloway, Gilbert, Granger, Grow, Harlan, Haven, Hoffman, Halloway, Hughston, Kelsey, Knapp, Knight, Knowlton, Kemsel, H. Marshal of Ky, Meacham, Miller of NY, Morgan, Morrill, Murray, Nichols, Oliver of NY, Parker, Pelton, Pennington, Perry, Petit, Pike, Pringle, Purviance, Ritchie, Roberts, Sabine, Sapp, Scott, Simmons, Spinner, Stanton, Stranahan, Tappan, Thorington, Todd, Thurston, Trafton, Tyson, Valk, Waldron, Wade, Wakeman, Walbridge, Washburn of Wis, Washburn of Me, Watson, Welch, Williams, Wells, Woodbury, Woodruff, Woodworth—93.

Nays—Messrs. Aiken, Allen, Barksdale, Bell, Bocock, Bowie, Boyce, Branch, Burnet, Campbell of Ky, Carlisle, Caruthers, Caskie, Clingman, Cobb of Ga, Cobb of Ala, Craige, Cox, Crawford, Cullen, Davidson, Dowdell, Edmundson, Eliott, Eustis, Florence, Foster, Goode, Greenwood, Harris of Ala, Herbert, Jones of Tenn, Keitt, Kelley, Kennett, Letcher, Lindley, Lumpkin, A. K. Marshall of Ky, Marshall of Ill, Maxwell, M'Queen, Millson, Miller, Orr, Paine, Phelps, Porter, Ricaud, Richardson, Rivers, Ruffin, Sandidge, Smith of Tenn, Smith of Va, Smith of Ala, Sneed, Stephens, Stewart, Swope, Taylor, Trippe, Underwood, Walker, Warner, Watkins, Winslow, Wright—68.

The only members from free States who voted against the investigation, were Messrs. Allen and Marshall of Ill., Florence of Penn., Kelley of N. Y., and Herbert of California.

It the reader will please to look sharp, he will see among the nays, Messrs. Cobb and Orr, who came here to teach us the duties of patriots last winter—and with them Herbert, who shot down the Irish waiter—all voting together to stifle inquiry into this new attempt at murder made to crush out free speecch.

The question is not now whether there shall be any more slaves, but whether there are any freemen? And that question, having been raised into a whirlwind by recent events in Kansas and Washington, will be the exciting question of the nation through the summer, and till the Presidential vote is passed.

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER OF LOTTERIES.
BALTIMORE, April 18, 1856.

THE undersigned, Commissioner of Lotteries of the State of Maryland, being in receipt daily of letters from various portions of the country, making inquiry as to Lottery Schemes, with which the country is flooded, and which purport to be "decided by the drawings of the Maryland Consolidated Lotteries," takes this method to answer all such letters of inquiry, and inform the public that all Lotteries purporting to be decided by the Maryland Lotteries are great frauds; that certain parties who style themselves Morris & Co., and pretend to be Managers or Sole Agents for the Grand Charter Lotteries at Cleaveland, Ohio, are imposters, and said lottery a fraud, having neither legal nor presumptive existence; and that another fictitious firm, styled Murry & Co., Cleveland, Ohio, are also imposters, and all lotteries which they profess to be managers or agents for, are also frauds.

RICHARD FRANCE, of this city, is the Contractor for drawing the Maryland Lotteries. The business is conducted under the firm of R. FRANCE & Co., as Managers, and they have no sole agents in the United States. There are, however, some forty licensed vendors for the State of Maryland, who derive licenses under him, through this office, to sell tickets in the Maryland Lotteries.

FARM LANDS FOR SALE.
The Illinois Central Railroad Company
IS NOW PREPARED TO SELL
OF
FARMING LANDS,
In Tracts of 40 acres and upwards, on long credits and at low rates of interest.

THESE lands were granted by the Government to aid in the construction of this Railroad, and include some of the richest and most fertile Prairies in the State, interspersed here and there with magnificent groves of oak and other timber. The Road extends from Chicago, on the northeast, to Cairo at the south, and from thence to Galena and Dunleith, in the northwest extremity of the State, and as all the lands lie within fifteen miles on each side of this Road, ready and cheap means are afforded by it for transporting the products of the lands to any of those points and from thence to Eastern and Southern markets. Moreover, the rapid growth of flourishing towns and villages along the line, and the great increase in population by immigration, etc. afford a substantial and growing home demand for farm produce.

The soil is a dark, rich mould, from one to five feet in depth, is gently rolling and peculiarly fitted for grazing cattle and sheep, or the cultivation of wheat, Indian corn, etc.

Economy in cultivating and great productiveness are the well known characteristics of Illinois lands. Trees are not required to be cut down, stumps grubbed, or stone picked off, as is generally the case in cultivating new land in the older States. The first crop of Indian corn, planted on the newly broken sod, usually repays the cost of plowing and fencing.

Wheat sown on the newly-turned sod is sure to yield very large profits. A man with a plow and two yoke of oxen will break one and a half to two acres per day. Contracts can be made for breaking, ready for corn or wheat, at from $2 to 2.50 per acre. By judicious management, the land may be plowed and fenced the first, and under a high state of cultivation the second year.

Corn, grain, cattle, wool, etc. will be forwarded at reasonable rates to Chicago, for the Eastern market, and to Cairo for the Southern. The larger yield on the cheap lands of Illinois over the high priced lands in the Eastern and Middle States, is known to be much more than sufficient to pay the difference of transportation to the Eastern market.

Bituminous coal is mined at several points along the Road, and is a cheap and desirable fuel. It can be delivered at several points along the Road at $1.50 to $4 per ton; Wood can be had at the same rates per cord.

Those who think of settling in Iowa or Minnesota, should bear in mind, that lands there of any value, along the water courses and for many miles inland, have been disposed of;—that for those located in the interior, there are no conveniences for transporting the produce to market, railroads not having been introduced there. That to send the produce of these lands, one or two hundred miles by wagon to market, would cost much more than the expense of cultivating them; and hence Government lands thus situated, at $1.25 per acre are not so good investments as the lands of this company, at the price fixed.

The same remark holds good in relation to the lands in Kansas and Nebraska, for although vacant lands may be found nearer the water courses the distance to market is far greater, and every hundred miles the produce of those lands arrived either in wagons or interrupted water communications, increases the expense of transportation, which must be borne by the settlers, in the reduced price of their products; and to the extent precisely are the incomes from their farms, and of course on their investments, annually and every year reduced.

The great fertility of the lands now offered for sale, with the company, and their consequent yield over those of the Middle and Eastern States, is much more than sufficient to pay the difference in the cost of transportation, especially in view of the facilities furnished by this Road, and others which it connects with, and moreover, the operations of which are not interrupted by the low water of summer, or the frosts of winter.

PRICES AND TERMS OF PAYMENT.

The Price will vary from $5 to $25, according to the quality, location, &c. Contracts for lands may be made during the year 1856, stipulating the purchase money to be paid in five annual installments; the first to become due in two years from the date of contract, and the others annually thereafter. Interest upon the payment will become due at the end of the sixth year from the date of the contract.

Interest will be charged at only 3 per ct. per ann.

As a security to the performance of the contract the first two years' interest must be paid in advance, and it must be understood that at least one tenth of the land purchased shall yearly be broken under cultivation. Twenty per cent. from the credit price will be deducted for cash. The Company's permanent bonds will be received as cash.

READY FRAMED FARM BUILDINGS,

Which can be set up in a few days, can be obtained from Responsible Persons.

They will be 12 ft. by 20 ft. divided into one living and three bed rooms, and will cost complete set up on ground chosen anywhere along the road $150 in cash, exclusive of transportation. Larger buildings may be contracted for at proportionate rates The Company will forward all the materials for such buildings over the Road promptly.

Special arrangements with dealers can be made to supply those purchasing the Company's lands with fencing materials, agricultural tools, and an outfit of provisions in any quantity, at the lowest wholesale prices.

It is believed that the price, long credit, and low rate of interest, charged for these lands will enable a man with a few hundred dollars in cash, and ordinary industry, to make himself independent before all the purchase money becomes due. In the mean time, the rapid settlement of the country will probably have increased their value four or five fold. When required an experienced person will accompany applicants, to give information, and aid in selecting lands.

Circulars containing numerous instances of successful farming, signed by respectable and well known farmers living in the neighborhood of the Railroad lands, throughout the State—also the cost of fencing, price of cattle, expense of harvesting, threshing, &c. by contract—or any other information—will be cheerfully given, on application, either personally or by letter, in English, French or German, addressed to

WEDNESDAY, MAY 28, 1856.

KANSAS AND WASHINGTON.

The exciting news from these two seats of war would fill a daily paper bigger than ours, to the exclusion of everything else. But we can only give a selection of items, showing that the slave power is exerting itself to the utmost to crush out the last vestige of freedom.

First, from Kansas. A St. Louis dispatch of the 26th May says:

The Lexington (Mo.) Express publishes an extra, which was received here to-day, confirming the report of the destruction of Lawrence on Wednesday last. The account states that after the Marshal had arrested all the persons he had writs for, he turned the posse over to Sheriff Jones, whose attempts to make arrests were resisted by the people, who fired on his men. Sheriff Jones then cannonaded and set fire to the hotel and the office of the Herald of Freedom, destroying both.—When the messenger left the artillery was still firing and the fire spreading to other portions of the town, but up to the time of his departure but few lives had been lost. This is reported as the testimony of Hutchinson and Ratcliffe, two Free State men. [The Express is a pro-slavery paper.

The Tribune's informants left at 8 o'clock in the evening, and when fifteen miles from Lawrence, saw a great light, and volumes of smoke in the direction of that city. They have no doubt that the town is destroyed.

Another messenger who left Leavenworth just before the departure of the boat, says several men have been killed by the Jones party. It is feared that Gen. Pomeroy has been hung by the mob.

Gov. Robinson is at Lecompton in the hands of the authorities. Reeder is supposed to be in a place of safety, and is daily expect-here via Nebraska and Iowa.

The mob have threatened to hang Robinson, Brown, and Diesler.

The Free State men are gathering at Topeka, and will make a stand at that point.

Atchison is somewhere in the Territory.

The United States troops are anxious to protect the settlers, but are not allowed to leave their quarters.

Next, a Washington dispatch, also of the 26th gives these items:

The House Committee of Investigation waited on Mr. Sumner to-day, and took his testimony with regard to the assault. He was also cross examined. He was in bed during the examination, and has set up but little since the assault. He is still very weak, and the physicians counsel him not to attempt to go out of the house during the week.

His testimony goes to show that as he was writing, an unknown man, [Brooks,] spoke to him, as we have elsewhere seen, and began to beat him on the head while speaking. The first blow destroyed his sight—and subsequent blows made him unconscious.

On the cross-examination of Mr. Sumner, he stated that he was entirely without arms of any kind, and he had no notice or warning of any kind, direct or indirect, of this assault.—In answer to a cross question, Mr. Sumner replied that what he had said of Mr. Butler was strictly responsive to Mr. Butler's speeches, and according to the usages of parliamentary debate.

A rumor is widely circulated that Mr. Brooks has challenged Gen. James Watson Webb, but the facts are as follows:—Gen. Quitman to-day was the bearer of a note from Mr. Brooks to Gen. Webb, asking whether he was the author of the article in the Courier and Enquirer on Saturday, relative to the assault on Mr. Sumner; to which Gen. Webb replied that he had abstained from writing on that subject till Saturday, and that the Courier of Tuesday would contain a long letter under his signature, from which Mr. Brooks might learn fully his opinions relative to the affair.

The Washington correspondent of the Evening Post wrote yesterday as follows with regard to the assault on Sumner:

In the House Committee, the minority urged the admission of evidence from Brooks and Keitt, made upon their honor, but the opinion of the majority prevailed, and those gentlemen will be subjected to a strict examination and cross-examination, under oath. It is expected to prove a deliberate premeditation on the part of Mr. Brooks, and that Edmundson of Virginia, and Keitt of South Carolina, as well as others, were acquainted, at least two days beforehand, with the designs of their friend. I understand that it is admitted by one of them that Brooks announced in their presence two nights in advance of its accomplishment, his purpose to take the redress of Senator Butler's alleged grievances into his own hands. Mr. Brooks, I am also informed, admitted that Mr. Sumner promptly rose in self-defence, and displayed not the slightest symptom of quailing. The public sentiment of the city is almost united in condemnation of the assault, and especially of the manner in which it was perpetrated.

Mr. Sumner's health is improving, though still unable to leave his room. Yesterday suppuration commenced in the wounds, and he suffered much from fever. To-day he is better, but with symptoms of returning fever. His brother, George Sumner, is with him, but his friends are denied access to him.

One result of this occurrence is to bring canes and revolvers into more general use.—Many of the Northern Representatives go provided with pistols, and Congress is now filled with armed men.

And thirdly, a dispatch from South Carolina, as follows:

COLUMBIA, S. C., May 26.—Contributions are being made in Charleston and Columbia, for the purpose of getting up a testimonial for presentation to Preston S. Brooks, whose course is very generally approved in this vicinity.

☞ Frank Leslie's New York Journal of Literature, for June, 1856, is received.—A new volume begins in July.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—[Times Correspondence.]—Rev. Dr. Pine preached a stirring sermon to-day, on the downward tendencies of civilization at Washington. He referred to the three cases of ruffianism, and the fact that the perpetrators are now making our laws, as a fearful evidence of depravity, and urged the duty of the Church to exert its influence for reform, by its members refusing to associate with those who outrage society by lawless violence. He said "It is a shame to countenance such men, and, if you are not ashamed of it, shame, shame upon you." It is publicly stated that Dr. Pine declined an invitation to dine, yesterday, at the house of a distinguished South Carolinian, because he was informed that Brooks was to be one of the party.

Dr. Sunderland also delivered an eloquent sermon in the same strain, to which the President listened.

[Courier and Enquirer's Correspondence.]—The atrocious outrage upon the Senate, and upon public decency, committed by Mr. Brooks of South Carolina, on Thursday last, continues to be a subject of almost universal conversation, and of deep and dark reflection. The assault upon Senator Sumner was preceded, accompanied, and followed, by many circumstances not yet publicly known, which greatly adds to its infamy. I have no doubt, from what I saw, and from what other eye-witnesses report, that the assault was planned two days before it took place.

In fact, the assault of two men upon one, and that one in a defenseless position, gives evidence that there is good reason for believing that at least one Senator was privy to the prior arrangements. The principal party to this act of violence has since made demonstrations of violence upon a colleague of Mr. Sumner for condemning in private conversation the audacious crime. Last evening, I am told, as Mr. Chaffee, of Massachusetts, was expressing his opinion on the affair, among a group of his friends at Willard's Hotel, Brooks broke in upon the circle with the manifest intention of attacking him. A repetition of the scene in the Senate was only prevented by the interference of friends, and the retirement of Mr. Chaffee.

Immediately after the assault, while Sumner lay bleeding and senseless on the floor, I have it upon the testimony of a South Carolinian, who appeared to have been a witness of the scene, that Mr. Crittenden said: "This is a shameful outrage!" to which Senator Toombs replied, "No, it is not!" Mr. Crittenden rejoined, "The Senate is no place for it." Senator Toombs answered, "The Senate is the place for it."

☞ The following Card speaks for itself. We have read many things, many good things from Mr. Cobb's pen—and have no doubt whatever, that when the reading public properly understand the case, they will do justice in the premises. A good writer should have the credit of his good pieces—aye, and the pay too,—as we trust he will in his new engagement.

A CARD FROM SYLVANUS COBB, Jr.

Reputation is as dear to man or woman as life itself. He who consumes the "midnight oil" and racks his brains, in the endeavor to entertain the public, and at the same time, to earn his bread, with his pen, depends more perhaps upon his reputation than any other member of the community. Reputation is the author's CAPITAL—his "STOCK IN TRADE"—his ALL; and he who does ought to lessen it is as guilty of a great wrong as if he were to obtain possession in some surreptitious way of a part of his income—the author's reputation being his only method of obtaining a livelihood.

An attempt has recently been made to deprive the undersigned of a portion of his reputation. Had this attempt been the offspring of a sudden passion—the mere child of a temporary excitement, such as

"Our nature's frailty might excuse,"

I would have remained silent, and spared the public the relation of my grievances; but when a scheme is deliberately and calmly concocted to wound my feelings, injure my reputation as a writer, by building up another name at the expense of my pen, it is too much for any one to bear, without an attempt, at least, to place the matter right before the public.

It is well known that for some considerable time past I have been the principal novellette and story writer employed on the Flag of our Union and Ballou's Pictorial, two Boston publications. Some six weeks or two months ago, Mr. BONNER, the proprietor of the New York Ledger, made me a very liberal offer to write exclusively for his paper. I was pleased with the offer, and I accepted it. This has evidently exasperated Mr. Ballou, the proprietor of the Flag and Pictorial, as the last novellette that I gave him—and the last one that he will ever get from me, entitled THE TEXAN CRUISER, has been published in one of his papers as written by T. Burlingame Ross, U. S. N. Now I ask the public, is this fair? Is it honorable? Mr. Ballou's object in putting the name T. Burlingame Ross, U. S. N. to my Story is undoubtedly to build up a reputation for that name on the merits of this Story. This is rendered evident by the fact that he has published one or two short stories under that signature which I did not write.—Again, I ask the public, is it right? Is it honorable—is it fair, either to the readers of those papers or myself? Not satisfied with having published my Stories for the past year and a half under the various noms de plume of Austin C. Burdick, Charles Castleton, Amos Winslow, Jr., Arthur Remington, Walter Melville, and Horace B. Stanford—names which have often appeared in his papers, and every line under which I have written, besides writing a vast amount of matter which he has published under my own name, he now takes another name to place the credit of his Story, which is much as to say to that portion of his readers who know that I have left him, "Here's a new contributor, who writes as well as Cobb;" and the reader, not knowing the deception, will of course, come to that conclusion. Whatever may be my reputation as an author, it is at least to me, for by it, and it alone, do I support my family. Mr. Ballou has advertised this Story of mine, The Texan Cruiser, not only in his own paper, but in many other papers, as "the best sea tale ever printed in newspaper form." Now, with regard to that statement, the story must stand on its own merits, as I am willing all matter should that emanates from my pen; yet it strikes me that, if it is such a very good story, Mr. Ballou ought certainly to have given me the credit of it; still, if it were competent for an author to judge of his own matter, I would certainly say that The Texan Cruiser, although a very good story, is far from being equal to the one I wrote immediately after it, entitled THE STORM SHERRY, the publication of which will be commenced in the NEW YORK LEDGER, for the week ending June 7th. Mr. Ballou has probably been led to the extraordinary course that he has pursued, because I withdrew my name from his publications, and entered into an arrangement with Mr. BONNER to write solely for the New York Ledger. [Hereafter all the Stories that I write will be found original only in the LEDGER.]—But surely Mr. Ballou has no just cause for offence in this. I write to support my family, and as Mr. Bonner was by far the most liberal publisher to me, I will write for him.

But I have already occupied too much space with this personal explanation; still I feel that I should have been doing injustice to myself, my family, and the public, had I remained silent under such strong provocation. SYLVANUS COBB, JR.

New York, May 24, 1856.

A sheep belonging to Samuel Gould of Colebrook, N. H., recently brought a lamb having two perfect, well-shaped heads and necks from the shoulder. It was dead.

A GOOD DEED.—As will be seen by telegraph, Mr. Brooks, of South Carolina, after the adjournment of the Senate on yesterday, administered to Senator Sumner, the notorious and foul-mouthed Abolitionist from Massachusetts, an elegant and effectual caning. We are rejoiced at this. The only regret we feel is, that Mr. Brooks did not employ a horse-whip or a cowhide upon his slanderous back, instead of a cane. We trust the ball may be kept in motion- Seward and others should catch it next.—Richmond (Va.) Whig 23rd.

Mr. Jefferson said, errors of opinion may be freely tolerated, while reason is free to combat it.

Jefferson himself, were he alive to-day, and repeating some of his old Abolitionist sayings, would be likely to "catch it next."

But the great question now, is not, shall black men be slaves?—but shall any white men be free?

SPAIN.—On the first of May, the Cortes voted by an immense majority a law to gag the press. It requires the signature of the writer to all articles, and also an amount of caution money.

Such is the freedom of the press, as allowed in Catholic countries, and such would be the laws imposed on the press in this country if they had the power.

A LARGE OFFER.—We are informed that while the bark Afton, Captain Archer, of this port, was cruising on the African coast, he was offered the enormous sum of $125,000 for his vessel. The Afton is a fine clipper bark of 250 tons, and would doubtless have proved of value for the purpose for which her possession was desired, that of a slve trader.—New Bedford Mercury.

HAYDEN'S IMPROVED VEGETABLE PURGATIVE PILLS.

From J. M. Leman, Esq., a Scientific Chemist.

After a careful and minute examination of the component parts of Dr. Wm. R. Hayden's Improved Vegetable Purgative Pills, I can pronounce them a most excellent combination of medicinal plants, which must exercise the most happy influence on the system, when laboring under the effects of disease. I find them to be composed entirely of vegetable matter, and perfectly free from any mineral or poisonous substance whatever.

"If you are Coming, Why don't you Come along?"

THAT is the "mot" now-a-days. Every locomotive on every Railroad shrieks it. It is daily rapped out on every Telegraphic Line in the country. The echoing blows of our Ship Carpenters hourly exemplify it. The smith at his anvil hammers it out. The clanking Press with breathless haste, sends the cry home to every family—"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"

It is uttered in an hundred tongues in a hundred lands. It has sounded like a slogan through the political world, and the "Old Fogies" are creeping along among the baggage wagons and the wounded. Thought, that moved at a funeral pace, now rushes on a tremendous charge; and all the old remedies for Liver Complaint have given way for

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—Six paces to the front, is the word to everybody and everything that wants to be listened to or looked at. If you have anything to do, do it; if you wish any person to see anything, show it; if you have anything to be cured, CURE IT WITH

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you have a Bottle of Holman's Bitters in your house, you need not suffer from

Biliousness, Weakness at the Stomach, Indigestion, Heartburn, Lowness of Spirits,

Nor any of the diseases incident to the season.

It used to take six men to make a pin; now one boy, a pull, a clip, and two strokes, and that's the way the pins are made. Once it took a Physician, lots of precious time, and quantities of nauseous drugs to cure some simple disease of the Blood.—Now, a quarter expended in

HOLMAN'S SPRING BITTERS

Brings Life and Health, flowing spirits and rosy cheeks.

"If you are coming, why don't you come along?"—If you are sick and weak, why don't you cure yourself? Here we offer you the article that will do it—there is no mistake about it. Every body knows about HOLMAN'S BITTERS; they have been tried and have "toed the mark straight."

They are a good medicine; they are better than anything else for all Spring Complaints; they are just the best Bitters that can be bought—and that's the best thing we can say about them. "If you are coming, why don't you come along," before they are all gone?

PROMPT PAYMENT.—A boy who was collecting bills for us, last week, carried one bill to a gentleman of the same family name as that on the bill, but who had his bill a few days previous. Without examining the bill, the gentleman paid it on presentation; but it occurred to him afterwards, as singular that he should pay two bills in so short a time—and examination shew the mistake of the boy. In naming the matter to us, the gentleman said that having been bothered very much in his own business, by the repeated and inexcusable neglect and refusal of customers, to pay small bills when called upon—he had determined that he would not be the cause of similar trouble to other people, and so paid the bill "at sight." We commend his example to the "slow" ones; though in this, we are by no means speaking particularly for ourselves—as no newspaper or other business has a more prompt list of patrons than the Chronicle.

☞ Some pitiable scoundrel pillaged a gentleman's garden, on State street, last week—pulling up some flowers by the roots, and carrying them away, and breaking off others in the attempt.

Another gentleman informs us that flower-roots which he had planted in his lot in the South burying-ground, last week, were pulled up and carried off in a day or two, by somebody or thing—who, strangely enough, seems to combine some taste for the beautiful, with an utter disregard for others' rights, or the sacredness of the ornaments which affection loves to place near departed friends. — Such fellows should be ferreted out.

LAUNCHED—On Tuesday morning, from the ship yard of Capt. Samuel Badger, a fine ship of about 1100 tons, owned by the builder, and by Capt. S. Billings, who is to command her. She has not yet received a name.

For the Chronicle and Phenix.

LEND A HELPING HAND.

Kind reader! you see, undoubtedly, almost every day of your life, the fearful evils of intemperance portrayed before you in vivid colors, on every side. You see the young, the innocent, and the gay, as well as the middle-aged and the old, gradually drawn within the circle of that fatal destroyer, and consigned to an untimely grave. And when you witness these scenes, constantly transpiring, you are prone to heap anathemas upon the temperance party for not staying the evils of intemperance, and shielding society from their baneful influence. But after a candid consideration of the subject, you will plainly see that your condemnations were very unjust, for no party, alone, can roll back the tide of intemperance that is now spreading over our land.

As the great ocean is made up of single drops of water, and large mountains of minute particles of matter, so, if there is ever a great temperance reformation in this country, it will be accomplished by the united efforts of the people. Then kind reader, in the name of thousands upon thousands who are suffering under the galling yoke of intemperance, I solicit your heart-felt sympathy and aid; lend a helping hand, labor incessantly for the good of those who are fast being carried on towards the drunkard's abyss of misery and woe, resolve that from this day forth you will be a firm advocate of the principles of temperance, and when your dying hour shall come, and you are soon to pass "to that bourne from whence no traveller returns," may it be your happy lot to exclaim with sincerity and truth, "I have saved many from filling dishonored, drunkard's graves."

FRANCIS P. BLAIR'S SLAVES. — Mr. B's slaveholding is of a sort that would soon transform Virginia into a Free State and save her from her present decay, if the leading planters of that State would follow his example. The National Era says of Mr. Blair's slaves:

There is not a slave on his farm, who has not been purchased at his own solicitation, or at the request of benevolent persons, to save him from being sent to the southern market, or to prevent a family from being broken up. The money is advanced—the man or woman has the privilege of working it out—and, to prevent all risks, the freedom of every one of them is secured, by will, in any contingency; and not only freedom, but a provision for a homestead.

NEW YORK, May 26.—Violent Hail Storm.—The thermometer, at noon on Saturday, in this city, stood at 88 degrees in the shade; last evening, at 10 o'clock, it had fallen to 49.

A violent hail storm, accompanied by thunder and lightning, visited Fulton county on Saturday noon, causing great havoc to buildings, growing crops, and fruit trees. Many persons were knocked down, and two were reported killed. The cattle also suffered severely.

Private letters received in Philadelphia, from London, speak of Jenny Goldschmid's success there, as fully equal to her former triumphs. Her charities have been, as usual, most noble; matrimony has chastened her caprices; English air and diet have re-established her health, and her boy is the image of his mother.

ONE WEEK LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE BALTIC.

NEW YORK, May 27.—The steamship Baltic, arrived this morning. She sailed from Liverpool on the afternoon of Wednesday, 14th inst.

Breadstuffs a shade lower. Cotton dull.—Coals higher.

It is stated from Constantinople that a defensive alliance had been conduluded at Teheran, between Persia and the United States. A commercial treaty must be meant.

It is reported from Hamburg that an American squadron is expected soon to enter the Baltic.

Russia is reported to have demanded explanations respecting the joint treaty secretly concluded between France, England and Austria, guaranteeing the independence of Turkey. As the rumor has not affected the stock exchange, it cannot be considered dangerous.

Russia is about to commence another campaign against the Circassians.

The affairs of Italy continue to excite much attention.

Count Cavour has presented two important notes to the Sardinian Chambers.

The news of Gen. Walker's battle at Rivas attracted but little attention in England.

The London Mail does not seem to contain much of interest, except an editorial of the London Times, descanting on the forbearance displayed by England in the enlistment dispute, and the unreasonableness of Mr. Marcy in demanding the recall of Mr. Crampton.

The French government is stated to have its vigilance particularly awakened towards the movements of the Secret Societies, which are becoming dangerous.

Denmark.—On the 9th inst. Russia, Sweden and Oldenburg signed a Protocol at Copenhagen, agreeing to adopt the last proposition of Denmark, for the capitalization of the Sound dues, provided all the other States do the same. The Copenhagen correspondent of the Times is surprised that England declined to accede to the proposed capitalization.

CONGRESS.

MONDAY, 26th.

SENATE.—In the Senate this morning, the Investigating Committee had power granted them to send for persons and papers.

Mr. Weller presented a petition from 175,000 citizens of California, asking for a wagon road to connect California with the Atlantic States. The signatures were bound in two large volumes. Mr. Weller urged the importance of the measure. He also introduced a bill for the construction of a military road from the western boundary of Missouri to Carson Valley; and another for the construction of a military road from El Paso to Fort Yuma.

Mr. Pugh addressed the Senate on the bill for the admission of Kansas. He objected to the proposition of Mr. Seward to admit Kansas under her Free State Constitution, because of the small number of her population, not exceeding 24,000, and because the Topeka Constitution was ratified by only 719 voters. He pursued a course of argument similar to that of the supporters of Mr. Douglas's bill, and was very severe in his remarks on the Emigrant Aid Societies. He gave reasons why he could not obey the instructions of the Ohio Legislature, and replied to the arguments of Messrs. Seward and Sumner.

Mr. Seward introduced a bill to authorize that protection be given to citizens of the United States who may discover deposits of guano. Referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations. Adjourned.

HOUSE.—Mr. Bell moved for a suspension of rules to enable him to introduce a resolution calling for specific information connected with all the branches of work on the Capitol and Post Office extension. He said he wanted the country to know the manner in which the law had been disregarded, and the public money wasted. The rules were suspended and the resolution passed.

Humphrey Marshal, from the Judiciary Committee, reported a bill to authorize the patents issued on the final adjudication of California Land Claims prior to January, 1856.—Consideration postponed two weeks.

Adjourned.

BEAUTIFUL APPEAL.—The close of Senator Sumner's speech for which the ruffians sought to murder him, is an earnest and prophetic appeal to the freemen of the country.

The whole speech is one of great interest,—and will be read more widely than otherwise, from the fact that the author sealed it with his blood. The closing paragraph reads as follows:

The contest, which, beginning in Kansas, has reached us, will soon be transferred from Congress to a broader stage, where every citizen will be not only spectator, but actor; and to their judgment I confidently appeal. To the People, now on the eve of exercising the electoral franchise, in choosing a Chief Magistrate of the Republic, I appeal, to vindicate the electoral franchise in Kansas. Let the ballot-box of the Union, with multitudinous might, protect the ballot-box in that Territory. Let the voters everywhere, while rejoicing in their own rights, help to guard the equal rights of distant fellow citizens; that the shrines of popular institutions, now desecrated, may be sanctified anew; that the ballot-box, now plundered, may be restored; and the cry, "I am an American citizen," may not be sent forth in vain against outrage of every kind. In just regard for free labor in that Territory, which it is sought to blast by unwelcome association with slave labor; in Christian sympathy with the slave, whom it is proposed to task and sell there; in stern condemnation of the Crime which was consummated on that beautiful soil; in rescue of fellow citizens, now subjugated to a tyrannical Usurpation; in dutiful respect for the early Fathers, whose aspirations are now ignobly thwarted; in the name of the Constitution, which has been outraged—of the Laws trampled down—of Justice banished—of Humanity degraded—of Peace destroyed—of Freedom crushed to earth; and, in the name of the Heavenly Father, whose service is perfect Freedom, I make this last appeal.

It is estimated that the cost of the past two year's war in the East, to the three principal powers engaged therein, is eighteen hundred millions of dollars! This is more than twice the value of the estate, real and personal, of the City of New York.
